Chapter 1781

“A-Are you Levi?”

“You have the same techniques as Levi!”

The thirteen Rank Seven fighters’ eyes were filled with terror when they were at death’s door.

Having fought with Levi, they recognized his techniques very well.

That was why they suspected that the man in front of them was Levi.

“Go to hell!”

After annihilating them, the mysterious man who impersonated Levi took out a clean, white handkerchief to wipe his hands.

His eyes gleamed brilliantly as the corner of his lips curled up into a smile.

Soon, he left Paradise Villa.

None had expected that the ceremony would turn out to be a massacre.

Tens of thousands of skilled warriors lost their lives.

Not even one of them stayed alive, including the thirteen Rank Seven fighters.

If the news got about, the entire world would certainly be shaken up.

The extermination of all warriors was a devastating blow to the martial arts world in Erudia.

Undeniably, all the clues and evidence indicated that Levi was the murderer.

There was no proof that someone else did it.

“It’s not hard to guess his motive for this massacre. These people were keen to have his daughter as their disciple, so he killed them all out of anger. Besides, A demon like him is often emotional and unpredictable. He might even do certain things for no reason.”

“Right! Undoubtedly, Levi’s the one who did it. No one else has such capability to wipe out everyone and thirteen Rank Seven fighters within minutes.

“Right! This is it. It’s surely Levi!”

The four warriors made judgments immediately.

Zelda even collected all the proofs.

“Previously, Eragon reminded The Cardinal Hall to keep an eye on Levi because of his unique identity.”

“Yes, we didn’t care about it at that time. But it turns out that Crown King is a big demon. How scary is that? I can’t imagine the threats it would bring to the martial arts world in Erudia,” Zelda commented.

Horried, everyone broke out in a cold sweat at her words.

According to The Cardinal Hall, it was said that Levi had taken after the Fiery Demon.

The moment he applied his techniques, the criminals and Eragon recognized them at once, as they saw the resemblance between him and the Fiery Demon.

The previous Northern Demon was nothing compared to the Fiery Demon.

Even The Cardinal Hall and Eragon feared him.

No wonder the Dragonites were curious about who he was.

"He was the ultimate God of Slaughter who topped the Gem list."

The Cardinal Hall members gasped in horror.

Apparently, Cyrus was indeed petrifying to them.

"Where's he now?" one of the Dragonites asked.

"No one knows where he is now, including The Manifest Court."

“It looks like Cyrus is still alive and has taught Levi his techniques. An unprecedented calamity is coming our way,” Zelda snickered.

“We’re counting on you again.” Everyone looked at the man in the corner. He was the one who impersonated Levi during the massacre at Paradise Villa.

“Fine,” the man answered weakly.

They were coming up with a plan that would shake the entire nation. At the same time, Jared was also going to start with his own plan as well.

Since he had confirmed that Levi wasn't keeping an eye on him, he could do whatever he wanted. "Soon I'll have authorization for Lab Number One. It'll be the perfect place for my perfect experiment." Jared laughed maniacally.

He wanted to finish his experiment in Lab Number Two, but that was crushed by Levi and Wynona. Thanks to that, Jared had a change of mind. Now, he wanted to complete his crazy plan using Lab Number One.

Lab Number One was the best laboratory in the training base. If Jared could use it to his advantage, it'd raise the chances of his experiment's success.

Danger was fast approaching, and quietly too. However, that did not escape Levi. He was a sharp man, so he knew the calmer it was, the worse the storm would be.

It's too quiet. Something big's gonna happen. Levi even double-checked everywhere to see if he missed anything, but he got nothing.

Chapter 1785

The Lopez and Black families were excited about the news, but Levi's objection wiped the smiles off everyone's faces. Including the ones from The Cardinal Hall.

It was supposed to be a happy event, but Levi ruined it for them.

"You object? Why? Do you have a better place in mind? One that's better than The Cardinal Hall?" someone from the two families asked.

To that, Levi answered coldly, "I can teach her myself. She's my daughter, so I'll be the one to protect her. Not some organization like The Cardinal Hall."

"But Evie can't grow if you're keeping her safe forever. I don't want her to grow up useless. She has to go through some obstacles on her own. That's the only way she can grow," Zoey argued.

Zoey had a point, and it made Levi think. He was willing to protect his family forever if he could, but Forlevia needed to grow up eventually.

She was different from the other kids, so she was destined to go on the cultivator's path. If he kept her by his side forever, it would stunt her growth.

However, Levi couldn't give her to The Cardinal Hall just yet. He was still worried. He didn't have full control over The Cardinal Hall, so if anything were to happen to Forlevia, he wouldn't be able to get to her in time.

he did send Forlevia to Wildefield, but that place was under his full control.

Jabez growled at Levi, glaring at him intently.

"Yeah. We know you have her! Don't play dumb!"

"You're the last one to see her off! She went missing right after that!"

"Where are you hiding her? You can't just take her away just because you don't want her to join The Cardinal Hall."

...

Almost everyone was yelling at Levi, but let's turn back time a bit to see what happened.

After Levi bade goodbye to Forlevia, Kaiden and his team went to the room to fetch Forlevia. However, she was nowhere to be found.

Everyone made a quick sweep around the manor, but they found no trace of her. It was as if she disappeared into thin air.

Everyone immediately thought that Levi had hidden Forlevia. After all, he was the last one to say goodbye, and Forlevia was gone right after he came out of the room. That made him the prime suspect.

Forlevia's disappearance shook Levi to his core, but everyone didn't care. No, they didn't know, so they kept yelling and screaming at him. If they weren't his family, Levi would have offed them right there and then.

He glared at Kaiden and his team. "My daughter's abducted! I don't have time to bicker with you idiots!"

"She's abducted?"

Everyone was shocked, but then Kaiden sneered. "Impossible. You mean they took her right under our noses? You think we're stupid?"

Jabez glared at Levi arrogantly. "Yeah. We were all in the manor. She was just a hundred meters away from us. You mean to tell us they abducted her even under that condition? Get real."

"They're right. You're underestimating us. The enemy couldn't have taken her away with us there," Zelda agreed.

Gerald looked at Levi coldly. "Nobody can take her under our watch. Not to mention we didn't notice them either. You're lying."

"Yes. There's only one possibility here. You hid the child and blamed someone else for it," Kaiden accused Levi.

Chapter 1788

Levi had seen this group of men before.

Back then, at the cemetery near Fairlake City, there were some Raysonia samurai among the Tate family.

When they bumped into Levi, a strange look crossed their faces. Immediately, they forced the Tate family to apologize.

It was at that moment Levi realized this group of men might have an ulterior motive, so he instructed West Sky Lord to send his men to keep a close eye on them.

Nevertheless, up till now, they hadn't shown any unusual behavior, so the West Sky Lord could only keep on observing them.

The truth was that these people were the masterminds, but not the executors.

That was why they did not make any move, and the West Sky Lord hadn't discovered anything.

In fact, they were the ones who plotted the tragedy at Paradise Villa.

Now they were sending a competent warrior to kidnap Forlevia.

"Thank you, Okano!"

Everyone bowed at a silhouette standing in the dim light.

He was none other than Okano Yuichiro, whose nickname was Shadow Samurai, as the man was indeed like an inconspicuous shadow.

Levi had never felt so vexed before, but Gerald and Kaiden babbled incessantly around him.

A murderous intent to take their lives overcame him.

I'm going to knock all four of them away!

Kaiden and the other two of them wanted to stop him, but it was already too late.

The atmosphere was tense, and a battle was about to erupt among them.

Gerald was brimming with excitement as he sniggered, "I'd like to see how powerful a warrior in the top twenty on Gem List."

"I can finish you off in one punch!"

Clenching his fist, Levi was about to throw a punch.

Boom boom boom...

As the man was lifting his fist, the ground trembled vigorously, and strong gales of wind blew up.

An oppressive and formidable momentum was crashing upon Gerald.

Kaiden and the others' expressions hardened.

A Gem List warrior is no doubt incredibly powerful.

Even Gerald's face contorted with astonishment, but he grew even more thrilled.

Judging from Forlevia's talents and potential, if the news got about, everyone would go berserk and fight against one another to take her in, be it the forces in Erudia or across the globe.

Everyone was keen to have her.

Nevertheless, the Raysonians didn't spread the news, but kept it strictly confidential, refusing to let the cat out of the bag.

Instead, they sent out exclusive invitations to the forces who were keen on having Forlevia as their disciple.

Those who were invited kept their mouths shut for the sake of their own benefits.

Other than them, no one else knew about the discipleship event.

Still, there were a lot of invited guests attending the event.

The unknown island in the depths of Eastford was a forbidden area where storms and hurricanes occurred frequently.

Even satellites often could not detect its existence.

Planes and ships usually avoided any route involving this area.

Yet, the Raysonians picked this island as the venue.

That was why the West Sky Lord could not track them down quickly, even though she had the most efficient intelligence department.
