Chapter 2101 What If He Is Still Alive

Shaun and the others laughed aloud when they saw the negotiator there.

They couldn't believe that there would come a day when the most martial arts organization in Erudia would bow down to them and ask to negotiate.

There was a time when Shaun's life was miserable.

He kept getting bullied in North Hampton and had to lower his stance wherever he went.

Things only became worse after he got exiled and lost his citizenship—he couldn't even return to Erudia.

The table had really turned, and even the most powerful organization in Erudia wanted to negotiate.

That sudden and intense change flattered them.

It wouldn't even be an exaggeration to say that Shaun and his family were controlling a region each.

That was the power that Bruce granted them, and he promised that he could make them even stronger!

"Negotiate? What is there to talk about?" sneered Shaun.

He was firm at that moment.

Floyd and the others shouted in displeasure, but they knew that it was impossible.

If Levi were alive, he would've shown up ages ago. There would be no need to stay hidden for so long.

Still, Floyd and his men held out for hope and lied to themselves to remain motivated.

They truly wished for Levi to be alive.

These j*rks won't be this arrogant if Levi is around!

"Levi Garrison? So what if he is alive? Do you really think that I will be afraid of him when I am this strong?" scoffed Shaun.

Everyone became quiet.

He is right!

Levi had rescued Erudia countless times, so everyone subconsciously regarded him as an invincible being.

However, taking a closer look at the matter would reveal that it wouldn't matter even if he were alive.

Everybody remembered that Levi's skills were on the same level as the Robed Slayer.

Yet, Henry managed to defeat the Robed Slayer with ease.

So, given how Shaun was even stronger than Henry, there was no way Levi could defeat him!

That was the mission that Bruce gave them.

Everyone knew just how talented Forlevia was, and even the core members of the Lab of Gods paid close attention.

They wanted Forlevia to join them.

One of the high-rank officials of the Lab of Gods even said, "A genius like her can turn the tide for everyone."

As an added bonus, forcing Erudia to sacrifice Forlevia was equivalent to getting them to admit defeat.

Erudia's international reputation would fall, and they would be a global laughing stock.

That was what Bruce truly wanted!

Floyd and the others were even angrier after they heard the third condition.

What? Do they want to take the kid? No freaking way! We will die before we let that happen.

The other negotiators, however, sent the message to The Cardinal Hall right away.

The divine generals were the first to receive the news, and Forlevia's masters were the next.

The ones assigned to train Forlevia were extremely powerful and had even more experience than the divine generals.

More than that, Forlevia's masters didn't just come from The Cardinal Hall. Every clan and team of Eragon sent their best and brightest to train Forlevia.

Hence, each and every one of her masters was much stronger than Zoey's masters.

That was understandable since Forlevia was the most talented and might be the one who would lay the foundation for Eragon's future.

In a way, she was the budding shield that would keep Erudia safe in the future, and she was simply too important.

That was why every single one of her masters was that terrifyingly powerful.

To put it bluntly, The Cardinal Hall and Eragon had always been secretive with their members.

Forlevia was the only outsider within their ranks, yet no one dared to offend her.

Forlevia's master looked like she was a middle-aged woman and was wearing a plain dress that made her seem negligible.

However, she was regarded as the top member within The Cardinal Hall, and everyone called her Elder Celia.

No one knew her actual age, though.

"What's this? Has the Cardinal Hall run out of experts? Why are they sending a haggard woman over?"

Shaun and the others laughed aloud when they saw her.

"Oh my gosh, this is so funny. The Cardinal Hall actually sent a woman over? How embarrassing!"

"I bet this is the most embarrassing day for The Cardinal Hall."

"Oh, or does The Cardinal Hall not have any men among their ranks at all? Is that just an organization of unwanted women?"

Their mission had always been to find ways to get under The Cardinal Hall's skin. That was why seeing the middle-aged woman there prompted Shaun and the others to mock her mercilessly.

They were going out of their way to insult her.

What was Elder Celia's temper like?

Well, everyone in the Cardinal Hall knew all too well.

Even the divine generals, who held incredible power and position, were terrified of her, not to mention the others.

Forlevia's masters were all top members of The Cardinal Hall and Eragon, so she held a whole other level of power.

What was even more terrifying was that every single one of her masters had a horrible temper and was easily agitated.

They were also merciless and were violent when they attacked.

Chapter 2106 Pure Energy Beings Will Die

That day, the mysterious female fighter of The Cardinal Hall, Celia Neve, shocked the world with a slap.

Consequently, the ground shook and caused a chain reaction.

Even Bruce was terrified.

In his expectation, The Cardinal Hall would eventually make a move, but their trump cards should be revealed little by little.

Unexpectedly, a female tyrant with such fiery temper suddenly appeared.

Not to mention that the power of the slap was so terrifying.

Everyone was scared of her.

Instantly, Bruce sent the photos and videos of the woman to the Lab of Gods.

After a few seconds, the results came out, and there was no information on the woman in the huge database of the Lab of Gods.

Not even a single bit.

Previously, they could even find out the information of Zoey's masters in The Cardinal Hall, but there was no information on that woman.

"This..."

In an instant, a chill ran down Bruce's spine.

Pure energy beings could really die.

That was what they felt deep in their hearts.

As a matter of fact, they had never met anyone that strong.

Realizing that they could never win if they fought alone, Shaun gathered everyone together to deal with Celia.

“This is the first time we attack together. We’ll show you how strong we are!”

Shaun’s eyes were full of confidence.

With dozens of them together, they paid no heed to Celia at all.

Together, their attack would be earth-shattering, not to mention that Bruce had created several sets of cooperative tactics for them.

Those tactics could allow them to maximize their power, achieving the greatest effect.

Therefore, they were full of confidence once they gathered together.

If they could defeat the woman in front of them, they would shock the world.

Slowly, everyone began to feel excited.

All of a sudden, their demeanor changed, and silence enveloped the place.

Chapter 2108 Creating A New Era

Celia was warning everyone in the world not to get any ideas about Erudia and her disciple.

If it was in the past, even if Levi saved Erudia time and time again, the foreigners would not give a damn about it because it was not intimidating enough.

However, after Celia gave her warning, everyone was afraid.

She had shown tremendous power by slapping so many pure energy beings to the ground. Obviously, everyone was scared of her.

Just when various forces in various countries were studying how to deal with the pure energy beings, she appeared and showed that she could kill them. The shock she brought was beyond words.

In the meantime, Bruce's face fell as he was frightened.

He finally understood why his superior said that the Lab of Gods could deal with pure energy beings.

It turned out that in the eyes of the really powerful fighters, pure energy beings were weaklings, which could be easily crushed.

Before they could reach the level of Jared, all of them were nothing but weaklings.

With that, Bruce's plan had failed miserably.

His original plan was to use people like Shaun to force The Cardinal Hall to show their trump cards one by one.

The Cardinal Hall would slowly send out more and more powerful experts.

With that, the problem with the pure energy beings was resolved, and they were taken by The Cardinal Hall for research.

After Celia returned, all the divine generals stayed as far away from her as possible.

Despite her breaking so many rules, causing too great a sensation, and might even change the trajectory of an era by doing so, the divine generals did not dare to say anything.

Probably, not even the leader of The Cardinal Hall dared to say a word.

Hence, they tried to stay as far away as possible.

The incident affirmed Forlevia's status as the child who could not be offended.

However, those at The Cardinal Hall knew that better.

What the world saw in the incident was only one elder, but there were actually more than ten elders supporting her.

An elder already caused that much commotion.

If more than a dozen elders came forward together, the consequences would be unimaginable.

Yet, those who were not from The Cardinal Hall knew nothing about it.

They thought Forlevia only had one master.

How did she become so strong? What happened during this time? Did Dark Emperor manage to unleash her full potential?

As a matter of fact, the Eighteen Dark Angels and other members of the Sacred Organization were already strong enough, but why would they show such an expression when they saw Zoey?

That was because they felt a sense of oppression similar to Dark Emperor in her.

It showed that even if she was inferior to Dark Emperor, she was infinitely close to him.

That's just terrifying!

At that moment, they finally understood the reason Dark Emperor chose Zoey as his disciple.

The answer was because she could be that strong.

“From today onwards, you’re the empress of the Sacred Organization! Your status is second only to me!”

Immediately, Dark Emperor inaugurated Zoey as the empress.

Although everyone was shocked, they were convinced of her power.
