Chapter 1931

Johannes suddenly laughed aloud.

Terrell and the others were grinning as well.

"I thought that you are his heir or family or something. I can't believe you're just a random nobody," chuckled Terrell.

Naturally, Levi knew what they were truly laughing about.

When Levi first mentioned the Half Phantom, Johannes and the others assumed that Levi was the Half Phantom's disciple or family.

That was why they were scared.

They worried that he was there to rescue the guy or to seek vengeance.

Knowing that Levi was only there to ask for the guy's help had extinguished the fear in the Hiltons.

Meh, we'll just kill him. We cannot let anyone know that we have the Half Phantom locked up, so he must die.

Johannes was about to issue the kill order when Levi beat him to it. The latter warned, "You'd better hand the guy over without making a fuss. Don't make me fight you."

Levi was fearless and would destroy any obstruction in his path just to save his wife.

"Huh?"

Levi's words stunned everyone there.

"Hahaha..."

No one heeded Levi's warning. Instead, they laughed mockingly at him.

They didn't see him as a threat at all. If anything, they thought he was a joke.

"That punk is probably buying some time. I bet he's thinking about fleeing now. That is why claimed that he would give us a day to prepare."

"That is possible. He won't show up tomorrow. He will leave Goldenport Island as soon as he set foot out of the gates!"

Everyone assumed that Levi was going to flee.

"Boys, keep an eye on the guy and don't let him flee Goldenport Island! I want to see what are the consequences he was talking about," commanded Johannes.

With that, a few powerful fighters left immediately to spy on Levi.

Terrell stepped forward and grinned before claiming, "Tomorrow is such a good day, Dad."

"Huh?"

“Well, for starters, it’s the day the heir of the Cryptic Stream Corporation comes to visit. It is also the day when Xenotoph will return from his training, and now, it is the day when the punk dies,” replied Terrell.

Johannes laughed boisterously and agreed, “That’s true. Tomorrow is such an auspicious day. Let’s invite Xenotoph over, so we can all watch the show together!”

“Hahaha...”

Everyone laughed.

Chapter 1933

An ugly, scarred face presented itself to everyone. One of the guy's eyes was blind while his other eye had crimson red iris.

The Half Phantom was born with physical distortion, and being imprisoned for such a long time only made things worse for him.

Despite that, the scary aura he exuded could still get others to tremble.

"You're here. It's been eleven years," commented the Half Phantom in a coarse voice.

Johannes had the guy locked up for eleven years and in all that time, the former never visited the latter.

"I'm here to share an interesting story with you. Someone actually came here looking for you! He even gave me a day to hand you over and said that if I don't, I will have to bear with the consequences. Hahaha..."

Johannes couldn't help laughing aloud.

The Half Phantom, however, grinned upon hearing that. He never uttered a word.

"Who would've thought that there are still people out there who knew of your existence? Don't worry, though. You will die of old age right here because no one is powerful enough to rescue you!"

The next day.

It was a memorable day for Goldenport Island because two crucial events would take place.

Firstly, it was the day when Xenotoph would return from his training.

Secondly, it was the day when the heir of the Cryptic Stream Corporation visited.

Goldenport Island was an island in Bayview with the strongest economy, so naturally, there were plenty of rich people there.

"What happened?" asked Xenotoph.

Everyone else had the same question.

Johannes gave everyone a cliff's note version of what happened.

That prompted everyone to laugh aloud.

"God of Gamblers, you are really playful. Why are you paying attention to this? The punk was just lying to you," said Xenotoph with a smile.

Everyone else shared his thought.

Johannes laughed aloud and joked, "Who knows? Maybe the kid has some secret up his sleeves? Hahaha..."

"Alright then, let's wait for the guy."

"I just returned from my training, so I am actually itching to try my new skills out. Here's to hoping that the kid is strong enough to entertain me. Hahaha..."

Xenotoph laughed, and so did everyone else.

Everyone took that as a joke.

Jefferson, however, sneered and commented, "Cryptic Stream Corporation will always have the Hilton family's back once the marriage is set. I'd like to see who would dare to come after them then!"

His tone was arrogant, and his words were even more so.

He was basically claiming that the Lab of Gods would be shielding the Hilton family, so no one would have the guts to come after them.

“I'm sure as hell that he doesn't dare to show up...” Before Terrell could finish his words, a voice sounded out of the blue, sending everyone into a tizzy.

All of them turned to look in the direction of the voice.

A figure emerged from a distance away. It turned out to be Levi! In an instant, everyone had their eyes on him.

“Hmph! He still dares to appear before us, huh?” Freddie lambasted.

Everyone was dumbfounded; never had they thought that Levi was such an ordinary young man!

“Who's this brat? How dare he provokes the Hilton family!”

“I know almost all the elite warriors in Erudia, even the young ones who have just shot to fame. But I don't think I have seen this lad before,” another person commented.

“Yeah, I can't remember seeing him at all. Pfft! What a reckless brat! How dare he gets on the Hilton family's nerves!” the man next to him scoffed.

Voices of everyone gossiping about Levi were reverberating. It seemed none of them knew him at all. They were all sneering that Levi was digging his own grave.

Jefferson gaped at Levi for quite a while before he came to his senses. “So he's the one who provokes the Hilton family?”

Boom! As Levi fired out his leg, it resulted in a horrendous wave of energy.

Crash! Crash!

In a split second, the banquet turned into a chaotic scene! Everything shattered into pieces within seconds. The wave of energy even slashed a long burnt mark on the ground!

Crash!

Boom!

Not far away, a building collapsed all of a sudden. As a result, there were dust and thick smoke in the air.

Everyone was rooted to the ground. It never crossed their minds that Levi would strike at once. His massive kick was horrifying indeed.

Before that, everyone kept on urging Levi, treating him as their laughing stock. They were stupefied when he struck right away.

“Ah! He is really something!” Someone gasped in admiration.

Everyone was overwhelmed by his sudden strike. Even Xenotoph was dumbfounded and rendered speechless.

He’s too mighty! No doubt, he is one of the best among the younger generation! No wonder he dares to provoke the Hilton family all by himself! He is undoubtedly skillful in a way!

“Get him!” As Terrell waved, a big group of fighters darted toward Levi in an instant.

Chapter 1937

"How can I trouble you just to finish off a worthless brat?" Johannes and his sons squeezed a smile to conceal their embarrassment.

If Xenotoph ended up giving them a hand in defeating Levi, the Hilton family would surely become a laughing stock for everyone.

As the overlord of Goldenport Island, everyone would be astounded at their helplessness against an ordinary young man.

What a great shame for us! How can we still be able to keep our heads up on Goldenport Island then?

"Go ahead and finish him off now!" Johannes gestured to the eight men standing behind him.

Other than Erudian, there were even Raysonian and foreigners among them. What was more, they were all elite fighters with mighty combating skills and were known as The Eight Guardians of the Hilton family. In other words, they were the family's trump card! Johannes had finally made up his mind to assign his mightiest fighters, hoping to finish Levi off right away.

The Eight Guardians nodded respectfully at Johannes and prepared to strike at any time.

Xenotoph mocked, "Imagine the Hilton family has to mobilize The Eight Guardians just to combat the brat! He surely is one of their mightiest foes so far!"

Soon, Levi and The Eight Guardians were having a hand-to-hand fight.

The Eight Guardians consisted of martial artists, men with superpowers, Raysonian samurai, and others. Undoubtedly, they should be undefeatable due to their good understanding of each other.

Even so, they were still nothing to Levi. Even though the eight of them joined forces with each other, they could not even reach the Robed Slayer's standard. If so, how could they be comparable to Levi's?

Chapter 1938

"I'm Jefferson from Cryptic Stream Corporation. The Hilton family is currently under our shield. If you kneel and beg for mercy, we will still let you off this round," he said placidly.

Jefferson and his subordinates were convinced that Levi would kneel and beg for his mercy right away after hearing who he was.

All this while, he had been getting conflicts resolved with the same method. Usually, he would mention his name and give the opponents a few slaps to resolve the matters.

Throughout these years, Jefferson had been solving the problems with this method.

And he had never failed!

No doubt, nobody would have the audacity to provoke Cryptic Stream Corporation and Lab of Gods, getting on their nerves. Thus, he thought of applying the same tactic to eliminate the Hilton family's current crisis.

Jefferson could even imagine how Levi was on his knees begging for his mercy, giving in to him as he slapped on his face. He almost burst into laughter at the thought.

Meanwhile, Levi was stunned and asked in bafflement, "Cryptic Stream Corporation? It's related to Bruce, isn't it?"

It never came to his mind that he would bump into anyone related to Bruce there. As a result, Jefferson was considered his foe indirectly!

Levi's eyes were blazing with simmering fury. You only have yourself to blame for landing in hot soup!

On the other hand, Jefferson and his subordinates smiled complacently at Levi, assuming he must be panic-stricken.

Slap! Levi slapped on Jefferson's face again without uttering any words.

Jefferson shrieked in pain once again. The insolence of his subordinates was apparently adding fuel to the already burning fire.

"You dare to inflict any harm on Mr. Jefferson again!" They freaked out and yelled apprehensively.

"Ah! You are the ones who ask for it!" Levi put on a subtle smile.

Slap! In a split second, there was another slap on Jefferson's face.

"Ouch!" Jefferson yowled in pain.

One of the subordinates fumed, "Damn it! You're asking for trouble! How dare you..."

Slap! Before he could finish chiding, Levi slapped on Jefferson's face again.

Jefferson started seeing stars. It seemed that he could barely sustain any more of the slaps.

"You brat..." Jefferson's subordinates were about to rebuke Levi again.

All of a sudden, Jefferson shrieked hysterically, "Keep your mouths shut! Don't you know that I will be beaten to death if you dare to make any noise again!"

Xenotoph was the last hope to the Hilton family and Goldenport Island.

If he were defeated, Goldenport Island would be subjugated.

When they heard Xenotoph agree, the Hilton family heaved a sigh of relief as they could still maintain the family's reputation.

Realizing that their master was going to take action, Xenotoph's disciples burst into cheers.

All of them were anxious to find out how strong Xenotoph had become after he sealed himself off for training.

After watching Levi demonstrate his prowess, Xenotoph shared the desire to do the same.

He had also wanted to showcase his magical techniques.

Back then, he didn't unleash his true powers as he didn't think Levi was strong enough for him to do so.

But now, Levi's strength had whetted his appetite, and he was delighted to have a go.

When they heard that Goldenport Island's top master of magical techniques was about to fight, all the other masters of magical techniques gathered to watch.

They had wanted to see how powerful he had become.

"At the end of the day, you are just young and naive. You have no idea that there are plenty of people out there who are stronger than you. It's good to be impulsive when you're young but overdoing it will cause your own downfall!" Johannes couldn't help but remark.

Xenotoph added, "Exactly! Young man, you are very talented and have the potential to be within the top five on the Gem List in the future. However, I still have to teach you a lesson for the insolence you have shown today."

Levi was amused as he was now top of the Gem List.
