Chapter 2211 Shatter The Skyward Sword With Two Fingers

“Ah! It seems he is not here to rescue them. Apparently, he is here for the Skyward Sword!” A fighter yelled out confidently.

All the others nodded.

Even Forlevia and Zoey had the same stance as the others earlier. They thought Levi was there to rescue them. Now that it seemed his main motive was to seize the Skyward Sword.

Both Edmund and Donald were startled.

So he is here to seize the Skyward Sword?

Seeing how the Skyward Sword had unleashed its mighty power, everyone was convinced that Levi was there to snatch it.

Not to mention, he was even more undefeatable with the Skyward Sword in hand.

Buzz!

The vibration of the Skyward Sword was getting stronger. The intimidating aura intensified, shrouding every corner gradually.

In everyone’s eyes, the Skyward Sword could sense the formidable fighter’s ability and become exhilarated with that. It was the way the divine tool resonated with him.

The Skyward Sword was similar to a humanoid with emotions. It was natural for it to be over the moon when it was in the grasp of someone who could handle it.

Sword was actually in fear instead of feeling joyous. It sensed the hint of dominance

Chapter 2212 Dominate The Divine Leaderboard

In truth, both the Prison of Darkness and Skyward Sword were strong.

However, Levi was extremely powerful. He could not be restricted by both the Prison of Darkness and Skyward Sword.

Utterly startled by the scene that unfolded before them, the elders, who had hidden in a secret location, could not believe their eyes.

Initially, they assumed that they were on par with Levi's strength.

However, his abilities surpassed their expectations.

The Skyward Sword never yielded or broke by any of the opponents.

In fact, the Skyward Sword was more than just a mere weapon. It was a piece that complimented them.

They could exert the true potential of their powers when the Skyward Sword was in their grasps.

In short, the Skyward Sword was their equal.

Yet, the man standing before them was clearly much stronger than the Skyward Sword seeing how his immense strength broke the sword.

His true might was beyond their league.

A long silence ensued as everyone was too stunned to speak.

Even the fighters hidden amongst the shadows could not muster a proper response.

Forlevia had asked the question that everyone was dying to know.

They were confused about Levi's purpose.

Was he here to destroy the Skyward Blade or rescue someone? Maybe, he's just here to flex his strength.

No matter his intentions, they were confused.

With the elders and other strangers lurking within earshot, Levi was unable to disclose his true identity.

When Forlevia came face to face with Levi, she felt a sense of familiarity.

Why does it feel like I recognize this person?

“You’ll find out in the future. Go back and save them!” Levi blurted out before he spun on his heel and left.

Immediately, Forlevia fled the scene with Zoey in her embrace. She was afraid they’d face more danger.

Levi was no longer concerned about Forvelia’s safety because the elders were hot on her heels. He was confident that the elders would shield her from any harm.

Back at the icy plains, Donald, Edmund, and the rest finally regained their senses.

When the crowd was about to disperse, a booming voice stopped them in their tracks. “Useless! You are all nothing but a bunch of useless fools! Did you think that you savage barbarians could steal Erudia’s belongings? Have you underestimated Erudia?”

Chapter 2214 The Plan Of The Dark Emperor

Before Edmund could continue with his other sentence, the leader of The Manifest Court interrupted him.

They were already aware of the question Edmund wanted to ask.

"We are well-versed in all sorts of secrets. We even discovered the truth of Levi's death a few years ago. There is nothing in this world that The Manifest Court is unaware of. However, we cannot confirm this person's identity. To put it bluntly, it's as if he appeared out of thin air. His aura and presence don't seem like a being who is from this world."

Loud gasps filled the air when they heard The Manifest Court's declaration.

How could this be? Even The Manifest Court cannot give us an answer?

It was a rare sight to see an individual demonstrate such prowess in martial arts.

Edmund himself was well aware of this fact.

"However, luck is on our side. Isn't that man an Erudian? We'd be doomed if he wasn't loyal to Erudia. Can you imagine the devastation he might cause if he decided to lash out? None of us would be able to stop him," the leader of Manifest Court said solemnly.

Immediately, everyone heaved out a heavy sigh of relief.

Quickly, the shocking news reached the Dark Emperor.

"The Skyward Blade was shattered?" The news almost drove him mad.

Following the voice, two figure emerged.

It was none other than Levi and Cyrus.

This time, they did not conceal their appearances and revealed their true identities.

In the past, Levi created a protective veil to mask his appearance whenever he went out in public.

Not only was this veil suitable for combat purposes, but it also brought along tons of other benefits.

After all, the entire world did not have the slightest clue regarding his identity. They were only aware of his monstrous strength.

Given that they had such limited information about this mysterious fighter, he appeared more menacing.

Talking about Levi was like venturing into an unknown territory; hence, the public was terrified that they might stumble on a dark secret about this elusive fighter and his terrifying strength.

Although they were curious about Levi, the lack of information discouraged them from investigating his true identity.

Levi's existence in Erudia made it a place of taboo. No one dared to provoke Erudia in fear that they might incur the wrath of its fearsome fighter.

However, Levi was determined to meet Zoey and Forlevia without any disguise.

Henry and the others had planned to send Zoey in exile from Erudia.

Levi's arrival, however, changed their mind.

They wanted him to witness Zoey's death firsthand.

Levi needs to see how far the world has progressed, and how small and inconsequential he really is in this vast land.

Zoey stared at Levi in shock and stammered, "Y-You're still alive?"

"Of course I am! You've fallen for the Dark Emperor's ploys! He capitalized on your desire to avenge me and turned you into a killing machine," Levi explained.

His words began to shake Zoey's faith in the Dark Emperor.

Levi, not some random impostor.

Evidence? Not even the most convincing argument or the Lab of Gods materializing before Zoey's eyes can sway her belief. She'll only claim that they're false.

Levi recalled how Zoey had needed hours to convince herself that he showed up alive and kicking.

She's been hard-wired not to go against the Dark Emperor's orders. When faced with criticisms of her master, her first instinct is to search for solutions that can defend his actions.

Levi looked at her earnestly and pleaded, "You've been brainwashed! Please, you've got to get a hold of yourself!"

Instead, Zoey declared, "I'm well-aware of my thoughts, and there's no such thing as brainwashing! Master treats me almost as good as how the two of you treat me."

Shaking his head in frustration, Levi uttered, "Do you know why I was locked up? It was because I tried to look for you! The Dark Emperor locked me up for three whole years in retaliation!"

Zoey could not help but shudder at his mind-blowing revelation.

It suddenly reminded her of an incident in the past.

The Eighteen Dark Angels appeared, with Death Fiend as their leader.

When they heard Zoey had the idea of heading back, they heaved a sigh of relief, for that was for the best.

After all, they didn't want to start a war.

"Who are you? You can't take Mommy away!" Forlevia rushed forward and glared at them.

The elders hiding in the corner held their breaths anxiously.

If Forlevia were in danger, they'd take action at once.

"Young girl, you can't stop us. Your mommy wants to come with us, too!" Death Fiend chuckled.

"The Dark Emperor has been using you all the while. When he failed to get the Skyward Sword, he left you alone. If I'm not mistaken, these people were there back then, right?" Levi smirked.

Zoey fell silent, for he was telling the truth.

They were there but they ran away when something happened.

She immediately explained, "Master didn't want things to get out of control and told them to escape. Otherwise, I would have to take care of them and lead them out!"

Chapter 2219 Did He Break Out Of The Prison Of Darkness

This was the wildest thing he had ever heard.

It is simply impossible! Where did they see Levi? I sent them to Erudia, didn't I? How could they have seen Levi there? That's impossible. They must've been mistaken.

Was it someone else they saw?

The Dark Emperor refused to believe their words, for he assumed that no one could break free from the Prison of Darkness.

Only someone as strong as him could break free with the help of a divine tool like the Terra Blade.

Levi was neither as strong as him nor did he have the Terra Blade, so there was no way he could break free from the Prison of Darkness.

In a trembling voice, he asked, "Where did you see him?"

"In Erudia, of course," came Death Fiend's reply. "We went there for Zoey but bumped into him."

"Yes, we saw him with our own eyes. He has escaped!"

"He showed up with Cyrus. We're sure of it!" the Eighteen Dark Angels reported hastily.

With that, they had no choice but to accept the cruel fact that the impenetrable Prison of Darkness had

The Dark Emperor started acting strangely, but they knew he was only trying to discover how Levi broke free from the Prison of Darkness!

Soon, he came to a stop and panted heavily.

Incredulity and horror flashed across his gaze.

The Eighteen Dark Angels were shocked to see his reaction.

Such fearsome strength was beyond the Dark Emperor’s comprehension, let alone them.

“He destroyed the Prison of Darkness with one move, and the remaining strength of his move razed the mountains, cleared the haze and turned the place into a tourist heaven with clear blue skies and the
