Chapter 2161 Join The Sacred Organization

"That's right."

"Oh? Where is he?" Edmund questioned.

"He has left the scene."

"What? Did he leave already? I was looking forward to meeting the man who repeatedly stole The Cardinal Hall's thunder. I wanted to see him in action against the Progenitor too," Edmund replied.

"Sir, the Fiery Demon was working alongside Levi. The two of them probably worked together to beat the Progenitor."

Edmund's brows pinched together. "No, you are mistaken. There were more than two of them. In fact, I sense... eighteen people."

"There were eighteen other people?" everyone exclaimed in shock.

It looks like The Cardinal Hall General really does live up to his name. We didn't even know about the existence of eighteen other men! After all, The Cardinal Hall General is a future member of the divine brigadiers. He wields impressive skill. I can't believe he managed to obtain such detailed information in the blink of an eye.

At the same time, realization dawned upon the group.

The Eighteen Dark Angels were dumbfounded.

They assumed that Levi would only follow their orders after a bloody battle. They were even prepared to blackmail him.

Yet, he agreed without hesitation.

This is unbelievable! Why did he submit to us with such ease? Did he hit his head? He's acting weirdly.

They stared at him with disbelief.

Their astonished looks caused Levi to chuckle. "Did you forget that my wife is in your hands? I'm not in a position to disagree, am I? I'm not a fool who can't read the room. Right now, going along with your orders is my safest bet."

Their suspicions vanished into thin air when they heard Levi's reasoning.

After all, Zoey was Levi's top priority.

"What about him?" The Eighteen Angels looked at Cyrus.

"I am Maestro's subordinate. I'll follow him wherever he goes," Cyrus declared.

"Okay, let's head out."

With that, the group headed toward the Sacred Organization.

The people in Archulea grew serious when they got a call from the Lab of Gods.

"We can help take care of Progenitor, but we have our conditions," Mr. X said directly.

"Sure, we'll agree to any of your terms!" Archulea promised excitedly.

Mr. X chuckled. "Don't be so quick to say yes. At least hear what I have to say!"

"What are your conditions?"

"I will resolve that crisis of yours. In return, you will allow us access to Doomsday Seed Vault."

The person went silent after hearing Mr. X's request.

Archulea's Doomsday Seed Vault was famous for the various types of seeds it contained, both from the past and the present.

"Hm? What's going on in Archulea?"

Everyone was shocked by the destruction before their eyes.

"Let me check..."

Cyrus soon found out about everything that happened.

"The Progenitor has been going rampant here, and Archulea has no fighters who can take him out. For some unknown reason, the Lab of Gods has agreed to lend them a hand," he said.

Death Fiend laughed. "Seems like your information isn't complete! The Lab of Gods only agreed to help Archulea because they would be granted access to the Doomsday Seed Vault!"

"You..."

Levi had gotten used to their petty squabbles by then.

"It has nothing to do with us. Let's just carry on with our journey!"

He was in a hurry to see Zoey and couldn't care less about those matters as it had no effect on Erudia.

The Eighteen Dark Angels were in agreement with Levi's statement as they wanted to bring him back safely before anything else happened.

It was the first time the Progenitor had been in such a desperate state, and everyone in Archulea was shocked to see him running away.

Isn't that the Progenitor? Who the hell are these people? How are they strong enough to beat the Progenitor up so badly? This is unbelievable!

The Progenitor had pretty much run through half of Archulea, but Levi and his group eventually caught up and continued beating the crap out of him.

You have only yourself to blame for this, Progenitor! We were just passing by and had no intentions of hurting you at all, but you tried to attack us and suck our blood!

With that in mind, all twenty of them continued their assault on the Progenitor.

As they were all experienced fighters, the Progenitor's lack of offensive power resulted in him receiving a one-sided beating.

What... Did they just tell us to go back after we've traveled this far to help out? What the hell?

"Are you sure you want us to head back?" Mr. X asked while glaring straight at the Archuleans.

"Yeah, that's right! We told you to head back! Did you not hear us the first time?" they replied nonchalantly.

"Fine! We'll leave, then! You guys are on your own with the Progenitor! The Lab of Gods will not get involved anymore!"

Outraged, Mr. X was determined to teach Archulea a lesson and prepared to leave with his men immediately.

"Oh, the Progenitor? We don't need you to help us get rid of him! We've already taken care of him ourselves!" the Archuleans said mockingly with a sneer.

"What?"

Mr. X and his men turned around in unison.

"What do you mean you've taken care of the Progenitor? How is that possible? We haven't even done anything to help out!" he asked with a look of confusion on his face.

Even Levi didn't know much about the place apart from it being somewhere deep within Nuthana.

All modern technology would malfunction due to the magnetic fields in the area, and many adventurers would rather die than come explore the place.

A thick fog surrounded the place to heights no one has ever seen before, and it was undetectable even by satellites.

The area couldn't be found on any map in existence, and Levi would never have been able to get there without someone showing him the way.

In other words, it was like a missing corner of the world.

Levi and Cyrus were taken aback by the nature of the area around them.

They also realized that the fog was incredibly poisonous and killed anyone who inhaled it regardless of their physical condition.

Death Fiend and the others said with a smile, "You guys are on your own now! Let's see if you can make it through this area alive!"

Getting through the poisonous fog was one of the tests they had to go through, but it was no problem for Levi and Cyrus who were close friends with Venom Fiend.

Instead of being terrified, everyone simply laughed at Levi like he had said something foolish.

"Aren't you overestimating yourself a little there, Levi?"

"Did you really think you could just walk out of here with her?"

"You have no idea how powerful the Sacred Organization is!"

The Eighteen Dark Angels burst into laughter as they figured he couldn't possibly take Zoey with him.

The Dark Emperor cackled as he said, "Oh, I know what you mean! You plan on finding out where Zoey is upon getting here, right? Have you ever considered the possibility that you won't be walking out of here? I'll keep you here under my control forever! You thought you were smart, but you've fallen right into my trap! I had let them bring you here on purpose, Levi!"

The look on Levi's face turned instantly upon hearing that.

“I may not have much power over you out there, but you won’t be escaping me now that you’re here!”

He wanted to blow a hole through the steel wall by concentrating all of his force into a single explosive point.

Zoom!

Despite how terrifying the move was, all it did was leave a slightly larger dent on the steel wall that was three feet thick.

On top of that, there was a much thicker shell lining the outside of the steel wall.

Most importantly, the wall was designed to spread the force from Levi’s punches across the surface, so the power from each punch had practically dissipated.

Levi and Cyrus both grew increasingly anxious as they continued to hammer away at the wall until they were exhausted, but it did nothing whatsoever.

Chapter 2170 Maya Industries

Everyone was flabbergasted by Levi's disappearance, especially since they knew he was still alive.
In the past, Levi would still secretly protect Erudia and target the Lab of Gods even though he went missing, but that wasn't the case this time.
Even the Azure Dragon's men had not received any messages from Levi, and the Dragonites could only pray that he was truly still alive.
Everyone wanted to know where Levi had gone and why he had disappeared, but nobody had the answers.
Forlevia and Emma were the only ones who might know where he was, but no one dared ask them about it as the elders were around.
Eventually, Edmund decided to personally pay Celia a visit, and she agreed to let him see Forlevia and Emma.
Unfortunately, they didn't know where Levi was either.
