Chapter 1511

On top of that, they were convinced that it was impossible for Northern Demon to stay alive. They had witnessed him perish together with the mysterious fighter! If he really reappeared, it should be somewhere around the North of the Ether training base. It did not make sense for him to appear out of a sudden in Oakland City.

“In my opinion, the man whom the third team bumped into could be the fighter of The Avengers or the henchmen of Northern Demon who were avenging him!” Western Monk commented analytically.

On the instant, almost everyone saw eye to eye with what he had deduced. Yeah! He has a point. It must be the truth!

“I have the same stance as well. Assign our men at once to investigate on that! We must find out who the fellow is! If it turns out to be anyone who is avenging Northern Demon, wipe them out!” the council members of the Dragonites instructed.

Without hesitation, the Dragonites sent their men out on a thorough search all over Oakland City.

The Four Basilisks volunteered. “Please notify us once your men have obtained any clues. We will sort things out by all means. As long as we can’t finish him off, we can never be at ease!”

“All of you are really courageous as expected!” Everyone looked at them with admiration.

Bang! The news was indeed a bolt out of the blue for the Four Basilisks! So, it's sure as hell that Northern Demon has reappeared! Needless to doubt again, as it's the official news from the Dragonites. He's still alive, and he's even in Oakland City at the moment!

To make matters worse, he was provoking to annihilate Erudia by setting Oakland City as his first target!

"Are you sure the man is Northern Demon, not his henchman?" the Five Dragons of Erudia asked doubtfully.

"The Dragonites have confirmed that it's the Northern Demon!" Everyone turned to look at the Four Basilisks in bewilderment. The Five Dragons of Erudia fixed their gazes on them as well.

Another wave of utter insecurity swept over the Four Basilisks. Western Monk, who kept his head lowered all the time, was even shuddering.

The four of them felt a prickle of anxiety as it never occurred to them that Northern Demon would still be alive! It's impossible! We saw with our own eyes that he perished together with the mysterious fighter! How can he be still alive?

"What's the matter? Tell us honestly. Why is Northern Demon still alive? Have you been lying to us all this while?" the Dragonites glared at the Four Basilisks suspiciously.

"If there's any hidden truth, don't keep mum from us!" Eastern Hellhound and the other three started to sense something awry.

Chapter 1513

Everyone knew what they were curious about.

That meant that the Four Basilisks had to fight with all their might.

They could not be deserters nor could they use any dirty tricks.

They had to show everyone their true powers.

That was deadly for the Four Basilisks.

They would sob if they could.

At that very moment, the entire Erudia was focusing on the scene when the Northern Demon appeared.

“Haha! So what if the Northern Demon is alive? The Four Basilisks will just kill him again! That’s right. Moreover, we’ll know how the four heroes kill the Northern Demon this time. We get to resolve our regret. This will be an unforgettable battle! The Four Basilisks has once again graced the world with their presence!”

The citizens who adored the Four Basilisks waited in anticipation.

Everyone wanted to witness how the Four Basilisks slay the Northern Demon.

“All hail the heroes!”

“All hail the heroes!”

Colorful flags were strung all across Oakland City.

Chapter 1514

The moment the four men saw the Northern Demon, they quickly hung their heads in fear of gazing into the Northern Demon's eyes.

In fact, their legs shook, and their teeth chattered.

When the Northern Demon noticed that, he laughed.

"Hahaha!"

It was a sound of mockery.

Everyone was taken aback by his reaction.

Did the Northern Demon go mad, or did he lose his mind out of fear?

Why is he laughing maniacally?

The crowd could not comprehend his actions.

"What are you laughing about, Northern Demon? You were once beaten by my disciples."

The Hellhound was annoyed by the Northern Demon's pompous demeanor.

The other three had the same reaction. "When did a loser gained the right to mock others?"

"I lost to your disciples? Hahaha! Ask them about it. Let me see if they have the guts to admit it or not."

By then, they were no longer certain about the situation.

The way the Four Basilisks were acting and the words from the Northern Demon meant that something was wrong.

In fact, they began thinking of a person—Levi.

What the he*I is going on?

The Northern Demon smirked and uttered, “Haven’t they defeated me once? Well, then. Why don’t they defeat me one more time?”

“Sure. We’ll make sure you won’t have a word of complaint upon your defeat!”

The Eastern Hellhound and the other three were confident of their disciples.

They wanted to witness the truth themselves.

Before witnessing with their own two eyes, they would not believe that their disciples were weak or were just deserters.

The Four Basilisks were about to burst into tears.

They dared not have another fight with the Northern Demon.

In fact, they did not have the courage to do that.

“But they won’t. They’re afraid of me. They don’t even have the courage to look at me in the eyes, not to mention kill me.”

The Northern Demon’s smile widened.

“Hurry up! What are you doing? Kill the Northern Demon and prove yourselves!” the Eastern Hellhound and the other three urged.

However, the Four Basilisks remained quiet and still.

More beads of cold sweat rolled down their faces.

They were too weak.

Before the Northern Demon could show off any skills, they were already down on the ground.

They were so frail.

Everyone with eyes could see that the Four Basilisks and the Northern Demon were worlds apart in terms of capability.

In fact, they might be universes apart.

The entire place was silent.

Over one billion citizens of Erudia who had been supporters of the Four Basilisks went silent, for they were dumbstruck.

Similar looks of disbelief were on everyone’s faces.

Are we dreaming?

Haven’t our heroes defeated the Northern Demon before?

Tens of thousands had witnessed the Four Basilisks slay the Northern Demon in the past.

Why are they so weak now?

Why can't they even lay a finger on the Northern Demon?

I don't get it.

I really don't.

Like the others, the Dragonites and the Five Dragons of Erudia had those thoughts in their heads as well.

They could not figure out what had gone wrong.

“What?”

The Eastern Hellhound and the other three had ruminated about that possibility.

Yet, these were their disciples.

They did not want to believe that the Northern Demon was right.

Thus, the moment they heard that their disciples were going to confess to them, they panicked.

Even the Dragonites panicked as well.

Our judgment has been wrong?

Is this for real?

“We’ll tell you everything! This is all our fault!”

Heracles was sobbing at that point.

The crowd was speechless at the sight.

Once again, Erudia fell silent.

Billions of people clenched their fists simultaneously.

“Spit it out!” one of the senior members of the Dragonites snapped.

“To be honest, I feel grateful to that man. He is the strongest adversary that I have ever met! During the battle, I have learned a great many things. Not only did I survive, my capabilities greatly increased. Compared to what I used to be, I am five times more powerful now!”

Northern Demon laughed excitedly.

The crowd held their breath.

Prior to this, Northern Demon was close to being invincible.

Therefore, with his power amplified fivefold, he had become unstoppable.

Initially, everyone had placed their hopes on the Four Basilisks.

However, their expectations were upended instead.

The Four Basilisks were no match for Northern Demon at all.

Consequently, the Dragonites expression darkened as this was the greatest humiliation they had ever faced.

Setting aside the huge error they made, they had now exposed Oakland City and even Erudia to danger.

Northern Demon didn't just survive, but was now significantly stronger than before.

"Didn't you kill me before? Come at me again!"

Northern Demon stared at the remaining three Basilisks who were trembling in fear.

He then turned his attention to Eastern Hellhound and his men.

“That’s right! Why did I forget about him?”

“Prior to this, Levi has declared that he killed the Northern Demon. Furthermore, he told us that the Four Basilisks were frauds. Basically, everything he said was true. We were the ones that have wronged him!”

The Dragonites were red in embarrassment.

One of them asked, “Did Levi really defeat Northern Demon?”

“If we don’t ask him directly, how are we ever going to know?”

At that moment, everyone recalled what Levi had said.

Given his insistence, he was likely telling the truth.

“I remember now! The thirty men from the Suicide Squad mentioned that it was Malcolm who defeated Northern Demon. Moreover, we now know that Malcolm is actually Levi in disguise!”

At that moment, a messenger brought some news.

“Alright. That’s wonderful!”

“Order the other Dragonites to bring Levi forward to face Northern Demon!”

The public may not be aware of it, but everyone on the inside knows that Levi is the Crown King.

“There’s no mistake. You are the Crown King!” another Dragonite exclaimed.

Levi laughed suddenly. “Since when am I the Crown King? You gotta be kidding me.”

“Huh?”

Stunned, no one understood his response.

“That’s impossible. You are definitely the Crown King!”

The group of men sounded resolute.

“Just a few hours ago, you have stripped me of that title! Not only am I now a regular citizen, but I have also been locked inside here to reflect on my mistakes. Nevertheless, my stance has not changed. I have done nothing wrong!”
