Chapter 1471

The more powerful the Northern Demon was, the more powerless Erudia was bound to be.

Instead of heading straight to Erudia, the Northern Demon headed to various regions in Bayview.

His plan was to merge all the resources the prisoners provided him in the Demon's Dungeon.

The Northern Demon was smart enough to realize the Avengers weren't reliable enough, hence he decided to do things himself.

The only way to have peace of mind was to control everything himself.

After the Northern Demon was released from prison, he disappeared into thin air.

For a period of time after that, a peaceful moment finally came to Erudia.

As the Demon's Dungeon and the Avengers kept the Northern Demon's release a secret, Erudia and the whole world were kept in the dark.

Meanwhile, Levi was still working hard to investigate the Avengers.

After the Four Great Families joined forces with him, things started moving quickly.

“We found out where he was when we kept an eye on Black Phoenix, but he was quick enough to shake us off. We couldn’t lay a hand on him. We managed to subdue everyone except for him,” West Sky Lord revealed.

“We have no clue who the leader of the Avengers is, so he should be the mastermind!”

Levi drew a sharp breath.

“We’ve prepared ourselves for their attack, but we have no idea how they will launch their attack. Something feels off to me.”

That very night, Levi couldn’t sleep.

He felt pressured, as though a pair of eyes were gazing at him in the dark.

In the temporary base of the Avengers in Oakland City, Kuro Dragon, Black Phoenix, and the rest of the higher-ups of the Avengers were gathered together.

“Is the Northern Demon still lying low?” asked Black Phoenix.

“He’s going to take action soon. For the past few days, he had been working on merging his resources. He wants us to take action first to divert Erudia’s attention so he can attack without them realizing it. By then, Erudia’s line of defense will crumble easily,” Kuro Dragon revealed with a smug grin.

“Ah?”

“The Northern Demon came up with that trick?”

“What happened?”

They immediately rose to their feet hastily.

“The enemy attacked several of our bases at the same time and caused a tremendous blow! Also, the Four National Gates were attacked. The Four Guardians were severely injured, so our first line of defense had crumbled!”

The messenger paused to take a deep breath before continuing, “Besides that, our men who had been exposed because of the plan were assaulted, too. At the same time, both Serpentine Lab and Tigris Lab had been destroyed. The enemy is advancing rapidly! Our men are at a loss now.”

After Levi and the rest got to know what was happening, there was a shocked silence.

“What? Didn’t we keep an eye on the Avengers? Why did they successfully launch sneak attacks on us?”

Levi realized something was wrong.

“I don’t think the Avengers are attacking us. Those attackers are mostly mercenaries and assassins from abroad. They are strong and undefeatable! Their leader was powerful enough to destroy three of our defense lines in one move!”

“I was right. The Avengers’ attack was just a cover to divert our attention so these people could launch a sneak attack! They had help from outsiders. Clearly, these outsiders meant business! This is the crazy plan they had in mind!” Levi exclaimed while rubbing his temples.

The Northern Demon was a foreign and ancient name to everyone.
Only the Four Great Families who had been in seclusion for a long time knew who that was.
The Northern Demon was one of the Five Dragons of Erudia.
The Five Dragons of Erudia were the top warriors around, and the Northern Demon was the strongest among them.
Back then, the other four of the Five Dragons of Erudia had to combine forces to subdue him.
Of course, they also had the help of various traps and a few hundred thousand troops.
In reality, the Northern Demon could defeat the four of them easily.
The Five Dragons of Erudia were invincible, but the Northern Demon was stronger than the other four combined.

None of them knew that the Crown King was still alive!

"I heard that even if the Crown King was alive, he wouldn't be a match for the Northern Demon."

"Still, he is our only hope. Is there anyone who has a possibility of defeating him?"

A long silence ensued.

In this era, there was practically no one who could crush the Northern Demon.

After hearing about the Northern Demon's release from prison, the Dragonites and elites in Erudia could only tremble in fear.

The name itself gave them the chills.

The Wolf squad, Phoenix squad, and Dragon squad of the Dragonites gathered for a meeting.

They planned to form a Suicide Squad to go to war with the Northern Demon.

“Who is willing to join the squad?” The air went deathly quiet after that question was tossed. Clearly, no was wanted to risk their lives for they weren’t confident of defeating the Northern Demon. ## Chapter 1476

The Northern Demon’s arrival shook the earth, turning it into rubble. Terror grew in everyone’s hearts. He was a killing machine, and they were his prey, including the experienced Gods of War like Winsor. Before the Ether, a black figure stepped forward slowly with a crowd trailing behind him. It was the Northern Demon. Boom! Winsor nearly lost it when he saw that lone figure. He’s in the North! Why isn’t he in Oakland City? No one got it right!

Shit, we're doomed. The Northern Demon isn't going to launch his attack on Oakland City.

As a member of the great family, Winsor knew how horrifyingly powerful the Northern Demon was.

Yet, his subordinates were ignorant and fearless.

"Boss, we'll do our best to defend the Ether! After we win, the world will know of us!"

"Yes! Everyone will be in awe of us as we defended the Ether from the Northern Demon!"

“Sir, what an amazing feat!” his subordinates yelled raucously.

They were excited, for the Northern Demon had conquered part of Erudia easily.

After appearing in the North, the Northern Demon wiped out everywhere he went, including the defense lines and the training bases.

The whole of North was terrified and kept retreating.

“This is the first time I’ve ever seen Erudia retreating!”

“The Northern Demon is amazing! He is so powerful that the North kept retreating!”

“He’s unstoppable. How will Erudia defeat him?”

“Luckily, the Northern Demon is Erudia’s enemy. If he is on their side, it will be a nightmare for us!”

After the Northern Demon’s continuous victory, the foreign forces went wild.

It was the first time they had seen someone who rendered Erudia helpless.

They had a plan to crush the Northern Demon!

It was great news for the Dragonites and Erudia.

They were in their darkest period, but help came their way unexpectedly.

Could it be that the Five Dragons of Erudia are having a comeback?

“Are the Eastern Hellhound and the rest having a comeback?”

Everyone was clearly excited.

“No. They aren’t fit enough to go to battle.”

“Then?”

“Their disciples can help us out!”

“Are their disciples capable?”

It took them a few decades to train the disciples! For the past few decades, they had been studying the Northern Demon’s moves and ability. It took them a lot of effort to devise

Still, he had no choice but to follow orders, as he was in the military.

“Yes, sir!” Levi was exasperated.

“Crown King, you might dislike hearing this, but the four disciples of the Eastern Hellhound and the other three have offered help. They are stronger than you! As they had mastered the Fusion Attack meant to defeat the Northern Demon, we decided to send them to battle. As for you, you only have to focus on taking out the Avengers.”

Levi nodded. “Yes, got it. I’m yours to command. If you need me to take the Northern Demon down, I’ll head there straight away.”

He felt indignant, but he had to tamp down his feelings for the sake of Erudia.

As long as it was for the best, Levi could do anything.

Perhaps the disciples of the Five Dragons of Erudia are better than me.

Besides the Calamity, which was kept a secret, the other people alongside Levi had been transferred elsewhere, including the Iron Brigade, which had been transferred to the North.

“If Heracles came out of seclusion earlier, Asura and the God of War won’t be his match.”

The other three chimed in mockingly.

Heracles voiced his disappointment. “I’d like to meet him. My master speaks highly of him. According to my master, if Levi had been trained since young, he’ll be far more accomplished today.”

“Forget about him. You’re our hope to crush the Northern Demon!” The others proceeded to shower him with flattery.

“Yes, assemble the Suicide Squad as soon as possible so we can battle against the Northern Demon!”

The four of them were impatient.

Meanwhile, an uproar had erupted all over Erudia over the formation of the Suicide Squad.

The hidden but powerful forces were stumped.

It was clear what the name Suicide Squad meant.

The mission was a dangerous one, so there was practically no one who volunteered to join the Suicide Squad.
