Chapter 2151 The Identity Of The Creature

“Ah!”

Everyone was extremely strung up when an ear-splitting scream pierced the air.

Boom!

Blood splattered everywhere.

Some of them felt warm blood spraying onto their clothes.

The extremely gruesome sound shocked everyone.

Even Xenotoph was dumbfounded and rendered speechless.

“Ah!”

Before they could react, horrifying sounds echoed in the air as blood sprayed everywhere.

“Switch on the light!” Johannes barked.

Snap, snap!

They switched on their lights, and the interior of the factory appeared in their sight.

They didn’t miss any corner, so everything was visible, including the thing that escaped from the coffin.

Boom!

The sight of that sent a shiver down everyone’s spines.

What the hell?

Xenotoph planned to put up a fight and take the creature down with him.

Boom, boom!

Xenotoph unleashed a barrage of his strongest magical attacks.

He was prepared to fight till his death.

A battle ensued.

Soon, blood stained the windows of the factory red.

Though Xenotoph tried hard to stop the creature, he failed and lost his life.

Johannes and the rest escaped the factory successfully, their faces pale and their bodies tensed.

What happened today was beyond everyone's wildest imagination.

One of the men stationed outside urged, "What happened? How did it go?"

Before the people who had just escaped the factory could explain, Xenotoph's disciples mourned, "Master!"

Xenotoph was dead, and that shocked the masses.

After all, Xenotoph was the most powerful fighter in all of Goldenport Island.

Chapter 2153 Excalibur Council Of Rodunst

It was clear what this creature would do out there.

Hell would descend on a peaceful country.

After all, that was what happened to Rodunst.

The creature appeared in the capital and airport, bringing disaster to the country.

Indeed, Rodunst was now a living hell.

After the coffin was opened, the creatures escaped and murdered innocent lives.

It was catastrophic.

One vampire was annoying enough, but there were two of them in Rodunst.

Though Rodunst immediately dispatched various martial artists, men with superpowers, witches, wizards, and even its own Excalibur Council, which was comparable to Zarain's Shield, each and every one of them who went there ended up dying on the battlefield.

Chapter 2154 Fight Till The End

It was obvious that they would all be wiped out here.

No one would survive the ordeal.

It felt really miserable to be waiting for one's death.

Help was arriving, but they were running out of time.

In the midst of battling the creature, they realized he was getting stronger after devouring enough blood.

It seemed like he could only awake after getting sufficient blood.

Though he wasn't at the peak of his ability yet, he was already unstoppable.

They couldn't imagine what it would be like if he were to awake completely.

Meanwhile, both Levi and Cyrus had just arrived at Goldenport Island.

As Erudia had kept a lid on the situation, they had no idea what was happening on the island.

Once they arrived, their instincts told them something was wrong.

"Something seems off. They must be in trouble!" Cyrus exclaimed.

Alas, they only managed to hang on for around twenty minutes.
They still had a long way to go.
During the last moments of their lives, they were still worrying about the downfall of Goldenport Island.
If they were to die here, thousands of innocent lives would perish right on the island.
Sherrie's heart was filled with reluctance as she screamed, "Ah!"
The vampire appeared before her and pulled her up.
He stared at her, seemingly surprised by how obstinate she was.
"Come on! I'm not afraid of you!" Sherrie declared.
The vampire's eyes were tinted red as he parted his lips to bite her.

The Progenitor knew it was Levi who sent him flying earlier.

As Levi had ignored his presence all the while, he went straight for him without hesitation.

Boom!

The Progenitor appeared before Levi in a nanosecond and stretched out his hand to grab Levi.

Alas, he failed to grab anything.

Levi had swerved out of his reach swiftly.

The Progenitor widened his eyes in shock, finding it hard to believe that someone had just escaped from his claws.

Everyone else shared the same sentiment, too.

Boom!

Before the Progenitor could realize what was going on, Levi appeared behind his back and retaliated with a kick that sent him flying again.

This was the second time the Progenitor was sent flying.

Sherrie and the rest were shocked beyond belief.

Chapter 2157 The Similarities Between Levi And The Progenitor

Indeed, the Progenitor's power was on par with the Eighteen Dark Angels.

However, the Eighteen Dark Angels managed to stop the Progenitor from advancing.

After Levi and Cyrus came back, they stood aside and watched the battle.

The Eighteen Dark Angels gritted their teeth in anger. How dare that b*stard stand aside and watch?

"Won't you help? He's our common enemy!" they demanded.

Both Levi and Cyrus folded their arms nonchalantly. "Nah, we'll just watch from the sidelines for now."

It was obvious that he wasn't about to help them out.

Though the Eighteen Dark Angels were seething in anger, there was nothing they could do.

It was impossible for them to break free of the Progenitor due to their sheer number.

They had to work together to defeat the creature.

Levi and Cyrus weren't really enjoying the show from aside; they were actually trying to find the weakness of the Progenitor.

Chapter 2158 Five Generations Of The Progenitor

As the twenty fighters joined forces, the Progenitor was soon at his wit's end.

"Come on, let's take him down!"

Their attacks grew more intense.

The Progenitor was soon ensnared.

He let out a loud roar together with a burst of sudden energy that sent six Dark Angels flying backward.

After an opening appeared, he escaped instead of continuing his attacks.

He ended up jumping into the sea.

Before doing that, he turned at his shoulders and shot Levi a complicated gaze. There was confusion and curiosity in his eyes before he disappeared.

"Go after him!"

The masses went after him and didn't find him anywhere.

Instead of hiding on Goldenport Island, he had swum toward Adrune.

"Looks like the Progenitor isn't a beast after his awakening. He knows how to flee!" Levi exclaimed in surprise.

In fact, he was puzzled by the Progenitor's weird reaction.

That was really strange.

"Let's count our losses."

Chapter 2159 Running Your Mouth

The ones who were clueless about the Progenitor looked confused.

"Is the Progenitor really so powerful?" someone asked curiously.

His question caused everyone to look at him with bafflement.

“Of course he is! Even the divine generals quake in fear when they hear his name.”

After the reply, the man who’d first raised the question kept his mouth sealed.

Finally, everyone realized the terrifying nature of the Progenitor as it was a creature that could strike fear even into the hearts of the divine generals.

They couldn’t believe that such a horrifying creature once roamed Goldenport Island.

“Since the Progenitor is nowhere to be seen, have you dealt with it already? The two of you look unscathed,” the gathered crowd asked fearfully.

“We have yet to deal with it because the Progenitor slipped out of our clutches. However, we have resolved Goldenport Island’s danger,” Levi replied solemnly.

Chapter 2160 The Arrival Of The Cardinal Hall General

“What’s the matter? Do you want to kill me? Go ahead then. Since you can’t handle the Progenitor, the most you can do is take your anger out on regular citizens,” Sherrie called out tauntingly, “It’s the only thing you lot are good at!”

The bunch of The Cardinal Hall members- a group akin to “God,” fumed in anger.

Nevertheless, they could not lash out and had to restrain their temper.

If they killed Sherrie, it would only prove that her words were right.

They were a prideful group that refused to admit to their mistakes.

Both Levi and Cyrus had to resist the urge to burst out laughing.

It was comical to see them utterly humiliated by a young maiden as they could not retaliate.

They could only accept her insults in silence and embarrassment.

A bitter look crossed their faces when they heard Sherrie’s endless slanders.

Today, they had suffered a huge blow to their reputation.

“Since this is none of our business, our help ends here. We’ll leave the rest to you,” Levi announced and prepared to leave the scene with Cyrus.
