Chapter 1641

While Rico was coaxing him out, Severus barked, "Floyd, come over here with your men and escort Mr. Johnston out!"

"If Levi attacks, you will have to stop him!"

However, Floyd and the others just stood still, as if they didn't hear a word.

"Floyd, what are you doing? Didn't you hear me?" Severus yelled.

However, there was still no response.

"Floyd..."

Severus felt the urge to curse but decided against it given how powerful Floyd was. Hence, he chose to bear with it instead.

"This is my master's territory. Therefore, I will obey his will. If you want to take him away, you should do it yourself," Floyd replied coldly.

"You guys..."

Severus and Rico almost burst a vessel.

Levi smiled. "I have given you the key and offered you the prisoner. However, it's not my fault if you can't get him to leave."

Rico and Severus were stumped.

This seems too easy.

It's entirely different from what the Dragonites had described. They must have misled me on purpose.

"Hmm?"

However, they were stunned to find Byron curled up in a corner, not moving a muscle.

"Byron, we're here for you. Let's go!" Randy urged.

However, Byron looked at Levi with his face covered in tears.

He didn't dare leave without Levi's permission.

It made no difference to him that the envoy from Zarain was there. He was still just as terrified.

"Hmm? What's the problem? Why aren't you moving? Come, let's go now!"

Randy went up to Byron and dragged him along.

Byron screamed in terror, "No, I can't leave. Without his permission, I dare not leave!"

"Levi, you've really caused a big mess this time!"
With that, Rico and Severus left in a huff.
Levi did not appear to mind. After all, I'm a man of reason.
He turned to Byron, who was in the cage, and said with a smile, "Don't worry. You'll be locked in there for the time being. Don't even think about leaving!"
"Okay," Byron replied, nodding vehemently.
I can't believe that a Supreme class fighter like me is suffering in a place like this. I hope that Randy will be able to bring reinforcements after he returns. Either I have to make Levi yield to me and release me, or he'll have to send someone powerful to drag me away.
Meanwhile, the Dragonites were shocked to find out that the Zarain envoys had left just like that.
"This can't happen! If Levi continues what he's doing, it'll be a catastrophe!"
"That's right! The Zarain envoys were evidently angry, and they even said that Levi had caused trouble!"

"Right, our next course of action is to get in touch with Erudia's Supreme class fighters as well as those from Raysonia, Keerea, and other neighboring countries! I'm going to destroy Erudia once and for all, and nowhere in that country will be safe!" Bruce declared with a maniacal smile.

When Erudia's Supreme class fighters attack, we'll surround them. It'll be so terrifying they won't know what hit them.

"We have to make haste and act quickly! We mustn't give Erudia the chance to defend themselves!" Bruce called out.

His plan was to expedite efforts to gather forces for the allied army to attack Erudia and rescue Byron as soon as possible.

"I'm going to meet someone important today. Prepare the cruise ship!" Bruce ordered.

Chapter 1645

Although Erudia was building its forces and their number of Supreme class fighters was increasing, their efforts were merely a drop in the bucket compared to how quickly the allied army was growing.

Instead of focusing on growing their number of Supreme class fighters, the allied army had shifted their focus to increasing their Rank Six Supreme class fighters.

So far, there had not been a Rank Six Supreme class fighter in Erudia, not to mention among the Dragonites.

The only person they knew of was the previous Governor of Wildefield, who was now a mummified body.

Meanwhile, Levi had not been idle either.

Based on what Byron had said and his analysis of the current situation, he could sense imminent danger.

Despite his disappointment with the Dragonites, he would not sit back and do nothing when the safety of Erudia, as well as his friends and family's safety, was at stake.

Whoever dares to attack Erudia will taste my wrath. As a warrior, I have to answer the call of duty.

Avery and the others urged Levi to kneel.
Even Zoey and Mia agreed with what had been said.
The old Governor saved Forlevia just like how Lance did previously.
Therefore, as Forlevia's father, Levi should kneel in gratitude.
"Levi, why don't you just kneel and express your gratitude? After all, he's an elder, and he saved Evie. You did the same to Lance too, didn't you? So, why are you making such a big deal out of this?" said Zoey.
When Levi heard that, he was stunned.
"When did I kneel and thank Lance?" he retorted.
He's my disciple. How would he dare to let me kneel before him?
"Many people saw you do it, so stop pretending!" Zoey replied, looking exasperated.
Levi is just too proud. Everyone knows what happened.

As soon as the words left Levi's mouth, a deep silence befell the crowd.

As stunned as they were, Thierry and George couldn't help but chuckle. "Are you talking to us?"

"Yes! Get the hell out right now!" Levi ordered as he stood and walked away.

Thierry and George exchanged a smile before following suit.

"No one is to follow!" they shouted to the crowd.

Deep down, Thierry and George were bubbling with excitement.

In the past, they felt so oppressed around Levi that they never dared to speak their minds.

However, now that Levi was just an ordinary man, it was their golden opportunity to get back at him.

Soon, Thierry and George had followed Levi into a secluded corner.

“What’s the matter, Levi? Not happy with us? Do you want to beat us up?” Thierry asked before bursting into laughter with George.

Levi’s lips curled into a devious smile as he scoffed, “You’ve got a lot of nerve talking to me like that.”

“Of course we do. Do you think you’re still in power, Levi? Take a good look at yourself. You’re nothing but an ordinary person now, so stop trying to boss us around! What a joke!”

It was only then that everyone realized how badly battered and pale Thierry was.

Even George looked to be injured and in pain.

It was evident that someone had beaten them up. Unfortunately, as to the how and why, no one was any the wiser.

Another glaring issue was the absence of Levi, which made the guests wonder if Thierry and George's injuries were his handiwork.

If it were true that Levi had beaten them up, then there could only be one explanation.

Gradually, the terrifying realization sank in, and everyone broke out in cold sweat.

"I said something wrong and got punished for it. Watch your words, everyone. Otherwise, you'll end up like me," Thierry warned sternly.

Everyone nodded fearfully, not daring to ask what had transpired exactly.

Just like that, the banquet came to an end.

However, everyone still had plenty of questions swirling about in their minds.

"Hey, what do you guys think happened?"

With a glower, Melanie replied, "Isn't it obvious? Wildefield has issued a warning with an attack!"

"That's right. Evie's current status in Wildefield is high! And since Levi is her father, he'd naturally come under their protection!"

Upon hearing Jared talk, Levi was even more surprised.

He's no longer the timid and submissive Jared that I know.

As the conversation went on, Jared revealed that because he wasn't satisfied with his appearance, he had undergone plastic surgery in Keerea.

"Everything can be changed these days, so there's no need to hide about getting plastic surgery," Jared said candidly.

"What are you working on now, Jared?"

"I joined a technology organization after I graduated from university. But afterward, I decided to go solo. Now I'm managing a technology company that researches and manufactures new weapons. We even have partnerships with various foreign groups!"

Everyone stared in shock and awe as soon as Jared finished speaking.

Based on achievements alone, Jared was only second to Zoey, and that was very impressive.

"Out of all of us, you and Zoey are the most accomplished. You know about martial artists, don't you? Zoey is now a Supreme class warrior, so powerful that she can destroy the world if she wanted to."

To everyone's surprise, Jared was hardly impressed. "Martial artists are so wildly exaggerated. Modern technology is perfectly capable of defeating them!"

The mysterious guest continued, "Those asking for him are Supreme class warriors. I honestly have no idea how Levi has offended all of you."

At that instant, everyone's expressions changed drastically.

"It's because Levi single-handedly drove us out of Erudia and ruined everything for us!"

"He even killed the successor to Triple Group! There's no way we can take that lying down!"

A smile broke out on the guest's face. "Then he does deserve to be killed! Tell you what, I'll hand over Levi and his entire family to you. You can do whatever you like to them!"

After a pause, the guest continued, "By the way, I heard that Triple Group is very advanced in technological and genetic engineering areas. You've even secretly created many warriors that are of Supreme class quality, haven't you? We need your exact numbers, so we can better come up with our battle plan!"

The senior management of Triple Group exchanged nervous glances before giving a rough breakdown of the information requested.
