She had hypothesized that although the old man saved them at the crucial moment, the blast had somehow affected her still and given her superpowers.

Therefore, Zoey might experience the same phenomenon too.

“Me?”

Zoey was surprised.

“Why don’t you try and see if there are any changes?” Wynona asked.

“Sure!”

By then, Zoey was already a warrior. Hence, she tried to sense the changes in her body.

However, she didn’t feel anything different.

“Let me try gathering my energy.”

At that moment, she felt an electrical jolt rush through her head.

The pain it caused felt as if her head was about to be blown apart.

In her mind, a hazy image appeared. But, she couldn’t tell what it was.

It felt as if there were a thousand needles tearing her brain apart, causing her to feel a terrifying sensation.

"Good question."

Slapping her forehead, Wynona suddenly recalled the grave issue at hand.

Jared! He's the reason for all this! If he isn't dead, wouldn't my actions be in vain?

Zoey knitted her eyebrows. "If the old man hadn't saved us, no one could have survived the blast."

Wynona nodded.

That's true.

The reason she had gained new powers was because she had only been exposed to a small amount of radiation.

A larger amount would have obliterated her instead.

"However, it would make sense for him to rescue everyone, including Jared," Zoey analyzed.

Wynona remarked, "Perhaps, we're most probably the only two survivors while Jared and his men are dead! Or there's still another possibility. The old man may have come specifically for us because he is someone related to Levi. Hence, he would definitely not rescue Jared."

Zoey nodded. "Mmm-hmm, it's probably one or the other. Regardless of which, it means Jared is likely dead."

"I agree. But, we'll have to return to the training base to verify it."

Suddenly, Zoey let out an agonizing scream, giving Wynona a fright.
"Zoey, are you all right?"
Zoey was holding onto her head and yelling hysterically.
The familiar scenes of Gamma Tech's exterior and labs before its destruction flashed across her mind.
The more she recalled, the greater the pain she felt in her head.

The commotion alerted the guards nearby. When they rushed over, Wynona quickly led Zoey away.

She suspected that Zoey had sustained damage to her brain.

Soon, Wynona had brought Zoey to a private hospital in Oakland City for an examination.

As Wynona owned the hospital, she was able to not arouse any suspicion.

Right after the check-up, the results revealed that there was nothing wrong with Zoey.

Her brain didn't sustain any damage, but the nerves in her brain had been thrown into chaos.

Wynona thought about Jared's experiment at once.

Feeling jubilant, Bruce waved his hands in the air.

In fact, he even poured a glass of whiskey to celebrate.

With Jared still around, both his and Zarain’s power would increase significantly.

“Send a group of men to find Mr. Schmidt at once. Determine his condition and provide assistance when necessary,” Bruce instructed.

“Understood!”

A moment later, he changed topics immediately, “By the way, are there any updates from all the different teams? Look for him! We have to find him before they realize what we’re up to. Once Levi has been dealt with, The Cardinal Hall will turn their attention to us!”

The smile on Bruce’s face disappeared.

Evidently, their mission in Erudia was more important than Jared.

“Mr. Johnston, do you need us to rescue your brother?” someone asked.

“Not at the moment. You will inadvertently alert them if you do. Once Levi is dead, we will be able to free him anytime.”

Bruce already had a plan in mind.

He noticed that someone was following him in the shadows.
At Levi's level, his sensitivity to every living thing was heightened.
In fact, he could even sense the minute movements of all the trees and insects through the energy waves they emitted.
His senses were so astute that he could detect an insect flapping his wings.
Hence, Levi had noticed Okano Yuichiro, the Shadow Samurai, following him.
Okano had just caught on to Levi but didn't expect to be found out so quickly.
"Retreat!"
Okano withdrew at once.
This was the first time he had been noticed by someone in his entire career.
Evidently, he had underestimated Levi.
"I'm not going to let you escape so easily!"
Although Levi was a kilometer away from him, his voice thundered right beside Okano's ear, sending a chill down his spine.

"Any objections from anyone?" Avery asked.

Everyone turned to look at one another and came to a consensus. "We agree to your proposal. That is the only way we can save Wildefield."

"That's right! We should not take such a risk for Levi."

"Moreover, even if we hand over the kid, The Cardinal Hall is not going to hurt her."

So it was decided that Wildefield would hand over Forlevia and her family.

Once the decision was made, Avery rushed out to inform The Cardinal Hall. And within a few hours, the army from The Cardinal Hall arrived at Wilderfield.

They immediately escorted Forlevia, Emma, and Mia out of Wildefield and headed straight to The Cardinal Hall, not leaving any opportunity for Levi to intercept them.

"Your time is up, Levi!" Suddenly, there was a loud shout and hundreds of highly skilled warriors appeared out of nowhere. They were there to kill Levi because of TCO.

"What a nuisance!" Levi shook his head in resignation, surprised they managed to get to him so quickly.

"Guess I have to settle you guys first." And he started fighting with the warriors, with Okano in tow.

Although his opponents had arrived in big numbers, they were too weak, and Levi could defeat them easily. However, it still took him a bit of time due to their sheer numbers.

Unfortunately for Okano, Levi was too formidable, and the fight was almost effortless to Levi, so he did not get a chance to escape.

As the fight dragged on, Levi realized there was an endless stream of people joining in the fight. News of his whereabouts had spread, and he believed more warriors would be on their way to take him on. He decided he had to get out of the place. Otherwise, he would have to waste his time dealing with these weak fighters.

"I have to shake these people off!" he mumbled to himself.

He broke through the chaotic scene and escaped toward the north, his opponents in hot pursuit. Shortly after, he reached the border of Oakland City.

"Come what may, I'll get into the city first!" Thinking it would be easier to find a hiding place there, Levi headed straight into Oakland City.

City? That is our territory! Is he out of his mind?" His pursuers laughed triumphantly when they realized he had made his way to Everyone let out a gasp when that name was mentioned, as though it was taboo to speak that name.

“Make it quick! Do it this instant!”

“Yes, only he could do it!”

Back at Oakland City, in Wilcox family’s private hospital, Zoey was staring blankly out of a window, having just survived another terrible migraine attack.

Wynona had a strange feeling she was different compared to before. She seemed cold and rather ruthless.

All the specialists in the hospital had taken turns to give her a checkup using the sophisticated equipment they had, but they could not figure out what was wrong with her.

Wynona could only place her hope on the arrival of the international specialists.

“Ms. Wilcox, a medical team from Zarain is here. They wanted to examine Ms. Lopez!” A hospital staff brought her good news.

“Thank goodness! Yes, please let them in!” Wynona cheered up upon hearing that news and immediately went out to welcome them.

Chapter 1859

This is unbelievable!

At that instant, Bruce knew exactly what was causing Zoey's sufferings, and he also knew what had happened to Jared.

He was extremely shocked, but he suppressed his emotions and put up a calm front.

Suddenly, a light bulb went on in his head, and he loudly declared, "I have seen a case like this! I can stake my reputation on this and guarantee a cure for Ms. Lopez!"

Everyone turned to look at him, stunned.

"You can cure her?" Wynona looked at him in disbelief.

Bruce did not reply to Wynona. Instead, he went forward to examine Zoey and pretended to give her an injection. Meanwhile, he quietly gave instructions to his team outside through the earpiece. He ordered them to stop their work, turn off their equipment and quit searching for Jared's consciousness.

And the next moment, a miracle happened. Zoey instantly calmed down!

All present were dumbstruck, especially Wynona, who was skeptical of Bruce just a moment ago.

Chapter 1860

Bruce had proven to himself that his guess was right. He knew why Jared had disappeared, yet they could detect his consciousness. He also understood why the doctors could not find any problem with Zoey, but she constantly suffered from agonizing pain.

The two were actually related.

It was true that Jared had died. His physical body was totally destroyed during the experiment, and the body made of pure energy had also disintegrated, so there was no hope of reviving him.

The reason they could detect his consciousness was that part of his consciousness had been embedded in Zoey's mind.

His consciousness was like data, and some of the data had been transferred into Zoey's brain.

The experiment Jared did before the particle collision was to embed his own consciousness into Zoey. It was his attempt to control her mind and make her his puppet. Unfortunately, that attempt failed at the final critical moment.

Although it had failed, a big part of his consciousness was already transferred into Zoey, so there were two consciousness overlapping in her mind.

It was a crazy experiment and the cause of Zoey's debilitating migraine attacks.

That was also the reason why Zoey had impressions of the different laboratories in Gamma Tech training base, even though she had never set foot in them before. They were the remnants of Jared's memory.
