Chapter 2381 The Sites Are Man Made

“These ancient sites are found by Garrison Industry. White Tiger and Robed Slayer ran into their chance encounters in this place, and they came back with the techniques that made them famous.”

Asura was introducing the ancient site to Levi, but then someone said they found something, so Levi had to stop Asura.

Levi asked them to stay outside, since he didn’t want them to know too much about what was happening.

After he went in, he found something important. Something that might shake the nation.

This trace... This is man-made. Modern man-made sites.

Anyone could notice that something was off if they took the time to take a closer look. It was obvious that this site was man-made. Someone took the trouble to create a whole site and installed it with a ton of treasure, drugs, and techniques. Problem was, it looked modern, so the site wasn’t even ancient to begin with.

But before he could get in, the guards stopped him. "Hold it. Who goes there?"

"I am..."

Just before the divine brigadier could answer, someone ran up to him and bellowed, "Sir! It's good to see you!"

And then the man bowed before the divine brigadier fervently.

"The divine brigadier? Is that true? He's back? He's really back?"

"The divine brigadier is back!"

"He's back!"

Roars of welcome swept through The Cardinal Hall, and everyone heard it loud and clear. When they knew the divine brigadier had come back, everyone erupted into cheers.

Even the fighters in solitary training came out to welcome him.

Most of the time, only four of the twelve divine generals were on duty, but since the divine brigadier had returned, all twelve came out to see him.

But then even his daughter added, “Yeah, Father. You said you wouldn’t come back until you become the strongest man on earth! And you never go back on your promises. Look at that. My father, the strongest person on earth.”

She looked proud of her father, and Edmund was the same as well. Or even more so than his sister. After all, he had dreamed of the day where his father became the strongest man on earth. And now his dream had finally come true. His father had become the strongest.

He could imagine himself doing whatever he wanted without any fear or fervor. Edmund had to look out for a lot of people before this, worried that they might attack him once they had the advantage. But now that his father was back, he didn’t have to fear anyone anymore.

Ahem! Ahem!

The divine brigadier kept coughing as his son kept blabbering on. He started trembling, and eventually, he started to shake.

Every time they said he was the strongest man on earth, he’d have to cough. In the end, he couldn’t stop coughing. His face was red, and his tears kept streaming down his cheeks.

“What’s wrong, Father?”

“What’s wrong, divine brigadier, sir?”

Everyone quickly gathered around and asked him what was happening.

“I... Ahem... I’m fine...” He kept coughing despite saying that. Nobody had ever imagined seeing an invincible warrior like the divine brigadier coughing so violently, but now they were seeing that for themselves.

The divine brigadier nodded. "Yes. I met a powerful fighter."

His daughter was surprised that her father actually called another fighter powerful. "You got into a big battle right after you finished training? That must have been one powerful foe."

Edmund, in all his stupidity, added, "If I'm correct, you must have met Dark Emperor, right? Number one on the Divine Leaderboard?"

God f*cking dammit. Are you a seer or something? You just had to make the right guess, didn't you? You dumb brat! You idiotic boy!

The divine brigadier felt like slapping his son. Every time he was about to forget about that fight, Edmund just had to tear into it.

Chapter 2385 His Conjecture

Overwhelmed by his despondency, the divine brigadier overlooked a few key points. Now that he had some time alone, he realized a few things were off about Dark Emperor.

Nobody knew Dark Emperor's true identity, but he did. Dark Emperor used to be his junior, and she loved him. However, that love was unrequited, and the divine brigadier married Edmund's mother. Shortly after their marriage, Edmund's mother passed away in an accident.

Back then, Dark Emperor used that opening to date the divine brigadier and had his child. However, when the divine brigadier found out that Dark Emperor was the one who killed Edmund's mother, he almost killed her out of rage.

She was only spared because she was pregnant with their child back then. However, the divine brigadier exiled her and banned her from ever entering Erudia again. If she ever broke that rule, he would kill her.

Since then, he planted the seed of hatred in Dark Emperor, and she started creating an organization overseas to bolster her strength. She did all that just so she could come back to Erudia one day and go toe to toe with The Cardinal Hall. If that came to pass, she could talk to him on equal footing.

She would not stop at anything to achieve her goals, and the likes of Zoey were just her pawns. However, her plan failed, for Levi showed up and wiped her off the face of this earth.

Chapter 2386 This Trash Calls Himself Undefeatable

He's terrifying and beyond what anyone can imagine. Now I know why Dark Emperor is so powerful. It's not even the same person anymore! This guy can break the Prison of Darkness. Question is, who is he?

The more he thought, the scarier the truth was, and he realized that the gap between him and 'Dark Emperor' wasn't just an abyss. It was probably a whole universe.

The guy destroyed the Prison of Darkness when I can't even do that. Heck, not even a hundred of me could accomplish that. Hey, wait. There's another question here. How did she manage to lock someone like that up? If he was already that strong before he was locked, she would have died a thousand times through. Unless...

Unless he powered up when he was in the Prison of Darkness. Unless he was weaker than her before he was locked in there. Holy sh*t. What kind of genius is that? He went from being weaker than her to a being capable of wrecking the Prison of Darkness in such a short span of time?

This is unbelievable. I don't think I can do the same thing even if I have a whole millennium to spend. Who is that guy? Who the hell is that guy she locked up? I have to get to the bottom of this.

There was a reason he was the divine brigadier instead of anyone else. He was strong, capable, and most of all, smart. Even though he barely had any clues, he managed to make an analysis that was almost perfectly accurate.

Chapter 2387 I Will Apologize To Him

Everyone answered, "Yes, that's the guy. Levi was locked up for three years, and after he came out, he's completely out of touch with the new era."

"He was ranked a few thousand on the Provisional Leaderboard, but after he started practicing the new era's technique, he improved a lot and made his way up into the Divine Leaderboard. Dead last, though."

The divine brigadier quickly asked, "Did he admit to that himself?"

"Yes. According to him, he was locked up for three years by Dark Emperor, because his wife is Dark Emperor's disciple. I even heard that he asked his wife to cut off all ties with Dark Emperor, saying that she was being used. And he even told her Dark Emperor locked him up for three whole years."

Everyone kept talking about the past, but the divine brigadier stopped listening. At that point, he knew his guess was right. Levi was the present Dark Emperor, and the one who broke the Prison of Darkness.

He was the top fighter in the world.

And he's the one who broke Skyward Sword, most probably. Did it so he could save his wife. So they're all the same person.

It didn't take long for the divine brigadier to sort out all the mystery. Now that Levi had taken up the mask, that meant the real Dark Emperor was dead. Even though she was killed, the divine brigadier didn't feel anything at all. If anything, he felt relieved.

Nobody could believe what they just heard. The moment the divine brigadier said he wanted to apologize to Levi, everyone was petrified and shocked.

Does he want to apologize? Does the divine brigadier want to apologize to Levi? Why though?

It was an impossible thing. Why should he say sorry to Levi?

"Oh, I get it. Father's doing this because of what Dark Emperor did. If it wasn't for her, Levi wouldn't be locked up, and his wife wouldn't have been used," Edmund said. "I'm sorry, Father, but I know what's up between you and Dark Emperor. She's your junior, and you guys have a history."

He thought his father was only apologizing because of what Dark Emperor did, but his father said nothing. Although, the divine brigadier was glaring at his son.

Will you shut the f*ck up? Can't you just be quiet for once?

“Stop asking questions. Just tell me where he lives,” he demanded impatiently.

God, they are so dumb.

This was the second person who knew about his true power. Cyrus was the first. Death Fiend and the others knew he was strong, but they had no idea about the true extent of his powers. The divine brigadier, however, was obviously in the know.

“I’m here to apologize, Mr. Garrison. I did not authorize the spread of the news, but I admit that I kept my defeat a secret because of a selfish desire of mine. That’s why my stupid son thought I have defeated you and am now invincible.”

He bowed at Levi deeply.

Levi smiled. “Is that all? It’s fine. I don’t care about useless things like glory. Besides, nobody has the right to call themselves the strongest. This world is far more mysterious than you think it is. Nobody has the right to call themselves strongest just yet.”

At the same time, Zoey and the others found out about who the guests really were, and they were shocked.

After all, they thought the divine brigadier defeated Dark Emperor, and he was stronger than anyone else on the Divine Leaderboard. Not to mention he was the leader of The Cardinal Hall.

It was little wonder his daughter thought lowly of everyone here. A lot of people wanted to teach her a lesson in the first place, but once they knew her true identity, they said sorry and started buttering her up.

"For Erudia," the divine brigadier accepted the mission. Levi was doing it for Erudia and the world at large. He saw no reason to refuse.

And also it was because Levi was insanely powerful.

They hit it off immediately, and the divine brigadier's help would greatly assist Levi's plans. Before this, it would be impossible for him to ask The Cardinal Hall for help.

Edmund was a stubborn man, so he would never agree to it. Now that his father was here, it made access a lot easier. Smart guys were easy to talk to, after all. Levi could do anything he wanted with just a single call.
