Chapter 1541

"The Avengers, right? Glad to finally meet you lot. All of you must die today!" Levi gave everyone a cold look and sent a chill down their spines.

"You..." Everyone almost went crazy when they saw him there.

They collectively pondered. How the hell did he get in? When did he rescue his daughter?

They couldn't understand what was going on.

The only explanation they could think of was that Levi wasn't a human.

He was a god!

He was every bit as mysterious and powerful as a divine being.

Kuro Dragon gulped.

He thought his plan was perfect.

He was going to threaten Levi to hand out his technique by using his child as a hostage before killing him.

Yet, Levi appeared before he could finish setting up his trap.

His arrival was something that Kuro Dragon didn't expect in the slightest.

Aaron, Emma, and others also went to Lance to thank him.

Forlevia was their treasure, so of course, they were grateful that Lance saved her.

“Mommy...” Forlevia started to cry.

Zoey quickly took over Forlevia from Lance’s arms. “You are safe now, Evie. Mommy’s here!”

She raised her head. Tears were welling in her eyes. “Thank you, Lance. Thank you so much.”

“Thank you for saving Evie, Lance!” Aaron and the others once again expressed their gratitude.

“Thank you, Lance. I don’t know what we would’ve done without you,” Cora thanked.

“He’s indeed powerful for he was able to save Evie so quickly!”

“He’s incredible! It only took two hours for him to rescue her, right?”

On the other hand, Levi was chasing after Kuro Dragon at full speed.
The distance between them was getting shorter.
Eventually, Kuro Dragon arrived at a manor and hid inside.
Levi followed inside as well. "You can't escape me!"
"You shouldn't be here. Please leave now!" Four men wearing white robes with blurred face stepped out.
"I won't leave until you hand him over, so scram!" Levi stared at them.
The four of them promptly attacked him.
Bam!
The moment they started to fight, Levi's expression changed. This is scary! These four people are as powerful as the Northern Demon! In fact, since they're fighting alongside each other so well, they are even stronger compared to me fighting them one by one!
Their attacks actually managed to stop Levi in his tracks.
"Get out of my way!" Levi panicked and used his deadly move to get rid of the four men.
However, the four of them reacted fast enough to launch a combined attack and repelled Levi's attack.

William II was shouting wildly at Kuro Dragon.

"Eh? There's no such thing." He started to suspect something was wrong.

"See for yourself!" William II pointed at the screen, his finger trembling with anger. "So you're the one who killed my son, framed Erudia, and played me and Zarain like a fiddle!"

Kuro Dragon was dumbfounded after he saw the news. Someone saw the whole thing?

There was no way he could lie his way out now.

"My son's death will be avenged! Go to hell!" William II then pulled out a golden desert eagle and fired at Kuro Dragon.

Kuro Dragon's body was shot and full of holes before he fell down.

He was still shocked as his life was slipping away. I died at the hands of William II instead of Levi? How preposterous...

At that moment, his trump card, or more appropriately, his backing, still didn't know what was going on as he drew his last breath.

Unbeknownst to him, his death was well within Levi's expectations.

He knew that, once the truth was out, Zarain and William II would chase Kuro Dragon down to the end of the earth to kill him.

“Yeah! You should bow to express your gratitude!”

“Lance went through a lot of trouble to help you rescue Evie. The least you can do is to give him a bow!”

“Hurry up! If it wasn’t for Lance, your daughter wouldn’t even be here right now,” uttered Aaron.

Zoey also chimed in, “Levi, hurry up and apologize to Lance. We are deeply indebted to him!”

She then turned her head toward Forlevia. “Eve, we must always repay our debt. Remember that.”

“But it was Daddy who...”

Forlevia was interrupted by Cora before she could finish her sentence.

“You should show some gratitude! Evie wouldn’t be here now without Lance’s help!” exhorted Cora.

“Do you understand now, Levi? The Nine Lords are leagues above the God of War. You are nothing compared to Lance. It took him less than two hours to successfully rescue Eve, whereas you took your sweet time and still failed miserably to do so,” insisted Shaun.

As far as they were concerned, Levi was way below Lance’s league.

Lance’s face was getting darker as the conversation went on.

With his head lowered, Lance looked pensive.

Zoey and Emma were gazing at Levi with a disappointed look on their face.

They were obstinate that Levi should express his gratitude toward Lance.

In their heads, that was the right thing for Levi to do.

“Come here, Levi! You must kneel and bow to Lance!”

Cora was glaring at Levi with gravitas.

“Kneel and bow down to him!” everyone uttered in unison.

“I...”

Lance was in a quandary.

This is the end of me!

“Okay then! I’ll show my gratitude!”

Levi slowly turned around to gaze at Lance.

At that moment, Lance was trembling in fear.

The others were nodding as Shaun said that.

"I see. Looks like Levi still has some sense in him."

"I can finally be at ease now that he has kowtowed to Lance!"

Everyone was grinning happily except for Zoey.

She had a feeling that something was wrong.

Levi is a prideful man. Would he really deign to do such a thing as kowtowing?

That being said, since Evie is involved in this, it might be a different story. I could totally see him putting his pride aside for her.

"Don't worry, Levi will slowly become more respectful in the future!"

Cora let out a smile.

Meanwhile, Zoey aligned her eyes with Emma's.

There has been a lot of changes happening over the past two to three years.

Before this, Levi was revered as the mighty God of War while the Garrison clan was renowned as the best ancient family.

However, now that there are copious amounts of other powerhouses emerging from the dark, even the Ultimate class warrior has been struggling to deal with all of this.

“That being said, do you think that Levi will be willing to just hand over his technique book?”

Someone mentioned a very important question.

“Levi was reluctant to hand over his technique book when he was asked by William II last time. So I don’t think he’s going to do it now either.”

“Yeah, it’s highly unlikely that he’ll do so. This technique is way too precious to him. Even if we tell him that his technique will greatly benefit Erudia, I don’t he’ll just hand it over.”

“Not to mention, now that he’s an ordinary person, he’ll need the technique for himself. It’ll be even harder to acquire the technique book from him now!”

“Let’s just ponder for a while and see if we can come up with some ideas!”

As the Dragonites were plotting on obtaining Levi’s technique book, Zarain had their own plans as well.

Ever since this technique received praises from Kuro Dragon himself, everyone had been itching to get their hands on it.

“The investigation results are out! According to our investigation, Levi has given up his position as the Crown King and has now become an ordinary person. Thus, he doesn’t possess the right to intervene in Erudia’s affairs anymore. He was excused this time around for intervening only because Kuro Dragon provoked him.”

Zarain’s intelligence agency was as efficient and scrupulous as ever.

All the Dragonites were in a state of chaos. After all, Levi was a hotshot that everyone was trying to recruit.

Besides, the offer Levi received was no joke. Anyone would have been tempted by such an attractive offer.

“He definitely won’t be tempted if he were the old Levi,” Severus began. “I mean, he did sacrifice himself for Erudia before. However, he’s a different person today. After the incident last time, I presume that he has no feelings now. In fact, he might even hate us all! Keep in mind that he’s merely an ordinary person. It’s easy for him to be tempted by their offer to satiate his desire for wealth and money!”

All of them agreed with what he had just pronounced.

If Levi were to succumb to the temptation and join other countries or forces, it would be a massive loss for them since he was powerful. As for now, not a single person was able to restrain him yet. Other than that, he knew Erudia so well that the whole country was basically in the palm of his hands.

If he were to join the opposing side, they would be at a disadvantage.

Although they were sure that Levi would not betray Erudia, he was still a threat to them.

Receiving offers from Zarain and other countries was not a good thing.

Levi was aware that some people were expecting him to betray Erudia by succumbing to the temptations. After all, they all saw him as a threat.

Hence, he had pretty much anticipated the Dragonites' arrival.

Since his technique book was no longer a secret, many people would keep an eye on him, including the Dragonites.

Now that they had found out about it, they would certainly make a move.

After all, he was now only an ordinary person, so they needed to replace him with someone else.

Replacing him was an easy job, particularly since Lance had resolved this matter, which meant the Nine Lords were qualified enough to take over his place, especially if they managed to obtain the technique book too.

Little did they know, I was the one who solved the problem. Bearing that thought in mind, a smile crept onto Levi's face.

"Since you have decided to be an ordinary person, let's do it properly. Otherwise, you'll remain in this circle," advised Severus.

"Yeah," Rico agreed. "That's the only way you can fully live like an ordinary person. No trouble will come your way anymore."
