

Pinnacle 191

Chapter 191: Fragmented world

Deserted capital, Nanhu Manor.

"Qingqing, this bag is too beautiful, but how can Auntie carry it out?" Liang Chuyu really liked the shiny Himalayan diamond buckle out of the box.

But this kind of bag, she basically has no suitable occasions to carry it.

"Auntie, just keep it!"

Lu Qing sat next to her and smiled while holding her hand: "You can add value even if you don't carry it on your back!"

"Can add value?" Liang Chuyu was a little unbelievable, how could such a package add value?

She believed that the diamonds on the buckle were valuable.

After Lu Qing explained it to her, Liang Chuyu understood its value.

"Since you and Xiaoyu gave me the gift, then I will accept it." Liang Chuyu happily handed the gift.

No woman doesn't like bags, especially famous brand bags with shiny diamonds.

If any woman says she doesn't like bags, open the purse to see the thickness.

You can probably understand the real reason why she didn't like it.

"What time is Xiaoyu's plane?" Liang Chuyu raised his wrist to check the time.

The slender leather strap and the small and simple dial are very suitable for her work and life.

This ladies watch is a gift specially chosen by Lu Qing for her.

"At 1:45, the time is almost the same, I'll pick him up first." Lu Qing stood up and said.

"Well, you young people eat together at noon, I won't go, and I should come to the moving company soon." Liang Chuyu made a special leave today to arrange the move.

"Okay, goodbye, auntie." Saying goodbye to Liang Chuyu, the beautiful 911 quickly drove out of the private garage.

...

At the international airport, Qin Yu got off the plane and turned off the flight mode, and immediately received a letter from Lu Qing.

"I'm waiting for you in the parking lot." Lu Qing.

"I'm here." Qin Yu said with a smile to the two middle-aged men behind him: "I will arrange for you to go to the hotel first, and we will see you at the company tomorrow."

Hong Zhongcai and Zhang Qili are the two managers selected by Qin Yu for Lixin Investment.

The two have different divisions of labor, one is responsible for administrative management, and the other is responsible for specific implementation and operation.

The two women and three men who followed were traders.

"Okay, Shao Qin." Hong Zhongcai, who is in charge of administrative management, responded.

He is more communicative than Zhang Qili, so it is more appropriate for him to be responsible for administration and communication.

Zhang Qili is a standard technical man, not good at talking, but very serious and pragmatic.

Having worked in the firm for 11 years, I have never made any mistakes!

Careful, obedient, and hardworking are his greatest strengths.

"Lao Hong, I have sent you the address. When it's there, I will trouble you to clean up the hygiene. I will recruit the front desk and cleaning staff as soon as possible."

Qin Yu arrived at the parking lot with a simple arrangement of work on the road.

First arranged for them to board the taxi at the taxi stop, and then gave Hong Zhongcai a 3,000 yuan red envelope for him to arrange board, lodging and transportation.

Qin Yu walked towards the private parking space.

"Qin Yu." Lu Qing who received the message saw him from a distance, jumped up and ran towards him waving his hands.

"Qingqing." Qin Yu opened his arms and quickened his pace.

His body jumped up suddenly, his legs clamped his waist, Lu Qing, who hung on his body, smiled happily, "Why is it so long?"

"First arrange for the employees of the company to take a taxi to the hotel, it was a bit of time." Qin Yu responded with her hug.

"Go, you must be hungry, take you to eat delicious food first." Lu Qing jumped down and took his arm.

"Paomo, I have been thinking about it for many days." Sitting in the co-pilot, Qin Yu inserted his seat belt.

"Just know you want to eat, I specifically asked my father for the address of an old store." Lu Qing set up the navigation, started the car and drove forward.

"It's so spiritual!" Qin Yu put a hand on her thigh.

Today Lu Qing is wearing a short skirt with a black bare-legged artifact inside.

Smooth and firm, it does not seem to affect the beauty at all, but adds a bit of charm.

Lu Qing's face was reddish, and he moaned angrily, but didn't stop his movement.

911 merged into the highway smoothly and drove towards the inner city at an even speed.

...

The pao-mo restaurant that Lu Qing looked for was indeed recommended by Lu Guohui.

The location is in a remote alley, a small and dilapidated two-story old building. The houses next door have collapsed and looked extremely dilapidated.

There are not many guests, so that when they first entered, they both wondered if they had arrived at a black shop.

After you have tasted the taste, you will know what is called the top delicacy!

Especially their snacks and specialty biscuits, paired with steamed buns have a special flavor.

Qin Yu silently wrote down the address, and after deciding to go back, he told the little anchor that she would join her in her itinerary.

After eating and drinking, the two drove to the Lvheng Commercial Building in the Southern District.

"Where is your office?" A tall building, a neat square.

All the elite white-collar workers who are looking in a hurry came and went, and the parking lot was full of cars.

The overall feeling is that it is often said, 'tall. '

"Yes, go up and take a look." Qin Yu led Lu Qing into it.

In the smooth and dust-free hall, someone noticed that they were not wearing badges.

Looking again, the strange face, "Sir, who do you look for?"

"I'm Qin Yu, the new tenant of Building A 12-1, Lixin Investment." Qin Yu expressed his intention to the other party.

After verification by the receptionist at the bar, the security swiped their cards to let them go.

"It's so strict here!" Lu Qing stood in the elevator, sticking out his tongue weirdly.

She would be a little nervous, and her palms would be sweaty.

"Don't be nervous, you are the future boss." Qin Yu joked, holding her hand.

"Who..."

Lu Qing instinctively wanted to deny it, and when he talked to his lips, his tongue would become disobedient, "Yes, that's what you said."

"Well, lady boss, please." Qin Yu invited her to the elevator without panic.

What's so scary about this kind of thing, isn't it just the boss!

Doesn't anyone really have only one company and one boss?

Ding!

The elevator stopped on the 12th floor, and the employees of the building management office were already waiting at the door.

"Mr. Qin, hello, I'm the junior department of our management office." The man in the suit greeted him politely, and then asked him to do a simple registration before handing him the key quickly.

"How to pay the rent?" Qin Yu was surprised.

Why did you give the key to yourself without discussing the rent?

"Don't you know?" Xiaoke was taken aback, and explained: "The above explained that your rent is from the head office. I don't know the specifics."

Although I don't know what the situation is, Xiaoke knows that this young man's background is definitely not small.

Allowing the headquarters to pay for him is not something that everyone can get.

It can be said that Qin Yu is still the first one he has ever seen in Abandoned City for so many years...

"Okay, thank you."

"You are polite, please feel free to call me if you have any questions in the future." Xiaoke left his business card and left with full curiosity.

When there were only two people left, Lu Qing couldn't help but ask: "Qin Yu, do you know the senior leaders of Lu Heng?"

It's not that she made a fuss, it's that Luheng Real Estate's reputation in Xia Guo is too loud.

Besides, Lu Qing's family is engaged in real estate.

More or less you will understand the strength of Lvheng, which is the leading enterprise in domestic commercial real estate.

"Yeah~" Qin Yu told her about saving Tongtong unintentionally.

"I didn't expect that Tongtong would be Jiang Hongsheng's grandson." Qin Yu was also surprised at the mention of this.

Ya Lan, Tong Tong, Jiang Hongsheng, the world is really small sometimes.

"The more you go up, the smaller the circle. There are only a dozen people in each industry's circle, and all the circles add up to only a few hundred or thousands of people."

Lu Qing felt that it was normal. As the saying goes, who is in the circle.

When you become excellent, the circle around you will naturally become excellent.

The number of people who can be reached has gradually decreased, to give the simplest example.

Every time Lu Qing buys clothes, he will go to the top local shopping malls instead of choosing cheap or wholesale markets.

Naturally, you won't know the people who haunt these places.

If there are no accidents, their world is like two parallel lines that will never have any communication.

Take eating as an example again One is to go to high-end restaurants every day, and occasionally go to roadside stalls.

One is eating roadside stalls every day, and occasionally or never going to high-end restaurants.

Even if they happen to happen by chance this time, what probability is there that an intersection will occur?

In Lu Qing's view, the probability of winning the lottery is even lower.

Especially with the increase of age and entering the society, the gap of this level will become more obvious.

A circle is like a divided world.

Take Qin Yu as an example. If he were the ordinary big boy, would he have the opportunity to get to know Jiang Hongsheng and arouse his interest to come out to meet him?

At most, he was only given a sum of money as a thank you.

The huge gap in the lives of both parties cannot be changed by words and attitudes.

Any adult should understand the truth of the chicken and the duck.

Chapter 192: French windows

Hearing what Lu Qing said, Qin Yu immediately thought of Li Xiao's circle.

In the huge Hudu, there are only a few people in the circle.

Except for Yang Chengjun, they are all the same, 'difficult brothers.'

If you think about it carefully, the family background, age, and status are the same.

Even the situation and status of each at home are the same. Is this a way of making friends in the right way?

As for the ruthlessness of the family, Yan Xue is the best example!

As soon as her father left, the mother and daughter were left alone, and the Yan family let them fend for themselves.

It's really a typical 'family' style.

"Go, let's go in and take a look." The thoughts in his mind flashed, and Qin Yu unlocked the door.
drop.

The power supply system is turned on again on the property side, and the daylight light above illuminates the space.

The front entrance is the front desk, and behind it is the company LOGO and image wall.

The left leads to an area, the right leads to an area.

There is no open office area, and it seems that privacy is very important.

There is a waiting area of about 40 square meters on the right rear of the front desk. The ground is messy, and all kinds of paper, office supplies and garbage are thrown everywhere.

"The company in front left in a hurry?" Lu Qing picked up the stapler on the floor.

I tried it and it still works, so I put it in the bar. Why should I throw it away when things are good? Waste!

"The boss misappropriated public funds and ran away." Seeing her behaved naturally, Qin Yu deliberately wanted to tease her, "I heard that I ran with my sister-in-law."

"!!!" Lu Qing blinked blankly, "Should I be glad I am the only child?"

"Thirty years of fighting less series?" Qin Yu retorted.

"Then you have to be careful, this princess is very difficult to take care of." Lu Qing didn't finish her words.

The rear bridge was slapped with a big hand, and a scorching heat hit her heart, making her face flushed.

"You~" Lu Qing turned his head, eyes flooding as he wanted to go crazy.

Slap~

"Ah!" The breath seemed to have burning temperature, Lu Qing lowered his head, his toes drew a semicircle on the ground.

"Little princess, is my service still satisfactory?" Qin Yu's deliberately lowered laughter made Qin Yu even more unable to look up.

If she could do it, she would definitely dig a strip on the ground and sew it out by herself.

Jump in... Then you can bury the soil yourself!

"Um...this place needs to be cleaned well, I can ask my aunt at home to help." Lu Qing hurriedly found a topic, trying to prevent the situation from getting worse.

But she didn't see, a hint of milky white blooming in the daylight on the ceiling.

Light is coming!

...

The exact time, 85 minutes.

After cleaning the area, a piece of floor-to-ceiling window glass was polished white and shiny.

The messy footprints in the room make people mistakenly think that there are countless people coming in and out here.

Leaving the office with Lu Qing who was still warm, Qin Yu left the key at the front desk.

"Tomorrow morning, someone will come to pick up the key. The name is...Thank you."

"No, you're welcome, handsome guy." The female receptionist at the front desk responded with a blushing face.

He already had an office in Luheng Commercial Building at a young age. The key is that he is so handsome. Is he a star?

But why have I never seen him before, or is it that a certain company is preparing for a new combination?

Looking at the back of Qin Yu's departure, the female receptionist couldn't help but be stunned for a while!

"Hey." The colleague suddenly smashed her fantasies, "Do your job well and get off work soon."

The off-get off work is the peak period, and high-level building management offices will also appear.

If you don't want to lose your job, it's best to put away her **** expression.

...

"Qin Yu, you seem to have become handsome...you are also a little taller." Standing next to him, Lu Qing kept measuring with his hands, with doubts in his eyes.

"Sister, I'm only 19 years old, and it's not time to stop growing." Qin Yu said naturally.

"Who is your sister?" Lu Qing stared at him unhappily, "I'm only three months older than you."

"Fortunately, it's only three months. If one more month, there should be a generation gap between us." Qin Yu muttered to himself.

"Ah~ Qin Yu, you, I..." Lu Qing stamped his foot angrily. Is he saying that he is old?

Before she furiously hugged her, lowered her head and looked into her eyes, Qin Yu said seriously: "That way, I will like you more."

...

The next day, he woke up in the hotel bed.

Qin Yu stretched vigorously, and the sunlight outside the window made him feel happy.

'Ding.'

'The host gets a good deep sleep and is full of energy!'

Walking out of the room rubbing hands and feet, and then closing the door of the suite, Qin Yu dialed the number at the front desk.

Asking for breakfast in the room, Qin Yu sat on the chair in front of the floor-to-ceiling windows and played with her mobile phone.

Found that the high school group information has reached 99+

Qin Yu clicked it casually, and saw his name at first glance.

'It must be our Ban Qin Yu, it's amazing. '

'Lixin, Qin Yu, I don't believe it if it's not! '

'Qin Yu didn't come out to talk about the situation, is that you at WPP? '

'Tang He and Gao Bo! Are not the two of them the most familiar with Qin Yu? '

"Tang He, come out and talk about the situation?"

The group was all asking about WPP awards, and Qin Yu continued to scroll up.

The source of this incident was quickly found.

The senior high school class reprinted the award announcement on Lixin's official website, although there is no photo on it.

'Freshman', 'Qin Yu', 'Lixin College'

These few keywords are enough to make people think.

Seeing most of his classmates congratulating him, the atmosphere was harmonious.

Qin Yu opened the red envelope.

Swish~

The red envelope rain struck, and Qin Yu sent out twenty 200 red envelopes in a row.

In the group where no one had spoken before, it immediately boiled like a boiling kettle.

'{Boss Atmosphere}' hit the street.

'{Thank you, boss}' the trick.

"Brother Yu, you are the one who won the prize, right? 'Tang He.

'Well, luck. 'Qin Yu.

'Fuck, where's my knife? 'Gao Bo.

'This is what people say, my sword! Don't stop me. {Runaway}' Gao Bo.

'No one stopped you, your knife was confiscated by the airport. {Laughing over}' Tang He.

'Qin Yu, congratulations. 'Du Xu.

'I look forward to your better performance, the future can be expected! 'Du Xu.

This old-fashioned tone...what's the matter, little brother?

'Thank you, monitor, thank you everyone. 'Qin Yu.

'I didn't get a red envelope. {Poor}' rush to the street.

'me too. 'Long set.

Looking at the red envelopes before, Qin Yu found that Du Xu had robbed several of them.

Wang Hao grabbed two and Li Xiaoli grabbed one.

Just grab the red envelopes and don't talk, these two people are obedient? ?

'I'll post a few more, the hands are fast and the hands are slow. 'Qin Yu.

Twenty red envelopes worth 200 yuan were sent again, and the group was clamoring for thanks again.

For Qin Yu, this little money is a small amount of money, but for some people it is a day or two of living expenses.

Can you be unhappy about picking up money for nothing?

Smiled and cut out the chat box, Qin Yu clicked on the small group of three people.

"Baozi, how are you and Xu Ya?" Qin Yu.

"Very good... we are together now, wait." Bun.

"Qin Yu, Gao Bo, long time no see!" Xu Ya's voice was in a lazy tone.

"Brother Bao Niubi!" Gao Bo.

"Brother Bao Niubi!" Qin Yu.

It didn't take long for me to live together. This wave must be called '666 to my brothers. '

"Hey, don't mess with me. If I can't get in bed today, you two will just wait...slap~" Tang He was proud to say something, his voice suddenly cut off.

After a while, the mosquito mosquito sound like a thief came again: "Yaya is shy, I will hide in the toilet! I'll talk about it later if I have something."

You can still hear Xu Ya shouting in the background, 'Tang He, are you alright? I'm almost late. '

"Tsk tusk, the sour smell of this love, sour, so sour!" Qin Yu said enviously.

Huh~

"Brother Yu Be yourself!" Gao Bo's voice was particularly helpless.

There is only one single dog in the group, is it fun to abuse dogs? Is it fun?

Believe it or not, I quit the group! !

"Stop making trouble, Doctor, in two days I will go to Yaodu, not far from the window, let's get together?" Qin Yu asked with a smile.

"It's a must, I'm here to take you to the bar... the civilian field, the funds are limited." Gao Bo.

"Spicy, enough beer tubes will do." Qin Yu said with a smile.

Thinking that the two would meet again, Qin Yu felt very happy.

This kind of happiness is different from others, only sitting with brothers, without worrying about anything.

The chaos of the lake, the sky and the sea, without any disguise, the tacit understanding that can be laughed constantly with just one look, is a lightness that can't be found in any other place or person.

Chapter 193: Company creation

‘Because the host is full of energy, the effect of kidney power is +100%.’

Standing in front of the bathroom mirror, Qin Yu stretched out his fingers and pressed his chest and abdominal muscles.

It seems to be harder than before.

You can have a perfect body without fitness, and it can enhance male abilities.

It shouldn't be called ‘kidney power’, it should be called ‘full power’.

"Do you always wake up so early?" Lu Qing put on a large white T-shirt and leaned against the door, with a happy smile on his sleepy face.

The tender apple muscle seems to be able to squeeze out the water, and at first glance it is moisturized by love.

"Time is money. The first thing you want to do to succeed is to understand how to manage time."

"Time management?"

"That's a profound knowledge."

In Lu Qing's white eyes, he patted his back bridge, Qin Yu smiled and returned to the room to change clothes.

...

"Remember to pick me up at noon. Don't be late." Standing in front of the school gate, he waved to Qin Yu on 911. Lu Qing waited for the car to go far before turning and walking towards the school.

"Fraud!" Fang Mei suddenly jumped out of nowhere.

"Mei Mei~" Lu Qing said, slapped her chest, "I was just thinking about something, and I really want to be scared to death by you."

"Thinking about your male **** again?" Fang Mei joked with her arms around her shoulders: "That's right, if I have a male **** as a boyfriend, I will definitely put him in my heart every day."

"How can it be so exaggerated as you said." Lu Qing looked at her amused.

"Why not?" Fang Mei looked like she didn't know anything, and exaggerated: "No, you don't even know?"

"Know what?" Lu Qing was dumbfounded.

Looking at her expression, it seemed that something terrible had happened.

With a speechless slap on her forehead, Fang Mei opened the official website of Lixin College with her mobile phone and pointed to the latest announcement above to spread to her what her boyfriend had done.

"Mei." After hearing her popularity, Lu Qing looked at her strangely and asked, "Why are you paying attention to this?"

"Huh?" Fang Mei, who was overly proud, was stupid!

Yes, how can I pay attention to these, not my boyfriend.

Why pay special attention to the news from Lixin College? Why do you want to share it with others as soon as you see it?

He even went to show off in front of Lu Qing's real girlfriend.

sudden!

...

At this time, Qin Yu didn't know that there were two gluttons around Lu Qing.

Even if he knew it, he wouldn't care, since he became a handsome man, he has greeted him a lot.

At first I didn't get used to it, and I still felt a little proud.

right now.....

It's natural to get used to it.

Parked the car in the parking lot of Luheng Building and saw Qin Yu appear in the lobby.

The girl at the front desk stood up and shouted, "Hello, Mr. Qin."

"?" Qin Yu was a little surprised, but still nodded politely in response.

"Who is this?" The white-collar workers in the lobby were dumbfounded, why Lu Heng's front desk had to stand up and say hello.

President Qin, is it a new executive from Luheng, but he is too young?

"Mr. Qin." The security guard said with a smile, nodding.

He was also confused by the front desk sister. Since the other party wants to say hello, he just follows.

What if it is a big shot?

There is nothing wrong with being careful!

"President Qin."

"President Qin."

Standing in the elevator, the white-collar workers who saw that scene before greeted him politely.

Qin Yu kept smiling and nodded in response, as if a trillion alpaca flew by in his heart.

Who are you screaming, have you figured out the situation?

But you can reach out and don't hit the smiley person, and they take the initiative to greet yourself enthusiastically.

What else can he say besides smiling back?

Within an hour, the news of President Qin spread to Luheng Commercial Building.

Every company knows that Lu Hengxin has sent a manager Qin, but it is not clear what exactly it is doing.

Young and handsome...extremely handsome!

Some people say that he is the newly appointed regional president of Luheng, true or false, and rumors are full of rumors.

"Shao Qin!" Qin Yu smiled more sincerely when he saw his employees on 12-1.

They are holding a mop and linen in their hands, and they will clean the future office.

"Everyone has worked hard, I will pay the bill at night, and Manager Hong will do it!" As Qin Yu, it is better to keep a certain distance from ordinary employees.

Being too close to employees is not a good thing for the head of a company.

Therefore, let Hong Zhongcai celebrate with the employees on his own behalf, and it is the best way to buy it by him alone.

"Thank Shao Qin." Everyone responded with a smile.

"Lao Hong, Lao Zhang, come here." Qin Yu called the two into the room alone.

"Lao Hong, you should hurry up to do the recruitment. Two cleaners, two front desks, and a few more receptionists. All of them must be women, and they must be beautiful women."

"In short, seductive eyes are necessary, but people have to want to come to work, so don't bring messy things." Qin Yu wants seductive eyes, not a big wave of coquettishness.

"Understand, what about the salary?" This shows Hong Zhongcai's shortcomings.

Qin Yu's opinions must also be sought on matters such as cleaning and the salary of the receptionist.

Changing the boss will definitely feel that he has no determination and responsibility, but Qin Yu likes this.

Anyone who thinks about reporting, works hard and listens to instructions, and be an honest worker in peace and contentment.

The advantage is that he is indispensable.

"Wages here are 20% higher than the market, but the requirements have to be raised."

"In terms of cleaning, we can't say that it is spotless, but we must keep it clean and tidy at all times."

"The reception at the front desk... is enthusiastic and cheerful, it is necessary to be able to speak well, and the education area, the young people are too wild now!"

Hearing Qin Yu's emotional tone, Hong Zhongcai and Zhang Qili looked at each other.

‘Qin Shao, you are not a young man yourself, but a very young one.’

However, the two of them dared to talk in their own hearts.

Just listen to the boss's instructions honestly, and Qin Shao said it before coming.

As long as you do a good job, buying a car in half a year, buying a house in one year, and achieving financial freedom in two years, this is not a dream!

Although I don't know whether the 'buying a house' and 'financial freedom' refer to the abandoned capital, or to Hudu.

But at least the two of them have hope in their hearts, and they are much better than the original treatment in the office.

Even in the Zhili city like Hudu, not everyone can earn tens of thousands a month, get promoted and raise their salary, and have a boundless future.

"Old Zhang, I want you to have been watching the international silver market recently and make an analysis report."

Qin Yu pointed at him and said in a serious tone: "If you have a good idea, then I will know your views on the future silver market."

"Don't tell me what you are not sure about. I don't know... Then I'm going to change."

He looked like he was joking, but Zhang Qili didn't want to bet and couldn't afford it.

After finally changing to a promising working environment, there is hope for a promotion and salary increase.

Who can stand this grievance after being replaced?

Besides, this is not an actual trader, it is up to him to decide the investment and flow of funds.

Just make a detailed analysis report to Qin Shao, what can be the problem?

"Shao Qin, this is just a simple analysis report, right?" In order to dispel his inner worries, Zhang Qili deliberately asked.

"Yes, just give me an analysis report." Qin Yu answered very simply.

"Then I can give it to you tomorrow." Zhang Qili only needs to summarize the data of these years, and make an estimate report based on the current market situation, and he will be able to successfully hand in the paper.

The information is all in his computer, and he can get it in a few hours after returning to the hotel to work overtime at night.

Speaking of hard work and no complaints, Zhang Qili has no choice on this point.

"Very well, I will see you at this time tomorrow morning." Qin Yu looked at his watch, "I will personally designate our company's finance ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ to be on duty tomorrow at the latest."

After Qin Yu finished speaking, he transferred another 50,000 yuan to Hong Zhongcai.

"Shao Qin, you can't use so much money." Hong Zhong looked at him in surprise only when he saw the transfer record.

"You put it away first." Qin Yu pointed to the layout in the office: "These layouts, as well as the tables, chairs and benches, must be replaced with new ones."

"You two must have bad eyesight. There are no young people outside. Ask them their opinions."

"Don't be too old-fashioned, I don't like too heavy style."

"Work is boring enough, if even the environment is so boring to kill people, what is the meaning of this life?"

Since the boss has ordered this, Hong Zhong has nothing to say.

As for purchasing office supplies, didn't Qin Shao talk about it?

Let him refer to the opinions of young people more, and then check the price by himself, and cooperation between young and old will definitely satisfy Qin Shao.

Chapter 194:

At noon, Lu Qing was picked up at the school gate.

The two drove home together, ready to go to Cengfan.

It is not Nanhu Manor, but Zizhu Yipin, which is not far away, where Lu Guohui and He Hong live.

Single-family villa with private garage, two-door design can park six cars.

Coupled with the circular open space in front of the double-storey villa, it is enough for the family's daily use and reception of guests.

Qin Yu parked the car directly in the corner of the circular turntable at the door, and entered the door with Lu Qing carrying the gifts he had bought in advance.

"Uncle Lu, Auntie, I'm here." Qin Yu was very relaxed, as if returning home.

Lu Guohui and He Hong liked him like this. Wherever a man goes, he should be open, talkative, and open.

Twisting, a man who is stubborn, that is absolutely not to be.

"Xiaoyu, come and sit." Lu Guohui greeted him to sit in front of the sea of tea, "How about a taste of my new Junshan Silver Needle?"

"I don't know how to taste tea, but it's okay to drink it." Qin Yu grinned.

"Haha, young people are the same, then you should be with me."

"Don't look at me making it cumbersome, but I'm actually cultivating my qi, and being a man is very important, and being a businessman is more important."

"Young people must remember that they are impetuous. If they are confused, their thoughts will also be confused."

"No idea, that's a crab lacking tongs and can only be slaughtered."

When drinking tea and waiting for the meal, Lu Guohui was basically talking, and Qin Yu listened carefully.

When Lu Qing came to ask the two to eat, this 'Tea of Life' was finished.

"Xiaoyu, did your Uncle Lu give you a class?" He Hong said as he picked up chopsticks and fried pork with bamboo shoots, there were too many vegetables in the bowl.

"Auntie, Uncle Lu invited me to drink a cup of life tea, which benefited a lot." Qin Yu replied cheerfully.

"Listen, the child has said it, and it has benefited a lot." Lu Guohui looked at his wife triumphantly.

"You, don't talk about those great principles a day. It's better to travel thousands of miles to read thousands of books."

"With so much time to talk, it's better to take him to more business occasions."

He Hong said and looked at Qin Yu: "Xiaoyu, Auntie is a straight person, so I told you directly."

"Auntie, you said." Qin Yu held the bowl and looked at each other.

"Auntie has always felt that you will have great prospects in the future, and now it seems that my vision is correct."

"Your Uncle Lu's ability to do business is far behind you."

Hearing this from his wife, Lu Guohui's eyes widened unconvinced.

But when I think about Qin Yu's profit on the New Zealand currency, he is half stunned.

Young people nowadays don't speak martial arts!

When you come up, you will shoot the old guys directly to death, leaving no way out.

"But when it comes to experience, he still has some experience over the years, so you should listen to some words and call him directly if you need it, don't feel troublesome."

"After all, Uncle Lu and I are a child like Qingqing. As long as you two are well, not all of this will be left to you in the future."

"Do you think it's not, Lao Lu." He Hong asked him to express his attitude.

Lu Guohui immediately straightened his chest and said: "That is, I have worked hard for half my life for my baby girl, or what do I do for so many years?"

"Uncle, aunt, I understand that you are all for my own good, don't worry, I know everything."

Qin Yu put down his chopsticks, grabbed Lu Qing's hand, and said, "As for feelings, I feel a little hypocritical if I say that it will last forever."

"After all, I am only 19 years old this year, and Qingqing is only 20. There is still a long way to go in the future."

"I have made an appointment with Qingqing. No matter what the future is, we will only follow our own decisions and will not be affected by any outside world."

Looking at him affectionately, Lu Qing said: "Dad, Mom, don't worry about our affairs. It's fine now, and the future will be left to the future."

"Okay, okay, as long as you young people have a plan." He Hongyi said hastily.

The focus of the conversation was also on the dishes and trivia. He Hong also specifically mentioned the Himalayan diamond button.

Explain that you like the bag very much and thank him.

A meal ended in harmony, after the meal, and drinking tea with Lu Guohui, the two got up and said goodbye.

Qin Yu had to send Lu Qing back to school, and she had to participate in the activities in the department in the afternoon.

"I will come and sit often in the future." He Hong's smile gradually diminished as he watched the two driving 911 far away.

"Why, feel unsatisfied?" Lu Guohui asked, squinting.

"This kid, don't you think it has become too slippery...high-profile?" He Hong said uncertainly.

"Hehe, wife, you are really..." Lu Guohui looked at her and said amusedly: "If I am his age, let alone earn hundreds of millions."

"Just say that I earn a few million. I can be more arrogant than him. I have to stand in the sky and look at people with my nostrils."

"At the time of being young and vigorous, who doesn't feel arrogant anymore."

"Let me see, he is too low-key."

Hearing Lu Guohui said this, He Hong took a picture of him funny: "If you say you buy a house with two hundred million yuan, you can buy it, and the watch on hand can be heard by Qingqing."

"I don't know if there is any property in Hudu. This is also called low-key?"

"Isn't this low-key?" Lu Guohui waved his hand: "It's me, this will be the order for private yachts and business jets."

"On the land in front, I directly contracted the yamen and built a garden for myself."

"By the way, isn't there a crescent diversion that expands outside the South Lake, see if it can be covered..."

"Oh, why are you still biting?"

"Biting? If I don't let you wake up, I think you will have to go to heaven..."

...

For two days, Qin Yu was either staying in the company or accompanying Lu Qing.

In the evening, I went back to Nanhu Manor and finally saw the busy Liang Chuyu.

As for Dad Qin Han, he went on a business trip before he came back, and it took more than half a month after he left.

The company's card was in Qin Yu's hands, and he was transferred to Lu Qing.

"I will not be here in the future, you will be the company's finance, and I will not worry about the others."

That's right, Lu Qing is the chief financial officer he chose for Lixin.

Firstly, Qin Yu can rest assured with the money, and secondly, she is very close to Liang Chuyu.

If you don't understand, you can ask Liang Chuyu for advice.

He asked his mother for help, naturally there was no problem, but he was uttered.

Changing to Lu Qing now allows Liang Chuyu to stare at the company without having to be nagged by her every day, killing two birds with one stone.

'I'm such a clever ghost! Looking at Zhang Qili who was in front of him to make a report, Qin Yu silently praised himself in his heart.

"Shao Qin, this is my analysis based on the data in the past six years and the changes in the international situation." Zhang Qili closed the report a little depressed.

Because he found that Qin Yu didn't seem to be listening at all, he was all alone singing a one-man show.

This made Zhang Qili, who had spent half the night doing a detailed analysis, feel that he was in vain.

"Well, the report is well done." Qin Yu raised his head, "So, your judgment is that in the next six months, there will be a wave of decline in silver."

"Uh~" Seeing the brilliance in his eyes, Zhang Qili had a somewhat ominous premonition: "This is just an analysis result based on data and the situation."

"Yes, what I want is the analysis result." Qin Yu stood up with a smile, walked around the table and came to him.

Raising his hand on his shoulder, he said seriously: "The report is well done, so the company's first order will be placed on silver futures."

"??" Zhang Qili was stupid.

No, it should be said that he is about to cry.

Shao Qin, boss, don't take you to such a trick.

It is clearly stated that this is for you to see, a simple analysis report.

How come it suddenly became the company's first order to make a name for it, I can't bear such a heavy burden!

"Make a specific plan and give it to me. I want the company to officially start working within 5 days. When UU read www.uukanshu.com a week later, when I come back, we will enter the silver market and make a big deal."

Hearing Qin Yu's confident voice, Zhang Qili's voice trembled: "Qin Shao, yes, how big is it?"

Looking at him meaningfully, Qin Yu patted him on the shoulder vigorously, "You will know then, it must be bigger than you think."

"Do it hard, I will seal a big red envelope to you when the ticket is finished, haha..." Qin Yu left the office with a big laugh.

Hearing such a happy laugh from him, everyone felt that something good must have happened to Zhang Qili.

One by one couldn't wait to wait for him to come out and share the good news with everyone.

But the facts are different from what they thought.

Zhang Qili walked out of the office with a dazed face, and kept muttering words, as if he had hysteria.

When someone approached him, he vaguely heard that what he was saying was 'what he said is true, it's a report, what he said is true, it's a report, false, it's all false...'

Chapter 195: What a home away from home!

A big surprise for Zhang Qili, Qin Yu also arranged a ticket to Yaodu.

Deserted city, international airport, T3 terminal.

"I'll be back next week, and I'll accompany you when that time." With his arms around Lu Qing, Qin Yu promised her that he would be back as soon as possible.

The longer the time spent together, the deeper the relationship, and the more reluctant to leave.

However, she also wanted Qin Yu to know what she thought, and would not really make troubles unreasonably.

For his own little emotions, let him let go of everything to accommodate himself.

"Pay attention to safety on the road and remember to miss me." After sending a sweet kiss, Lu Qing urged him to go in quickly.

Waving goodbye, Qin Yu disappeared in the terminal building with CHRISTOPHER on one shoulder.

VIP treatment all the way, the beautiful flight attendant...doesn't exist.

While giving up, Qin Yu was a little bit eager to take a stab at it.

Do you find time to do all the domestic flights in the future? I don't believe I can't find a 90↑ flight attendant.

Brother Yu didn't have to want to do something.

He simply doesn't believe in this evil, so why can't he meet the superb Hei Changzhi stewardess? ?

...

Three hours later, the plane landed at Yaodu Airport on time.

Walking out of the gate with a shoulder bag, Qin Yu saw two familiar faces.

"Brother Sheng, Brother Yi." Qin Yu raised his hands to be flush with his shoulders and greeted them.

"Shao Qin, I finally invited you." He Sheng stepped forward and gave him a hug.

"I've long wanted to come to the demon all to gain insight, but time doesn't allow it!" Qin Yu also patted his back politely, and almost shot He Sheng an internal injury.

"Brother, you are online and offline, and moving will hurt people?" He Sheng exaggerated his chest and said.

"Haha, I forgot to exercise a bit frequently recently, and I didn't master my strength." He said sorry, but his face was a smirk of 'do you want to try again'.

"Understood, I will definitely let my sister come to pick you up next time." He Sheng joked jokingly.

"It's really big brother, go on the road." Qin Yu can say anything, just wait.

"Shao Qin, Brother Sheng has prepared a banquet for you. Let's go to the hotel first." Outside the airport, Feng Yi opened the door of the Mercedes-Benz S, and took Qin Yu's bag and put it into the trunk.

"So polite?" Qin Yu joked: "Who is here, don't you want to get me drunk first?"

"How can it be!" He Sheng smiled and said, "If you want to irrigate it, you have to put it at night."

Feng Yi got into the co-pilot and turned around and said, "Qin Shao, you have to be careful tonight."

"How to say?" Qin Yu was curious.

"In order to entertain you, Brother Sheng put his daughter's country into Pansidong. Whether you can get out of this spider's nest tonight depends on your ability."

Feng Yi said jokingly: "If it was me, it would definitely be unstoppable."

"How can a man not be able to stand it?" Qin Yu really wanted to see what she meant by throwing her daughter into the Pansi Hole.

Those spider spirits, are they really like the fascinating and charming legends?

...

The car drove to the hotel first, magnificent and magnificent.

The lowest level of entry and exit is also the same as the Mercedes-Benz S, He Sheng indeed showed his sincerity to receive him.

When he arrived in the box, Qin Yu looked at familiar faces.

Jin Miao [just happy], Wei Xian [sage time], Cao Fei [Garfield], Chen Wei [quan Yin Tu].

Together with He Sheng and Feng Yi who went to the airport to pick him up, everyone was there.

They all put down their business and came from nearby cities.

Made a special trip to catch the wind for Qin Yu.

As for his face, or to take care of He Sheng's face...

Qin Yu admits that the benefits he brings to the big brothers have not yet made a special trip to spare them.

These eldest brothers will finish the meal, but they all have to rush back.

Whether it's busy or not, it's clear at a glance!

"Shao Qin, welcome to Demon Capital." The wine and dishes were served, and He Sheng welcomed him on behalf of the eldest brother present.

"Thank you, big brothers, for giving face, and came here to pick up the wind for me today."

"I didn't say anything, it's all here." Qin Yu pointed to the wine glass, raised his head and did it.

"Okay, Shao Qin happy." Happy brother Jin Miao said with applause.

"Let's do whatever you want today. Don't get Qin Shao drunk. I have plans for the main event tonight." He Sheng first expressed his attitude.

Drinking belongs to drinking, but you have to control it.

Tonight, he had prepared the highlight, if he confuses Qin Yu directly.

Isn't he busy these days?

"Brother Sheng, don't worry, everyone knows it in their hearts." Jin Miao said that he was going to have another drink with Qin Yu.

For this, Qin Yu also refused to come, and everyone who came to the door was bored.

The one who didn't come here was like Feng Yi.

On the contrary, Qin Yu took the initiative to drink with the other party. He Sheng who looked at him was stupid.

This hurting brother... Qin Shao is a little bit able to drink, and the amount of alcohol is good!

He only ate and drank, talked about customs, and didn't mention a word about the trade union.

The meal was naturally enjoyed by the guests and the host. When they left, Chen Wei and Jin Miao asked the driver to support them in the car.

"Be careful on the road." Qin Yu stood at the door of the hotel without changing his face, looking at the car away.

"Shao Qin, you drink, real man!" Feng Yi looked at him admiringly.

"Natural." Qin Yu calmly.

He Sheng rolled his eyes at hearing, but said nothing.

He had been listening to this Versailles literature for an afternoon, and it was almost time to get used to it.

"Where shall we go next?" Qin Yu asked after getting in the car.

"First take a bath, massage, get rid of alcohol, and then naturally start nightlife."

...

The seven-meter-high lobby is decorated with magnificent splendor.

If He Sheng hadn't brought him here, Qin Yu would really not believe that this was a bathing center.

"The most prosperous place in Demon City, we will go to the window market after taking a shower." Feng Yi said about the next itinerary.

"Are you not going to let me rest?" Qin Yu pointed at the two amusedly.

"When you are really young and crazy, when you go back to Shanghai, there is time to rest." He Sheng made up his mind to let him experience the enthusiasm of Yaodu.

Take a bath, sauna, and then rub your back.

When He Sheng and Feng Yi finished rubbing, they found that Qin Yu's master was still there.

There was a skeptical expression on his face.

"What's the matter?" He Sheng asked, his expression a little unhappy.

He thought what happened to the master rubbing back and neglected his guests.

"I have rubbed my back for 20 years. This is the first time I have seen such a clean one." The master rubbing back pointed at Qin Yu, only to see that there was no dust on his back, not even white horniness.

Qin Yu suddenly remembered [Wuji] at this moment, and said calmly: "I have good skin since I was a child, and I wash them frequently."

"Tsk tut~ Brother Yu, your figure." Seeing Qin Yu's abdominal muscles again, Feng Yi was sour again.

"Good thing, unlike me, with large pores, you can take up ashes if you don't wash it for a long time. You don't know how troublesome it is." He Sheng also looked at him enviously.

It is not a big deal that the ash can not be rubbed. The three of them simply rinsed and then went to the private room for massage.

The girl who came here looks good, looks clean, and has a particularly sophisticated technique.

"These are all formal massages, and the technique is very good. If Brother Yu has other ideas, I can arrange them separately." He Sheng thought he had an idea when he found Qin Yu staring at the girl.

"You are ill-intentioned, I like the formal." Qin Yu pointed at him with a smile.

"I'm relieved." He Sheng said pointedly.

All he arranged tonight were 'regular cars,' none of which were off-road, all private.

The maintenance of the car is good and exquisite, and the daily use of the car is covered with a dust cover.

Although the appearance is wind and sun, there are some traces of time.

But the interior is almost the same as a brand new one, and it cost a lot to find these cars.

After all, a 90% new performance car like this is much more valuable in the second-hand market than a new car.

...

After the massage, Qin Yu, who was all comfortable, was arranged on Alpha.

Lie comfortably, drinking champagne soaked in ice cubes, with a hint of coolness.

This kind of enjoyment is really depraved.

Too luxurious, too comfortable, too enjoyable.

For today's arrangement, Qin Yu must say that He Sheng is also a successful figure in 'time management'.

From the beginning to the end ~ www.mtnovel.com ~ no time is wasted.

The key is to let the guests not feel tired and uncomfortable, but to arouse people's spirits.

In 50 minutes, the car drove into Window City and headed towards the bustling neon-lit city center. The expected nightclub did not appear, and the Mercedes-Benz S finally parked downstairs in a building. Led by two men in suits at the door, they entered the elevator for check-in verification.

The indicator on the 19th floor lights up red.

"This is?" Qin Yu asked curiously.

"Private clubs are only open to members. If the annual consumption does not reach 2 million, the membership will be cancelled. If you want to enter, you must have two members' recommendation."

Qin Yu nodded and said nothing. Of course, he had heard of this kind of clubhouse.

But what it really looks like, Qin Yu is really the first contact!

Chapter 196: This is foul

Here comes, they come...

Each has its own characteristics in costume, looks and dress, and looks as usual, just like a visitor.

Most of them are obviously a bit shy, this kind of shy and **** visual sense.

is much more interesting than "Big Brother, drink one".

He Sheng has been observing Qin Yu's expression and found that his eyes have been locked on the young woman in jeans.

"Juying, here." He Sheng beckoned to the woman.

"Professional women, who make clothes, it's up to you whether you can start."

This was the serious car he had arranged. He Sheng admired Qin Yu's eyes a little, and stared at the most charming one when he came up.

However, like this is here to play, and whether or not it will follow up at the end depends on his own charm.

It's not impossible if you want to use money, but the price/performance ratio is not so high.

After all, there is no shortage of people with hundreds of thousands of small money.

"Juying, let me introduce you, this is Shao Qin...you guys are talking!"

He Sheng set up a line for the two and went to find his little lover.

sent back for maintenance for more than a month, and He Sheng has not done anything in the past two days.

"Where did Shao Qin come from?" Juying, who was pouring wine, asked curiously, looking at Qin Yu.

"Hudu." Qin Yu said with a smile; "Listening to Brother Sheng that you are in the clothing business, what platform?"

In the current clothing business, there is only one dead if you don't build a platform.

Even self-employed people know that they need to use various software to promote online.

Only an offline entity...a dead end.

"Tao Tao." Juying looked at the watch on his wrist and said jokingly: "It's not as good as you big guys. All you make is hard money."

"What does Shao Qin do?" Juying came today, one is to relax, and the other is to find investors.

He Sheng hugs what he thinks, Juying knows well.

But the real society is like this, socializing is inevitable, and no one can escape.

However, Qin Yu's image is still a bit beyond her expectations.

"Finance."

Juying's eyes lit up, "No wonder Qin Shao's temperament is extraordinary, and it is better to do finance."

"Finance is good?"

Qin Yu looked at her amusedly, "In the New Zealand currency crisis some time ago, ninety percent of the people who jumped off the building were engaged in finance, okay?"

"So Qin Shao lost or earned?" Thinking of the New Zealand currency crisis that has not yet completely subsided, Juying's eyes flashed with fear and happiness.

Fortunately, she didn't listen to her friends at that time, otherwise her small business would have to lose money.

"I made a small profit...Don't talk about work, drink!" Qin Yu said, holding up the wine glass.

"I'm not good at drinking, Qin Shao don't force me." Juying said modestly.

After three rounds of wine, the somewhat cautious Juying also let go.

"Does Qin Shao want to sing something?" Someone has already started to order a song.

Singing, jumping, rolling dice, drinking, having fun!

"I won't sing anymore." Qin Yu waved his hand.

His voice is only one tone short of pentatonic incompleteness, so he still doesn't go up to show his ugliness.

"Then I will have one!" Kiying said, stepping forward and choosing the first flower-protecting messenger.

The young lady who was singing handed her the microphone, smiled and said something and cut her own song.

The singing sounded, and Juying took the microphone and stood generously on the open space in front.

"I ran into her in my heart this night in the street, and decided not to listen to the call and go home with her..."

Juying sang along and jumped and sang, and her body writhed with her climax.

The charming gesture of fluttering long hair instantly hit the hearts of the men present.

This is a very attractive woman, at this time she is like a flower that blooms to the extreme.

The very seductive movements and expressions perfectly explain what is meant by 'stay away from young women, cherish life.'

"Ho~" He Sheng stood up and raised his arms to applaud.

"Hush~" Feng Yi also whistled and booed.

"Thank you~" Juying turned around, smiled with sweat on her headband, and looked straight at Qin Yu: "Shao Qin, come one?"

"Shao Qin, come one." Feng Yi was the first to roar and shout.

"Shao Qin, come one."

"Come one, one..."

Seeing everyone standing up, Qin Yu pointed at He Sheng and Feng Yi amusedly.

"Okay, then come one."

Qin Yu asked people to choose the first 'existence' and took the microphone from Juying's hand.
'Ding.'

'The task is triggered, the person appears to be a saint, and the host gets a temporary title.'

'The sage before the man: restore the original vocal line to complete the song with 100%, and the temporary title will be changed permanently.'

'The degree of task completion is scored based on the true satisfaction of the audience, and the task is completed when the average score reaches 7 points.'

'The higher the score, the more rewards you will get!'

The front tune rang, and Qin Yu, who was holding the microphone, squeezed the microphone with a relaxed expression.

This title, he wants it.

"How many people are walking, but they are stuck in place."

"How many people are alive, but it's like death."

As soon as the voice came out, everyone at the scene was dumbfounded...

This, the original song is not off?

No, there is only one voice in the stereo, so Qin Shao is lip-synching?

Everyone came out to play, isn't it?

The girl standing next to the karaoke device is the most direct, but the person who lights up the screen is stupid.

This... the original sound is off!

"Do you find a reason to go with the flow... How should I save, in~"

When the last tone disappeared, the people at the scene looked at each other.

"Shao Qin, I... I took it, I really took it." With great admiration written on He Sheng's face, he clapped and walked up to him, "It's a loss for you not to be a singer."

"What am I..." Feng Yi was so excited that he burst into swearing: "Mistaken tongue, Qin Shao... Brother Yu."

"Brother Yu, you will be my brother from now on, this is too powerful."

"Just have fun, what's so good about being a singer." Qin Yu smiled lightly, and handed the microphone to the admiring little girl next to him.

"Shao Qin, can I add a WeChat account?" the little sister asked with her knees curled up and her hands on her chest.

"Okay." Switched the avatar in a second, added a letter to the other party, and cut back in an instant.

"You still said that you can't sing?" When she returned to her seat, Juying fluttered her long hair back.

"When did I say that I can't sing anymore?" He just said that he couldn't sing, and he never said that he couldn't sing.

'The settlement is complete, the host gets a comprehensive score of 9.8 for this mission and rewards are issued.'

'Reward 1: Title.

'Reward 2: One big draw for the pachinko machine.'

'Reward 3: Consumption discount card 3*.'

'Do you want to draw rewards now?'

'no.

The interface in front of him quickly disappeared, and Qin Yu decided to draw this reward after returning.

is a 3* consumer discount card, which makes him feel a little depressed.

If it can be two weeks earlier, if you use it when you buy Nanhu Manor, you can pay more than 70 million less...

But things are over, and Brother Yu will not struggle too much!

"Add a WeChat account, next time you sing, you, the **** of song, must be there." Juying said actively.

"It's okay to make friends, just sing." Qin Yu didn't want to be dragged and sung everywhere every day.

So many young ladies are still waiting for him to take care of them. Where can I have time to do this?

"Brother Yu, do you want to participate in the talent show in the past?"

"How about... do a live broadcast?" He Sheng's real purpose was staring at him with twinkling eyes.

Based on Qin Yu's strength, if he broadcasts it live.

Looks, figure and perfect singing voice...

MD, He Sheng is a little mad with jealousy, how can a person be so perfect?

This is so unreasonable, it's okay to foul!

If Qin Yu can make two guest appearances during the live broadcast, it will definitely ignite the topic.

By virtue of topic drainage, He Sheng estimates that at least two anchors can be popular.

The strength and influence of Fengyulou can also rise to several levels, so that there is not only the pillar of 'Silent Drizzle' now.

The key is that they can hardly make any money on this pillar.

Since he is already doing it, He Sheng certainly wants to make the union better, bigger and stronger.

Especially after tasting the sweetness inside and seeing the future development trend.

Otherwise, He Sheng wouldn't have set up a new department specifically to specialize in online sales.

"Really not interested." Seeing that he was still a little unwilling to give up, Qin Yu said jokingly: "If I am willing to do it, do you think the little anchor can wait until now?"

Chapter 197: Professional photography movement

Fall in love with you reading book, start at the pinnacle of life

He Sheng is right when he thinks about it. Cheng Xiyu must know Qin Yu's performance.

But Qin Yu has never appeared in her live broadcast until now, it must be because there is no way to convince him.

Even his own woman can't sleep with him, what can I do to convince him?

"Stop talking, drink!" He Sheng smiled relievedly, holding up the wine glass.

"That's right, happiness is the most important thing." Qin Yu held up the wine glass with him.

"Take me one, take me another..." Feng Yi propped up the table with one hand, and leaned forward and insisted on getting one.

Halfway through drinking, Juying, who was a little hilarious, had to pull him to sing together.

A song of Love in Hiroshima, which made the atmosphere of the scene become ambiguous.

also made other women look at Qin Yu's gaze not quite right, "Brother, do you want to go to my house to play later?" '

This almost explicit attitude makes He Sheng and Feng Yi jealous beyond recognition.

The wine that I drank in my mouth doesn't taste anymore, why is it pantothenic?

"What? Did you pick your eyes?" Juying, who was sitting next to him, naturally saw it.

But she didn't notice her tone, as if she had been soaked in a jar of vinegar, so sour!

"What?" Qin Yu turned his head, his eyes were clear, and it didn't look like he had drunk.

"Pretend, hum, man..." Juying took a sip of her drink silently, and moved her body towards him naturally.

In the eyes of outsiders, there is a **** who is stealing his little brother from him.

'Bah, I just pretended to be, but it's not exposed yet. The woman sitting on the edge pulled the tube top skirt down and straightened her chest.

The capital exposed in the V-neck made Yu Ge call out, 'I can't stand it. '

Big, the cost is too big.

The key is to be tall and stylish, the skin is firm, and the tiny blood vessels can be seen while the lights are flashing.

There is no tendency to sag at all.

"Little brother, get to know." Perceiving Qin Yu's gaze, the other party boldly got up and sat on his left side.

"The younger brother is the younger brother, why add a small print?" Qin Yu asked rhetorically with a smile.

"Hey, do men care about this topic?" The other party shakes his head and flutters his long hair.

asked with a smile close to the upper body: "Then, do you think my sister is big enough?"

"Whether it is the younger brother or the older brother, the younger sister or the older sister, you have to try it before you know."

Qin Yu glanced down: "After all, science and technology are too advanced now."

The other party smiled softly and exhaled against his ears: "Sister can be guaranteed to be the original factory!"

"Have you two finished talking? Drink after talking." Juying looked at them with angrily.

Looking back at her with some angry eyes, Qin Yu stretched his hand through her waist.

Her body tensed suddenly, and Juying was about to struggle.

somehow made his head confused, and his body was naturally relaxed and poured into his arms.

with his head resting on his shoulders, like a well-behaved little girl looking up at her elder brother, she delivered wine into his mouth.

"Fuck!" He Sheng was drinking, looking back to find Qin Yu to touch one.

This look is incredible, hug left and right, get along in harmony.

One to feed the wine, the other to feed the melon...

"Ah, time is almost up, it's gone." He Sheng stood up and clapped his hands.

"Get together another day, it's all gone!"

Feng Yi cooperated with the atmosphere group and paid 500 per person, which was absolutely high consumption.

He Sheng said to Qin Yu, "Brother Yu, you will rest here tonight."

"There is a bedroom in the back, a big bed...I have arranged everything else, so that no one will bother you."

He Sheng was properly arranged from start to finish, and the double bed room in the room was taken into consideration.

Brother Yu must say, this trip is really learned.

When He Sheng arrives at Hudu next time, he must arrange a game for him.

'Private Car' he has no channels, but no one who is new and fresh knows better than Brother Yu.

Even the person involved may not have his thorough view.

After all, the "pseudo-luxury cars" at this time have honey self-confidence.

I always felt that I was more expensive than a luxury car, but in fact it was broken and iron, nothing!

Send everyone away, only three of them are left in the room.

Qin Yu first went to see the big bed room, 2X2.5, enough.

"Actually, I am still a photographer who is good at discovering beauty." Qin Yu took out his mobile phone and decided to make an epic blockbuster.

Big sister is doing her part, saying that she has always wanted to take artistic photos.

is the photographer who didn't catch her eyes. The eyes of those men staring at her were very disgusting.

Like she is a hen to be slaughtered!

Qin Yu is different, the enthusiasm in his eyes is entirely the pursuit and love of art.

is nothing like the wretched and greasy men outside.

Therefore, the big sister is cooperating throughout the filming process.

She does whatever the photographer says, showing her face all the way, and emphasizing her own advantages.

is when the milk commercial was interrupted in the middle, I accidentally squeezed the sticky yogurt out of the product and made my face all over the place.

However, the photographer felt that this scene was very real, and it could better reflect the superiority and authenticity of the product.

focused on shooting this group of pictures, which made my big sister very embarrassed!

When it was Kiyang's turn, she did not have the size advantage of her big sister.

, however, made her charming and seductive from the inside out, showing her vividly and vividly.

During the filming, even the big sister was almost bent by her.

took the initiative to step into the camera and use her own advantages as a background to make her more charming and attractive.

Of course, the most perfect work is completed by the two people working together.

The three agreed that it is the most shocking and artistic work.

"Do you want it?" The eldest sister took out levonorgestrel from her bag and looked at Juying with a weird smile.

silently took the pill, Juying silently put it in his mouth, swallowing it down.

'S ironic smile at the big sister is just as if she didn't see it, she just wants to get a good night's sleep now.

The previous professional shooting sports exhausted her, and no one wanted her to move.

.....

"I'm discussing business with a client, um~ still in the window market, yes... um~ go back after talking, um~"

After the call ended, the phone in Kiyong's hand suddenly fell off, falling to the ground and falling apart.

After half an hour, Juying sat on the sofa dumbfounded: "Do you really want to invest in my brand?"

"Can this kind of thing be used to make a joke?"

This is not an impulsive decision made by Qin Yu's temporary interest.

Qin Yu had this idea when she heard Juying talk about her brand yesterday, but she didn't have time to discuss the details.

Fengyulou wants to sell goods on the platform, naturally, it has to reach a cooperation with the brand.

The positioning and design of Juying are very good, and the price is moderate, which is a good choice.

However, she and He Sheng need to talk about the specific cooperation plan.

Qin Yu is only responsible for controlling the general direction, and he will not bother with specific operations and details.

Compared with temporary gains, it is more important to learn the way of thinking of the superior.

If he is required to do everything himself, what else do he need to do?

There is no benefit, so why should he distribute the benefit to others.

He has never forgotten the original intention of pulling He Sheng and other elder brothers to establish Fengyulou together.

You can use it when you hit the worker. As a boss, you don't have to deal with everything yourself.

"How many shares do you want to occupy?" When it comes to cooperation Jiyong is serious.

She would not make concessions in negotiations just because Qin Yu had taken artistic photos of herself.

"Well, you and Brother Sheng come to talk, I will arrange for you to meet?" Qin Yu said and picked up the phone.

"Okay." Kiyong, who originally planned to return home tonight, decided to stay in Window City for a few more days.

Anyway, she has explained to her family before, anyway, she doesn't want to give up this opportunity.

In today's increasingly fierce competition in the industry, it is difficult to achieve success on its own.

Otherwise, Juying would not accept He Sheng's invitation to participate in this private filming.

"Brother Sheng, where is it?" Qin Yu dialed He Sheng's number.

"Hey, it's right next to you. I drank too much last night and I didn't go back." He Sheng's voice sounded a little confused, and he did drink a lot yesterday.

"In this way, I will come to find you." Qin Yu brought Juying to He Sheng's box.

"The union doesn't want to sell goods too. Instead of cooperating with other brands, it's better to come out with its own brand..."

After communicating his plan with He Sheng, Qin Yu motioned him to talk with Juying himself.

Qin Yu sits next door and acts as a spectator.

He Sheng, who has been at work, is really professional, even if he is facing Juying, he knows the relationship between her and Qin Yu.

The benefits that should be fought for are not even a bit relieved.

Unwilling to give up, with aggressive performance, the angry Juying turned her eyes to Qin Yu several times, wanting to seek his help.

Regarding this, Brother Yu just pretended not to see him, drinking the milk tea in the cup and acting stupidly.

There is friendship, but business and friendship are two concepts.

Because of our relationship, the rules of doing business can't be broken, isn't it?

Chapter 198: Handsome guy, you must have pursuits and dreams to be a man

You come and go.

He Sheng insisted on holding 51% of the shares, which made Juying upset.

"He Sheng, I am talking to you sincerely, but why do you feel that you have no sincerity?"

Jiying is no longer polite, bluntly saying that He Sheng lacks sincerity in cooperation.

"Juying, I am very sincere." He Sheng responded with a smile: "I know what your Juying brand is like."

"It can be said that if you want to go further, flow and funds are indispensable!"

"You have neither traffic nor funds."

He Sheng glanced at Qin Yu and said seriously: "To be honest, it's not because of Brother Yu's face, we don't have to talk about it at all."

He Sheng has one thing to say.

Qin Yu's plan is good, but from He Sheng's point of view, there are many choices they can make.

Whether online or offline, there are many people who are better than "Juying".

If they can't get any substantial benefits, why do they have to choose 'juying? '

Juying has nothing to say.

As he said, Juying does not have any advantage in brand competitiveness.

Except for his own three-acre land, no one knows what 'juying' is when going out.

They have also sought online celebrities for online promotion, but the effect is not very good.

Foundry costs have increased, online promotion is unfavorable, and product competitiveness has weakened.

The sales situation is unfavorable and the income is reduced.

Factory price increases, quality will be affected.

design can only be new wine in old bottles.

The more so, the sales situation will only worsen...

In this way, 'juying' will fall into a vicious circle until it is completely bankrupt.

glanced at Qin Yu, who was playing on the phone next to her, Juying bit her lip sexy, and finally sighed helplessly.

"I promised, but I want management rights." Juying also has her own insistence and requirements.

She doesn't want a group of inexperienced investors to point fingers at her company.

"The issue of management rights, we will talk about it slowly later, as long as your management is okay, we will definitely not intervene."

He Sheng agreed very happily. He has his own foreign trade business and now he has to manage the union.

As long as Juying doesn't mess up, she really doesn't have time to manage her clothing company.

"Done talking? Eat." Qin Yu put away the phone and said.

"You won't say a few words for me?" Juying looked at him angrily and funny, "The man is really unreliable."

"To talk about business is to talk about business... Otherwise, I will lend you two or three million?"

Qin Yu's tone didn't seem to be joking, and Juying shook her head decisively, "It's not just about money, I'll talk to Brother Sheng."

Two to three million can solve the existing problems of "Juying", but it cannot be made bigger and stronger.

If the brand wants to develop, cooperation is inevitable.

Although this time only reached cooperation with the online union, it also means that she has entered a new circle.

The connections and strengths that can be used are not the same as before!

He Sheng is still very famous in the Yaodu business district, and his foreign trade business is very impressive.

Maybe, someday "Juying" can also borrow his hand to go to the world.

.....

Wudaoxiang Tea House is well-known in Window City.

All kinds of refreshments are very distinctive, and the taste is also very suitable for the public.

After eating morning tea, He Sheng arranged for a car to take them to the office address where the union is located.

is not placed in a commercial building, but a community with a good environment.

"We rented four rooms on the same floor and renovated the interiors according to demand."

"One is the office area, the other is the dormitory, where you usually make up and change clothes, and the other two are live broadcast rooms."

The so-called live broadcast room is to separate out 'small cages' in the room, which vary in size.

The smallest is just enough to put down the computer desk and chair, so there is basically no extra space.

The larger ones are seven or eight square meters, which are mainly used by the anchors in the dance zone.

"There are two rooms reserved in the office area, and now only Xiaoyu is using it." He Sheng said that Xiaoyu doesn't eat cats, 'first sister in the company.'

Cheng Xiyu's rank is too high and has been excluded from the rankings of 'One Brother' and 'One Sister'.

"The rooms here don't seem to be enough!" Qin Yu walked around and noticed that the rooms and the number of people were not right.

"Some people broadcast at home. We don't force the anchor to come to the company. Others are just affiliated with the labor union. There is no need for such people to come to the company."

There are also many kinds of live broadcasts. There are 'Overlord Clauses' signed with the company to beat workers with deadly wages.

Signed a contract to join the trade union, and both parties cooperated.

has an affiliate, the union basically can't control it, just put a name.

Cheng Xiyu can be counted as an affiliate, and the company needs to communicate with her in advance and solicit opinions from the other party.

Who will take care of his eldest brother who has a lot of money and billions of dollars!

"Hmm." After seeing it almost, the three of them came to the conference room that the master bedroom had been converted into.

The company's management is also very simple, one manager, two financials.

There are also two deputy managers who are responsible for issues such as platform, anchor and commercial cooperation.

Others are assistants and planners who take care of the anchor, arrange time, copywriting, clothing, etc.

After you have a certain fan base, you can at least interact in the live broadcast room.

But the newcomers didn't have much attention at the beginning, and it was really embarrassing for a person to talk to himself.

At this time, assistants and planners are useful, acting as fans to guide the topic, which can avoid a lot of embarrassing situations.

"Let's talk about what was just now." He Sheng wanted to finish talking about cooperation with Juying first.

The management right belongs to Juying, but if there is a loss due to management error, she will also be responsible for it.

In addition, if there are losses for three consecutive quarters, Fengyulou, as a partner, has the right to question the current management and take over the management and operation of the company.

This is just a general direction, and it will take time to finalize the details.

Seeing that the two of them couldn't finish the meeting for a while, Qin Yu went outside to find a place to sit alone.

Being in it will only extend the negotiation time, it is better to leave them to talk for themselves.

It was almost noon, and the anchors who lived in the company started to get up.

"Huh, is there a newcomer?" Someone noticed Qin Yu and thought he was the new anchor of the trade union.

"Very handsome... handsome guy, are you the new anchor of the trade union?" Jiang Ren asked with a smile.

"No." Qin Yu suddenly realized that he knew the anchor in front of him.

She and the little anchor once had a PK, and she gave her a big tiger shark.

"Then you are here to apply for an assistant?" Jiang Ren could not recognize Qin Yu. Hearing that he was not applying for an anchor, he couldn't help but said, "You have such a good image, and being an anchor will definitely make you popular."

"I don't like to show up, what can I do if I get angry?" Qin Yu put down the phone and asked with interest.

"It's fire, and of course everything is good if it is fired." Jiang Ren seemed to open the chatterbox and tell him the benefits of fire. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com can buy a big house, can buy a luxury car, achieve financial freedom, eat whatever you want.

I can travel in my spare time, and I can make money in variety shows and receive brand promotion, which is almost no different from celebrities.

"As long as you have traffic and topics, these can be turned into money, you know?" Jiang Renyu described to him earnestly the good life after the "fire".

"But I am quite satisfied with my current life." Qin Yu said.

"Handsome man, you can't stand still, you have to pursue...have dreams, okay?" Jiang Ren is a little anxious, so handsome, why is his personality so Buddha?

He looks like a little money, but you can't be complacent just because you have a little money.

Can famous watches affordable?

Is there a mansion? Is there a supercar?

Is it possible to have the dream of marrying Bai Fumi?

"Uh~" I saw a pair of Jiang Ren who hate iron can't make steel, who taught him that there is no end to life.

Qin Yu couldn't bear to interrupt her. Before this woman turned to be an anchor, she wouldn't be a successful lecturer, right?

"Meng Yuan." He Sheng, who walked out of the meeting room, looked at her and Qin Yu in surprise: "What are you doing here? Didn't you start the broadcast without eating?"

"Mr. He." Jiang Ren quickly stood up, "Well, I am chatting with my new colleague, I will go now."

"What new colleague?" Seeing that she was referring to Qin Yu, He Sheng said amusedly: "This is the major shareholder of the trade union, and I want to call it the boss."

Under Jiang Ren's devilish expression, He Sheng introduced to her: "Shao Qin, the stormy night on the Douya platform hurts people. You have received a gift from him when you had a silent PK with Drizzle."

Chapter 199: Gold Award

Who am I, where am I, what did I say?

"Well, Shao Qin is good." Jiang Ren wanted to run quickly, and went back to hide in the quilt and shouted.

I thought that I was bragging about the mansion, supercars, famous watches with my elder brother just now...

'Ah~~~' She is going crazy.

"Well, what you said just now is pretty good, you can talk to them more when new people come in the future."

"I need materials, such as famous watches, luxury houses, and supercars. I still have these."

Qin Yu looked at Jiang Ren jokingly, this girl... a bit interesting.

"Thank Shao Qin... Well, Mr. He, I'm going to eat first." Jiang Ren said, bowing, and ran to the opposite side quickly.

"Ah~" A suppressed scream came, and Qin Yu couldn't help laughing out loud: "Interesting."

"Brother Yu, we're done talking." He Sheng thoughtfully looked in the direction of Jiang Ren's disappearance, saying, 'Isn't Qin Shao interesting for her too! '

If this is the case, I can arrange it.

If he can offer another "Cheng Xiyu" to stay in the company, the benefits to the union will be self-evident.

"Then it's okay, when will you leave?" Qin Yu looked at Juying.

Hearing his question, Juying couldn't help rolling her eyes, "You didn't say that last night."

"Cough~" He Sheng coughed awkwardly, "Well, I'll go to the other side to see, you guys talk."

Young women are so good, they just like to speak amazing words and make surprises!

"If you don't leave, go to a place with me." Qin Yu didn't mind her rhetoric.

Last night, he penetrated all the disguise and strength of Juying.

Whether this woman is hard or soft, it all depends on Brother Yu's training.

"Don't go." Seeing his malicious eyes, Juying thought of last night again.

her cheeks flushed, and her heartbeat accelerated involuntarily.

"I won't tell you, I'm going home." With a hurried wave, Juying just ran away.

If she stays any longer, she is afraid that she will become abnormal.

Ding Ding!

Not long after leaving, Qin Yu received another message from her.

'Those photos and videos are not allowed to be posted indiscriminately! 'Superwoman.

'Don't worry, everything is well kept. 'Qin Yu.

'You...no more candles next time. 'Superwoman.

'Is that the point? 'Qin Yu.

did not receive a reply, this is just a default.

"Doctor, I'm at the window, where are you?" Dialing Gao Bo's number, Qin Yu walked out.

It was agreed to meet at the school gate, and Qin Yu found He Sheng and planned to talk to him.

"Then you can drive my car." Hearing he was about to go out, He Sheng immediately ordered someone to bring the car keys.

"A Maverick, a 911, which one do you want?" He Sheng asked.

"The calf is ready, you just park the car at the company?" Qin Yu asked, taking the key.

"This is not for supporting the company's anchors, filming jokes and the like." Before becoming famous, the face project should still be done.

"Thanks, I'll be here tonight, and the time is set to send me a WeChat account." Qin Yu will attend a company party in the evening.

After playing, you can't forget business affairs.

The most important thing about coming over this time is to meet with the anchors of the company and get a familiar face!

also let them understand that Fengyulou is expected, strength and prospects are bright.

Work down steadily, as long as it's not unpopular mud, the good day is yet to come!

Found the Lamborghini Mavericks in the garage, Qin Yu opened the door and got on the car in no hurry to leave.

No one will bother this, he is going to draw the 'Pinball Machine' lottery first.

'May I draw a lottery? '

'Confirm the lottery. '

The semi-transparent pachinko machine appeared and the music played.

Dangdangdangdangdang...

The diamond marbles fell into the card slot, and this time he was drawn to the car category.

Three colors of gold, silver and bronze? ? ? Same as in memory.

Qin Yu didn't even look at the car below. His goal was only the three above? ? ? Jackpot.

Attentively, Qin Yu silently reads the "lottery." '

The pull rod stretches back and forth, automatically adjusts the force...

Qin Yu stared at the lever, observing the speed of its movement.

When he had a full grasp, the lever moved up three-quarters of an instant.

"Let it go." Qin Yu shouted out unconsciously because of too much concentration.

boom!

The transparent diamond marbles flew out and hit the extreme tip straight.

The marble quickly bounced, and the obstacle suddenly hit the marble.

'It's over. Qin Yu shook his head helplessly when he saw this scene.

By this shot, the marbles immediately flew to the upper left corner, passing three completely? ? Jackpot.

can stare after him.

I saw that the flying marbles hit the V-shaped baffle in the upper left corner and bounced straight into the gold? In the slot.

"Fuck, this is okay?" Qin Yu was shocked.

Seeing the marbles bounce in the card slot, Qin Yu's heart also lifted.

The marbles shook left and right in the card slot several times, and finally fell into the card slot weakly.

'huh~' Qin Yu raised the heart again, and then there was a burst of excitement.

'Congratulations to the host for winning the Gold Mystery Prize. '

? ? ? The lights in the room flickered frantically, and suddenly freeze after 3 seconds.

'Congratulations to the host for winning the design drawing of the Great Wall 4399 lithium battery pack. This chip is made by Parallel World? ? ? in? ? ? Successfully developed in the year. '

'The emergence of the Great Wall 4399 lithium battery pack, so? ? The country has become a new energy powerhouse, and came from behind! '

'The technical design drawings have been implanted in the host's brain. '

Extracting the memory, Qin Yu's brain seems to have a thick drawing.

opened slowly, the design concept and key technology of the Great Wall lithium battery pack are all included.

If necessary, he can restore the drawings verbatim.

"It seems that we need to adjust the plan appropriately!" The golden prize that he suddenly won was not the lithography machine technology he wanted most.

But this battery technology is undoubtedly also very important, Qin Yu decided to build a battery factory in the abandoned city in the first place.

If you cooperate!

The first thing Qin Yu thought of was Longqi Automobile, the pride of Xia Guo.

In the traditional automobile field, Longqi has lost its former pride and dignity.

can only rely on the names of the six cars and the cars designated by the Fengjiang officials, and keep the last layer of fig leaf.

However, I think of the complicated political factors behind Dragon Knight.

Qin Yu's heart just warmed up and cooled again, unless this problem could be solved.

Otherwise, no matter what kind of technology Dragon Knight acquires, it will only become a political bargaining chip in the end.

.....

The battery pack was placed aside in advance. Qin Yu drove to Window University and parked the car at the door to contact Gao Bo.

"Doctor, I'm here."

"It's the door, did you drive?"

Before he could believe it, Qin Yu saw him standing at the school gate and looking back and forth.

"Doctor." Qin Yu got out of the car and waved.

"Mavericks, did you drive here?" Gao Bo asked curiously when he saw the car parked beside him.

"Friend's car, go, go to dinner first." Qin Yu invited him to get in the car.

"Wait." Gao Bo smiled unnaturally, looking back at what he was looking for.

After a while, Gao Bo found the target, and the girl in jeans and a cashmere jacket ran over with a big smile.

"Brother Yu, my girlfriend, Wang Ziran." Gao Bo scratched his head and introduced him.

"Hello, Brother Yu." Wang Ziran tilted his head and greeted him.

"Hello... okay! Dr. has done a good job of confidentiality, and I just said it now." Qin Yu said hello to the other party, raising his hand and jokingly hammered Gao Bo in his chest.

"Hey, this is not just a confirmation of the relationship." Gao Bo smiled shyly, "From enrollment to now, I have finally caught up."

Hearing him say this, the prince yelled: "Hey, Gao Bo, speak responsibly."

"It was you who I was chasing, you are a straight man of steel."

The prince glared at him, looked at Qin Yu amusedly, and said, "Brother Yu, you don't know how difficult he is to chase him, every time he hints that he doesn't understand."

"In the end, I couldn't help but rushed up to hug him, and kissed him again to touch this iron lump."

The somewhat annoyed prince said, and laughed again. "The little sisters in our dormitory said that they have never seen a wood more dull than him. It is just an iron lump."

"That's right, he is just an iron knot in his emotions, and he has to use high temperature to burn it." Qin Yu agreed.

"Hey, you two are enough." Gao Bo couldn't laugh or cry.

When they first met, he became the target of the two of them.

Woman, are you making a mistake? I am your boyfriend.

"Or let's have some food near the school, you park the car, don't drive." Gaobo knows that there are a few good shops near the school, so I can have two drinks later.

"Okay, I'm going to park." Qin Yu parked the car in the public parking lot, got off the car and sent Jiang Feier a location.

This woman knows that he is coming to Yaodu, and she has to send several messages every day, which will call her to come and gather.

just waiting to drink, he still lacks a free driver!

Chapter 200: What does a good relationship have to do with money?

"Gao Bo, isn't Brother Yu a student?"

Wang Ziran smiled curiously: "Is it a rich second-generation? It looks a bit like it."

"I don't know the specifics of his family either."

Gao Bo jokingly laughed at himself: "Basically I haven't seen his parents, saying that one works in the bank and the other is an accountant. Every time I go to his house, I don't see anyone, otherwise I just rushed out."

In fact, Gao Bo is also very curious about the changes that happened to Qin Yu recently.

said they have no money, right?

There are so many things that they didn't have at that time, they all have them.

For example, when I went to Qin Yu's house as a child, I already had karaoke and stereo.

He was the first of a few to buy a computer. When he was in high school, Qin Yu also wore Adi, Nike and the like.

Pocket money is also the most among them, and it is already very good for a student.

"Then you said that your relationship is the best?" Wang Ziran didn't understand, he didn't even understand the family situation for so many years?

"I have a good relationship with him, what does it have to do with whether his family has money?" Gao Bo asked in surprise.

The prince was asked by him and fell down, as if... there is nothing wrong with what he said, "Haha~"

"What are you talking about? So happy?" It was Qin Yu who came back.

"It's okay." Gao Bo said casually: "Brother Yu, what do you want to eat? Hot pot, Sichuan food or skewers?"

"I can see Wang Ziran, I can." Although Qin Yu is a guest, since the brother has a girlfriend, of course the feelings of others must be taken into consideration.

came up and said five and six, thinking that he was a human being, and he caused people to quarrel and break up after he left.

That's not a brother.

"Ziran, what do you want to eat?" Gao Bo looked at his girlfriend.

Wang Ziran said with a happy expression: "You can eat anything, listen to Brother Yu."

巔巔Zhuwen Novel Network 巔. She received Qin Yu's compliance, and what she eats is not so important anymore.

Being able to get the respect of his friendly male brothers is more important to Wang Ziran than what he eats.

"Then skewers are ready, Doctor, it's up to you which store is delicious."

"The charcoal grill is good, let's go."

The barbecue restaurant selected by Gaobo has a good environment, but it lacks the atmosphere of a roadside barbecue stall.

However, people always have to grow, and it is impossible to live in the past forever.

Secondary two should be left at the age of secondary two, otherwise it would be a crime.

"Four bottles of beer, one for each tendon, one for meat, another for kidney, one for each of crayfish and grilled fish." Gao Bo was very happy today and ordered a little too much.

However, both of them are gluttonous, so they are not worried about wasting.

It's a big deal, pack it and take it home.

"Can classmate Wang Ziran drink it?" Qin Yu asked Gao Bo when the wine came up.

"Don't ask him, I'll drink less." Wang Ziran said very wisely, and he wanted to drink two with him.

In fact, this is really humble.

I saw Gao Bo with a wry smile: "Brother Yu, she can drink better than me!"

"What are you talking about!" Wang Ziran shyly patted his arm. ,

"It's all my own, daughter-in-law, it's okay!" Gao Bo hugged Wang Ziran's kiss.

"Hey, there are still people here!" Brother Yu vomited.

What kind of evil is I doing, I have to run here to see people spread dog food, should I go?

"Come on, let's drink one first." Qin Yu said, holding up the cup.

"In order to meet." Wang Ziran thought of a name.

"In order to meet." Qin Yu and Gao Bo went straight after the cup rang.

Wang Ziran also drank the wine a little bit. Since he wants to drink, this first cup must be dry.

After a glass of wine, Jiang Feier also appeared at the door.

"Here." Qin Yu raised his hand, and Jiang Feier immediately saw him.

There is a big beauty in the shop, which naturally attracts some attention.

Jiang Feier behaved very naturally, smiling and sitting next to Qin Yu, introducing herself to Gao Bo and Wang Ziran.

"I really want to see you somewhere." Wang Ziran looked at her, his mind quickly turned.

Gao Bo felt the same way, "I think I have seen her, but I just can't remember."

"Mayfair is doing live broadcast." Qin Yu reminded.

"Oh, I remembered, Jiang Feier in the value area, I will go..." Gao Bo clapped his hands and said excitedly: "It's not that the anchors are all high-tech, this real person looks more beautiful than the live broadcast."

"Cough cough." Seeing his excitement, the prince cleared his throat dubiously, trying to remind him that he was still real!

"Daughter-in-law, what's wrong with you, your throat is uncomfortable?" Gao Bo looked at her with concern, "Waiter, give me a cup of hot water."

"..." Wang Ziran suddenly had the urge to wipe his neck.

Hot water, hot water of the hell.

衤衤 zhuiwen.org 衤衤. You have to drink more hot water, preferably with lava.

"Doctor, you deserve it." Brother Yu also shook his head helplessly.

That's him...please ask for more blessings in the future!

Qin Yu is talking about Wang Ziran. When he encounters such a straight man of steel, he will vomit blood sooner or later.

After getting acquainted, the atmosphere quickly opened up, and the topic naturally led to Qin Yu's WPP awards.

"Brother Yu, really, when did you learn photography?"

Gao Bo was peeling crayfish to his girlfriend, while curiously asked: "I haven't seen you learn it!"

"There are many things you don't know, but it's also good luck. The photos taken at random happened to be selected." Qin Yu explained in a natural tone.

"Ah~" Jiang Feier raised the peeled lobster to his mouth.

looked down at the lobster in his hand, then looked at the other side, buried his head, and thought about peeling the shrimp for Qin Yu.

Jiang Feier, who was delivered to Qin Yu's mouth after two blows after stripping, Gao Bo was really convinced.

Brother Yu is now at a different level than before.

People either walk or run.

He took off in situ with nitrogen, and went straight to the sky.

The realm is too high, anyway, I definitely can't catch up.

"Luck is also strength, otherwise why don't others have it!" Wang Ziran looked at Qin Yu with a little expectation: "Well, Brother Yu, would you take artistic photos?"

"Yes... right!" Qin Yu had already thought of what she would say next.

"Great, can you shoot me?" Wang Ziran explained a little embarrassingly: "The small studio said it was too messy, what... sneak shots and the like, the famous brand is too expensive."

Shooting a set of photos is tens of thousands, which is really not affordable for normal students and families.

Even if he can afford it, the prince is not willing.

The love of beauty is certain, which girl does not love beauty.攬攝攬攝 can spend tens of thousands of dollars to take a group of photos, she is really reluctant to bear it.

"I didn't bring equipment." Qin Yu said regretfully.

He didn't expect that he would need it this time, so he just came to relax.

Or, there was no need to use a mobile phone instead last night.

"Well, the studio can be borrowed. I will pay for the venue and equipment. How about asking Brother Yu to have a big meal afterwards?" Wang Ziran said with his hands folded.

"That's okay, then you can buy a memory card by yourself, which is more convenient."

If you don't give Wang Ziran this face, he also has to see if Gao Bo's face is.

Besides, taking a few sets of photos normally does not take much time.

"Can I shoot too?" Jiang Feier fed the lobster into his mouth, looking at him with bright eyes.

"Of course you can...or else, I have a party tonight, and I will take you to shoot after it is over. Come over tomorrow morning, and I will take another photo for Ziran."

Qin Yu is planning to stay up all night tonight, and the dinner time with the anchor is set at 3 in the morning.

It will take at least two or three hours to end. By the time it's dawn, you can take Jiang Feier to take a break ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ Wait 10 o'clock, at 11 o'clock, Wang Ziran and Gao Bo will come back when they are free .

"Okay, I have asked for leave for these two days." Before Jiang Feier came, she had already stated in the live broadcast room that she would take leave for two or three days.

The reason is naturally to go out to relax, anyway, she would occasionally take time off to travel before.

It's just that she was really going to relax at that time, but now she is here to relieve her eldest brother.

"Speak to the studio now?" Wang Ziran took out his cell phone.

"Give me the number, I'll do it." Qin Yu asked her for the number and dialed it himself.

He also needs to use it himself, how can he get the other party to pay for it... Soon, Qin Yu made an appointment with the other party about the time and price.

added a WeChat account and transferred fifty thousand to the other party, of which fifty thousand was a deposit. After all, he had to use the other party's equipment.

Three thousand yuan is the rent, and the use time is until 8 o'clock tomorrow evening. "It's done." After receiving the electronic lock code from the other party, everything was arranged.

"Daughter-in-law, don't you have a class tomorrow morning?" Seeing that they had arranged it like this, Gao Bo finally had a chance to interject.

"It's okay, just come over at noon after class, it won't take long." Qin Yu said.

"Brother Yu, thanks." Gao Bo picked up the glass and touched him. Needless to say, all the extra words were in the wine.
