Chapter 2061 The Sacred Organization Made A Move

“Huh?”

Stunned, the agitated Zoey looked at the person before her in disbelief.

He’s not Levi?

“Then, why did you say you’re Levi just now? I don’t believe it! I’m sure you’re Levi!”

Zoey’s emotions were stirred.

She was unable to accept as everything about that man resembled Levi, including his built and his voice.

Met with Zoey’s reaction, the man pulled his mask down, revealing an unfamiliar face before her.

Zoey was startled.

Who is this?

“W-Who are you?” she immediately asked as she grew wary.

“We’re here to save you out of respect for Levi. Follow us!”

That man left no chance for Zoey to refuse.

Pheonix's analysis had made a lot of sense to Levi.

Acting that way even though they knew my existence only shows that they indeed have a motive. It's highly possible that they'll come to look for me soon. But who would it be?

He could not figure out who it would be, and neither could he believe that there was more than one group of people who knew that he was alive.

The fact that they did not expose him made him feel strange. He figured it was likely that he was as insignificant as ants to those people. But there was also a possibility that he was still of use to the other party. For instance, using him to tackle the Lab of Gods.

Meanwhile, Zoey slowly opened her eyes.

What shocked her was that the wounds on her body had gotten a lot better, and she had become more energetic.

I'm alive, but who has saved me? Did they do it because of Levi?

After opening her eyes, Zoey found herself in a dimly-lit room.

The atmosphere in the room was unbelievably odd and bone-chilling. There were some random murals on the wall, and accompanying those was indescribable words and symbols.

It looks scary...

Irrked by the things the Dark Emperor mentioned, Zoey started trembling in angst and clenched her fists with all her might.

"I'll turn you into someone capable of challenging Lab of Gods! I'll allow you to take Bruce and the members of Lab of Gods out to avenge your husband!"

In spite of the malicious man's tempting offer, Zoey had her doubts and knew the man in front of her was up to something else in mind.

Aware of the things going on in her mind, the Dark Emperor assured her with a vicious smirk, "I need a talented member for the Sacred Organization! I'll take you in as my apprentice and do you a favor since those from Lab of Gods are foes of mine as well!"

He paused halfway through his speech. A few seconds later, he mentioned, "It's fine to turn me down! I'll get someone to send you home, but I'm afraid you won't get to avenge him until the day you pass on! Anyway, if you change your mind, you're always welcome to pay me another visit!"

Huh? Is he seriously telling me he is going to set me free? With that being said, there's no way I can get my hands on the whereabouts of Bruce and the members of Lab of Gods once I leave!

"Hurry up and bring me the phone!" Bruce gasped out his reply the moment he heard his subordinate.

Once he picked up the call, Cyrus remarked, "Has the mysterious figure introduced himself as Levi?"

"Yes! How is that possible when he's dead?"

"Indeed, he's dead! Hence, I think the mysterious figure's techniques are the only things resembling him!"

Cyrus' statements took Bruce by surprise. Once he figured out the things going on, he started recollecting the incident with the rest of his subordinates.

With the aid of their advanced equipment, they were able to get their hands on Death Fiend's techniques and his precise whereabouts when he had remained hiding prior to the assault.

Chapter 2065

Levi was unable to gather his thoughts since he had to tend to another emergency. He asked with a frown, "What is it?"

"Someone has found the hidden sunstones!"

"What?" Levi's eyes widened in disbelief as the few batches of sunstones he had gotten his hands on weren't sent elsewhere due to time constraints.

To be precise, he sent those to Keerea, a country on good terms with Zarain and the representatives of Lab of Gods, since it was of close proximity.

The officials of Keerea thought it wouldn't be necessary to join those from Lab of Gods in an attempt to retrieve the stolen batches of sunstones as they were certain it was hidden elsewhere.

Levi thought it would work wonders for a short while. However, it would expose the stolen batches of sunstones to great risk in the long run.

Thus, he thought of sending those elsewhere, but unforeseen circumstances took them by surprise when he had yet to sort things out.

Things were about to spiral out of control as Bruce and the rest of his party were on their way to the country as well.

It would take them a little more than two hours to reach their destination, but Bruce couldn't care less as he had dispatched most of the forces affiliated with him to keep the sunstones safe.

He was going all out to stop the sunstones from being shipped out!

Aware it was a race against time, Bruce urged, "If worse comes to worst, get the ones from Triple Group to make use of the trump card they have developed with us."

Bruce thought of deploying the fruit of their labor when they were abroad, but it wasn't even necessary since someone rushed to Zoey's rescue way ahead of his plan.

It was obvious the youngsters were the most formidable ones amongst the rest since they could easily intimidate their peers.

The onlookers were afraid their lives would be at stake as well. They couldn't help but wonder if the youngsters were the fruit of Triple Group and Lab of Gods' labor.

The successors of Triple Group were the only ones who knew that those youngsters were none other than Genesis Devils.

Out of nowhere, the rest on the shore turned around and had their eyes glued to the cruise on the sea.

The cruise was the ultimate trump card of Triple Group. They couldn't believe the conglomerate had gone to great lengths to secure mere sunstones.

Suddenly, a few gigantic vehicles that were at least a few feet long closed in from afar. When the onlookers caught a glimpse of the devices installed, some of them muttered, "Why have they brought these out as well?"

It was merely a piece of cake to destroy the sunstones since an igniting one would cause a chain reaction and blow up the rest. Those were precisely the method Levi used to destroy the previous few batches.

Unfortunately, they couldn't resort to something similar since the ones outside had some sort of barricading device with them.

The energy stored within the sunstones was sealed. Therefore, they would have to destroy the sunstones one after another.

They wouldn't even have the time. To make things worse, they might not be able to defend themselves when their foes barged into the warehouse since they had been rendered defenseless.

The rest in the warehouse were startled. One of them remarked, "What sort of device are we talking about? It's so terrifying!"

It was something capable of altering the frequency to seal the energy of martial artists and men with superpowers.

Those were precisely the function of the mysterious devices mounted to the gigantic vehicles.

The ones in charge of Triple Group had long figured out Kirin might destroy the sunstones in the nick of time. Thus, they brought those along to stop things from spiraling out of control.

"Sir, we're reaching in five minutes! What are we supposed to do next? They might've secured the perimeter by all means!"

Levi asked, "When is Bruce reaching?"

"Huh?"

His question took his comrades by surprise since Bruce wasn't even there at that point in time.

In spite of the confusion, Phoenix answered once she figured out Bruce's whereabouts, "He's reaching in another half an hour!"

“Stall him if it’s possible! Keep him at bay until I’m done!” Levi got up from his seat once he finished his sentence.

Chapter 2070 Taking Out The Person In Charge

Levi wasn’t afraid to announce his identity since others would consider it a bluff. After all, Death Fiend did something similar when others thought Levi had long passed on.

They thought he wouldn’t show up in front of others if he were in his right mind. Therefore, others would think the ones proclaiming themselves as Levi were just his doppelgangers.

On top of that, others could easily disguise their look to mislead others. Therefore, it wasn’t even much of a challenge for others to imitate the most sought-after man.

It merely took Levi a short while to find out Sammy was the one leading the rest at the scene. Thus, he thought of taking her into custody to keep the rest at bay.

Without a second thought, he dashed in her direction and took the rest by surprise. He was so swift to the extent others weren’t even aware of the things going on until he reached Sammy’s side.
