Chapter 1881

Levi wanted to avoid the possibility of a tragedy. Furthermore, he wanted to stop his men from fighting. Could it be an attack from Erudia's soldiers? Whatever it is, I need to put a halt to it right now!

Besides, the Fiend's forces were concealed in an elaborate hiding place. Until now, they had remained a secret. Of all times, why were the whereabouts leaked now? Something must have gone wrong.

"Master, the situation isn't looking good. There was a traitor amidst us that leaked our whereabouts! It is all our fault!"

Along the journey, the Seven Fiends had already discovered the truth.

The concept of betrayal wasn't something that Levi hadn't experienced before.

One of his past experiences of betrayal occurred in Wildefield.

They were the ones who pushed Forlevia and the rest into the fire pit.

It was a grudge that Levi still harbored to this day.

Deep in the mountains located at the South of Erudia, a bloody battle occurred.

"Mr. Little, we were the ones who rescued you! Don't forget to testify for us, alright? We will always be on your side instead of following Levi!" A small group had rescued Trenton and his men.

Trenton's rescuers were the same men who betrayed the Seven Fiends and revealed the hiding place of the Fiend's forces.

The reasons for their betrayal were simple.

"To tell the truth, there were once thirteen Fiends under the Fiery Demon. The other six Fiends vanished along with the rest of the Fiery Demon's power and joined together to create Sacred Organization. Sacred Organization has been blacklisted by several countries. It's a powerful organization feared by countless countries," the Seven Fiends explained.

"Amongst the seven of us, Sword Fiend and Shadow Fiend are the strongest fighters. But amidst the six of them, three individuals are even stronger than Sword Fiend and Shadow Fiend. The strongest Fiend in the Bible is particularly terrifying!"

The moment the feared individual was brought up, a dark look loomed across the Seven Fiends' faces. After they spoke, the Fiends even shuddered in fear.

Immediately, realization dawned upon Levi. That individual must be incredibly powerful to be able to invoke such fear into them.

"That individual is the person who resembles Cyrus the most. I estimate that he has reached at least eighty percent of Cyrus' strength! If he faced us in battle, he could crush us without much effort," Sword Fiend added.

"There's nothing we can do now. Just let them be." Levi sighed helplessly with a shake of his head.

"These traitors are the least of our worries. Our biggest concern is Sacred Organization. I'm afraid that it will come seeking trouble!" The Seven Fiends voiced their troubled thoughts.

"Why are you so worried? Besides, this is Erudia. I'll destroy anyone who dares to step foot here!" Levi did not take the Fiends' worries to heart.

Right now, all of his attention was focused on Zoey and the issue of Raysonia's growing influence.

With their existence, they painted him as Erudia's fearsome demon. It was an image that caused everyone to hate him.

Levi remained his composure and did not take this matter to heart.

He focused his attention on Zoey's condition instead.

Finally, Zoey was awake.

Yet, Levi was forced to watch from afar as he remained hidden.

Although she was right in front of him, Levi could not greet her. If he did, she would view him as her sworn enemy and attempt to fight him to her last breath.

Unable to greet his wife, Levi felt irked.

“Bruce, I will make sure to kill you in the most agonizing way possible,” Levi swore under his breath with a dark look that gleamed in his eyes.

According to Wynona, Bruce was the one who stimulated Zoey by forcibly merging her consciousness together with Jared’s.

If it wasn’t for his meddling, there could still be a sliver of hope to cure Zoey.

All they had had to do was extract Jared’s consciousness.

“What?” The Seven Fiends turned to Levi in unison.

“Is it possible that the Sacred Organization imitated me? Other than you and your master, they are the only ones who know the same technique,” Levi said.

Previously he had told the Seven Fiends that someone imitated him.

However, he hardly mentioned his master, whom the Seven Fiends believed was “Cyrus.”

The question stunned the Seven Fiends.

They had never considered this before.

Therefore, they began to ponder the question and arrived at the same conclusion.

Death Fiend was the head of Sacred Organization. He was the strongest among the Thirteen Fiends and the closest to Cyrus.

Furthermore, Death Fiend and Cyrus both trained in the same technique.

They only realized it after Levi reminded them, causing them to break out in cold sweat.

Could it really be him?

When the person was framing Levi, not only did he imitate the technique perfectly but killed many warriors, including warriors on the Gem List.

Levi was a serious threat.

Although he was now fighting against Erudia, he was too powerful.

Especially since he had the Seven Fiends, making him an even greater threat.

Only a few people in Erudia had awakened their powers.

Levi was one and the most important of them all.

He stood in the way of many enemies!

Many regarded him as a thorn in the flesh!

Therefore, Bruce and the forces in Raysonia were willing to risk everything to wipe him out!

There were only two days left before the battle between Levi and the Robed Slayer.

Meanwhile, more than twenty people sat in the small backyard of a quiet house in Oakland City.

Each of them was someone outstanding and a master in their chosen field.

Yet, all of them looked with eagerness and reverence at the man sipping a cup of tea before them.

Levi sent the Seven Fiends away as he did not want to be disturbed.
He remained alone in the villa to read the ancient manual and search for a way to save Zoey.
At night, Levi suddenly sensed a movement.

More and more warriors kept appearing at the villa.
Levi did not expect this.

They also made the warriors take a drug to strengthen their resolve to sacrifice themselves, increase their strength, and make them even more fanatic.

However, these elite warriors did not dream of killing Levi or even cause him severe injuries.

All they hoped was to give him a moderate amount of injuries.

It showed how powerful Levi was and how much of a threat he was to them.

At the villa, hundreds to thousands of warriors attacked Levi madly.

It was battle at an intensity never seen before.

The battle was much more intense than the one at Terragon Hill.

Although Levi also fought alone previously, his current enemies were more powerful than before.

They were also crazier.

Those who Levi had killed stood up to continue fighting.

The Seven Fiends turned to look at Levi, whose eyes were full of determination.

"No way, Master Garrison! You'll definitely be doomed if you meet Robed Slayer like this now!"

"Yeah, there's no way you can beat him. Not only will it ruin your reputation, but you might also die!"

The Seven Fiends was adamant on not letting Levi go.

Sword Fiend sighed. "If the Raysonians can pay such a heavy price to drain you of physical energy, I'm sure they have no intentions in letting you live! Perhaps they already have a backup plan!"

"Exactly! They surely have a backup plan in mind!"

Ghost Fiend even suggested, "Why don't we negotiate with Robed Slayer to push back this battle?"

"No way! We can't cave in! They'll think that we're delaying it because we're scared!"

Determination flashed across Sword Fiend's eyes. "If there's no other way, how about I go instead?"

Despite knowing that he was incomparable to Robed Slayer, he figured he could still engage in an intense fight by enlisting extreme tactics.

"Seven Fiends!" Levi's voice sounded.

"Here!" The seven of them stood before him.

"On my command. We'll act as planned! Head to the ruins of East Warzone tomorrow!"

A commotion broke out amongst the crowd, and they all turned to look.

Where's Levi?

Levi with the Seven Fiends behind him, appeared in their line of vision.

The eight of them strolled in slowly.

Upon seeing the appearance of the eight of them, everyone went wild and cast vicious glares at them.

These monsters! What rights do they have to live after committing all those heinous crimes? They shouldn't even be breathing!

Anger was surging in the eyes of those people even though they had not been harmed by Levi or the Seven Fiends in any way or so.

Their vehement glares showed that they were about to skin them alive.

Yet, no one exactly knew why they hated Levi and his gang so much.

Soon, the Seven Fiends stopped at their pace, leaving Levi walking forward alone.

The Seven Fiends had worry written all over their faces.

With Levi's injuries, how will he be able to fight?

All seven of them were anxious for him.

At the sight of their expressions, the spies hidden in the crowd became even more relieved.

Levi has come with a body full of injuries!

It turned out that the battle was not as exhilarating as what the crowd had thought it would be.

This was hardly a fight.

Robed Slayer was the only one in action, while Levi faced an overwhelmed defeat where he simply had no strength to fight back.

Critical strikes fell on Levi one after another.

Nevertheless, every time after being flung to the ground, he would still press on and stand back up. The crowd was amazed by that.

What a strong and tough man he is!

Regardless of how powerful Robed Slayer was, Levi stood tall and fought on.

As long as he could get back on his feet, it would mean that he was still undefeated.

“Wow. He’s still standing strong?”

Everyone was astonished by Levi’s strong will to continue with the fight.

Robed Slayer is powerful, so is Levi!

One could even tell that Robed Slayer was stunned by the expression he had when he looked at Levi.

Still hanging on?
