“What surprise?”

Everyone was baffled.

“Come on out!”

Levi clapped his hands, and soon, Floyd and the others came out.

“What? All of you can walk now? Wait! You’ve regained your powers? And your powers...”

Seeing the changes in Floyd and the rest, the Dragonites were shell-shocked.

Are they still the same bunch of useless men?

Floyd and the others used to be treated like animals as they were thought to be worthless.

Yet, they actually changed so much in such a short time.

Everyone could not help but wonder about the makers' identities as the latter could make all the supreme class fighters disappear and even had strengths that put them above all beings. Besides, they even wanted a new world.

"Who exactly are the Rulers who made the Gods' Promise?"

Everyone was curious.

"I don't know. There isn't any record of them in the most mysterious files in Erudia! No one has seen and contacted them before..."

Everyone gasped.

What kind of beings they are? They're watching the whole world like gods.

However, they could not reach the makers, so the biggest threat now was the supreme class fighters.

"Since they're staying out of it, the supreme class fighters will surely unleash chaos to the world!"

"Also, there will definitely be a group of ill-intentioned countries or forces that target Erudia. We must be fully prepared for our difficult future!"

Everyone laughed at Forlevia's remark.

"She sure loves her dad a lot!"

"To a child, their father is always the most powerful person!"

Emma and the rest were amused.

In fact, Levi really wanted to tell them that he was invincible, but he held back.

As an ordinary man, he could motivate them more and make them progress faster, which was definitely a good thing.

Therefore, he chose not to tell them for the time being.

Almost everyone in Erudia was actively preparing for the war.

In the snowy mountains of Fairlake City, the fighters that were with Juan and his troop also started to make a move.

"He wouldn't listen! He was just as stubborn as a mule!"

"Great. He made himself a casualty of the Gods' Promise and got his own family killed!"

However, Floyd immediately told Levi about it.

Levi assured him that he would settle it and asked him to keep a lid on it.

After Floyd did as told, the whereabouts of the Townsend clan were hidden.

After the previous battle, Levi had a clear idea of his own strength, so he was not afraid of the Townsend clan.

However, he found it weird that someone was secretly watching him and his family.

He could sense that the person was a supreme class fighter.

That person kept watching particularly when Forlevia and the others were training.

The person seemed to be very interested in it, but there was not any hostility, so Levi pretended not to notice him while observing what he was up to.

Soon, the Townsend clan reached North Hampton and went straight for Levi.

Tens of thousands of people besieged him under the leadership of Zidane, Zion and Zeke.

Everyone was stunned by that voice.

And Levi was the only exception. He was composed.

Because he had been aware that there was someone in the dark.

Someone who was secretly surveilling them.

And at that moment, they finally appeared.

In fact, Levi knew why these people were keeping watch on him and his family.

They were here for Forlevia.

They might have long been interested in Evie's talents.

Now that the Townsend clan wanted to take Forlevia away, they would certainly disagree.

"Who?"

Everyone in the Townsend clan was suddenly on his toes.

Several figures showed up at the top of the manor.

Dressed in white, they had an immaculate temperament.

And every one of them was a Supreme class warrior.

“What? Do you Townsends dare to touch the person we’re interested in?” the people of Wildefield roared coldly.

“Of course not. How can we mess with a talent that Wildefield is fascinated with? We’re just here to seek revenge! This man killed a Townsend. We’re here to avenge him. We’ll leave once we take him out!”

Zidane made it very clear that he was not after Forlevia.

“You can’t kill Daddy!” said Forlevia in her childlike voice.

“How dare you! He’s the father of the child. No one can touch him either!” the people of Wildefield yelled.

“I’m warning you, Townsends. From now on, the family of this child is under the protection of Wildefield. Death is the only way out for anyone trying to harm them!”

Forlevia was of such great value that Wildefield was willing to defend everyone and everything related to her.

“What?”

The countenance of the Townsends changed drastically at that.

If Wildefield is guarding Levi, doesn’t that mean we won’t get to settle this score?

Levi looked down upon these people.
He had never heard of Wildefield.
He only trusted himself and the old man in prison.
Who else can be better than me?
No, that’s impossible!
Other than that, he didn’t take Wildefield seriously.

Everyone from Wildefield was stunned upon hearing what Levi said.
What does he mean?
Is he looking down on us?
Does the Townsend clan dare to look down on us?

“A mother’s social status is associated with her child. Do you understand this?”

“Now that Forlevia becomes the hope of Wildefield, you’ll have a good life, too! You’d also be part of Wildefield indirectly!”

“You’d simply prosper from it in such a time!”

...

Cora and others took turns to persuade him.

Not only Forlevia’s parents, but all her close and distant relatives would share the glory and flourish in their lives.

Owing to just one person’s gift, everyone around her got a big break.

It was just like when one commoner from the village became the richest man in the world, the entire village got to live a more comfortable life.

The only difference was that the villagers were in fact Supreme class warriors in this scenario.

Hence, both the Lopez family and the Great Family of Westford hoped that Forlevia could go to Wildefield.

“I think that’s good, too!”

“Indeed, Forlevia deserves a bigger platform to showcase her talents!”

Everyone said that a good child brought honor to her mother.
However, no one ever said the same about a father until now, and Levi was the father in question.
The women in his family were attaining prominent statuses.
In the future, they should be among the top elites in Erudia and the world.
On the other hand, Levi should remain a nobody and needed to depend on them for protection.
Therefore, he became a laughing stock, and everyone looked at him with mockery.
Most men found it shameful to have to rely on women, thus any man would be furious with this notion.
That was why when everyone saw Levi's gloomy expression, they thought he was sad about his state of helplessness.
None of them knew that Levi was not afraid of Wildefield.
The next day, people from Wildefield arrived to take Forlevia away.

Now everyone around him is training in martial arts.

Even Shaun and the others are aiming for the Supreme class.

Although Levi was once a hero and the mighty God of War, his destroyed martial vein makes him unable to train in martial arts for life.

Now, all those who were once beneath him are bragging their powers and even try to bully him.

Yet, he can't do anything about it.

It must be a devastating blow to him.

He was once powerful above all. This disparity and pressure must be difficult for him to bear.

It is enough to mess with anyone's mind.

With these thoughts in mind, Zoey tried to comfort Levi and said, "Don't let what they said bother you! You're still my hero! It is now Evie and my turn to protect you?"

"I'm just worried that Evie will be unhappy there! If she is unhappy, I'll bring her back immediately!" Levi was gloomy because Forlevia left home. It felt as if the sky had collapsed, and everything seemed out of place.

Zoey understood that feeling better than anyone else. "Don't worry, Evie will be fine! I'm worried that you'll get angry and fight with them because I can't get any magical medicine and technique for you and Mother."
