

Pinnacle 1681

Chapter 1681

Some of the bodies were intact, while others were incomplete.

There were remains of both humans and creatures.

“Look at the bodies of these monsters! They’re all dead! Look!”

Human bodies were a norm for everyone, but they were taken aback by the sighting of the monsters’ remains.

The sea monsters were the reason why their three defense barriers had failed.

The creatures were too scary and strong.

Many men had been killed or maimed by them.

Even a Supreme class warrior like Kai was fearful of those monsters.

Hence, they could not believe it when they saw the carcasses of the monsters on the sea.

Judging from the quantity of the remains, it looked like all the monsters had been decimated.

Other than Levi, who else could have done this?

Perhaps...

A terrible and absurd thought came up in Kai’s mind, and he broke out in cold sweat.

Someone exclaimed, “My lord, look at these bodies! They belong to the enemies! They’re not our troops!”

closer look at the bodies and realized they were the skin colors and the clothes

countless bodies

belonged to

Kai’s troop

sailed through, they encountered more and to the Ruling

“T-T-This...”

and

be Levi’s

But how?

ordinary man, wipe out
It's not possible!
they
of the battleship with the Erudian
the eleven Rank Six warriors, including that about to go crazy! I-I-Is went limp, and he fell killed by them! There's not a single survivor left! The most frightening subordinate came with the
it, he just an voice could be hunkered down, including

Chapter 1682

2-3 minutes

---

Other than the calm, quiet sea, there was nothing left in the South Warzone.

One would occasionally catch a whiff of the smell of blood.

There was nothing but absolute silence.

The outside world was unable to find out anything about the South Warzone because the sea had been shielded.

Even the Dragonites had no idea what was going on.

"What's going on? There's still no news from the South Warzone?"

The Dragonites were growing anxious.

"The entire South Warzone is unreachable. The men we have sent out have disappeared too. There is no news at all!"

"Looks like we might have lost the South! I'm afraid Levi and his four hundred thousand soldiers might have perished!"

Everyone had lost hope.

"What about the other warzones?"

“Currently, the East Warzone is doing the best. Both sides are stuck. North Warzone is the second best. The poorest performer is the West Warzone. They have been completely crushed by their enemies. The warriors in the West Warzone seem unwilling to give it their all. They retreated at the slightest pressure.”

“What should we do now? We have to keep looking for backup. There are so many warriors in Erudia. If all of us can unite as one, nobody will dare to evade Erudia.”

“You’re right. Our country has so many powerful warriors. If we unite, we will be invincible. Unfortunately, everyone thinks differently and has no sense of belonging to the country. They see themselves as an individual, a separate entity from Erudia. It’s an uphill task to unite everyone!”

an alliance with foreign enemies! I cannot believe they have to strive to unite

Beep! Beep! Beep!

alarms at the Dragonites

that they have been attacked from the rear and suffered in!

Warzone has

three warzones

were

was only one of Erudia had made

Erudian warriors from situation had just worsened

the top of their lungs, “Backup, backup. Call the horizon of

the Ribcage Island and Blackwell Palace tasked to attack

would have the

were stumped

entire sea

sight,

That’s odd!

Very odd indeed!

no one is defending the largest zone

What's going on?

Chapter 1683

2-3 minutes

---

Boom!

Boom!

Boom!

The bombs went off at the very next second.

It was historic.

The defense set up on both sides of the region instantly turned into a sea of fire, and the casualties were ridiculous.

Supreme class fighters could somewhat withstand the attack, but they inevitably got injured.

That was understandable because the explosions were too strong.

Why were there explosions in the first place?

Well, that was because Levi had placed the time bombs at strategic locations under the sea before they left.

The bombs would remain dormant until the right time, and that was why the other party never detected anything.

The sudden simultaneous detonation of multiple bombs ambushed them.

No one saw anyone lurking around, and that was the key to success.

"Retreat! Everyone is to retreat!"

more than soulless vampires that had no ambition

they wouldn't lay their first instinct was to retreat when their wellbeing was

was also why the enemy in

in the other three war zones would not believe the news when it was delivered to

Southern border basically came to an end

someone managing to slip

Supreme class fighters. Instead, it was one of the rulers

the time and was hanging out behind the army. The explosion they were too far behind, so Levi's team didn't Southern Ruler woke up, he found himself wounded and realized was that he wasn't actually on the beach and left as quickly as possible and tell everyone what had happened! Erudia has guessed that something like that would definitely didn't know that everyone in the warzones in Erudia was in grave for help warzones were ridiculous as the country's enemies Erudia started to panic and outcome of the war because anxiety first, there were individuals with higher incomes who were unaffected, and there were members of powerful families that were fine. However, it didn't take long before they started in danger if things keep progressing

Chapter 1684

2-3 minutes

---

"Haha! I have already transferred all of my assets and my business out of the country! I will be building a future overseas now."

"Mr. Ziegler, that is amazing. You moved so quickly and managed to make a clean break. I will be joining you soon."

Many rich tycoons moved quickly. They sent their family overseas and hurriedly transferred their assets over.

To make matters worse, more and more citizens were planning on abandoning their country.

They weren't ashamed of their actions either. If anything, they were proud of it.

At that moment, they were enjoying their lives in a foreign country and were watching as the commoners in Erudia suffered.

The situation at that moment had made it look like Erudia would, no doubt, fall.

Many were contemplating leaving Erudia when over a hundred countries, including Keerea, Zarain, and Raysonia, made an official announcement.

They welcomed the citizens of Erudia to join them.

Those countries even created fast-track applications for Erudia citizens to join them.

Benefits such as government grants and plots of lands were offered as well.

Naturally, everything came at a price.

Those countries only welcomed citizens that were from a higher social class to join their country.

In other words, only those with power and money could afford to make that move.

the people the other

them, celebrities and business tycoons best and brightest from Erudia, whereas the

from the latter crowd was

leave Erudia with ease because those foreign countries

rich were given the green light

mess as soon as the foreign countries made some smaller businessmen were worried because they couldn't leave Erudia or become a

it so that many doors

Erudia and become a more and more citizens left Erudia and became a especially excited. They were offered amazing deals that were designed to

For them, it was also a great opportunity to like

a small

own country, and they would do it even if it meant

people are percent left the country had

there was nothing

watch as those traitors

In North Hampton.

you really

and Robert glared at the idiots who simply

with us. Zarain

Chapter 1685

2-3 minutes

---

“Unfilial baffoons!”

Harry, Cora, and the others growled angrily.

Those elderlies may be cruel and unreasonable at times, but they stood their ground when it mattered and were honorable.

Abandoning the country they were born and raised in... Becoming a traitor that everyone would hate and insult...They couldn't bring themselves to do something that shameful.

“Those unfilial monsters transferred most of our assets overseas and also diverted most of the wealth Wildefield gave us. Gah! I am so angry. This is so embarrassing.”

The older generation felt ashamed of their young, but Henry and the others didn't care about it at all. In fact, they were proud of what they did.

It didn't take long before Henry and his gang reached Zarain.

They enjoyed Zarain's warm welcome, and at that moment, all of them were rich with abundant assets.

Hence, they were given VIP treatment.

Zarain even rewarded them with a manor of their own and featured them in the nation's newspaper.

All that was thanks to the fact that Melanie's boyfriend was a foreigner.

Henry and Fabian became dukes as well.

They were having a blast in Zarain and told other members of the Lopez and Black families all about their lives there.

The boys wanted to convince everyone to head over.

so that more and more citizens were leaving the Dragonites were too busy to do

suggested that Erudia would fall soon, and the two

the one hand, they absorbed all of Erudia's rich

they messed Erudia's citizens than weapons of mass destruction. That was one of those defense was the most effective attack to stop believing in their country; they made the people think they were all make it so the wars at the three main warzones, and the country's a matter of time before the fifth announced its plans globally. They would break through the fifth layer of defense in one week and would pillage Erudia as soon as living in
in the country and thought that Erudia would wars, however, cast a shadow in everybody's had turned even worse after than telling everyone
Death was not scary.
the anxiety that came the citizen's hearts and infected the warriors' spirits as
and the country fell into a deeper
a psychological attack, and their enemy

Chapter 1686

2-2 minutes

---

Bruce grinned happily.

Everything was within his control.

"As you know, Erudia has imprisoned my brother, Byron," he shared.

"Yes, we are aware of it."

"I will send my men over to rescue my brother. I will break him out of prison from right under Erudia's Dragonites' nose!"

“What will that do?”

Someone answered immediately, “That will prove that Erudia’s defenses are nothing to us. We can go anywhere we please, and even the inner parts of the country are under our control!”

“That’s right. Our actions will make a statement for us and tell everyone that Erudia is as good as ours!”

Bruce smiled and replied, “Yes, that’s a great plan! Imagine what everyone on Earth will say, and what Erudia’s citizens would think.”

Everyone let out a sly smile.

That move would basically demolish the last psychological defense that the citizens had.

“Even that is not enough! We have to make it worse,” said Bruce as an evil glow shot out of his eyes.

more?” blurted

most important place

of the country will be within our

a smile before he added, “We will seize what we want and destroy what we don’t!

a since Erudia has already sent most of its people to the frontline to fight the war. Oakland City is likely nothing more than an or less been occupied, and even the frontline armies will likely falter on its impressed by Bruce’s

send whatever we can spare, but we will get the three

Ruling

a

that crucial moment, so most countries

make sure that he leaves in one

the Northwest City of Byron was imprisoned there.

happening, so he imprisoned Byron in a high-security prison. The cold winter

were

were locked in there, after all, so they had to be

Chapter 1687

2-3 minutes

---

The samurais from Raysonia were surprised when the stadium lights came on.

All of them were stunned in place, looking flabbergasted.

The lights were like mirrors to the soul, and everybody's true nature was instantly revealed.

The voice that sounded afterward also stunned them.

What the hell? Did Erudia anticipate our move?

A few figures showed up behind them after they heard that voice.

They turned out to be Kai and his comrades.

Levi was standing on the tall wall that surrounded the prison, and he was smiling.

A man was kneeling right beside Levi.

That person was Byron.

When Levi said he would show up at an unsuspecting spot, he meant that he would be at the prison.

He had already guessed that the Ruling Union would try to break Byron out of jail.

The situation at the time and the way the enemy had been attacking the people's minds were clues to their next move.

It makes sense that they'd make this move. As suspected, waiting here rewarded me handsomely.

Byron was on the verge of crying.

thought he would

assh*le

one of them and show no mercy,"

others rushed hundred people with them, nor

still slightly stronger when it came to actual combat

was a

ten of Raysonia's samurais panicked and ran toward the prison climbed the tall wall,

in Byron's heart started burning again, scary. He is not f*cking human at all!
They actually have the guts to come to rescue you, huh? Well,
Thump! Bang! Bonk!
Byron up
just recovered from his injuries, go help out in the North Warzone. Let's take him along," planned on staying there for
to the fourth defense barrier of the North like he could waiting for an update while stationed Bruce, sounding slightly worried even though he was rather confident baby brother, after all, so he couldn't help situation in North Erudia Bruce nodded.
in the North Warzone was extremely dangerous

Chapter 1688

2-3 minutes

---

Levi planned on tricking the tricksters.
They had arrived some time ago, but Levi was skilled and kept everyone hidden.
Even Rank Six fighters were unable to detect anything.
That was why the criminals' movements were entirely under Levi's control.
The criminals had already dealt with most of the reinforcements that the Dragonites sent over.
Hence, they never suspected that someone else was right behind that army.
"Heath has just forced us to back away, so he won't expect us to ambush again so quickly."
"Advance!"
Several experts slipped into the night once more and ventured into the region between the fourth and fifth defense barrier.

What they didn't realize was that their comrades were going missing from behind them.

When they emerged a few miles later, their numbers had shrunk from a few thousand soldiers to a few hundred men.

The experts behind those few hundred men weren't their friends.

It was Levi and his troop.

Those few hundred men didn't notice anything strange and kept pushing forward.

All they knew was that someone was behind them.

"Attack!"

arrived at their destination,

they saw was Heath and his men waiting for them because Levi

"W-what?"

didn't take long before

How is it that the few hundred of us

saw the shadows of many men, but they grinned and

attacked from both sides

the enemy had over ten Rank Six fighters with them, and those fighters

there, Levi crushed those Rank Six fighters with his bare fighters were no different from commoners was flabbergasted, Heath and his top-notch fighters like that? Holy crap, that is terrifying! But... that means we have hope of the North were instantly

on. We will attack the enemy, and we will do it so pumped that it was as if someone had shot them

They forged ahead fearlessly.

Union's army in the North never anticipated that Erudia's army would full-on attack, and have time to think. They had their pants when they fought against Erudia's

was simply especially true for and Rank Five fighters, and he

Chapter 1689

2-3 minutes

---

One of the rulers from the South had survived and shared the news.

He revealed the truth about the situation in the South Warzone.

“The Ruling Union’s army in the South have been obliterated, whereas Erudia suffered zero casualties. Alert! Alert! Erudia has an ace up its sleeve, and the person is inhumanely powerful. The Southern border has been secured, and the Ruling Union in the South has fallen. Erudia has someone who can change the entire course of the war!”

The entire world fell into an uproar as soon as the information was leaked.

Almost everyone on Earth thought Erudia would fall soon; they assumed it would be a heavy fall for the country.

They were especially confident that the South would be the first place to fall because it had been a while since Erudia had any contact with its army there.

No one shared any news, and anyone sent over to learn the truth had magically disappeared.

Hence, no one knew what had happened in the South Warzone.

That got many to assume that the army station in the South had been defeated.

Even the Dragonites prepared themselves for the worst and were on the verge of giving up on the South border.

They were coming up with a different strategy at the time.

To their surprise, the Erudia had actually won the war in the South.

Their enemies were obliterated!

miracle, but it didn’t take long before really won the war on its Southern entire world was

of people residing overseas couldn’t believe that was the

a victory against such up their Erudia citizenship

from heaven
stumped upon receiving as they had only learned about the hell is going on? We won the war Dragonites were we received any news from the South? Did Kai or any news,” replied the intelligence department employee
What happened on the Southern border? How did we win the war? Who is behind all Everyone looked exasperated.
an extremely powerful fighter. Either that or he has inhumane Dragonite member’s expression to
to him anything for now. I have do we will investigate the matter in the South and find out what the hell happened. Then, we will share the news of our victory with everyone so that we can boost
the South boosted the country’s morale

Chapter 1690

2-2 minutes

---

Rank Six fighters were all killed, and their heads hung on the wall!
How f*cking insane was that?
The warning message was clear as day.
Anyone who invades Erudia will be killed one after another.
“Extra! Extra!”
“Read all about it!”
“Erudia’s raiders won the war in the North too. The enemy was obliterated, and the thirty-four powerful criminals of Erudia were killed.”
“No enemy survivors escaped the borders.”

“Thirty-eight Rank Six Supreme class fighters were decapitated, and their heads now hang on the wall of the border!”

“Also, eleven of the enemy’s Rank Six fighters in the South...”

It didn’t take long before new information regarding the war was shared.

The newspaper and the media were having field days; they kept circulating the news in Erudia.

about the country’s victories right forever! We

and no one can

warriors are really

Good news kept circulating.

beautiful victories got all Erudian feeling more and were even

Dragonites were shocked

war

Commander-In-Chief knew nothing about couldn’t get in touch with anyone at Erudia squeezed out two successive victories. The Ruling Union’s army was crushed in both the North and the

think that Erudia

effort fleeing the country and joining Raysonia.

from Erudia got everyone who fled the country and

Logan, Shaun,

the country, and it’s winning the news, looked for Erudia, they would

to the North and South borders were the weakest ones. Their army in the West is the most powerful one, and their army in the East is incredible. Both armies are over ten times more powerful than the army in the North