

Pinnacle 1761

Chapter 1761

“Do you dare to give it a try?”

“So many people are watching and many international media are here, just you lift a finger and see what comes your way?”

There was silence.

The crowd was furious and they glared at Levi.

Bang!

Bang!

Bang!

It went on...

Levi did not bother to waste his breath talking with them; instead, he kicked them one by one onto the cruise ship.

His overbearing method was shocking.

Even the international media were taken aback.

Levi looked at them. “Who gave you permission to set foot on Erudia? This is an unconventional entry, right? According to Erudia law, I have reason to drive you out!”

With one word, Levi silenced the crowd of nearly one thousand.

Indeed, they had not gone through the immigration formalities.

After all, they were not citizens of Erudia and had therefore broken the law as illegal immigrants.

Levi did

“Leave, leave immediately!”

Levi roared.

all

will be

blasted out

was split in two, forming a big gap of thousands

that, the powerful force

went out

shocked

Is he even human?
and withdrew the invisible
into a flurry of
are you? By what authority do you drive them idols! How dare
The questioning went on...
glared at Levi in to this, Erudia was facing danger. Where “Well...”
“They were...”
“They were in...”
There was no answer.
question, Levi left 100,000 fans speechless, unable to soon,

Chapter 1762

2-2 minutes

Floyd replied in a loud voice.
The hundreds of thousands were astounded.
They looked at Levi in awed respect.
At that time these warriors were the ones all Erudian citizens praise and worship.
When they heard the name, “Crown King,” everyone was excited.
“Citizens, ladies and gentlemen, people like Crown King and Benny Quinton are the ones that we should idolize!”
“Let us not be fooled by physical beauty! We long for beauty in appearance but the beauty of the spirit is more important.”
The crowd agreed silently.
Seeing the crowd being awakened, Floyd and the others smiled.
The charisma of Levi’s character was increasing in their hearts.

He had, inevitably, solved this problem of using brute force.

This made many realize what they should value.

After this, nobody dared to break this rule.

Those traitors who had fled from Erudia could never come back.

Funnily enough, everyone found out that without these “elites,” everything went on as usual in Erudia.

left, someone else would replace them and might

Forlevia, a

Garrison, save us,

themselves on the ground and

you... from the Northern

them by

Mr. Garrison, please save

were

“What is the matter?”

treated their wounds and then forces were suddenly attacked by unknown masters! They were brutal and determined to exterminate our were guarding Oakland to explain their clarified what had some investigation. Floyd and the others knew that Eragon was behind this. They wanted forces that surrendered to

of the Northern Demon members had been

who escaped had come to Levi

Floyd

“Daddy, someone is coming!”

Forlevia alerted Levi.

could be heard

the courtyard, all dressed in black, wearing black on his back and was armed with

Chapter 1763

2-3 minutes

“Levi Garrison? We don’t care who you are! We will kill them no matter what!”

The Eragon swordsmen were arrogant and believed they were the best in the world.

They had no respect at all for Levi.

“Then there will be a fight!”

Levi did not want to waste time trying to talk to them.

Immediately, he made his move.

These eight swordsmen were strong and mighty, nearly destroying the whole tribe of the Northern Demon.

Nevertheless, they were no match for Levi.

The eight men were swept away like fallen leaves by a gust of strong wind.

At this exact moment, the Dragonites replied, saying that Eragon would not stop killing these criminals until they are totally annihilated.

“Floyd, didn’t you say that these men are mine?” Levi asked.

“I did, but the Dragonites said that the assault on Oakland City was warded off by Eragon and these criminals played no part in protecting it.

Hearing Floyd’s report, Levi’s face turned grim.

then. I’ll

and soon made it to the surrendered to him were now defeated. They gathered together and lingered on time, half of

would be coming after them

first strike, the remaining survivors would be totally

this crucial moment, Levi

time of great danger. Let them be redeemed

them is to show no respect

of dead bodies and
die. Whoever protects not care who it might decision could not be changed
who injured the eight
was pointing Great, there's a battle for life and death
so the situation was tense as the battle was misunderstanding would deepen, so they hurried to the location as
"It's just a misunderstanding!"
the ones who relieved the danger at Oakland City! They are now Dragonites explained the leader of Eragon sneered and said, "Then they were forced by Crown King to do this! These people are scourges, and it is best to eradicate them. If you let them live, the harm they do is

Chapter 1764

2-3 minutes

"From now on, you can all be my followers!"

Levi wanted to recruit them as his Team Of Secret Warriors.

On the one hand, it improved combat effectiveness, and on the other, it gave the Dragonites the reassurance they needed.

After all, Eragon had mentioned that these criminals were hidden dangers.

If they were set free, the Dragonites would be concerned.

On the other hand, if they were kept close by Levi, there would be no need to worry about them.

The Dragonites were happy with the decision.

By absorbing them into his team of warriors, Levi was also strengthening Erudia's power in combat.

Levi did not return to North Hampton directly. He was led by the Dragonites and came to the secret training base of Gamma Tech.

The Gamma Tech Alliance represented the most advanced technology in Erudia.

It encompassed aviation, weapons and other fields.

The moment they arrived at the base, Levi felt numerous pairs of eyes on him.

However, those were not human eyes, but robotic...

The Dark Metal Laboratory that Byron had built secretly before was also considered top-notch, but compared with the present one, that was child's play.

base was definitely the

could withstand attacks from arrived at

you here to check out Jared's

beat

"That is right."

been very responsible till now and he has shown no unusual behavior so far! He is also the most talented person I have ever seen! It's only more you should be

he would do something to endanger advanced technology.

Levi went on.

attentively to Levi

Wynona was a

been pampered and now, she was the top scientist in

Levi said was true, she

fact that Levi seemed to control

"Don't we know it?"

replied with monitored by more people. Prevention

Levi reminded her.

retort him this

said was exactly what she that Jared be watched over by specialists but her idea was

Chapter 1765

2-2 minutes

Jared looked remorseful and declared, "We are in this together. I realized my mistake, and I had made a pledge yesterday to donate all my wealth in order to make up for my wrongdoings."

"Let's give this man a big hand!"

With that, the crowd gave Jared a big round of applause. The team was impressed by his decision to donate his entire wealth, which was an astronomical amount, and they had more faith and greater respect for him.

Levi and Wynona found it disturbing and abnormal though, as they felt it was an extreme move to give up the entirety of one's wealth. However, it was not uncommon for geniuses to go to extremes to achieve their goals.

Jared looked toward Levi and said, "I know you had always been suspicious of me. If you are not convinced, you can kill me. With your skills, that would be as easy as pie."

"We dare him to do that! If he wants to kill you, he has to kill all of us first!"

"Yeah! We will protect you!"

The technical staff went crazy and protested loudly.

See if you can kill me now! Jared looked at Levi triumphantly.

It is only a matter of time that I will do so!

and gave him a smirk in our training base. You

no wish to

jeering

be monitoring you, rascal, and rest assured I will come after you should you make a wrong move!" Levi warned,

I will keep an eye on him." Wynona comforted Levi

one here!" Levi

could not

Erudia. Almost all the famous scientists were more like a sarcastic

could not help but smile as technology and scientific advancements were fighters and warriors were crude, violent, and unsophisticated

previously looked down had a newfound respect for them, although her pride deterred her from also watching Levi

Chapter 1766

That announcement created an uproar not only in Erudia but within the international community as well.

The Manifest Court had decided to revive Erudia's long-forgotten Gem&Stone List.

In the early history of Erudia, way before the Gods' Promise was effected, the Gem&Stone List was a list that ranked the strongest among Erudian warriors.

The Gem&Stone List had two rankings. The Stone list ranked outstanding warriors under the age of thirty. It was also known as the Raring List or the Potential List.

The Gem List was the ultimate list that ranked the warriors of all age groups.

The Gem&Stone List had been dormant for an extremely long time as no warriors were deemed qualified enough to be on it.

As such, it was long forgotten, and other than being passed down in the records of some ancient tribes, there was no mention of it anywhere else and most people had no knowledge of this list.

However, the situation had changed after the Gods' Promise was broken. Powerful warriors began to emerge and captured the attention of the public.

After Levi led his troops to victory in the battle with the Ruling Union and especially after he defeated five Rank Seven fighters, there were extremely high interest and awareness of the existence of such impressive warriors.

there were candidates worthy to be included in have records and information on those magnificent warriors, even those who had kept a gather intelligence on them and could rank them according to objectively evaluate these warriors and come up with

was revealed, the rankings shocked to the public, and even after the list was published, their identities remained a mystery to most people.

That was because their names were withheld and only their titles or nicknames were listed familiar with was the mysterious warrior who defeated five Rank Seven was Levi, the Dragonites did their best to withhold that information from the public in order to protect his family and loved ones. If his identity was revealed, that would had a nice title for him – CalaMaster, short for defeated five Rank Seven

was astonishing

public could not possibly imagine how formidable those warriors ranked above him would be, especially believed the top three as a warning to the world. The message was stronger than CalaMaster! And those

God Of War Pinnacle

Chapter 1767

The reason for his shock was that his daughter Forlevia was the last name on the Stone List!

The last name on the list was too glaring and stunned Levi, leaving him unsettled for a long time.

Who revealed information about Evie's potential?

He made an effort to hide that from the Lopez and Black families. As for those from Wildefield, they badly wanted to keep Forlevia from the public's eyes, so there was no chance they would leak out that information.

Who could have possibly leaked that information?

Levi knew Forlevia would never be qualified for the Stone List based on her ability at that point in time. Although he had been working with her on strengthening her foundation, he had not given her any training to improve her fighting skills.

The only possible reason for her to be ranked would be if they assessed her based on her potential.

That meant someone had discovered and acknowledged her hidden potential!

The most shocking fact was the reason The Manifest Court gave for including Forlevia in the list. They said she had the rare potential unrivaled by anyone in the recent one thousand years.

Court was correct, that meant she could very well rise to be number one on the Stone List intentionally leaked out information about Forlevia, but she was actually on The Manifest Court's radar all the while. No one

the Gem List,

the world,

the age of thirty and raring to go, Forlevia's inclusion still a few years old was unheard of, and everyone who saw the list was

Who is she?

could one possess

fame spread far and wide, and the international community also took highly acclaimed future super warrior in the making, meant it would remain invincible

that the Gem&Stone List had created

List. In addition to family members from both the Lopez and Black families, some anxiously fault for not keeping the secret

for as long as he could. It was

Chapter 1768

No one took note of what Levi said, as they were engrossed in their own discussion.

“Should we find Evie a strong backer now? Not only will she be protected from dangers, but she would also get good resources to develop her to her maximum potential!” Cora suggested.

“That’s a great idea! I agree!”

“Me too!”

Her suggestion received unanimous support from the rest of the family.

“But we have to make sure the backer is powerful, with sufficient ability to protect her from dangers. Also, we have to be mindful it must be a righteous party. Otherwise, we could have ruined her life.”

“That is true. It would be disastrous if she is in the hands of some cults!”

When Levi heard their opinions, he sneered and commented, “How do you define who is righteous and who is evil? This is a world ruled by the survival of the fittest. The so-called cults are not always evil, and vice versa.”

as Shadow Order. They were both using Forlevia. Evil cults like Shadow Order deserved to be eliminated, but those you want to

He knew Forlevia would be the discussion Zoey was having with the family with regards to finding Forlevia a backer. He put his mind to writing training manuals on fighting skills and

Warriors but also to improve and weaknesses of the existing warriors, he started writing customized training manuals for the different training manual for the mass recruits. For those with better skills and foundation, such as Five Great Wars Regiment, he wrote some higher-level training manuals for book each for White Tiger, Azure

prime time for the warriors in Erudia at CalaMaster and Forlevia's fame spread, and as more people heard about them, they wanted to

of money, yet there were ready buyers for them. That people were coming their way, as many

God Of War Pinnacle

Chapter 1769

Jared had the freedom and authority to do almost anything at the training base without anyone monitoring his activities.

He had unrestricted access to almost all the most sophisticated laboratories in the base. In the name of researching for groundbreaking technological advances, he could do anything without raising anyone's suspicion.

After all, he was truly brilliant, and within a few days of joining the team, he had already helped them resolve many thorny issues. As such, the rest of the team idolized him and placed him on a pedestal. Wynona was the only one being wary of him, and she would pay attention to his movements and activities.

After calming down from the private manic outburst in his room, Jared put on his protective gears and headed to the laboratory section of the base.

"I would like to use laboratory number three," he requested.

Wynona was on duty that day. She did the routine check on him to make sure he did not have spy gadgets or unapproved equipment hidden on him before granting him permission to access the laboratory.

As she watch Jared and his team enter the laboratory, Wynona had an unexplainable sense of unease.

In the short time that he was there, his access authority had increased by leaps and bounds, and he had already gotten the privilege to make use of Lab Number Three.

Somehow, she felt uneasy about it but could not do anything to stop it as the rest of the team had full faith in Jared and trusted him completely.

don't let

only massage her heavy head and silently pray that everything would be all

Lord had returned with the personal items of all the deceased members of The Calamity. Levi had given her the instruction to do so when they first even in death, their bodies were damaged beyond recognition. As such, completed, so Levi was on the way to pay his respect to the deceased led Forlevia, West Sky Lord, and a few others to a cemetery in Fairlake City of sword!"

and he started craving the names

Eren Pieck.

Armin Momoa.

Rodrick Artlet.

watched solemnly as Levi silently etched the nine hundred poured half a bottle of wine around the cenotaph and downed the other half of

in peace!" West Sky Lord

Chapter 1770

He could never let his brave warriors suffer such insults after gallantly sacrificing for the country.

Moreover, he wanted to know who the young man was and how he managed to return to the country despite his order to ban the escapees from returning.

He couldn't let the matter rest and allow the young man to get away scot-free Kieran and his followers were amused by Levi's reaction. They stopped and turned to face Levi.

"Are you calling out to us, punk?" Kieran taunted Levi with an arrogant smile.

"Mr. Tate, I think you had better lay low and not get into any trouble, since you just came back," one of his followers urged.

"He started it! Let's go over and meet this guy!" Kieran walked toward Levi, and his followers hurriedly tagged along.

"What do you want, punk?" Kieran challenged.

"Two things. Number one, kneel and apologize!" Levi coldly demanded.

his followers were taken aback

on a brave front and countered Levi, but his face themselves for Erudia. Not only did you not pay your respect to them, but you also insulted them with demeaning words. For that, you need to apologize." Levi stared at him intently and say anything untrue? They are a bunch of stupid fools who brought such a sorry fate to themselves for no valid reasons!" Kieran constructed a cenotaph for them!

anger, and

One last chance turned into a furious monster, and Kieran could clearly sense the menacing aura he emitted. Nevertheless, he pridefully held on to his stand and threatened, "Do you know who I am? Who is the second question I wanted to his foot and landed a kick on

Wham!

Levi to strike, and what surprised him more was Levi's eyes, that prowess of Kieran was nothing, and he could

Bang, bang, bang!

out a round of kicks, and before anyone realized what happened, all of Kieran's

"Apologize!" Levi demanded calmly.