Chapter 1661

“The enemy in the western borders is the strongest! The ones in the east and the north are slightly weaker, but they are still a force to be reckoned with!”

“It appears that the enemies in the south are capable of controlling the water, whereas the ones in the north can control the ice and snow!”

“They have way too many Supreme class warriors on their side! We can’t stop them at all!”

“Judging by their different skin tones, we can tell that they’re not from a single country. This appears to be an allied army of Supreme class warriors from all over the world!”

The Dragonites were quick to gather intel on their enemies.

“Listen up, everybody! Erudia is currently facing a crisis like never before! It wouldn’t be an exaggeration to call it a crisis of epic proportions.”

“The power difference between our forces and that of the enemy’s is simply too great! To make matters worse, we don’t even know who they are!”

“The second line of defense is about to fall, and the third line of defense will soon follow if we don’t do something fast!”

“But Erudia never admits defeat! Even with all odds stacked against us, we shall brandish our swords and defend our land to the death! Erudia cannot fall!”

Someone came running over and yelled frantically at the crowd, sending everyone into a state of panic.

Both Abigail and Carter froze in their actions.

“Say what?” Levi was shocked.

I knew something like this was going to happen, but I didn’t think it would be today! Those b*stards really launched an assault on Abigail’s wedding day!

Zoey and everyone from her family turned to look at Levi in surprise.

Oh, my god! He was actually right about today being a bad day! I can’t believe Erudia is under attack!

“W-W-What the hell is going on here? Who would dare attack Erudia?”

“We haven’t been able to identify the enemy, but we do know that they have us completely surrounded! Countless Supreme class warriors are fighting their way into Erudia as we speak! Given the grand scale of this attack, I bet the entire world will soon find out about it,” the man exclaimed helplessly.

People all over Erudia had different reactions. Some were terrified, while some remained unfazed.

Some demanded to leave the country to escape from trouble. There, they would proceed to give up on their citizenship and become another country's citizens.

Most of them were celebrities and wealthy men who escaped the country without hesitation.

When negativity was spreading around, some people remained positive.

In fact, most of the people were positive.

Young men were scrambling to join the battlefield, while veterans decided to pick up their weapons again.

Along with the kind souls who rushed to the battlefield, various trucks started transporting supplies, too.

The Erudians were doing their best for their beloved country.

Everyone pointed fingers at Levi, including those cowards, Shaun and his gang.

They were speaking from their moral high horses.

"Levi, you're a coward! Are you even a man? A soldier of Erudia? How will you protect the country?"

Suddenly, a cold glint shone in Levi's gaze. "With my fists!"

After the initial silence, everyone burst into a fit of laughter.

Levi was an ordinary man, so his fists were useless.

They took it as a joke.

Levi then said, "Zoey, Mia, you should stay at home. I'll head to battle alone."

"Huh? You're going to battle? Why haven't you departed yet?"

The rest proceeded to glare at him questioningly.

Levi snickered. "I'm waiting for someone."

It was a loud roar that reverberated around the Lopez residence.
Shocked, everyone rushed out of the Lopez residence.
They gasped at the sight which greeted them.
There were countless of soldiers surrounded the house.
Everyone promptly recognized the Iron Brigade's flag.
The Iron Brigade was flanked by Winsor's Asura Army and Minka's Grewall Army.
Azure Dragon, Kirin, White Tiger, the Cavalry Regiment, the Dragon Warriors, the Specter Army, Ruby Army, Sapphire Army, Emerald Army, and Topaz Army were among the familiar faces present.
They were all young men full of passion who had followed the God of War to war.
Alas, when the era of martial artists arrived, the modern armies were all eliminated.

The soldiers were marching on the streets of North Hampton while the citizens waved flags and yelled words of encouragement.

"Don't worry. We'll be right behind you!"

"We shall wait for your victorious return! Erudia will win!"

The Erudians were yelling as tears welled in their eyes.

The soldiers chimed in, "Erudia shall win! Erudia shall win!"

Everyone had come together to strive for one goal.

Levi took one look at the crowd, and his heart stirred.

The troops and the people are united. There's no way Erudia will lose this war.

It's worth it to fight for them!

Levi led the troops to the frontline in the South.

As it was too sudden, the troops nearly launched an attack.

"Hold it! Something seems off. They are our people!" Levi shouted.

He belatedly realized that the people standing in front of him were wearing old and whitish battle suits.

There were veterans from the past few generations!

These people were of different ages. Some of them even had greyish hair.

Levi immediately figured out who they were—Erudia's veterans!

The veterans might've retired, but they would still rejoin the army if a war was happening.

“Thirty-two thousand four hundred and fifty-six veterans from the South, reporting for duty! Please allow us to join your army!”

The over thirty thousand veterans were decked in their military uniforms to defend their country.

“Salute!”

The veterans saluted Levi.

The man returned their salute with a proud smile. “Approved! You can join our army!”

Immediately, the leader of Triple Group, Lee Jong-guk, proceeded to contact Jared and told the latter about their obstacle.

“Mr. Schmidt, we need your superweapon to wipe out Erudia’s Supreme class martial artists on the frontline! They are a huge threat to us!”

Jared chuckled lowly before saying, “Don’t worry. I’ll be there soon!”

Shortly after, the man and his team arrived at the battlefield with the superweapons.

He had created a new quantum weapon.

The superweapon was powerful to destroy everything in sight, including the Supreme class martial artists, by converging all its power.

It was also equipped with a tracking device. If a person was targeted by this weapon, it wouldn’t stop until that person dropped dead.

“I thought I wouldn’t be needed!” Jared flashed a smug grin.

As the Ruling Union had advanced without any obstacles, everyone else had forgotten about him.

Many were still unconvinced about his weapon and thought he was exaggerating its capability.

After all, it seemed impossible for a weapon this small to kill a Supreme class fighter.

“It’s time for me to show my innovation to the world! Come, unload all the weapons!” Jared ordered eagerly.

This was the first time his superweapon would be revealed to the public.

Everyone saw how a Rank Three Supreme class fighter erupted into a mist of blood and disappeared from their sight!

Boom, boom, boom...

As the thirty Deicides were fired at the same time, anguished wails were heard everywhere.

The first thirty Supreme class martial artists who were targeted didn't even get to retaliate. Their bodies exploded into bloody mists and disappeared from sight.

It was a terrifying sight which shocked both parties.

As the shots were fired, the Supreme class martial artists, who had thought they were invincible, got wiped out swiftly.

The extremely gruesome sight shocked everyone.

"This is awesome! The Ruling Union is going to win!"

Soon, whoops of delight could be heard from the Ruling Union's army.

Jared's superweapons were stronger than they had imagined!

It was a shocking piece of news to everyone.

No one knew that a nerd would end up betraying Erudia and become the biggest enemy of the country!

The superweapon that he developed was the biggest obstacle for Erudia in war.

When Levi heard of the news, he finally understood why so many Supreme class fighters were willing to be Jared’s followers.

Wait. I asked the Dragonites to investigate about that. Why didn’t they report back to me?

Once the Dragonites got the news, they were dumbstruck.

Just a while ago, Levi had told Floyd to ask them to investigate Jared.

As they were extremely busy, the Dragonites handed the mission to Carter Weissman of the Medical Elite ancient family.

Clearly, Carter hadn’t taken the mission seriously.

Now, Jared was the most dangerous person in the battle — he could destroy the whole country single-handedly.
