God Of War Pinnacle

Chapter 1891

The fate of Levi rested in the hands of Robed Slayer. As long as the former was willing to admit defeat, he would stop and spare him from dying.

“Kill him! Kill him!” all ten thousand people present at the venue yelled rancorously.

Their faces were brimming with joy at the fact that the righteous camp was winning.

The Fiends, on the other hand, were completely defeated.

Seeing that Levi stayed silent, Robed Slayer slowly lifted his fist into the air.

In his eyes, as well as everyone else’s, he had already given the former a chance.

The Cardinal Hall had no intention to force Levi to divulge Cyrus’ secret either since they knew he was on the brink of death.

They were relieved knowing that he would be killed since keeping him alive was equivalent to cultivating a threat.

“I can’t go on anymore! I don’t want to see Master Garrison die this way!” Sword Fiend could no longer contain his anxiousness and wanted to save Levi.

“Me too! I don’t wish to see Master Garrison die! I’ll feel aggrieved if he dies this way!”

“Exactly! This isn’t a fair game to begin with! Master Garrison might be more formidable than Robed Slayer if not for his injuries!”

Both Blood Fiend and Venom Fiend spoke their minds.

“No! I believed Master Garrison will never want us to interfere. If he has to die in this battle, he’ll want to die fair and square! What’s most important is we have a clear conscience regardless of what Robed Slayer does!” Shadow Fiend put forth his explanation to stop the others from doing anything silly.

Thud!

Robed Slayer's heart sank upon seeing Levi's state.

A bad premonition suddenly welled up in his heart.

Everyone else was equally stunned at Levi's appearance.

Levi seemed to be radiating a bizarre glow.

Everyone was baffled, and they could not explain what they were feeling at that moment.

And just like what Levi said, things were just getting started.

"Die!"

Robed Slayer cast aside his muddled thoughts and threw a forceful punch.

It was a punch that was even more ruthless than the blows before.

This single, earth-shattering punch was as though a superweapon had fired.

A huge energy whirlpool appeared in the air and formed a mushroom-shaped cloud.

If the previous punches were supersonic punches, then this punch was a triple sonic punch.

Levi had not been able to stop the previous punch, so without a doubt, this punch would blast him into smithereens.

All the bones in his body would be crushed to pieces.

Evidently, this triple sonic punch would be much too powerful for him.

With a single punch, screams and whines filled the air.

“This will definitely be Levi’s last fight, sir. You have to be careful.”

“That’s right. He won’t last long. You have to win, sir!”

Almost everyone thought that Levi would put up a fight till his last breath. They believed that he was going to fight Robed Slayer to his death.

They also believed that his powerful stance was all an act.

He was actually at the brink of death...

Yet, Robed Slayer was exhilarated.

With a roar, Robed Slayer let out a wave of energy.

One wave after another.

It was more terrifying than the punches he threw earlier.

At the explosion of the energy, the air grew thick and hot. It was as though a thunderstorm was about to happen.

A scorching heat permeated through the air.

The crowd was shocked to witness this energy outburst from Robed Slayer.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The sound of loud bangs from the energy outburst seemed to be ripping apart the fabric of time and dimension itself.

But instead of dodging the attack, Levi faced the attack head-on.

Bam!

Levi threw a punch that was a hundred times more powerful than the energy wave.

“Crush!”

Wave after wave of the energy kept coming forth, but Levi deflected it with punch after punch.

Every counter-attack caused a deafening boom in the sky.

The thunderous booms that could be heard from the start of the battle were as though a thunderstorm was spawning in the sky.

Chapter 1894

Robed Slayer had said that without the Divine Sword, he only had a fifty-percent chance of winning.

As the battle unfolded, he realized that it was true—there was an equal chance of him winning or losing!

At that moment, he was about to lose.

Hence, there was no choice but to use the Divine Sword.

However, after unleashing the Divine Sword, Robed Slayer's chance of victory was a hundred percent.

In other words, he would win no matter what!

"Catch the sword, Master!"

A student hurled the Divine Sword into the air, which Robed Slayer caught swiftly.

The tens of thousands of people in the crowd focused intently on the Divine Sword.

Looks of envy crossed the faces of the powerful fighters amongst them.

There were countless people overseas who yearned to get their hands on this sword.

Now, they had finally seen it in real life!

Before the Seven Fiends could cheer for Levi, their expressions changed drastically.

After all, with the Divine Sword, Robed Slayer's power would increase significantly.

Cyrus had mentioned the sword before. Even someone like him would fear a fighter who wielded this weapon.

It was thus evident how powerful the Divine Sword was.

I can't!

Master has warned me against using the Forbidden Technique, especially now that the entire world's attention is focused on me.

If I use the Forbidden Technique, something bad might happen. The consequences would be much dire then.

I might create more trouble and affect Master.

This is different from being imprisoned in The Cardinal Hall! After all, no one there knew about it.

Perhaps, The Cardinal Hall still can't figure out how the Dragon Chain has been unlocked.

Although I could use the Forbidden Technique in that situation, I cannot use it now!

"Hahaha!"

At that moment, Levi suddenly burst out laughing, startling everyone.

Even Robed Slayer was taken aback.

What's wrong with Levi? He's on the brink of death, but why does he still laugh? Is he crazy? Or has he lost his mind out of fear?

The reason why Levi suddenly laughed was very simple—he suddenly remembered his master.

If everyone thought that he was the Fiery Demon's heir, it meant that his master was Cyrus.

However, he always believed that it was not true.

This time, he was certain that Cyrus was definitely not his master.

Crack! Crack!

At that moment, Levi’s bones started to crack loudly as his bones and veins started to undergo some changes.

Energy surged through his body, while steam rose from his head. His face was so red that it was as if he was burning.

A look of unbearable agony crossed his face.

It was like every inch of his muscle, every bone and every vein was exploding and reconstructing themselves...

He was in maximum pain!

What is he doing? T-This...

Everyone was stunned.

“Is he using the Reversal Technique?”

Someone noticed something abnormal.

“Is he crazy? The Reversal Technique is really risky! If something unexpected happens, he would explode and die!”

“This man is definitely crazy!”

Everyone exclaimed in shock.

The moment Delano spoke, a loud crack rang across the entire venue.

Everyone was stunned, while Delano's expression froze on his expression.

The cracking sound had come from the Divine Sword!

When Levi was grabbing the sword, strength surged through his arms and he broke it into half forcefully.

It was as if the cracking sound had come right from the depths of hell, shocking everyone.

Crack!

When the Divine Sword cracked, blood splattered out of Robed Slayer's mouth. He flew backward rapidly like a kite with a torn string.

After collapsing on the ground, he vomited mouthfuls of blood. However, he did not feel any pain—he was still immersed in shock.

The Divine Sword cracked? How can a sword that has been created with those materials be broken?

How terrifyingly strong is he? Is he a demon?

I've lost! I've actually lost so badly!

Gazing at the broken Divine Sword in his hands, he felt like crying.

Meanwhile, everyone else was stunned.

They stood there motionlessly with a frozen expression, looking like statues.

They were dumbstruck by this unimaginable situation.

The Divine Sword, which had always been undefeatable, was actually shattered by brute force.

“Pfft!”
All of a sudden, Robed Slayer’s mouth frothed and he started convulsing. He collapsed onto the ground and rolled around in utter agony.
More terrifyingly, streaks of blood appeared on his body, as if it was about to be torn into pieces.
Levi was stunned by what he saw.
What’s going on?
Although it was true that he injured Robed Slayer, most of his strength had been channeled to destroy the Divine Sword.
Hence, Robed Slayer was only mildly injured.
Why did he end up like this?

“Could it be...”

Levi’s expression changed drastically as a thought surfaced in his mind.

Poison! Robed Slayer has been poisoned! There’s poison on the sword.

He immediately discovered the reason.

Just when he was about to announce it, someone responded first.

“Master’s been poisoned!”

Everyone hurled accusations at Levi.

All evidence was there and everyone witnessed this incident.

There was no way Levi could defend himself!

“Pfft! Pfft!”

Meanwhile, the poison acting on Robed Slayer became more severe.

More streaks of blood appeared on his body and his flesh was starting to split apart.

If this continued, he would definitely die!

Only then did Bruce and the others realize what was going on.

According to their original plan, Robed Slayer was supposed to kill Levi first before being poisoned. Even if he did not die, he would be crippled.

Their plan was to eliminate these two powerful figures.

Since it was now an irreversible fact that Levi could not be killed, all they could do was to minimize their losses and poison Robed Slayer.

Delano smiled.

Don't blame me, Master. Actually, I'm from Raysonia, not Erudia. All of you should just go to hell!

Everyone was taken aback by this angry voice.

Whoosh!

A figure that was as fast as lightning charged toward Levi.

The person was none other than Zoey!

When she saw Levi, she immediately went berserk and aimed a fatal blow at him.

After merging with Jared’s consciousness, she was now engulfed with hatred.

That was why she had such an agitated reaction.

Wynona had brought Zoey there. Upon seeing that Levi was fine, she had just heaved a sigh of relief when Zoey suddenly charged out.

It was too late for her to do anything!

Boom!

Levi deflected Zoey’s punch quickly, causing a deafening boom to echo across the venue.

The impact was no less than his earlier battle with Robed Slayer.

When everyone saw this scene, they became excited.
