Chapter 1581

Collin was dumbstruck by Levi's nonchalance.

If it were before, I wouldn't be worried even if the whole world were against you.

But you've become an ordinary civilian now. How could you still not care?

Are you taking your own life as a joke?

"If you have nothing else to say, hurry up and leave," Levi ordered.

"Anyway, do be careful. You'd best go into hiding. They're never going to let you off!"

Collin gazed at Levi solemnly.

"You'd better be careful too. They'll kill you if they find out," Levi reminded.

Collin smiled. "Don't worry. I'm an instructor from Special Forces! They wouldn't dare kill me."

Collin paid no heed to this matter at all.

He's thinking too much.

He should be worrying about himself rather than me.

Still, the man prayed that Levi would be able to overcome the ordeal.

Collin returned to the training base and, as expected, found Filipe and Luther secretly using the drug.

He secretly recorded the evidence.

Meanwhile, Luther had found himself eight powerful fighters to infiltrate North Hampton and assassinate Levi.

It wasn't long until the two parties met.

They weren’t the only one confused.
Obsidian Dragon was no exception.
Even this Supreme class fighter couldn’t understand Levi.
Ultimately, they came up with a scheme.
“Send someone else, but this time, it’s not to kill Levi. It’s to find out who the hell is protecting him.”
“Right! We should test the waters first. Getting rid of Levi can wait.”
“Okay. We’ll go according to your plan.”

Obsidian Dragon agreed with the arrangement as well.

“Dispatch a fake Supreme class fighter who won’t accidentally alert them but also be able to escape in the face of danger.”

“Got it.”

A fake Supreme class fighter was just one step away from being an actual Supreme class fighter.

But that didn’t change the fact that a fake Supreme class fighter was still extremely powerful—even more so than the Northern Demon.

Meanwhile, inside Hidden Dragon Training Camp.

Filipe and Luther were both trying to find out why Levi hadn’t died.

"That's right. As long as you die, no one will ever know our little secret!"

An insidious smile formed on Luther's face.

Collin instantly felt a strong murderous intent coming from the two.

His gaze darkened. "Do you dare kill a Dragonite? Don't you know the consequences?"

Collin naturally refused to believe that they would dare take his life.

"But what if you're a traitor who sold Erudia out? Everyone would be thrilled to see you die, no?"

Filipe burst into laughter all of a sudden.

"You..."

As though realizing something, Collin's expression turned grim.

He quickly recalled what Levi had told him.

They're really going to kill me!

Run! the man hastily told himself.

"Trying to fled? It's too late for that!"

Filipe and Luther immediately stood in Collin's way.

"Kill him!"

Everyone was enraged to see Levi. “What the hell are you doing here, Levi?”

“I’m here to see the murderer,” Levi responded coldly.

“What murderer? This is a training base, for God’s sake! Get out of here and stop making a scene!” yelled Darian.

Can’t he give us a godd*mn break?

He’s been causing trouble ever since he lost his position as an instructor.

Here he is again trying to stir sh*t up at our training base.

“I’m here for the b*stard who killed Collin!” Levi demanded.

Damian glared at Levi. “This is preposterous! Collin was a traitor who got caught leaking Erudia’s secrets. He got what he deserved and would’ve been sentenced to death anyway! Why the hell are you calling whoever killed him a murderer?”

This guy's getting way out of hand!

"That's right," Xaire and the other disciples chimed in. "We saw Collin betray the country with our own eyes. There are lots of evidence too."

"He should've been killed in the first place. Erudia is better off without a cancer like him."

The crowd immediately froze.

What is he up to?

"Your way? How do you intend to do that?"

They stared at him in astonishment.

“I’m going to kill you both,” Levi answered, glowering at Filipe and Luther.

The man looked so terrifying, as though he had just crawled out of hell.

Just those few words of response were enough to send waves of horror within his opponents.

Everyone froze in shock.

According to the law, Collin would have received the death sentence either way.

Therefore, Filipe and Luther were lauded as exemplars who did what was necessary.

They had done nothing wrong.

Moreover, the evidence they had fabricated against Collin was simply irrefutable, even if one were to know that everything was false, and that Filipe and Luther were the true culprits.

There was no other choice.

The law held that Collin was the criminal.

No one could redress the injustice.

No one had expected such an outcome.
Levi had actually slashed both men with the blade.
The two men clutched their chests in shock as blood trickled out of their wounds.
They stared at Levi in absolute disbelief.
What happened?
How could an ordinary man move so quickly?
We didn't even manage to react.
Filipe and Luther began to lose consciousness.
From Levi's expression, they knew he would surely attack them without fear.
Yet, they believed they would be able to stop him and kill him instead.
Alas, the two top-tier fighters didn't even have a chance to react.
They instantly fell prey to his blade.

Xaire and the other disciples were determined to avenge their fallen instructors.

Everyone glared at Levi in fury.

"You've overestimated yourselves," Levi remarked.

To him, they were nothing but tiny ants whom he could crush with a mere tip of his finger.

The tension in the air had reached its peak, when suddenly...

"Stop it!" Darian shouted. "Let him go."

The incident had escalated beyond what he could manage.

Hence, he could only report this to the Dragonite council members later.

Until then, Levi was allowed to walk away freely.

Xaire refused. "But he killed Mr. Jourdain! Are we going to let him off scot-free? I won't let that happen!"

The other disciples continued to hold Levi back. "Don't let him leave!"

"Let him go! This is an order!"

"Hmm?"

The fake Supreme class fighter was startled.

Damn it! I've been spotted much earlier. Oh no, Levi is no ordinary man. He has kept everyone in the dark.

Gradually, he ambled out of the shadow.

A devilish smile broke across Levi's face.

He chose not to expose this man on the spot, only to give Floyd and the others a life-and-death test.

These one hundred disciples were powerful enough, but they had never been in a life-and-death battle.

They would only get better after this fight, which was considered as their final exam before graduation.

Unlike the usual exam on paper, Floyd and the disciples were risking their lives to take the exam, as their opponent was extremely strong.

Finally, it struck the fake Supreme class fighter that they were using him as a practice.

Is Levi trying to take me down with only these nobodies? Dream on!

"I'm already a fake Supreme class fighter. I'm unstoppable unless a Supreme class fighter shows up," he shouted arrogantly.

After all, Levi had blown things out of proportion.

They could punish him however they pleased.

“Are you here to reward me?” Levi asked.

“You! How stubborn!”

His question enraged them.

Levi has killed people and ruined Hidden Dragon. How dare he ask for a reward! Is he out of his mind?
Does he know what he’s doing?

Levi was stunned by their response.

I’ve done Erudia a great favor. Not only are they not going to reward me, but they blame me for no reason.

“We’re furious! To be honest, you’ve stirred up such a huge trouble. In fact, you’re destroying the fate and future of Erudia!”

The men shot daggers at him.

“I’ll say this one more time. I’ve killed those wicked men to save Erudia...”

"What is happening?"

Xaire could feel the dire change happening to his body.

My body is aging at an alarming speed...

I could feel my life source draining away...

Cough.

Everyone started coughing up blood.

The blood they had coughed up was not merely blood. They were the essence of the human body.

It was equivalent to their life.

Once it was gone, it couldn't be replenished.

...

"What is happening?"

Everyone was in a dazed.

"What's wrong with my body? I don't want to die!"

Xaire yelled when he felt the scary change in his body.

The best healer from the training base quickly came up to check on their bodies.

"Their situation is not ideal. It is likely due to the training schedule."

The healer frowned.
