Chapter 2251 Calling Scrap Metal A Divine Tool

Levi could clearly hear Dark Emperor drawing a sharp breath which showed that he was incredibly nervous.

The others around him were a lot more anxious and held their breaths in anticipation.

They really need to know the answer to that question.

"I broke it myself!" Levi replied with a smile.

Everyone's expression turned cold upon hearing that, and not a single one of them believed him.

"But the fighter you claimed to have broken Skyward Sword with two fingers could open it! Heck, he could even do it from the inside! I don't know who that guy is, but he should be a Guardian for The Cardinal Hall and Eragon!" Dark Emperor said.

"Did you hear that, Levi? Only someone who could break Skyward Sword with two fingers can open it from the inside! Everyone else can only do so from the outside! It's a hundred times more difficult to do it from the inside!" Death Fiend shouted in an attempt to remind Levi of that fact.

"Yes, you're right! I'm the one who broke Skyward Sword with two fingers!" Levi said with a chuckle.

"Pfft!"

No one believed Levi's words in the slightest.

It's impossible no matter how you look at it!

Dark Emperor let out a sarcastic chuckle. "Do not test my patience, Levi! Tell me the truth, or I'll kill you! You may not be afraid to die, but what about Zoey? I could squash her like a bug!"

Chapter 2253 Vote To Spare Or Kill Levi

I used to think that Dark Emperor is from another country, but now I realize he's actually an Erudian! On top of that, he has a long and complicated history with Daxon. I mean, everything Dark Emperor does is related to Daxon! Da*n, I didn't even know that Sacred Organization is in control of a third of the world's forces! This is way too scary! The threat these guys pose is a lot larger than Lab of Gods! There's a lot more to Dark Emperor than meets the eye!

Dark Emperor then turned toward Levi and glared at him cautiously as if he had suddenly recalled something.

"What are you planning on doing? I don't just reveal my identity to people like you!"

Everyone around them lowered their heads instantly.

It was obvious that they too wanted to know Dark Emperor's true identity.

"It's fine if you don't feel like telling me! I wouldn't want to find out anyway! There, I've given you an answer. What are you going to do to me now?"

One of the Eighteen Dark Angels shouted, "Let's kill him! I've had enough of his crap!"

The members of the Sacred Organization were excited at the prospect of toying with Levi’s life.

The death of a fallen legend is something to behold.

Even the Dark Emperor’s gloom dissipated as he was eager to join in the fun.

“Let me be the arbitrator. Place your votes!” the Dark Emperor called out over the clamor of excitement.

The crowd wrote their desired outcome on little scraps of paper.

Aside from the Dark Emperor, the training base of the little unknown island contained four thousand three hundred and twenty-three people.

The number was made up of the inner circle of the Sacred Organization which their slaves and servants.

The Dark Emperor opened the vote to everybody.

It was rather exciting to be a part of history.

Only two outcomes were able to be voted upon—life or death.

Levi stood silently as he waited for the verdict like a slave whose life was being toyed with by his overlords as their source of entertainment.

“The voting officially begins!” roared the Dark Emperor.

After every single vote was cast, the Dark Emperor began to announce the tally out loud.

Every single person at the scene jumped at his words.

The initially merry atmosphere instantly faded away into tense silence as every eye at the scene turned to glare at Levi.

Levi had a crooked smile on his face despite being sentenced to die frightened the onlookers.

Fear rose within them as if the man before their eyes was the devil himself.

Even the Dark Emperor could not repress an icy shudder down his spine.

That look on his face radiates pure malice intent!

Even the Dark Emperor did not know why Levi who was at their mercy suddenly looked so menacing.

Levi was smiling at the effect produced by his words.

Chapter 2256 The Punch

The movement was so sudden that nobody saw it coming.

The Dark Angel who was standing the closest to Levi had his entire field of vision obstructed Levi's fist as it headed for him.

Being rooted to the spot, he could only watch it traveling closer to him in a mixture of amazement and trepidation.

Like a cannonball, his fist landed squarely on the Dark Angel's chest with a boom as loud as thunder.

The impact caused the Dark Angel's body to explode, raining down pieces of bloody flesh and guts onto the surrounding crowd.

Everyone in the vicinity found themselves splattered with the fragmented remains of their comrade, still boiling hot to the touch.

Every single one of them, including Death Fiend and the remainder of the Eighteen Dark Angels were shocked.

Everyone just stood there like zombies.

Even the Dark Emperor was at a loss for words.

Unbelievable!

How frightening!

Everything has changed!

Though it was normal for Levi to kill a man and even turn him into a puddle, his strength was unusual considering the diminishment of his powers.

Besides, the man that he had just vanquished with a single strike was the most powerful Dark Angel of all the eighteen who was also easily the top ten on the Divine Leaderboard which contained the best fighters of all time.

Zoey, who was one of the top ten had become a serial killing demon. It required the combined force of an army of fighters to subdue her.

Chapter 2257 It Is Your Turn

Could Levi's promise actually be something he is capable of carrying out?

Was he the one to have broken open the Prison of Darkness?

No! That's impossible!

The Dark Emperor shook his head frantically, unable to accept the conclusion he arrived at.

The possibility of that happening is close to zero!

He had said that he was rescued by Daxon, the divine brigadier of the Cardinal Hall!

It must be him!

The Dark Emperor inferred that Levi had obtained the help of Daxon to have been able to elevate his powers as opposed to being stagnant where he was three years ago.

It appears that Levi has been keeping the recovery of his powers a secret from the entire world.

"Kill him!" the Dark Emperor ordered as soon as he regained his senses. "I want to see how powerful he truly is!"

Despite the increasing number of dead bodies before his eyes, the Dark Emperor was still stubborn in his denial of Levi's power.

He remained convinced that Levi's power only came from Daxon.

It has nothing to do with his own capabilities!

The Dark Emperor believed that a simple test would reveal the truth of Levi's relationship with that man.

"Go on him!"

Chapter 2258 Terra Blade Of The Dark Emperor

For some reason, the Dark Emperor felt as if he was staring at his own imminent demise in the reflection in Levi’s demented eyes.

However, it was too trivial a feeling for the Dark Emperor to pay it any mind.

“Let’s see how powerful you truly are, Levi!”

Boom!

At the sound of the Dark Emperor’s battle cry, the terrifying power within him exploded outward.

The skies grew dark and cloudless as the earth split beneath their feet.

Even the tides began to rise threateningly against the coastal areas.

The citizens of the surrounding nations felt the crackle in the air and stood frozen in shock and awe.

We have never encountered an opponent as powerful as him!

He must be the most powerful fighter Adrune has ever had!

What kind of power does he possess?

The Dark Emperor's power had been steadily accumulating.

A cloud of dark gas erupted from his body and enveloped the arena in a cloud of smog so dense that it soon became pitch black for the onlookers as if the sun cowered away from the Dark Emperor's power.

The Dark Energy suffocated the onlookers and struck fear in all of them.

Blind as they were in the smoke screen, their terror rose as they gasped for air only to feel cold daggers puncturing their lungs.

Being deprived of sight and breath, their ears picked up the inhuman howls in the distance which terrified them further to the core.

Chapter 2259 Breaking Terra Blade

The sound of breaking metal had never sounded so sweet to Levi's ears, especially at that moment.

Boom!

It sounded like the earth was being ripped apart.

The dark clouds were blown away so forcefully by the blast caused by the snapping blade that the men nearest to it staggered backward.

With Terra Blade gone, the skies are clear again.

The blast traveled outward with blistering speed and turned every living creature it came into contact with into dust.

Even the tides against the coastal areas were pushed back so far that the surroundings of the harbor looked as if it was about to be consumed by a tsunami.

The strike of Levi's bare hand onto Terra Blade is unfathomably powerful!

The surrounding nations discovered suddenly that their telecommunication services stopped working as they were damaged by the blast.

As a result, numerous pieces of equipment in many governments and residential buildings were rendered useless.

More than half of Adruna was plunged into a state of chaos from the effects of a single punch.

Those who were ignorant about the fight that was happening would have thought that a weapon of mass destruction was being developed.

Levi, Death Fiend, and the rest were stunned at the reveal.

This is unbelievable!

The Dark Emperor is a woman!

We have always thought that the Dark Emperor was a man!

This is absurd!

The final irrefutable proof before him corroborated by Zoey's own account made Levi absolutely certain that the Dark Emperor was indeed a woman.

However, Levi had his suspicions on the matter beforehand.

Only a woman was able to achieve the state of becoming one with Terra Blade.

Furthermore, the Dark Emperor had sounded resentful when Daxon's name was mentioned.

There must be a story behind it.

Before the others could react, the Dark Emperor's body exploded open from the impact of Levi's fist upon her body.

Death Fiend and the rest stared uncomprehendingly at him as all sorts of questions passed through their minds.
