Chapter 1821

Levi chuckled.

Nodding his head repeatedly, Landon stammered, “Y-Yes! Do not let any of them live!”

He sent death glares to Trenton and the rest.

Only they would know that he had pledged his allegiance to Levi now. As long as they were gone, he would still have a chance to redeem himself in the future.

However, if they leaked this to his masters and family, he would never be able to show his face again.

As such, he wanted to use Levi to get rid of them.

Of course, his intentions did not go unnoticed by Josephine and the rest.

“If I kill them all, shouldn’t I include you too?” Levi made a surprising remark which sent a chill down Landon’s spine.

Frantic, Landon tried to explain himself. “No, of course not! Master Levi, I am now one of your followers!”

“Kill!”

There was no way Levi would give a chance to a bastard like him.

It would only create more problems to let him live.

“Master Levi!”

No matter how much Landon cried, he had no power to change the situation.

His followers understood what he meant.
He wanted to reunite all his followers.
However, it was hard to believe.
If Levi could gather all of them, they would be invincible and a threat to Erudia.
"No!"
Although Josephine and the rest wanted to stop him, there was no way they could.
Once Levi sent out this message, all the Fiery Demon followers were bound to rush here.
They would not waste a second nor care about the price to pay if they could serve their master.
The end of the world is approaching...
"Levi, don't worry. You will never be able to gather all of Fiery Demon's followers. The Cardinal Hall and the Gem List warriors will not let you off!" Josephine scoffed.

“The Gem List was ranked fairly. Since you are only ranked sixth, there are still five people who could take you down.”

Trenton and the rest also added because there was nothing else they could do but taunt him in this situation.

With that, Jared walked toward the manor directly.

The Cardinal Hall's warriors soon realized that something was off about Jared.

A few of them immediately rushed toward Jared to question him.

Jared's lips curled into a devious smile.

The next moment, the warriors collapsed on the ground one by one.

They had lost their consciousness but were still alive.

With his power, Jared could manipulate people's minds as he wished, including making people fall asleep.

Nonetheless, his power didn't work on warriors of higher classes.

After all, the warriors were strong-willed enough to resist Jared's power with their strength.

While Jared continued walking, everyone had collapsed and fallen asleep.

The ordinary people would think that Jared was a god, for his supernatural power was as mysterious as the god's power in sci-fi movies.

However, no one knew that he acquired the power through an experiment.

Zoey was shocked to see Jared after he arrived at the manor unimpeded.

The power that Jared demonstrated showed he was the master of magical techniques.

He could control people’s minds by making them sleep or waking them up as he wished.

Rumor had it that masters of magical techniques could assassinate anyone without showing his face.

Besides, they could control the minds of all humans and animals and kill them from thousands of miles away.

Therefore, Kaiden and the rest were completely stunned.

The master of magical techniques is rare and terrifying!

Besides Einar, there were three masters of magical techniques were on the Gem List, one of which was even ranked in the top three.

Although the magical techniques world wasn’t as prosperous as the martial arts world, no one dared to belittle those who came from the former.

Hence, Kaiden and the others were impressed by Jared’s prowess.

“I’m sorry for barging in to show you guys what I have!” Jared laughed heartily as soon as he finished.

“With your participation, we will grow even stronger and can defeat Levi soundly!” Kaiden said smilingly.

Ever since Zarain made the proposal, it had been receiving tremendous support from many forces and gained support from many countries

Many people had long regarded Levi as a thorn in the flesh.

His identity as the Crown King of Erudia was a great threat to other nations. His presence made the others feel oppressed and distressed.

A murderous intent kept creeping up on them, urging them to act under duress, but they never had a chance to do so.

Now that an untoward incident had befallen Levi, they knew right away that it was their golden opportunity to act.

It was absurd that The Cardinal Hall thought that the major foreign forces would be fighting to recruit Levi.

It went to show how little did The Cardinal Hall knew about Levi.

On the contrary, Levi's rivals, Bruce and gang, seemed to be those who understood him the most.

They were resolute that Levi was being framed.

Without a doubt, they firmly believed that he would not do something that would endanger Erudia.

Therefore, Bruce would not give up on such perfect timing to get rid of Levi.

It was almost impossible for the Dragonites to stop them because their justification was impeccable. There was no way for anyone to reject such a tempting offer.

The Cardinal Hall thought that it was a terrific idea that contributed toward their advantage.

Josephine and Trenton's eyes were filled with dread. They knew exactly what the summon meant. An unprecedented war beckoned.

No matter who won, both sides would end up suffering tremendous losses and adverse consequences, especially within the martial arts world in Erudia.

Yet, they were paralyzed. All they could do was to watch the awful episode unfold before their eyes.

As soon as the Fiery Demon's heir, Levi, released his summon, the entire Erudia went berserk.

Those followers of Fiery Demon, who had been running around like headless chickens, were thrilled.

They were among the long list of people like The Cardinal Hall and other factions, who were busy searching high and low for Levi, but to no avail.

Now that they had received news from Levi, the followers started appearing from everywhere, heading toward Terragon Hill.

Like a bunch of radical madmen, they risked everything they had to set off their journey.

Even when they encountered any ambush or challenges on the way, they tried their best to avoid engaging in any unnecessary battle as much as they could, for the sake of seeing the Fiery Demon's heir sooner.

Everyone felt threatened when Levi first summoned them, but then they realized he was clearly delivering himself to them on a silver platter.

They were having a hard time finding him because he had gone into hiding, so he was basically digging his own grave by exposing himself all of a sudden.

Levi shot Trenton a glance, and one of his men stepped forward to slap Trenton hard across the face.

"Say that sh*t again and I'll have you killed!"

"You people should worry about yourselves before anything else!" Levi said with a chuckle as he shifted his gaze toward Josephine and Yasmin. "Bring them to my room!"

He then turned around and walked away after saying that, leaving both Josephine and Yasmin dumbfounded.

H-He wants us in his room? W-What's he planning on doing to us? I have a bad feeling about this... Is he going to...

Josephine and Yasmin were trembling in fear and broke out in a cold sweat.

Even Trenton was terrified and shouted in horror, "What are you going to do to them? Let them go!"

They all had knowing smiles on their faces as they glanced at Levi's bedroom door.

A man like him having two beautiful women in his bedroom? It's obvious what Levi is going to do to them!

"Hehehe..."

Levi would probably have a fit if he knew what they were thinking about.

He was simply giving the two women a little punishment while trying to think of a strategy.

Josephine was treated like an angel by pretty much all men in existence, so treating her like a masseuse came as a huge blow to her ego.

Mmm... martial artists sure have decent strength in their arms! This makes them perfect for giving massages!

With that in mind, Levi closed his eyes and rested as he continued to think.

Two hours soon came to pass, and Trenton had finally come to after being locked up.

It's been two hours, and he hasn't released Josephine and Yasmin? That means whatever I feared has happened! They've fallen victim to Levi's evil hands!

"Aaaaarghhhhh!"

The news hit Zoey like a bolt from the blue, and everyone from the Lopez and Black families was dumbfounded.

Even Wynona was shocked speechless as a result.

What? I don't think Levi would do such a thing, but the facts are right here, and all of Erudia have heard about it! To make matters worse, this information came from the Fiery Demon's forces, so it has to be true!

Regardless, Wynona was still a little doubtful of the rumors.

She was as beautiful as a celebrity, and yet Levi had never even looked at her during the time she spent with him.

As such, it was extremely unlikely for a man who used to being around attractive women to do such a heinous thing.

Zoey too, believed that Levi was innocent, but there wasn't much she could do but cry as the facts were shoved in her face.

There was still no sign of her daughter after being kidnapped, and her husband had committed an act so wicked that it destroyed his reputation.

"What? Jared?"

The look on Levi's face changed instantly upon hearing that name.

I can't believe it! Despite my efforts, that b*stard Jared was actually able to successfully carry out his plans! He had to postpone his plans because he was staying on guard against me back then. He probably decided to make his move now that I'm the public enemy of Erudia! Still, shouldn't he be manufacturing weapons? Why is he a master of magical techniques? Oh, I get it! He must've made a weapon so powerful that people think he's a master of magical techniques!

Levi assumed that Jared had invented a powerful weapon, completely unaware that Jared had actually modified his own body.

Oh, no! Zoey! Jared would definitely go after her!

Levi then quickly sent people searching for Zoey's whereabouts, and the Fiery Demon's forces were fully assembled three hours later.

Even Levi found himself a little intimidated when he saw the sheer size of the army that stood in formation before him.

As expected of the Fiery Demon's forces... With how powerful Cyrus and his followers are, it's no wonder people used to call it the era of the Fiery Demon! We've got a few dozens of warriors as powerful as Einar from the Gem List, and about six or seven who are even stronger! They could very well be legendary Rank Eight Supreme Class warriors! Now I see why The Cardinal Hall and Eragon are so afraid of us! My strength combined with that of so many powerful warriors would definitely form a huge threat to Erudia!
