

Pinnacle 1691

Chapter 1691

Everyone was guessing, and most assumed that Levi would go East next.

They had three reasonings behind making that guess. The first was that the Eastern border was simply too close to Oakland City and posed too much threat.

The second was that the army in the East Warzone was slightly weaker. Levi's previous patter, from South to North, suggested that he was moving from the weakest army to the strongest army.

The third was that the army in the West warzone was simply too powerful. It would take him a long time to win the war there... if that was even possible in the first place.

As a team that specialized in ambushing, it only made sense that they went after the weaker link first.

The East Warzone had to be the next target!

Floyd and his men were under a lot of pressure and were trapped in the defense barrier in the East.

To make matters worse, their enemy had increased in number, and that made them suffer even more.

They could, at most, last another three days.

Despite the grave situation, Floyd grinned and told his men, "Don't worry, boys. Reinforcement will be here soon!"

When Floyd heard the news, he knew that his master, Levi, had to be one behind the victory in the North.

Floyd's analysis was that Levi would go to the East border soon to deal with the enemy before heading over to the West to attack at full force.

That was why he believed Levi would be there soon.

confidently despite his men, and they abandoned defense were better anticipate was for Levi to lead Kai and Heath to the West Warzone after winning was that it was better to rip the band-aid already aware of their point in ambushing or strategizing defeat both armies in the East and the West to win, anyway, so there is no point in choosing anymore. We'll just go to the particular battle, Levi stopped leading his men in the over in a behaving irrationally and wildly worked ready in the East claimed, "The thousand energizers I to elevate his position within the Ruling Union, so he thousand energizers were equivalent to fantastic news. Everyone assumes that your Deicide is no longer effective, so let's teach the Erudian army a lesson using your "Hahaha!"

guffawed in glee figures of the Triple Group were to wait
At the Western Warzone. stationed there, so

Chapter 1692

2-3 minutes

The situation in the Western Warzone was like purgatory.

It was the warzone with the most casualties, and if it hadn't been for the medical team and the magical medicine, Erudia's fifth defense barrier would've already fallen.

Every attack was fiercer than the one before; the criminals were causing endless internal trouble and pressure.

At that point, the Medical Elite ancient family had already lost half of its members.

They could, at most, last another two days; they were even worse off than their comrades in the East.

"Is the Dragonites' reinforcement here yet?" asked the Medical Elite grimly.

He had blood all over him.

Truth was, the Grand Master was extremely strong.

He single-handedly killed two Rank Six fighters and five Rank Five fighters.

is gone. The criminals from Blood Palace barred their path, so told you we shouldn't have come, Grandpa! It's not worth it right. If this goes on, Medical Elite, we will all be dead! I still don't understand why terms of our medical skills and combat capabilities. Why ever after hearing what everyone were; they were certain that they would all die if things kept progressing we have reinforcement, and they ambushed the North and South armies, but those were nothing but ambushes. It doesn't take a genius to know that the team responsible for it is weak and useless. How much use could they be against the army in the West? Moreover, the enemy is aware of them now, and their guards are up. powerful the enemies in the East are. Let's assume that the raiders will eliminate them successfully. It would still take we will buying some time for Erudia and stopping their silence after Carter and his friends shared their ideas persisting and fighting will just result in our "Exactly!" wanted to come in the first place! Helping

Chapter 1693

2-2 minutes

"That's amazing! Surrendering is the smart choice here."

Almost every Supreme class fighter there was cheering wildly.

Medical Elite scanned the crowd before asking, "Let's put it to a vote. Those who want to surrender... I mean, join forces with the Ruling Union, speak up now."

"I want to join the Ruling Union!"

"Me too!"

It didn't take long for over ten superiors to cast their votes.

Almost everyone agreed to surrender.

"I will not surrender. I shall persist!"

"That's right. Surrendering and joining the enemy is such a cowardly and embarrassing thing to do. I, Bernard Leigh, refuse to do so!"

"Hell yeah! No matter what happens, I, Tobias Lofton, will not abandon Erudia or my ancestral roots!"

Fortunately, there were some opposing voices as well.

Some martial artists were still honorable and loved their country.

a handful were that firm, but they you two nuts? You will both die if you don't join the Ruling Union. Hell, everyone will die because of it to lay down your life for those common gang were quick to scold

those honorable heroes

before saying, "I don't know if it is worth it, but the refusal to admit defeat runs deep in will not let our enemy have the land of the men inspired their others only saw in the twenty-first century. How are you still victor! We can't help you if you insist on being the retard of the stories.

You lot can wait and family decided to abandon Bernard and the rest to a few men and discuss the matter with the Ruling Union.

accomplish the mission,"

will finally be

You will

are nothing but a bunch of traitors who are his grinned and pointed out, "You guys are just talking sh*t now. Will you remain that stubborn when death comes knocking on your

"Shameful traitors!"

Chapter 1694

2-3 minutes

"I am an Erudian, so why would I join forces with my enemy? That will never happen!" said Abigail firmly.

"That is not up to you!" scoffed Carter, "You are mine, and wives are supposed to follow their husbands everywhere. You will go wherever I go! Boys, keep an eye on Abigail. I will go talk to the Ruling Union now."

"No, I won't..." growled Abigail as she fought hard to refuse compliance.

Unfortunately, she was restricted.

At Ruling Union's West Warzone base.

Bruce was discussing strategy with the council members.

The news about Carter's defection got Bruce and the others to grin happily.

It happened at a surprising moment, but they had anticipated it.

Bruce grinned when he saw Carter there, and the former said, "You truly are wise. We can definitely work together, so why fight and spill each other's blood for no reason?"

"Haha! Yeah. We have thought things through and wish to join the Ruling Union, but we have some conditions..."

that, Carter shared all his comply. How about this? I will make you a promise right here and now. When we take Erudia down, you will all have a claim to the land and resources. The country has abundant of both, anyway, and it will actually be difficult for us to manage everything on our own. Sharing a portion with you will not affect us much.

and the Ruling Union joined forces family and over ten thousand soldiers chose to join the Ruling news with truly is something else.

enjoying our lives as the Angel of Death comes for you," said Medical Elite as he stared at

You all are nothing

as shameless and will not

Things will not end

flashed them all a

Bernard and his gang before taunting, "We'll see which one of us will have

"Let's go. Follow my lead and join the Ruling

What gives you the right to command me? Leave. I wife, so naturally, you have to listen to me!" replied wedding reception was interrupted, so we're not married," insisted Abigail, who refused to go with

Chapter 1695

2-3 minutes

Bernard and his men were ready to make the ultimate sacrifice.

It didn't matter if they died — at least they would die with honor.

They lived in a time where benefits and money ruled above all else.

However, those superficial things weren't the only thing that existed.

There were still people who would sacrifice their lives for the honor that others regard as "laughable."

The Medical Elite ancient family and their comrades had joined the Ruling Union.

At first, they were pretty scared and were on guard.

They worried that their enemy would attack immediately after they deflected.

After all, it would be a great opportunity for the Ruling Union to eradicate the Medical Elite ancient family once and for all.

It didn't take long before everyone realized that their worry was unfounded.

The Ruling Union was delighted to have new recruits.

Naturally, the reason behind it was because the cost of running the Ruling Union was extremely high. It was better if they had fewer enemies to deal with.

Medical Elite led his men to meet up with Bruce and the gang.

"Huh? An ordinary person?"

when

imagined that an ordinary guy was actually the head of the Ruling is truly unheard

guy who commanded an army

guy had invented

the hell? Are regular folks who had the ability to topple Heaven and Earth, folks were the mastermind behind

"Yes, I am an ordinary guy, but I can turn into a killing machine

Bruce specialized in technology.

was to press a button on his watch, and he would turn into a super-being like armor engulfed incredible offensive and defensive was that pawn,

brother only survived the explosion thanks to the technology developed by that same was actually the will of the rest were just pawns of got the martial artists hell? A regular guy can instantly gain the power medicine designed by the Medical Elite ancient family couldn't that you are willing to join the Ruling Union. As you see, we are sincere in sincere you are, and we thank you for it," said Medical Elite, who was given the position to be one of

Chapter 1696

3-4 minutes

Cruelty flashed past Carter's face.

The man had always believed that being evil was the key to success, even though he came from a family of doctors.

He knew medical skills could be used as a killing tool as much as they could be used as a healing mechanism.

Hence, Carter had specialized and learned about the science of killing people over the past few years.

At that moment, Carter had already agreed to the terms, so Medical Elite and the others had no choice but to support him.

"Yeah, that's the spirit. Show us how sincere your offer is. That is the only way you can prove that you are one of us. Prep as quickly as possible. You only have twelve hours to accomplish your mission," said Bruce before he left with a smile.

It was time for Bruce and his men to discuss taking the next step because they had pretty much broken through the Western border.

Medical Elite and the others were now stuck in a difficult position.

They knew Bernard and the others would likely die, but they didn't realize they would have to be the ones to deliver the killing blows.

They might be shameless, but killing the people they once fought together with got the traitors to feel conflicted.

In a way, they were still slightly triggered and felt a little shame when Bernard and the others had called them traitors.

"It does not feel right. I can't do it!" complained Medical Elite, who was the first to voice up what everyone had in mind.

"Grandpa, let's just kill them. If we don't, we will be the ones to die! This is our test from the Ruling Union!" insisted Carter.

His eyes shone with murderous intent, and he looked merciless.

it, Grandpa, then I will lead my team and attack prove himself and

"Alright!"

Carter would lead a team

f*cking bastard! It's bad enough that you're betraying and deflecting, but you're going to kill your own comrades traitor as well. You will contribute to their deaths, and you a horrible death!" growled wanted to cry, but no tears would getting out of the sticky

as Erudia's traitor once the news got out, and she would not be able to clear her your family as well. You know all too well that Erudia will eventually fall," boasted Carter as that, the

the Ruling Union truly was after she was dragged to their base, and she learned just how much

a fragment of their true

At the same moment.

was leading his army and was on the way to the Ruling Union. As of

was the news shared got Levi to

Elite ancient family is nothing but a family of scums. I truly and the act of surrendering as something eyes turned red with anger, and they were so furious fine if their enemy were more skilled, and it was

Chapter 1697

2-3 minutes

“Extra! Extra! There’s trouble in the West warzone! The Medical Elite ancient family, along with powerful forces amounting to tens of thousands of martial artists have surrendered! They’ve all joined the Ruling Union! With the West warzone having only thousands of men left on guard, they’re going to be defeated in no time! Once the West warzone’s fifth line of defense breaks, all of Erudia will be infiltrated due to its unique topography! If that happens, Erudia’s going to be taken over completely! And If the East warzone’s fifth line of defense breaks too, it’ll be a problem for Oakland City! Erudia is in grave danger!”

The news of the Medical Elite ancient family surrendering and betraying the country alongside a legion of martial artists quickly spread across the world.

This was an utter slap to the face for Erudia.

Both citizens and Dragonites were dumbfounded and terrified.

All that courage they once possessed instantly vanished.

The North and South warzones didn’t matter at all.

What mattered most were the East and West warzones.

These were the zones that could truly endanger Erudia.

Alas, the worst had come.

Erudia had lost control in the West, and the East may not be able to hang on for much longer.

Erudia’s darkest and most difficult moment had arrived.

The entire nation fell into anguish.

bothered talking dirt about those traitors; it was that awaited was streets became empty in Every business ceased operations.

people quietly awaited their knew what it meant to lose the up and think of something, or we're finished for been able to
to. They must have Dragonites were fast running went wild Countless people laughed.
among the traitors who had run more horrible the situation in Erudia became, the more they Ruling Union's side, mechanisms and even wasn't even brought Abigail with him just to get no way of walking away
the balls to, Carter!"

Chapter 1698

2-3 minutes

Suddenly, a loud bellow pierced the air like thunder.
Everyone was taken aback, and their ears rang so much that their vision blurred slightly.
It was a terrifying sound.
Abigail didn't know if she was hearing things, but the noise sounded especially familiar.
"Look! Over there!"
Suddenly, Carter's subordinates gasped in shock.
Shadows began to appear on both sides of the mountain summit, looking particularly intimidating.
Everyone felt their breathing turn frantic, and they soon felt suffocated.
"What..."
Carter's expression immediately took a turn.

He had a bad feeling about this.

His eyelid began to twitch, which was a bad omen if one were to be superstitious.

“Who are they?” asked Carter’s men.

While defending their zone, Tobias and Bernard exchanged glances before laughing boisterously.

“Support has arrived, men! Our efforts have not been in vain! Let us prepare ourselves and fight alongside them!”

Soon, thousands of screams could be heard in the area.

he stood on their army consisting of tens of thousands, Kai and Erudia. Kill anyone who has killed my comrades.

“Attack!”

a loud roar, the men charged toward Carter and his troops

“What...”

Carter was dumbstruck.

hadn’t brought that many thousand men with him, which made up only a third had nearly gained the upper hand over Tobias’ troops, only for the tides to turn at the Erudia’s raiders! They’ve come to the West instead of raiders were, Carter quickly retreated would Levi let them get Certainly not.

long sealed their escape

“Kill them!”

Bam!

Pow!

Clang!

parties quickly

who had betrayed

collapsed in pools raiders killed relentlessly, especially when it came to mercy was to be blades, fists—they used every method cries resonated across were the most furious, and they unleashed all their wrath on their

Chapter 1699

3-4 minutes

- Abigail and Carter shuddered upon hearing that voice.
- It sounds so familiar.
- Could it be...
- They were both dumbfounded as soon as they saw his face.
- Tobias and Bernard were just as stunned, for they had met Levi while attending Carter and Abigail's wedding previously.
- Yet, they never expected him to be the one leading the raiders.
- Tobias turned to Heath. "It's him?"
- "That's right. He's the one who led us to victory at the North and the South zones! I watched him kill over thirty Rank Six fighters with my own eyes."
- Even talking about it now sent chills down Heath's spine.
- Tobias and the others inhaled sharply as their expression turned ghastly.
- "That's terrifying."
- "Levi? Is it really you?"
- People among the crowd had different emotions as they saw Levi.
- For Abigail, it was surprise, joy, and hope.
- For Carter, it was pure shock.
- Levi walked toward him slowly.
- "You shameless traitor. Killing your own comrades like that; how could you do such a thing?" Levi remarked with a cold smile.
- Seeing Levi draw closer to him, Carter suddenly smirked as a look of hostility flashed in his eyes.
- He quickly charged at Levi, attempting to kill him.

- Whoosh!
- Yet, Levi suddenly disappeared right in front of his eyes.
- Bam!
- Crack!
- The sound of bones breaking could be heard as Carter fell to the ground and wailed in pain.
- His right leg had been broken.
- “Y-Y-You’re no ordinary human!”
- Realization finally dawned on Carter.
- Bam!
- Levi slapped him across the face, causing all the man’s teeth to fly out of his battered mouth.
- Abigail was thrilled at the sight.
- Levi really is no ordinary man!
- I’m such an idiot.
- I’d even thought of saving him by marrying Carter.
- “Kill the rest of them!” Levi ordered.
- With that, the remaining traitors were quickly disposed of.
- All that was left were Carter and Abigail.
- “I’m going to kill him, Abigail. You won’t stop me, will you?” asked Levi.
- Carter was Abigail’s fiancé, after all.
- “Save me, Abigail! I’m your husband! Tell your dear brother-in-law not to kill me!”
- Carter began to panic.
- Alas, Abigail’s heart was like stone. “Kill this scumbag, Levi. I have nothing to do with him.”
- Levi nodded. “Okay. I’ll do it, but not right now.”
- Tobias and the rest of the crowd immediately came up to him. “You’re the Crown King! Thank God! With your support, we can now continue to defend the West warzone!”
- Everyone beamed with joy.

Yet, Levi responded, “Who says you’re going to stay here and defend it? We’ll now be attacking the Ruling Union head-on. That’s an order!”

“Wait...”

“What?”

“Am I dreaming?”

The crowd was flabbergasted by Levi’s words.

We’re going to attack instead of defend?

With our current numbers?

And it’s going to be a full-frontal, head-on attack?

This is crazy!

Pure madness!

On the other hand, those who knew Levi well remained calm.

They understood that the concept of defense never existed in Levi’s vocabulary. It was all about attacking.

“The Crown King’s orders are absolute! Get ready for a head-on attack!”

Kai and Heath began to execute Levi’s orders.

“Is this for real?”

“I-I-I...”

Tobias and his troops shivered in fear.

Never had they expected to carry out an attack.