Chapter 1811

Nothing would hold Jared back once he left the training base.

Since nobody could stop him, he could do what he wanted. He would become Erudia's disaster!

Should that happen, he might even be the death of Erudia!

Jared roared, "No one can stop me, not even you, Levi! I'm invincible!"

Indeed, the destructive power he possessed would make him undefeatable!

The senior management in Gamma Tech instantly regretted their action of bringing this traitor back.

They should have heeded Levi's warning and let Levi finish Jared off.

Since they believed Jared had turned over a new leaf, they chose not to monitor him closely.

They even permitted him to wield his power in the training base.

Wynona had also warned them about Jared, but they reprimanded her instead.

Wynona kept her eyes shut, waiting for death to claim her. Yet, she could not stop her body from trembling.

Jared let out of a cold snort. "You think I'll grant you an easy death? Not a chance!"

"Weren't you in contact with Levi? Why don't you call him to come and stop me?" he asked.

"Oh, I forgot," he continued with a sarcastic smirk. "Levi is the arch-enemy of Erudia now. Everyone sees him as the big demon and wants to kill him. He can't even protect himself anymore!"

Wynona gave him a murderous stare. "You're more of a demon than he'll ever be! You're the big demon!"

She finally understood that evil came from the heart. It had nothing to do with how much of a threat a person was based on the power he or she possessed.

Levi and Jared were the best living proof of the logic!

Jared instantly carried a massacre the moment he obtained such destructive power. It was not the case for Levi.

At least based on Wynona's investigation, Levi was someone who would go all out to defend Erudia and its citizens!

Usually engrossed with research, she barely had any friends, and Levi was the only name that came to mind.

It was more horrifying for her to find out that Jared not only had the power to kill, but he could also manipulate people's thoughts.

When he left, he managed to control the mind of one key personnel in the Gamma Tech training base.
It was a terrifying revelation.

At the same time, Levi was trying to avoid being captured by different forces while tracking the mastermind.

There was no way he could let things be after knowing that someone was behind all the mess.

Those people had taken the opportunity to discredit him and intensify Erudia's conflict with him.

The method used was easy. On the one hand, those people pretended to be followers of the Fiery Demon and often created trouble with the martial arts world in Erudia.

On the other hand, they also went on a mass killing spree and made it seem like Levi was responsible for it.

Regardless, Levi was confident that they would probably leave behind their traces by accident.

As long as he followed their path, he would likely uncover something.

Given so, it led him to the Tayhaven City in the South.

According to the news, a war occurred there recently, and of the many people who fought in it, Levi was supposedly one of them.

As such, Levi disguised himself when he arrived at the city.

The evaluation conducted by The Manifest Court this time could be labeled as the best Stone List in history, especially with the top three names listed.

In the past, they had never recorded how insanely skillful the four of them were, including Forlevia.

They could not even predict what the future for Erudia would look like with their presence.

In any case, it was bright. The martial arts world in Erudia would surely prosper, and there was a high chance that they could beat hundreds of other countries.

Since Stone List's number five, Trenton, and number seven, Josephine, were present, many people were eager to surround them.

After all, it was not an everyday occurrence to see warriors listed on the Stone List in public, especially for the highly ranked ones.

Josephine's nickname was Goddess Foster because her strength and beauty stunned all.

Meanwhile, Trenton was known to be invincible too.

It was natural for them to become the focal point among the crowd.

Even so, Levi could not be bothered with them since he was here on a mission in the first place.

While everyone else was admiring and flattering the two warriors, Levi's eyes fixated on the battlefield.

Unfortunately, it made him stand out from the rest, such that Josephine and Yasmin began to take notice of him.

"Josephine, that's odd! That man doesn't seem to know who we are! I can't believe he didn't even spare us a glance," Yasmin commented.

Josephine's expression darkened.
There were many Fiery Demon's followers, of which many were highly skilled individuals.
It was not hard to tell from the aura they exuded.
Within the group of them, there were also three who belonged on the Gem List.
The majority of the rest were not in any of The Manifest Court's lists.
Even so, with the few on the Gem List, the group was formidable.
Although the three Gem List warriors were not high up on that list, Trenton, Josephine, and the rest were still no match for them.
Besides, the Fiery Demon's followers present were almost ten times the size of their team.
Trenton felt they were as good as dead at this point.

The Fiery Demon followers immediately lunged for Trenton and his team.

Skilled members of the evil force especially targeted the four on the Stone List.

The remaining warriors in Trenton’s team were not as capable and had to face members of the evil force who were ten times better than they were.

Both parties did not show mercy during the battle.

It was a dark fight with casualties on both sides.

Levi could have stopped the dispute from the start, but he did not.

He would be out of his mind to try to save the people who wanted him dead.

Although Trenton and his other companions were on the Stone List, it only took minutes for them to be defeated.

Two warriors from the Gem List attacked Trenton, inflicted devastating injuries.

Similarly, Josephine ended up on the ground, spitting a mouthful of blood after another Gem List warrior went after her.

Plop!

The rest of their team also fell onto the ground like dead flies.

It was clear that they were no match for the Fiery Demon followers.

Those who survived were all gravely injured and on the ground, struggling to stay alive.
This time, the whole Erudia's martial arts world had marked Levi as their public enemy.

The others began chanting, "Please lead the way and punish them!"

They seemed to have regained their confidence as they pleaded for Levi to help them.

On the other hand, the Fiery Demon's followers became anxious as they did not expect to meet a warrior as mighty as him.

He seemed to be on the Gem List, and if so, they would be in deep trouble.

Within a short time, the Fiery Demon's followers became more cautious.

They glared at Levi, who was dangerous and obviously a threat to them.

In the distance away, a secret group huddled together.

"Haha, it seems like everything is going according to our plan. The two groups have met, and the self-proclaimed righteous warriors have suffered grave injuries. I think it is only a matter of time for them to end up as bird food."

They were rejoicing over the situation. "Haha, I hope such scenes happen in every corner of Erudia."

"Exactly, we should hurry to get the news out. It is best to let The Cardinal Hall and Eragon know. They are nearby."

Raysonia's forces had laid out their plans.

They wanted to attract The Cardinal Hall's attention at the last second and added more chaos to the situation.

On the battlefield, the Fiery Demon's followers stood there, shaking.

Levi's shocking remark silenced everyone.

One could hear a pin drop.

It was an unexpected outcome.

Levi, the Fiery Demon's heir, is here? Who is going to believe that?

The thousands of people present were in shock. No one dared to move an inch, and even their expressions had frozen.

They looked like stone sculptures.

Almost a minute had passed when someone finally regained their senses.

"W-What did you say? You are the Fiery Demon's heir?"

The man's lips were trembling fiercely as he asked.

His voice brought everyone back to their senses.

Dumbstruck with terror, they all stared at Levi. Josephine, Landon, and the rest were especially alarmed. Their eyes looked as though they were about to pop out.

"I am Levi," Levi reiterated.

Instantly, their limbs felt numb, and they turned pale. They shivered as a chill ran down their spine.

It was wildly beyond their imagination that the man was Levi.

They had cursed at him for so long before knowing his identity.

Minutes ago, they humiliated him and even idiotically asked him to kill himself.

There were millions of bizarre incidents in the world, but nothing could compare to this situation.

No one had expected that Levi would appear here.

Besides, they did not expect to meet him.

As Levi glanced at them, they anxiously lowered their heads one by one.

Even Trenton looked at the ground, too afraid to meet Levi's eyes.

Josephine was no exception too.

No one dared to look up while Levi scrutinized them.

It was especially so for Landon, Yasmin, and those guilty of criticizing Levi earlier.

All they wanted was to disappear from the face of Earth.

Meanwhile, Levi shot them a fiery glare, making them feel like a burning flame scorched their faces.

Everyone was dumbstruck at Landon’s actions.

Isn’t he going to at least hold it out a little more? He is Landon, a warrior on the Stone List. Shouldn’t he be acting more righteous and have more of a backbone?

Trenton and his team wish they could rush forward to give Landon a tight slap at that instant.

Not only them, but the rest of the people behind him were just as frustrated.

“That’s it?”

Even Levi was taken aback by Landon’s behavior.

The person who scolded and cursed at Levi most turned out to be so easily intimidated.

More often than not, such upright gentlemen who only spoke about benevolence and morality turned out to be a hypocrite.

In the midst of a crisis, he would be the first to fold.

Levi coldly muttered, “How about the rest?”

The other three Stone List warriors were shaking.

They could barely withstand the pressure that Levi was putting on them.

“You must not kneel before him! Do not let yourself commit such shameful crimes!” Josephine hurriedly rallied.

“That’s right! We would rather die upholding our morals. There is no way we can surrender to these criminals!” Trenton jumped in too.
