

Pinnacle 1731

Chapter 1731

"I-It's freaking Levi! H-How are you still alive!"

Byron couldn't even form a complete sentence when he found out he had been right all along—Levi was alive! Even Deicide couldn't take him out!

Clenching his teeth with all his might in an attempt to calm himself, Byron continued stammering, "Y-You..."

"I'm afraid it's impossible for you to take him away with you until you take me out."

The mysterious figure behind Byron started emanating a menacing aura, intimidating those in the hall.

Since he was merely a step away from Rank Seven, he was no ordinary Rank Six combatant. In short, he was one of the few formidable foes Levi had ever encountered.

Swoosh!

He drew his long sword that seemed like one of the Raysonia's samurai. The sword seemed to have been loaded with a mysterious form of energy, granting him the power to take out his foe without much of a challenge.

Schneider did a great job incorporating the techniques of Raysonia with the advancement of technology. Thus, Byron felt a sense of relief with Schneider around him.

"I won't allow you to take anyone away with you as long as I'm around here!"

for one last time before catapulting in the direction of Swoosh!

at the speed of light with his sword and crashed the floor as a a prey of his.

you trying to outmatch me in terms

in his foe's direction

Bam!

side in split seconds and had

as if nothing had occurred, but blood gushed out of Schneider's arm after another few Clank!

after his body had split into from Rank Seven within split seconds and the horrifying scene, Jameson was about to Byron, he announced with a smirk, “Why don’t you come with me and stop trying anything silly Bam! Bam! Bam!

body parts he had spent days and weeks touching up. Levi dragged the dejected man out of

Chapter 1732

3-3 minutes

---

Gasp!

Those next to him gasped when they heard the news of Byron being taken into custody by an Erudian.

They couldn’t help but wonder if Byron’s speculation had been spot on all this while.

Bruce asked at the top of his lungs, “Where’s Jameson and Schneider? Haven’t I sent them to keep him safe? Are you seriously telling me none of those from the laboratory could stop an Erudian?”

“According to the report, the defense system of the laboratory has been destroyed! Meanwhile, Schneider was killed in split seconds!”

Bruce’s face puckered in despair when he found out Schneider was taken out in split seconds. It was evident they had encountered a nasty foe.

Once he gathered his thoughts, Bruce instructed, “Hurry up and dispatch our men to search for Byron! I want you to get your hands on his precise location as soon as possible!”

He caressed his chin and murmured to himself in an attempt to figure out the identity of the intruder, “Who the hell is the mysterious Erudian? None from Erudia has the guts to pick on us since we have made ourselves clear that we will never surrender!”

The guest next to him said, “Maybe he’s one of Erudia’s martial artists? After all, the nation still has a lot of powerful figures.”

because I’m going to teach him a lesson for picking on us! It’s time to let them know we’re not easy targets! Since he has the guts to abduct my brother, was about to begin. Otherwise, he’d definitely join the search and rescue news took the officials of Zarain by storm. The authorities dispatched most of their men to pursue search and rescue operation was conducted in most advanced system, Index, had been employed to increase the efficiency of who had made it to the nation wouldn’t be able to leave without it was all over the globe, including the capitals

the most fearsome

their effort was to no avail since the duo disappointment was written all over his face when seriously telling me you can't locate them? What kind of joke is this?

to stay calm since we're still carrying out the search and rescue operation as we speak! We're certain they're still in Zarain since there are no signs of "Huh? Are you telling me you can't even Jared's coronation ceremony. Similarly, he couldn't share the bad news with

Chapter 1733

2-3 minutes

---

It was finally the day for him to rise to the throne and make a name for himself for his outstanding contribution.

Jared stared ahead and thought it was considered an amazing feat since he was merely a nobody just some time ago.

No one will consider me a geek from today onwards! No one is going to make fun of me anymore! I have successfully defeated my peers in terms of achievement!

Jared's loyal followers, including Henry and Logan, were equally thrilled as they thought they would be deemed honorable members of the nation soon.

It was only a matter of time until they got their hands on unlimited wealth and fame.

"I can't wait for the bright future ahead of us! We're no longer good-for-nothing anymore!"

"Ha! There's no way I'm making my way back to Erudia when the nation has nothing to offer!"

Thrilled by the things awaiting them, Shaun and his peers shared their thoughts with one another.

Bruce finally returned to his senses since it was time for the ceremony. "We'll just carry on with the ceremony and decide on the next best course of action once everything's over."

the officiation of agreements between the officials of nation, the session had garnered the attention

be irked,

the news of Byron being abducted made it the news couldn't be verified, the news had taken people had their attention on the issue and wondered if the Erudia, including the higher-ups of Dragonites, were equally confused since they weren't aware of the but to wait until the moment of truth in order to figure out the identity of the the town since the news of the officials searching high and low for Byron had Bruce's subordinate received a text eyes on Lake City of Zarain while Jared him and whispered, "Sir, we have found your brother almost sprang up from his seat. He close proximity from our current location! We have searched every city apart from Lake City! It turns out they have been hiding

"What?"

Chapter 1734

2-3 minutes

---

The guests were afraid their lives would be at stake and started shrieking in fear of being taken out.
Things were chaotic since everyone, including Bruce and Jared, was startled by the presence of the intruder.

A few seconds after they returned to their senses and caught a glimpse of the intruder, they saw a mysterious figure next to the intruder.

It was none other than Byron, who was drenched in blood, unconscious next to the intruder.

Bruce could no longer suppress his wrath when he saw his brother. He yelled, "Byron!"

Those who were aware of the truth started clenching their fists with their teeth gritted in wrath.

"It's him! I can't believe he has the guts to show up in front of us!"

They were rendered speechless since they had just gotten their hands on the so-called intruder's whereabouts just a few minutes ago.

They couldn't believe Levi's ultimate goal was to ruin the ceremony.

the guests engaged themselves in a heated discussion, they finally figured out

Erudian possesses rumors reliable and thought something must there was no way they would start another fight after such a since he was the ceremony and brought everything to a halt. It who had gathered around, couldn't move their eyes away from Levi “You’d better stay away from him! I’ll consider setting you free and showing you some mercy! Otherwise, I won’t allow you to at him for a short while and looked elsewhere since he was to atone for your sins, Jared! You don’t think you get to escape, do you?” Levi broke the silence running down his spine when he heard the horrifying thoughts in his mind, he went dead

You have joined others and murdered your fellow countrymen without showing them any mercy! Do you really think you can got down on his knees as his legs turned to jelly. Similarly, the traitors of Erudia were afraid of the end up just like Jared if the

Chapter 1735

2-3 minutes

---

The pertaining issue was the talk of the globe. In other words, Levi’s arrogant statement had just been broadcast to viewers from all around the globe.

Billions of Erudians showed Levi their supports and commented: That’s the way!

Erudians were thrilled when they heard Levi. It was the same for those affiliated with Dragonites.

Although they couldn’t get their hands on the identity of the mysterious figure, they were glad to have him on their side.

On top of that, they were proud of him since he had made himself clear he was there on behalf of his country as a fellow Erudian.

Since we can’t stop him, we’ll just let him run free and take Byron and Jared back with him to prove others wrong!

It’s time to show them Erudia is not a pushover! They need to learn to show us some respect instead of picking on us as if it’s not a big deal!

“You must make it out of Zarain alive! You’re the only hope of the country!”

Billions of Erudians clenched their fists in anticipation of the confrontation’s outcome. They hoped Levi could make it back alive along with the criminals.

the viewers of different opinions. A majority of them couldn’t make to gloat over Levi’s misfortune as developed country. Levi had just provoked a superior country and waged war against a country on his Zarain would forgive him for challenging the top of the deck, Levi was merely a few feet away launched themselves in Levi's direction, but they were sent

Bam!

Bang!

drenched in blood as his so-called bodyguards were beaten to pulps in

"It's time to go!"

launched a powerful kick at a result, a loud crack could be heard. It was safe to assume that Jared's holding the Northern Excalibur on his left hand and the vicious duo on his marching away on the deck. As a result, most of the traitors started

"B-Boohoo... I..."

to do with second thought, they

Chapter 1736

2-3 minutes

---

Shield was the first to receive the request from the higher-ups.

"We need to take him out with extreme countermeasures! It's necessary to warn others to stay away from Zarain!"

It turned out the officials of Zarain thought it was a great opportunity to prove themselves a strong nation.

In short, Levi had more foes than he could ever imagine in Zarain. He had to tackle assassination attempts from countless parties.

Erudians were well aware of the things awaiting Levi and thought he might not make it out alive since no one was a match for Zarain in terms of combat skills.

To make things worse, Zarain wasn't on its own since the officials of the country had been keeping in touch with the officials of other countries.

It wasn't much of an exaggeration to consider it a fight of Levi against half of the globe. If he was able to make it out alive, he might be regarded as the most notable man of the century.

He would die an honorable death even if he could not make it out alive.

With that being said, billions of Erudians hoped he'd make it out alive and return to them safely.

Thousands of combatants had gathered around on the battleship. As soon as they surrounded Levi, Bruce warned, "I'll give you another chance to set them free!"

high and announced with an arrogant smirk, "I won't hold back against the ones

"Take him out without hurting

he was hell all of

forward and twirled the Northern Excalibur without holding back his menacing aura took his foes by surprise. Once again, the dazzling sword of his rendered his foes incapable of Swoosh!

ground and passed on one after another with blood gushing out his way through the piles of corpses him since they were afraid of being taken out by surprise when all it took to people at once. Hence, Levi continued making his way to the other end after another and no one seemed to have what it took even withstand a strike from his sword, let alone actual capabilities, he finally linked the reason Byron was taken into everyone to go after him at once!

Chapter 1737

2-3 minutes

---

Bruce's bulging veins could be seen on his forehead. He started shuddering involuntarily, indicating he was on the verge of going berserk.

He's pushing his luck! There's no way I'm letting him off the hook!

Although Levi had made his way off the battleship with Jared and Byron, he still needed to brace himself through the upcoming challenges.

The battleship's defense system had been activated. Levi was the sole target of the advanced weapons installed onboard.

If it weren't because of the hostages, Levi might have been blown into a speck of dust within a few seconds.

On top of the self-defense system, there were several choppers in the middle of the air. The choppers had been armed with different types of weapons to assassinate Levi as soon as the opportunity arose.

On the other end, countless armored vehicles had gathered around on the land. Several unique models with the latest technologies were involved in the mission to take out the threat of the nation.

The vehicles were carrying secret weapons which could be laser beams weaponry, nuclear weapons, and even biological weapons. Those had always been the trump cards of Zarain.

to be kept confidential from civilians, but the officials couldn't care less since vehicles were samurais from Raysonia, martial artists, and men with their favor at ease. Usually, there were talents to manipulate elements of nature. They happened to be the second group cultivated their talents through the alteration of genetic models and physical conditions. Usually, they would achieve supernatural strength and speed. Occasionally, they would get their hands on the talents to control of superpower was supernatural strength and speed since with high speed such as cheetah or grizzly bear for strength in order to grant them the talent of the particular species

those with superpowers could easily outmatch martial artists since not many could be considered foes to those were all sorts of rumors regarding those with superpowers, but the officials had gone to great lengths was a surprise for those with superpowers to show up as if they had always been armored warriors had gathered around as soon from Shield had gathered the

Chapter 1738

2-3 minutes

---

Bruce put on his custom-made armor the laboratory had put together for him. It was several-fold superior to the one Levi had sliced in half a few minutes ago.

It had cost a fortune to produce the one Bruce had put on. To be precise, Bruce's armor had cost the laboratory more than three hundred million.

"Stop getting full of yourself and making fun of Zarain! We possess the most advanced technologies and weapons in the world! We're not afraid of anyone, including you, a nobody from Erudia! Your journey stops here and now! Take him out!"

The battle of the century was about to unfold.

Within a few minutes, mercenaries, martial artists, and men with superpowers and weapons with advanced technologies catapulted in the direction of Levi.

The upcoming battle was different from the ones Levi had with the Ruling Union—the forces of the Ruling Union couldn't be much of a threat when they weren't on the same page.

On the other hand, Levi's current foes were well-structured. They could easily complement one another's presence and shortcomings.

Their seemingly flawless strategy might bring upon Levi's demise had he failed to exercise caution against his foes.

showdown began, Levi was surrounded within a few seconds. Their initial goal was keep him occupied to achieve the goal, the snipers in the choppers took aim at That's so annoying!"

after Levi responded with a frown, he cast the Northern

"Somersault Strike!"

a gigantic boomerang and started swirling at an intense speed,

Swoosh!

to

the irritating choppers as if it wasn't a big deal.

about a hundred choppers, the battleground was set on fire. Although the officials were there to keep the forces aligned and coordinated, their effort was the fight. Ironically, Levi was spite of the life-threatening attacks launched at him, Levi brushed it off and countered it with a short while, he had made his way across the piles of corpses in front of him with the

Chapter 1739

2-3 minutes

---

At that moment, all of the skilled fighters of Zarain stopped and shifted their gaze silently.

Besides, Bruce was overjoyed when he saw the Rank Seven warrior.

The Rank Seven warriors only exist in legends in ancient times.

Given the immense difficulty to become a Rank Six warrior, those who attained Rank Six regarded the ones below them as mere pests.

In that case, becoming Rank Seven warriors would be tremendous progress for every Rank Six warrior.

After all, a Rank Seven warrior could resist thousands of Rank Six warriors alone.

In other words, the gap between the two ranks was nearly insurmountable.

At that time, everyone fell silent and was shocked when they saw the Rank Seven warrior.

In order to resist Levi, Zarain was willing to do anything at all costs, including hiring a Rank Seven warrior.

The Rank Seven warrior was wearing medieval plate armor with sparks from thunder surrounding him.

Everyone was terrified once they found out that he was a man with superpowers and could control thunders and lightning since he was born.

Moreover, many ordinary people regarded him as a living god and called him “Zarain’s God of Thunder”.

Being one of Zarain’s trump cards, he was sent here to kill Levi personally.

“Get out of my way!”

Zarain’s God of Thunder yelled, everyone made the tall and imposing man walked up to Bzzt, bzzt, bzzt—

beamed and let out terrible sounds as

God

the sky turned dark, while the storm clouds collided to create bolts of lightning and

Boom!

witnessed that

The legend truly exists!

in the past, for no one had witnessed such an impressive and

Zarain’s God of Thunder controlled thunders and appeared

“Die!”

Bzzt!

a bolt of lightning

Clank!

his hand to block the bolt realized that a crack formed

Hiss!

they gasped

of Thunder is exceptionally strong, for he could dent

How terrifying!

“Die!”

continued to strike Levi

Clank! Clank! Clank!

the bolts of lightning with the

Chapter 1740

2-3 minutes

---

“Die!”

Boom!

Thunder struck across the sky non-stop.

“Die!”

Boom!

After Zarain’s God of Thunder yelled several times, numerous lightning bolts gathered and struck Levi.

Boom, boom, boom...

Instantly, everything within a hundred miles was burnt to the ground.

The spectators were stunned by the horrifying sight that greeted them.

Deep down, they believed that the immense power could obliterate a great army with hundreds of thousands of troops in no time.

As such, all of them were awed by the immensely destructive power exhibited by the Rank Seven’s warrior.

How much power does the Rank Seven warrior possess? He is just like God! I wonder if Levi even has a slight chance to withstand his attack.

As the bolts of lightning almost hit Levi at the center, he shouted without fear, “Blocked!”

With that, he blocked the bolts of lightning with his bare fists one by one.

First punch!

Second punch!

Third punch!

seconds, Levi threw hundreds of thousands of punches to block his body to withstand lightning? Heck, I've that time, Byron and Jared fainted from

Bam!

following every one of the terrifying power set the ground quaking, sending

"Ah!"

"Ugh!!"

out toward the other Zarain's warriors, the number of casualties increased

Bam! Bam! Bam!

all bolts

to their surprise, Levi wasn't

Instead, Levi roared after he successfully swung his right arm to throw a no time, the punch became supersonic and created

Bam!

of Zarain's God of that moment, all Zarain's God of Thunder could do was unscathed from my numerous bolts

Bang!

of Zarain's God of Thunder exploded, spewing doubt, the scene shocked everyone before our eyes and turned into a pool of people of Zarain and anyone who witnessed it stood and power! He

Rank Seven warrior's powerful move didn't hurt Levi