Chapter 1701

Bruce smiled and said, "There's a saying in Erudia that goes 'Do not attempt the impossible.'"

"Today, I have finally understood the meaning of that saying."

"It should be the Erudia's raiders who have been very active recently. They didn't go into the East Warzone. Instead, they have gone to the West."

"Haha! So, they changed their plan, huh? Too bad for them that our stronghold in the West is insurmountable. They won't be able to successfully spring a surprise attack on us. It's hopeless for them!"

"Now, they're planning to do a frontal attack, but to attack with just those people? It's ridiculous!"

The Ruling Union laughed at the futile plan.

In their eyes, Levi had made a very, very stupid decision.

Even Tobias could not believe the ridiculous attack plan.

"Grandpa, please save me!"

At that moment, a voice sounded.

"Huh? Is that my grandson?"

"Carter!"

The Medical Elite ancient family could not help themselves anymore.

It was as if they had all lost their minds.

On a mountain top in the far distance, Carter fell to his knees.

A black saber had been rested on his neck.

Carter screamed in terror.

The entire Medical Elite ancient family shuddered at the deal that had been struck between Bruce and Levi.

What would Levi want?

Bruce nodded fervently. "Just tell me what you want. As long as it is within my ability, I'll do anything for you!"

"You want your brother to live? There is only one condition! Kill the entire Medical Elite ancient family! All of them!"

Gasp!

As soon as the words left Levi's lips, a gasp sounded all around.

How could he demand such a thing?

The faces of the entire Medical Elite family drained of all colors.

Kill all of us? Does he want to turn us against each other? He's too cunning!

"This..."

Bruce was dumbstruck.

He hesitated.

Levi's intention was obvious; he was trying to instigate a fight amongst themselves.

This would greatly diminish their collective strength.

He wanted to use Bruce to get rid of all fifty thousand traitors.

How can I kill them all?

The Medical Elite and all the council members of the Ruling Union turned to look at Bruce.

Bruce had no choice but to agree to Levi's condition.

That meant Ruling Union was going to kill them all in cold blood.

Bruce drew in a deep breath and ordered, "Kill them! Kill them all!"

"Bruce! Please think this through!"

The council members of the Ruling Union begged Bruce desperately.

"No! They must all die for my brother to live! Anyway, their death means nothing! It'll not weaken our collective strength! I am your commander do as I have ordered!" Bruce explained as he commanded the Ruling Union to kill the entire Medical Elite ancient family.

The council members were relieved to hear Bruce's explanation.

They were glad to learn that the death of these fifty thousand souls would not affect their strength; they could still storm into Erudia.

"Kill them all!" the council members of the Ruling Union echoed after Bruce.

The Ruling Union's troops methodically culled all fifty thousand traitors, including the Medical Elite ancient family.

The Medical Elite was shocked at the way things had turned out.

They had no choice but to fight again.

In order to survive, one could only keep cutting down the enemy in front of you, but they were surrounded.

In front of them, Levi stood with his men and behind them, the Ruling Union's troops were taking them off one by one.

There seemed to be no way out for them.

"What?"

Levi's words stunned everyone, and that included those who were on his side.

Everyone stared curiously at Levi.

Is he going back on his words? That's... not right.

"You lied! You..."

Bruce roared because he knew that he was conned.

"What's wrong with you? When have I ever promised that I'd set your brother free? All I said was that I won't kill him," said Levi.

"That..."

Bruce thought about it and realized that Levi was right. The latter never mentioned anything about setting Byron free.

"You despicable, shameless assh*le!" shouted Bruce angrily.

Levi grinned and added, "Awh, let me tell you something even more despicable and shameless."

"What do you mean?"

"I am a very reasonable man. I killed those traitors because they betrayed Erudia and planned on murdering their own people. That earned them the death penalty.

"Your brother is an entirely different case. He is just a thief, so the worst punishment he'd get is decade-long imprisonment. Death was never on the table. You may have sent someone to rescue him from jail, but that sin falls onto your shoulders. It has nothing to do with him, so I never planned on killing him."

Floyd and the others had been resisting and fighting for a long time.

“This isn’t right. Why hasn’t Levi shown up?”

Floyd panicked.

He knew that given Levi's style and speed, the guy should've been there ages ago.

Why isn't he here yet? The most strategic time to attack is long gone. Does he have something else up his sleeves?

"What is taking our reinforcement so long? We can't hold them off for much longer."

Pained moans filled the East Warzone.

Their casualty was simply unimaginable.

Just then, a piece of important news spread out and shook everyone to their core.

"I just received some horrible news. We're really doomed!

"According to the update I received, the raiders had gone to the West Warzone. The Medical Elite ancient family, who had betrayed Erudia and deflected, are all killed!

"It is also said that the raiders didn't ambush the Ruling Union. Instead, they performed a full-frontal assault. That is truly surprising.

"They are at an impasse, and a battle is imminent. The Ruling Union is a few hundred times stronger in terms of skills and numbers. In other words, the discrepancy between the two sides is obvious, and the result is predictable. The Ruling Union will soon break through the West Warzone and occupy over half of Erudia's land!

Levi was the last to march forward, but he was the first one to reach the battleground.

“I will overwhelm this army!”

Levi suddenly flung his leg over.

Voom!

A scary force swept across his enemies.

“Ah!”

“Urk!”

“Gah!”

The invading soldiers exploded and became bloody mist.

It only took a moment for over a thousand martial artists to perish.

Hiss!

One simple move was all it took to get people from both sides to gasp.

They were so stunned that they paused instantly.

This dude is really something else. Does he actually have what it takes to win the battle by fighting head-on?

Erudia’s warriors instantly got inspired, and they forged ahead in the heat of the moment.

Levi was like God of Slaughter, and he stood at the frontline as he crushed his enemies.

The Ruling Union assigned their Rank Six fighters in the following way.

Eleven were sent to the North, thirty-eight were sent to the South, but the West?

In fact, three hundred were sent to the West!

That was beyond anybody's imagination, and people from Wildefield were having an especially rough time trying to wrap their minds around it.

They had always found pride in having one Rank Six fighter among them.

Yet, their enemy had three hundred!

And that didn't even include men like Bruce, who were wearing armor to gain the power of a Rank Six fighter.

If those soldiers were included in the count, there would be over three hundred fifty Rank Six fighters with them!

"You have one mission, and that is to kill Levi Garrison!" roared Bruce with his bloodshot eyes burning with rage.

Levi was the only one who had ever faced a predicament like that after the Gods' Promise was broken.

Three hundred Rank Six fighters were going after him.

Although... no... it would be more accurate to say that this predicament was rare even before the Gods' Promise was broken.

Levi had to fight against three hundred Rank Six fighters.

How infuriating and strong would a person have to be to get himself in that much trouble?

Every other country in the world had zero faith in Erudia because the country was in such a terrible situation.

The difference in strength on both side was too great.

It was virtually impossible for ants to carry elephants away, and there were more elephants than there were ants on that battlefield.

That was why everything was so terrifying.

No one believed that the army in the West could last.

It will definitely be over in one hour.

The battle had begun.

Almost everyone on Earth had their eyes on that battlefield.

Half an hour passed.

The battle was still ongoing.

One hour came and went.

Yet, the battle was still not over.

That was when most were stunned.

Wait, it's not done?

"That proves just how strong the remaining soldiers in Erudia were. They actually managed to hold their enemy off for an hour!"

The Ruling Union's martial artists were slowly dissipating.

First, it was the total annihilation of Rank Five and Rank Six fighters, but as time passed, the other martial artists fell as well.

With Levi in command, the raiders of Erudia crushed their enemies easily.

He was way too strong.

Bruce couldn't even imagine, but a single lad had destroyed the Ruling Union's allied army.

The battle was still ongoing.

Three hours later, the Ruling Union was completely obliterated.

The army of a few hundred thousand men had fallen.

Unfortunately, Erudia suffered a great loss as well.

About three-quarters of their men had died and most of the survivors were wounded.

Tobias, Bernard, and their comrades were barely hanging on as well.

Everyone was waiting for the news from the West Warzone, but nothing came.
No one could approach the Warzone either, so they couldn't investigate.
Bruce and his men were fleeing at the time.
Everyone looked terrible.
We have failed...

They planned for years, but it was all for naught, and every single one of them was upset about it.

No, we can't let things end like this!

"No, we will not admit defeat just like that! We still have some forces in the East Warzone, and Jared's Deicide is still operational. A portion of our power remains, and we still have a shot."

"Yeah! Plus, we have people supporting us from behind the scenes, so we can't let this opportunity slip out of our hands."

Bruce was one of the people who refused to admit defeat.

"What do we do now? We have to get back at them for this!" said Byron.

"We'll initiate our second plan and attack Oakland City directly. Victory will be ours so long as we destroy the city. Send some men over right away and implement the second plan! Hurry and do it as quickly as possible. Ambush them before they figure anything out," growled Bruce.
