Chapter 1531

At this moment, the whole world was swept by the news of Prince William's death.

Protests broke out in Adrune.

Hundreds of thousands of people were protesting.

Soon, protests broke out everywhere including Bayview.

Hundreds of thousands of people were on the streets, carrying flags and banners.

Everyone was asking for an explanation on Prince William's death!

They were questioning Erudia: Why did you kill Prince William?

They also wanted Erudia to give them a clear answer and hand over the murderer!

Things were getting worse.

The world was protesting against Erudia.

Everyone was seeking justice for Prince William's death.

Countries and organizations all over the world were criticizing Erudia, demanding an explanation.

Things had evolved into a situation where the whole world was against Erudia.

Even though Erudia was powerful as they had the Crown King and the Nine Lords, Prince William's death had ignited everyone's anger.

After all, they had the right of way.

"You..." stammering, Zoey looked at Lance in horror.

She assumed that Lance came to find faults with Levi.

"Get lost! Stop bothering me again," Levi bellowed.

Pursing his lips, Lance shot Zoey a look fraught with emotion.

"Are you out of your mind, Levi? How could you ask him to leave?" Zoey stared at Levi in disbelief.

Whatever it is, Levi is only an ordinary man whereas Lance is one of the Nine Lords.

"It's okay. I'll beat him should he appear again," Levi scorned.

Zoey shook her head helplessly.

He hasn't changed a bit.

Meanwhile, there were several cruise ships spotted in South Hampton, with the biggest one ferrying William II, The Avengers, Kuro Dragon, and the others.

"Our prince can't die in vain. We must demand vengeance for him," Kuro Dragon tried fanning the flames of the controversy.

The rest of the men also chimed in, "That's right! All those who were involved must die!" along with their remarks, William may sound like a powerful king who had countless of incredible talents serving him, he could overbearing influence, Erudia was he had just lost his had concluded that Erudia we must strive for more benefits. "Hang on a minute. Why should I trust you? You're certainly not William II, so what decision can you make?" Lance was dubious.

With a skin-deep smile on his face, Kuro Dragon prompted, "Do you have any other option?"

"I..." Lance faltered.

"Don't you want to know who am I? I'm the leader of The Avengers."

What?

Lance shuddered when he heard that revelation.

His threatening influence is only second to Northern Demon.

“By the way, I was the one who killed Prince William.”

Lance was on the verge of losing his mind when Kuro Dragon revealed the answer.

He’s the culprit who put the blame on me!

“Don’t get too worked up. There’s nothing you can do about it! Even if you killed me, your effort is futile.

Chapter 1534

"What?" William II asked, completely baffled.

"There's a proverb in Erudia which says, one can't take in something new without destroying the old. I'm quite certain that Levi has gained a new strength from destruction.

"It's crystal clear to us that Levi would be either dead or handicapped after going through a series of massive battles. Yet, he didn't. As a matter of fact, he became stronger, to the extent that he has killed the Northern Demon.

"Do you remember that he was pretty much incapacitated when he was sent behind bars? Somehow, he was transferred away secretly. If I'm not mistaken, it was the Reversero technique that has transformed him."

Black Phoenix nodded while listening to the review. "That's probably it! In the world of martial arts in Erudia, there's actually this technique called Reversero."

Smirking, Kuro Dragon explained, "Levi came from a humble family and has got nothing to do with the hidden forces. The only possibility was his experience in jail. Something must have happened then which enabled him to receive the power of Reversero."

William II tried to check his understanding. "Thus, what you're saying is that he will only become stronger if we don't get to finish him off once and for all?"

"Precisely the point! We'll go with this direction during the negotiation. Since we can't kill the Crown King, let's create more destructive Crown Kings," Kuro Dragon concluded.

William II immediately understood his intention. "That means we must make sure that Erudia hands over Levi's technique book?"

“Huh?”

Everyone in the negotiating team was stunned.

Why does William II ask for the Crown King’s technique book all of a sudden? What’s so great about that?

They had no clue at all.

Even Lance was a little taken aback.

What’s that for?

“We need to discuss this and apply to the relevant personnel.”

The negotiating team was no in position to make a decision about that unusual request.

“If that’s the case, let’s go to war! I’ll go all out to fight Erudia. Watch me!” William II barked.

“Please remain calm. We accept two of the conditions you’ve laid out,” the negotiating team pacified William II in order to quell his anger.

The negotiation team was stunned by Levi's rapid-fire questions.

Erudia, as of that moment, would not lose to anyone with the Crown King and the Nine Lords protecting it!

Hence, there shouldn't be anything to fear!

They didn't need to bow to others' requests!

However, in reality, that wasn't the case.

"You do know Prince William die in Erudia, right?" Levi raised his eyebrow. "They have evidence that we're the ones who killed him. The whole world is going against us. Right now, we're in a disadvantageous position; so we have to fulfill their terms and conditions!" the negotiation team explained.

Levi grinned and questioned, "Are you saying our men really killed him?"

"This is bad! If William II is enraged, it'll be a catastrophe!"

"Levi is just an ordinary man now! Why does he still need his technique?"

"Yeah! He's too selfish!"

The negotiation team relayed Levi's attitude to the Dragonites.

The Dragonites couldn't do anything as they were familiar with Levi's temper and attitude.

The team pressed Levi too hard, and their plan backfired.

In the end, the negotiation team told William II everything and hoped he could change his term.

"This term cannot be changed! Otherwise, I want the whole of Erudia to accompany my son to his grave!

Come up with a plan yourself to either give me the Crown King's head or his technique book! I've already gathered thousands of mercenaries and assassins that are ready to make a move!"

Due to William II's threat, the negotiation team and Lance once again arrived at Levi's place.

Chapter 1538

Levi had arranged a bunch of skillful bodyguards for Forlevia.

However, if The Avengers was gunning for him, capturing her was a piece of cake, unless he was personally protecting her.

However, he was occupied by Lance and the negotiation team.

It was almost too easy for them to kidnap Forlevia.

Levi immediately contacted her bodyguards, but they didn't even know she was already kidnapped.

It was obvious how powerful the enemy was to be able to kidnap someone without anyone noticing.

At the same time, Zoey almost fainted when she learned about Forlevia's kidnapping.

She quickly rushed back to the Lopez family and told everyone the news.

She thought about the Great Family of Westford instead of Levi since he was now a normal person.

And the influence of a normal person couldn't be compared to the power of the Great Family of Westford.

They would have a better idea of what to do.

"Go away, Levi! There's nothing you can do with your current power!"

"The kidnapping of Evie was targeted toward the Great Family of Westford!"

"It must be something related to Lance. Don't act like everything is about you, Levi."

In the end, he was chased out of the Lopez residence.

Levi was fine with it. So what if there's a couple of hiccups? I'll still save Evie, regardless. As for her kidnappers, I'll make them regret ever being born.

"I'll make sure you pay dearly for kidnapping my daughter, The Avengers!" Levi shouted to the sky.

In that instant, he released an explosive bloodlust that silent everything around him and lowered the temperature of the area.

Everyone who was in the vicinity had goosebumps.

"West! Activate The Calamity again! Help me find Evie by any means necessary!"

Even though he was no longer the Crown King, he still had The Calamity.

After all, even the Dragonites didn't know about The Calamity, except for that one person.

2-3 minutes

“Any news about Levi?” Kuro Dragon asked.

“Nothing for now!” Black Phoenix shook her head. “However, Lance is searching for you!”

Kuro Dragon smirked. “He took his sweet time. Well, it’s too late for him to do that now! I’m only interested in Levi! Lance doesn’t deserve my attention! I wonder who long it would take for Levi to find his precious daughter. Be prepared for his arrival!”

His grin grew wider. Everything happens according to plan. Even for Levi, it’ll take quite some time before he can find this place. By the time he arrives, our preparations to kill him will be completed. I wonder what kind of expression he’ll have when he found out this place is booby-trapped.

The entire base was planted with dozens of tons of explosives.

Kuro Dragon planned to destroy everything and everyone inside the building, including his own men, when Levi arrived.

Not only that, he had also prepared a bunch of biochemical weapons.

Once the explosive goes off, poison would rush out from its containers, leaving no chance for Levi to survive.

After all, Kuro Dragon knew Levi had a powerful technique that allowed him to not only survive the explosion, but would also make him even stronger afterwards.

For that reason, Kuro Dragon had to make sure his trap was flawless.

“Get ready! Levi is coming soon!” he urged.
