Chapter 241: You look so desperate, so handsome

In the Summer Palace, Jiang Luo stands on the Xiuyi Bridge in front of the exit of Kunming Lake.

"God, if there is a miracle in this world, please let it appear now!"

Close his eyes, Jiang Luo is waiting for the so-called miracle!

In other words, she is burning out the last ray of hope in her heart.

5 minutes.....

10 minutes.....

Jiang Luo, who opened his eyes again, looked up at the sky, and muttered with regret in his eyes: "Sure enough, there is no miracle in this world!"

After speaking, he jumped and jumped from the bridge into the lake.

...

Along the embankment, people are extremely rare in the park, which is not a holiday.

Most of them are residents living nearby, and meet three or five people to relax.

There are also some uncles carrying bird cages, sitting leisurely by the lake to play with the birds, playing chess, and life is also happy!

Seeing Xing Lu walking in front and taking pictures everywhere, Qin Yu hurried two steps, "Will you bring me here?"

Xing Lu turned her back to the lake, found a suitable angle, and took a selfie with her scissors. "The Summer Palace, one of the most famous scenic spots in Shangdu, is there any problem?"

Is there a problem?

It didn't seem to be a problem, but it was different from what he thought.

I thought Xing Lu would take him to places frequented by young people.

For example, like the famous shopping plaza and snack street.

Or something like an internet celebrity punching in.

park?

Old enough to be traditional.

"I'm an old-fashioned and traditional person, now I know it's boring?"

Xing Lu took the phone and walked forward quickly, almost making her take pictures of the scenery along the way.

"Although it's a bit old-fashioned, dating in the park is still quite poetic and romantic!"

Before Qin Yu had finished speaking, Xing Lu retorted: "Who is dating you, I want to come here to take pictures and take you around by the way."

Xing Lu would not admit that after receiving the call, it took an hour to prepare.

It took more than half an hour just to choose the clothes!

Well, let's not say to death.

Apart from taking pictures, I was walking along the way, and there was basically no pause.

Soon, you can see the Xiuyi Bridge at the exit.

Xing Lu ran forward happily, "Hurry up and take pictures for me, this bridge is so beautiful!"

As he was talking, the steps stopped, and the pupils looking at the bridge narrowed, "Qin Yu...someone, someone jumped into the river."

Xing Lu ran forward and shouted at her surroundings: "Someone has jumped into the river, save them!"

When she saw the girl jump into the lake, Qin Yu also saw it.

I was speechless in my heart: Why did I encounter this kind of thing again?

The action under the feet is a bit dissatisfied.

...

A shadow passed by like the wind, and a few vigorous steps rushed onto the bridge.

Holding the fence with his hands, he jumped up and plunged into the lake like a swordfish.

"Qin Yu, Qin Yu..." Xing Lu, who was stunned, woke up, ran to the highest part of the bridge, and looked down on the fence.

But apart from the ripples that spread outward, there is not a single hair in sight.

While waiting anxiously, Xing Lu suddenly glanced at the mobile phone in her hand, "Right, call the police..."

Wow~

The lake that was about to return to calm was broken, and Qin Yu dragged the fainted girl to the shore.

"Grab your hand and push hard~"

Qin Yu, who had nowhere to borrow, could only drag the girl with his hands to make sure she would not fall off.

But Xing Lu's strength alone couldn't pull the drenched girl.

As a last resort, Qin Yu could only let her lie on the bank and let the girl stay on the water by the buoyancy of the water.

Letting go of the girl, Qin Yu slammed up the embankment with both hands.

Two or three hits went ashore, and only then did they bring the girl up.

"Lie down, let her lie down."

First put the girl flat on the ground, Qin Yu squeezed her mouth and found that there seemed to be debris in the respiratory tract.

Turn your head to the side, bring your mouth close to the ground, and use your index and middle fingers to pull out the debris.

Looking up, he found that Xing Lu Leng was at a loss. Qin Yu pointed at the girl, "Doing cardiopulmonary resuscitation! What are you doing in a daze?"

"Oh, oh!" As a flight attendant, Xing Lu also learned simple first aid measures.

Such as cardiopulmonary resuscitation, artificial respiration, etc.

After tossing for a long time, the girl finally opened her eyes again amidst the sound of coughing.

"Ahem, ahem..." The brain regained consciousness and looked at the surrounding environment.

The girl hugged her knees with dull eyes, sitting on the ground and whispering, "Why do you want to save me, why do you want to save me?"

Xing Lu looked at the girl in surprise and worry, her condition looked very bad.

Qin Yu knew more than she did.

Just now the girl jumped into the lake with her front foot, and Qin Yu jumped down with her back foot.

Should have been able to bring her up soon.

But she clearly wanted to die, and even filled her pocket with sand and stones.

The sand and stones that have absorbed moisture, plus her original weight.

When she first caught her, Qin Yu was taken by her to sink.

Moreover, the girl herself was struggling to get rid of him, and she kept shaking her head at him before she fell into a coma.

It clearly means, 'Don't save me, let me die!'

If it were not for a major blow, the heart and spirit would be traumatized.

It is impossible to be so determined and decisive when facing death.

Most people commit suicide out of impulse.

When his brain is truly aware of death, the will to survive will reoccupy the high ground.

Suppress all thoughts and emotions until the survival is successful.

But this girl was different, at the moment before she went into a coma.

Qin Yu clearly saw the relief of liberation in her eyes, without a trace of hesitation or nostalgia.

The corners of the mouth slightly raised, revealing the last smile to the world.

That smile is full of irony!

Previously, Xing Lu's yelling attracted a lot of people, and they all gathered around and pointed and discussed.

Some people took out their mobile phones and started shooting. Seeing this, Qin Yu pulled up the girl and said, "If you have something to change, I will talk about it elsewhere."

After leaving the Summer Palace, the three of them found a hotel nearby.

Two rooms were opened, one for the girl and Xing Lu, and one for Qin Yu himself.

After taking a hot bath, Qin Yu heard someone knock on the door.

Opening the door, it was Xing Lu with a bag in her hand.

"I bought it according to your size, there is only one store nearby, there is no choice."

Xing Lu handed him the bag, which contained a hoodie, a pair of loose sweatpants, and a pair of 360° sports shoes.

Only a pair of underwear is missing.

Looking back at Xing Lu, the other party helplessly said, "Nothing to sell."

With limited conditions, Brother Yu can only choose to go with the situation and go to neutral.

The previous underwear was wet, if you put it on, you will have to soak your pants shortly.

If you let someone who doesn't know it, you think what happened to him!

After getting dressed, he kicked his legs uncomfortably.

Qin Yu came to the door of another room and knocked on the door.

Xing Lu opened the door, looking at him with a complex expression, "She is Jiang Luo, and she doesn't say anything except this."

Qin Yu nodded clearly and walked into the room.

The washed Jiang Luo was sitting on the edge of the bed in clean clothes, with wet hair bowing his head and not speaking.

"Jiang Luo."

Qin Yu moved a chair and sat in front of her, "Need to help you contact your family?"

Jiang Luo's shoulders trembled suddenly, and he began to cry on his knees.

Brother Yu is stupid.

Under what circumstances, is it because the family has encountered a disaster, and I mentioned the other party's sadness?

"Um, sorry, I don't know you are..."

Qin Yu said helplessly: "If you have something to say, I will feel better in my heart."

Seeing that Jiang Luo was still crying, Qin Yu frequently turned around to ask Xing Lu for help.

He is good at teasing girls, and he is really not good at comforting girls.

Brother Yu has always been an activist!

Even if it is to comfort people, it has to be linked.

Just relying on words is a bit too pale.

Seeing his embarrassed face, Xing Lu was both worried and sad for Jiang Luo, but also a little funny.

At the same time, I think Qin Yu is a little cute.

Also very handsome!

Especially when he rushed up and jumped into the lake to save people.

Really handsome! !

Sitting next to Jiang Luo, Xing Lu glanced at him, clearly saying, 'learn more.'

Opened his hands and hugged Jiang Luo into his arms, gently touching her back and arms with his palms.

Xing Lu softly comforted, "It's okay, it will pass, everything will pass Her soft and detailed voice smoothes the fluctuations in Jiang Luo's heart, as if it really gives her strong strength. .

After a while, Jiang Luo really stopped.

Wiping tears with his sleeves, red eyes raised his head and looked at the two of them, "Thank you."

With a mouth, his emotions are a bit uncontrollable, but there is a bright smile on his face.

Qin Yu's heart clenched inexplicably, as if being cruelly held with his hands.

When I was most sad, when I was escaping from the dead.

You have to take care of her person's emotions and show her a beautiful smile to the other person.

What kind of girl is this, and what has she experienced?

Will she be so humble and want to do her best to please others?

All of a sudden, Qin Yu's heart became heavy and sad.

Chapter 242: First pan-believer

"Do you believe in miracles?"

The big boy in front of him showed a nice smile, which made Jiang Luo a little sluggish for a while.

The instinctive trend made her nod, "I believe it."

Scanning analysis system:

Jiang Luo:

Age: 25.

Height: 166cm.

Weight: 41kg.

Specialty: Super infectious power [Hint: I have a strong emotional appeal]

Face value: 86↓.

Body: 88↓.

Mood value: 45↓.

Favorability: 65↑.

Freshness: 88↓.

Miracle belief value: 22. 【Pan believers】

Analyze the data: miracles are often born in the ordinary, rescue and destruction?

At this time, Jiang Luo inexplicably trusted him a little more.

The gentle drizzle smile melted away the hard protective wall around the heart.

Reveal the true voice of the heart.

...

"Scum." Xing Lu raised his fist and knocked * the TV cabinet.

What age is it, there are still such parents in the world?

Constantly asking for the grace of birth and nurturing, just like a greedy leech attached to the body.

With a big mouth, she sucked her young life greedily.

Squeeze her supposedly youthful and bright life into such a ghostly appearance?

Is this really something that biological parents can do?

At this moment, as an orphan, Xing Lu has longed for family affection countless times.

There was a twist of relief and relaxation in my heart.

Suddenly I looked away from what I couldn't ask for.

Perhaps, the shadows and tribulations of childhood are not all bad things to her!

"Ah~" There was a sudden pain in the palm.

Raising some red fists, Xing Lu frowned, and blew on her mouth with an expression of pain.

it hurts!

Qin Yu raised his head and smiled bitterly. Are you here to be funny at this time?

Looking at Jiang Luo, who was anxious in silence, "Can you tell me what you think?"

Qin Yu asked straightforwardly, what kind of results do you want in the face of such a native family?

Holding both hands tightly together, Jiang Luo was speechless nervously.

In fact, she herself didn't know what to do.

In any case, they were also her biological parents.

Although, I have never experienced the taste of love in them.

Although, they only know how to demand!

Although I did my best, I still couldn't satisfy everyone, and only got blame and abuse.

although.....

A drop of tears fell on his wrist, Jiang Luo looked up at him with helpless eyes, "I don't know."

She is very unbelievable, why can't she always make up her mind.

At the same time very own incompetence!

If she is better, if she works harder, if she can meet everyone's requirements.

Isn't all this going to happen?

Depression, the most terrifying thing is the infinite denial of self!

When they encounter problems, they will always ask themselves in their hearts: Am I not good enough, I am not good enough?

What I did wrong is my fault, it's all my fault!

In the end, he has extreme aversion and rejection of his own existence and even his life.

I think that only by ending this can everything change.

Therefore, so many tragedies have been created!

Jiang Luo in front of him is like this, and at the same time, he is extremely inferior and lacks care.

It is also increasing the severity of her symptoms!

The mood value of 45↓ is enough to show how bad her mental condition is.

But even in this situation, she is still scrupulous, considering the feelings of others.

Qin Yu really feels sorry for this girl, she deserves to be treated better!

Even if she has no faith, Qin Yu will help her.

Isn't it just to satisfy everyone, let Jiang Luo put down the burden in his heart, and live for himself thoroughly!

simple.

...

Stopped a taxi at the entrance of the hotel, and Qin Yu first asked him to go to the Aixia store.

Before his phone fell into the water, he would have to buy a new one.

Even if it doesn't fall, the water-injecting machine will definitely not be used.

Qin Yu is not distressed about the money, the only worry is "The Choice of Destiny" on the phone.

Aixia's latest Mate40RS, unit price: 11,999 yuan.

Whether it's the design that invites Porsche to cross-border cooperation, or the configuration and manipulation.

At present, they are all top-notch.

The material is nano-crystalline ceramics, 88° super curved ring screen.

Self-developed Kirin 9000 5G SoC chip, 5nm manufacturing process.

Five-shot rear lens, with a 50-megapixel super-sensing camera and a 3D deep-sensing camera.

And with 3x optical zoom, 12 million pixel telephoto lens.

Use this, relying on the technique of Yu Ge [Portrait Photographer].

Record beautiful moments anytime, anywhere.

Imagine parking the car on the top of the mountain, the little anchor wearing a cheongsam that splits under his arm, sitting on the front cover of the car and posing in various poses, with the skirt floating in the wind.

Click~

It's very nice!

"That's it, two."

Disassemble the machine and turn it on.

See "The Choice of Destiny" on the screen 'brought by the original factory'.

Qin Yu's only worry was also let go.

Card replacement, card insertion, machine inspection!

Electronic payment, done!

"Don't take this one away, Jiang Luo."

Asking Jiang Luo to come over, Qin Yu pointed to the new phone and said, "Your... Don't refuse, I will be fine if I have money in the future, but now you have to have a mobile phone."

Jiang Luo was grateful and a little caught off guard. No one had ever treated her so well.

Suddenly encountering such a situation, she was a little at a loss.

Ask the staff to help Jiang Luo get familiar with the operation, make up the card and debug the machine.

Qin Yu swiped the screen, opened WeChat and tapped twice.

Ding!

Xing Lu's mobile phone rang, and she picked it up to see the transfer information.

Qin Yu transferred 10,000 yuan to her!

"What are you doing?" Xing Lu looked at him with a ugly face, because he wanted to buy himself with money.

Qin Yu smiled and said earnestly: "It's agreed that you will accompany me to play, of course you can't let you spend money."

Before his mobile phone was dropped, Xing Lu spent money to open a house and buy clothes.

Xing Lu's face improved a little, "That wouldn't be enough."

"Invite us to a big meal tonight."

Since this is the case, there is no problem.

After Jiangluo's procedures were completed, the card was loaded into the mobile phone, and the three of them went out and returned to the city center with a car.

Lingling~

The call was made by Jiang Luo's boyfriend, "What are you doing without answering many calls?"

The voice on the opposite side was almost indistinguishable from howl, clearly in the ears of Qin Yu and Xing Lu.

"And the money you transferred to me, what do you mean?" These words were rather gentle.

Xing Lu grabbed the phone, "Go to hell! Scumbag."

"From now on Jiang Luo has nothing to do with you anymore. She has a better man to love. Can you hear me clearly?"

"You? Who? I..." Dududu, the phone was hung up by Xing Lu.

The number is directly pulled into the blacklist.

Looking back at Jiang Luo, who was stunned and obviously confused.

Xing Lu put her arms around her and leaned on her shoulders.

"Don't waste time for such a man. My sister will introduce you to a better one. He is not worth it!"

Although Xing Lu's style is a bit domineering, Qin Yu agrees with what she said.

Qin Yu didn't believe that Jiang Luo didn't show any signs before choosing to jump into the lake.

Her social accounts, Weibo, Moments, Penguin.

There will definitely be some negative complaints, this is the catharsis way of biological survival will to relieve stress by itself.

Want to seek some kind of attention, but also to send the last signal to the outside world!

"Help me, who will help me!"

Every seemingly negative catharsis is actually a cry for help.

As the closest to her, she should have depended on each other, people who can rely on.

He didn't even notice any clues.

Even Qin Yu could guess that he might have made a joke or complained to Jiang Luo impatiently.

If Jiang Luo was standing on the edge of the cliff at that time, what he did was undoubtedly pushing her hard.

Let her completely lose her life, she just wants to end everything with the absurd way of ending her own life.

Looking at Jiang Luo who leaned on Xing Lu's shoulder, sleeping while sobbing.

Qin Yu had mixed feelings in his heart, "Is it so decisive because I lost all hope?"

Finding that Jiang Luo was asleep, Xing Lu glanced at him and asked, "Is your watch okay?"

Qin Yu shook his wrist casually and found that there was no trace of water on the dial.

The pointer is still moving, and the tone is calm; "It's okay, this watch is waterproof."

Brother Yu really didn't care.

Don't say it's not broken, it doesn't matter if it's really broken.

Just take it for repairs, just a watch and decorative consumables.

What's worth paying attention to.

The last time the Patek Philippe had a black starry sky, he didn't take it off and threw it to the side of the bridge, so he jumped into the river to save people.

In fact, that watch is much more expensive than the white diamond and sapphire in your hand!

Chapter 243: priceless? Just not enough

Shimen is more than 300 miles away.

When Rolls-Royce Gust drove into Shimen City, it was almost noon.

Jiang Luo in the co-pilot was sitting on pins and needles.

The closer you are to home, the more disturbed you are.

She didn't know what kind of attitude she should use to face her parents and younger brother.

Xing Lu moved forward and put her hand on her shoulder, "Don't think about it, Qin Yu said it will be resolved."

"Mr. Qin." Jiang Luo turned around, looking at him with hesitation in gratitude.

In the past, Jiang Luo used himself as his spiritual pillar, and that pillar had collapsed.

Broken to the ground.

Now, Jiang Luo, who has gained a 'new' life, is the only pillar in his life.

This nascent pillar is still very fragile and cannot withstand any bumps and blows.

Just like Jiang Luo's heart at this time.

If he pulls away, Jiang Luo will be plunged into darkness completely.

Maybe she will go crazy just now.

Seeing that his mood is 45-, Qin Yu also understands this.

Fortunately, he didn't mean to let it go.

As long as it can be solved with money, it is not a problem for him!

"Don't worry." Giving her a firm look, the car slowly pulled over and stopped.

Jiang Luo's home is an old community.

Because of disrepair for a long time, the exterior wall fell off, and it looked very shabby with spots.

There is no elevator in the old building, and the lights in the corridors of the second and third floors are broken.

It can be seen that her family environment is not very good.

It is not difficult to understand why family members always want to take it from her.

Maybe in their thinking.

In Jiangluo, who can stay in the upper capital, making money is a very simple matter.

East house on the fifth floor.

With the support of Qin Yu's eyes, Jiang Luo raised his hand and knocked on the door.

"Who?" I could hear the yelling inside through the door.

Jiang Luo responded in a depressed mood: "It's me... Mom."

"Why are you back? Don't you still have to work?" The iron door opened, and Jiang Ma's expression was obviously taken aback as he looked at Qin Yu and Xing Lu standing behind Jiang Luo.

This is, what happened outside?

"You dead child, did you cause something outside?" Jiang Ma looked coldly and raised her hand to fight.

Jiang Luo instinctively raised his hand to block in front of him, and his body flashed back in fear.

Snapped!

Grasping her wrist, Qin Yu looked at her blankly, "Let's go in and say it."

Seeing his stern eyes, Jiang's mother was a little scared and broke away her arms, reluctantly said: "Come in!"

...

Ten minutes later, it became clear that it was not Jiang Luo who had caused the trouble and brought him home.

Jiang Ma finally showed a smirk on her face, "I said that our Luo Luo is a good boy, how could it be troublesome.

Since she ignored the losses, Jiang Ma's attitude immediately became high-profile, "Then you are here today?"

Jiang Luo and Xing Lu turned their eyes to Qin Yu at the same time, indicating that he was the principal.

The decoration in the room and the simple conversation before gave Qin Yu a preliminary judgment about Jiang's mother and their family's situation.

However, he won't talk to Jiang Ma directly now.

This family is not a leech like her, and there are two other leeches who also got the market.

"When will Jiang Luo's father and brother come back, it's better to talk together in front of you."

Seeing him not letting go, Jiang Ma responded impatiently: "You don't say anything, how can I call someone back?"

"I'm here to talk about Jiang Luo's sales contract!" Qin Yu opened her mouth and stunned Jiang Ma's chin.

What, a deed?

But without waiting for her to get angry, she poured a basin of cold water, and her heart was as comfortable as a cold bath in the hot summer.

"I can give you a sum of money, more than enough to buy a house."

Jiang Ma's eyes were getting brighter, and she suddenly turned around, "Mobile phone, where is my phone?"

...

At midday, the family appeared neatly in the living room.

Dad Jiang pulled a backrest chair and sat on it backwards, putting his hands on the back of the chair, posing a grandiose look, "Who do you want my daughter, who are you?"

Jiang Luo stayed at home after graduation, waiting to chew the old brother every day, spitting out bubble gum with his mouth crooked.

From time to time, he glanced at Jiang Luo's gaze, with a bit of disgust and disgust.

It's as if what I saw was not my own sister, but something annoying and disgusting!

As for Jiang Ma, two big eyeballs stared at Qin Yu directly.

Just wait for him to say from his mouth, how much money can he give?

Seeing the faces of this family of three, Qin Yu suddenly felt that there was nothing wrong with them.

It was Jiang Luo who was wrong, she made the wrong place.

As long as she can learn half from these three people...

No, if you learn one-tenth of selfishness, you will not fall to the point where you want to commit suicide by jumping into the river!

Faced with Jiang Dad's question, Qin Yu's answer was simple, "I'm Jiang Luo's boss, you don't need to know about the others."

"Hey, how do you...speak!" Jiang Tao's voice, who was accustomed to playing muddy, was getting smaller and smaller when he met Qin Yu's gaze.

In the end, he turned his head and dared not look at him again, and whistled in a flustered manner to cover up his timidity.

Qin Yu didn't plan to waste more time, seeing him as wise.

Staying here for an extra second, he felt uncomfortable!

"Jiang Luo's current salary is 10,000 yuan, but you can get rid of food, drink, and transportation expenses. If you can leave half of it every month, that's the limit."

"Every month is five thousand, ten years is six hundred thousand, by then she is 35, she must be married."

"Take Shimen's bride price, 50,000 to 100,000, I will count 200,000 for you."

"Miscellaneous things together, 1 million." Qin Yu raised a finger and stared at Dad Jiang intently, "From now on, Jiang Luo has nothing to do with you!"

Gudong.

Dad Jiang couldn't help swallowing his smoke, his eyes turned green!

One million, he has never seen one million in his life.

"You mean cash?"

"Cash, go out to the bank, you have to take out all of it, or transfer to the card, it's up to you!"

"I..." Dad Jiang was about to get up holding the chair with both hands, obviously agreeing.

"and many more."

Jiang Tao put his hand on Dad Jiang's shoulder and pressed him back, "I want to take my sister away for 1 million. What do you think of as my sister?"

Qin Yu looked at him amusedly and sarcastically, "I should ask about this. What do you think of her?"

"Naturally it is my sister." Jiang Tao said confidently: "It's impossible to take away my sister with 1 million!"

Jiang Ma suddenly got up to respond, "Unless you add more money."

Dad Jiang also reacted, and the opportunity was only once, and they had nowhere to find another daughter.

"Add money, you must add money!"

Seeing the greedy faces of the three, Qin Yu smiled lightly: "Then you guys are going to talk about it, how much?"

"Two hundred..." Dad Jiang opened his mouth and wanted two million.

His son Jiang Tao is faster than him, "Five million."

The lion opened his mouth, this is to eat all at once.

Hao Heng raised his hand, and Jiang Tao confidently said, "If you don't have five million, no one should want to take my sister away."

Jiang Luo couldn't sit still, "You guys, are you stealing money?"

Dad Jiang suddenly turned around and scolded; "Sit down, is this for you to speak?"

"Five million?" Qin Yu nodded thoughtfully, as if to agree.

The three were overjoyed, but suddenly regretted it!

It's hard to come across such a triumphant man. Seeing that he is so rich, is 5 million less?

Jiang Tao wanted to say something more, but Qin Yu suddenly stood up.

"If this is the case, let's go to lawsuits."

"Originally, I didn't want Jiang Luo to bear the reputation of unfilial piety, so I chose to use money to settle!"

"Since you are so greedy, what should we do?"

"The cost of upbringing from childhood, the energy and time invested, these can be clarified."

Qin Yu looked at the three people calmly, "At that time, if the court says five million, I will definitely give it."

Jiang Dad Jiang Ma and Jiang Tao are dumbfounded.

This is different from what they thought.

Upbringing?

Since childhood, Jiangluo has basically not been raised by his side. When he was young, he was kept in his hometown for the elderly to raise.

After going to junior high school when they are older, they basically live on campus.

During the holidays, she has to work part-time to earn tuition fees. How much money can be really spent on her?

Jiang Ma yelled with a distorted face: "When a lawsuit is filed, it is a lawsuit. I gave birth to her. I have to see how the judge decides and how much it is worth!"

"The grace of childbirth is priceless. It is about being born and raised, and..."

Qin Yu clicked on the glass coffee table with his finger, and said ironically and arrogantly: "In this world, nothing is truly priceless."

The so-called pricelessness is just not enough chips!

Chapter 244: The correct way to open?

"Let's go!"

Qin Yu got up and was about to leave, making it clear that he didn't want to talk any more.

Seeing him come true, the family of three panicked.

"Wait, you add more!"

Dad Jiang opened his arms in front of him, obviously worried that the benefits of getting it would fly away, and he was unwilling to do so!

Qin Yu thought for a while, and smiled wildly, "Why, how about 900,000?"

Jiang Tao shouted angrily: "You... just clearly said it was one million."

Qin Yu's face sank, "Next time, I will only pay 800,000 yuan."

"Transaction, 900,000 yuan, now give the money." Jiang Ma made a final decision, and then pulled Jiang Dad and Jiang Tao aside.

The three of them whispered and exchanged opinions, and Qin Yu was not in a hurry.

Seeing Jiang Luo's expression low and sad, Qin Yu winked at Xing Lu, "It's better to wait in the car."

Xing Lu didn't want to continue listening, she was about to be sickened and vomited!

"Go, let's go down and wait." Xing Lu took Jiang Luo away.

After a while, the three of the Jiang family came back, "Give the money now and you will take it away."

Qin Yu shook his head, "It's not that simple."

Taking out the prepared contract and the notarized certificate from his pocket, Qin Yu smiled and raised his hand, "Say no proof, sign it!"

...

Two hours later, Qin Yu and Jiang's three stood in front of the bank.

The contract is signed and the notarization is done.

It states that Jiang Dad and Jiang Ma, as well as Jiang Tao, voluntarily gave up their relationship with Jiang Luo.

If there is entanglement, harassment, request, etc. in the future.

Jiang Ma, Jiang Dad, and Jiang Tao each have to pay one million in compensation.

That's right, everyone compensates one million.

Even with the double guarantee of contract and notarization, Qin Yu still feels unreliable!

For people who are greedy for money, nothing is more restrictive than losing money.

Pay with one hand and deliver with the other (notarial certificate).

After getting the things, the three of them stared at the numbers on the bank deposits with joy.

Qin Yu was full of disdain.

In the future, they will regret this decision for life!

If they have a future.

"Drive, let's go back."

Back on the Rolls-Royce Ghost, in the surprised and regretful eyes of the Jiang family.

Jiang Luo stayed away from the world she knew well, and got rid of the cage that imprisoned inner freedom.

"I've booked your ticket for you, and I will leave tomorrow. There will be someone picking you up at the airport."

Qin Yu forwarded the ticket collection code to Jiang Luo and told her the specific time, the terminal building.

Who is the opposite person and what is her specific job.

Qin Yu arranged for her to go to Lixin Investment as the front desk, and it was best for her to change the environment at this time.

Looking at the city behind me, the sky is always gloomy, with a little more brilliant color.

Jiang Luo burst into tears, "Thank you, thank you."

[Hint 2: Those who wear this title have a strong influence and attractiveness to those who believe in miracles. 】

[Hint 3: The power of miracles is everywhere! 】

After reading it several times, Qin Yu has a good memory.

It is found that the [believer] in Tip Two has become a [believer].

[Strong influence and attractiveness] becomes [Extremely powerful influence and attractiveness].

On the contrary, the effect of [Thief MAX] has many changes and improvements.

[Reminder: This title has unique/active skills and a cooldown of 360 hours. 】

[Hint 2: Using this skill will force the target to increase the target's 30 points of constant favorability. 】

[Tip 3: This can only be used once for the same target. 】

The cooling time is reduced from 720 hours to half, only 360 hours.

Increase the target's constant favorability value from the original 20 points to 30 points.

Qin Yu has never used the 'stealing heart' effect attached to this title.

Seeing that Xing Lu is still hovering at 60 points.

Qin Yu said silently, 'Choose a target, confirm. '

In his line of sight, Xing Lu's favorability score on the data was one value, and instantly jumped from 62 to 92 points.

Seeing that Xing Lu gave herself a weird look, Qin Yu just pretended not to notice anything.

He wants to see what changes Xing Lu will make at 92 points of favorability?

There is one last reward in front of me, but it is related to "The Choice of Destiny".

Aturing Genesis is nothing magical.

It is the memory of [Aturing], his memory analysis of reality and virtual technology.

It means that the entire memory is divided into twenty parts, and now Qin Yu already owns one-tenth.

The world in "The Choice of Destiny" will become more perfect as a result.

NPC's intelligence and worldview will also become stronger.

"If you can gather twenty memories, will you be able to open this game to the public?"

Qin Yu was a little excited when he thought of this, if that was the case.

Wouldn't he be the [father of reality and virtual technology] in his own world?

Xu Mingyu doesn't care, but mainly wants to make a contribution to the technological breakthrough of mankind.

By the way, just the right amount of money is not too much, right?

After all, the game is so well done, so realistic, and it's a technological breakthrough.

If it doesn't happen to be bad money, netizens and game enthusiasts will have to blush!

Are you worthy of BAT with such a conscience?

The appearance of [Mad Believers] not only gave Qin Yu a generous reward.

At the same time, there are up to 111 million experience points!

This made Qin Yu think, is this the correct way to open the system for upgrading?

So, he will be a benevolent communicator in the future?

Sprinkle love and care into the world?

From the little love before, it has developed into fraternity, big love?

Show the charm of miracles to the world and develop believers.

At the same time, I can get more rewards and benefits...

"Why is it a bit like a god-stick development?" Qin Yu murmured like a mosquito, choosing to open the Kylin R&D assistant.

The picture in front of me turned into a transparent frame with a sense of science fiction, and inside it was a formula that was constantly scrolling.

In the center of the deepening is a large line: In the technical analysis of Kuafu lithium battery pack, the current progress is 67%...

Originally Qin Yu thought that he had already mastered the technology on the drawings.

But after accidentally analyzing the Dragon 1 chip with the help of Kirin R&D assistant.

He found that his understanding of technology deepened to a level.

If Qin Yu used to swallow jujubes, he rudely incorporates relevant knowledge into his memory.

Now it's time to chew slowly and savor the details bit by bit.

The technology used in the chip, the meaning of its existence, and what role does it play!

Is there a better choice, and how to optimize...

This includes the technical reverse deduction of the dragon chip, the future development and R&D direction.

All these Qin Yu knew well.

According to the current analysis progress of Kuafu lithium battery pack, it can be completed before the battery factory is officially put into production.

Chapter 245: Serious people who go to the hotel

It was early in the morning when I returned, and the nightlife in the metropolis had just begun.

The long-term stress in my heart was relieved, and after another busy day, the three of them were a little hungry.

"Let's have some barbecue on the side of the road."

After a day of running, I'm not in the mood to go to a special store, a roadside barbecue stall.

Ordered two barbecues, fried shrimp tails and clams, and Qin Yu ordered two more bottles of beer to drink alone.

Xing Lu stopped the waiter, "I want three bottles of beer."

Jiang Luo smiled embarrassedly at Qin Yu, and stretched out four fingers, "Four bottles."

The driver sitting next to him smiled as a spectator.

I don't have to drink wine, but the two thousand yuan red envelope is very comfortable!

This all-inclusive trip cost a net 2000 extra.

There is also a normal salary, what does it matter if you drink or not.

"Cheers!"

Jiang Luo raised the cup and dried it directly.

It's not an ordinary small cup, but the kind of big cup used to drink draft beer.

One cup is one bottle, it's dry!

"Lolo, did you drink too fast?"

Xing Lu knew why she was so happy, but did she drink too fast?

Wiping his mouth with the back of his hand, Jiang Luo's gray eyes lit up, "It's okay, Sister Lulu, let me indulge today!"

"Okay, cheers to indulgence!" Qin Yu plans to accompany her to indulge with the waiter.

...

"Hiccup~ I can still drink... I can drink!" Jiang Luo hummed lying on the table.

The waiter just brought a piece of wine up here, and her forehead smashed on the table.

drunk!

Looking at the half-open beer, Qin Yu and the waiter looked at each other.

The driver got up and said, "Shao Qin, or send Ms. Jiang Luo to the car first, and be afraid of catching a cold when the cold wind blows!"

Qin Yu nodded and said, "Okay, I'll come."

Jiang Luo, who held his face like a burning cloud, put her on the co-pilot.

The driver said that he was watching here, and he would just ask the waiter to deliver him a fried rice.

Back on the table, Qin Yu asked the waiter to move two stools.

Add another part of what you asked for before, and treat it as a small stove for the driver's master.

"Then...is the wine still open?" The screwdriver in the waiter's hand was still on the mouth of the bottle.

Xing Lu suddenly said: "Go, I'll drink with you!"

When the intently waiter heard her say this, he immediately became displeased.

This woman is uneasy at first sight, why is it not me who looks good?

"Why don't you open it yourself, I will leave the bottle." The waiter left unhappy.

The air is full of sour smell, and I can't wait any longer.

Brother Yu hasn't reacted to what's going on, why is he suddenly carrying the burden?

"The waiter fell in love with you, how about it, do you want me to introduce you?"

"Do I need you to teach?"

Holding the bottle, Brother Yu said maliciously: "Don't get drunk."

Xing Lu looked away unnaturally, "What about being drunk, do you care about me?"

"I can't control it. I'm afraid that some people will get drunk and I'll be too lazy to let it go."

Qin Yu rubbed his chin, showing an expression of embarrassment, "This is very difficult."

Seeing him look like a stinky fart, Xing Lu spit out: "Don't be narcissistic, you are not the only handsome guy in this world."

"So, you admit that I'm handsome?"

"Yes, yes, you are a handsome guy, comparable to Peng Yuyan."

While talking, Xing Lu couldn't help laughing, "I have never seen anyone more narcissistic than you."

"This is not called narcissism, it's self-confidence!"

Qin Yu said with a stern face: "You have to be famous as soon as possible. Handsome is handsome, there is nothing I dare to admit."

Xing Lu held up the cup speechlessly, bang!

"Drink the bar!"

Tons of tons, Yu Ge directly dried the bottle.

Seeing his provocative and playful eyes, Xing Lu held up the cup without admitting defeat.

"Ahem~"

Halfway through the drink, she couldn't help but cough.

"If you can't drink, don't behave, eat a la carte!"

Putting the chopsticks and crayfish to her, Qin Yu ate the peanuts in front of him.

Drinking without peanuts is soulless.

Seeing the shelled shrimp tails on the plate, Xing Lu asked jokingly: "Do you do the same to your girlfriend?"

At Qin Yu's questioning gaze, "Eating crayfish, shouldn't it be your boyfriend who peeled the shell?"

Qin Yu threw a peanut into his mouth and chewed, "I haven't heard of handsome Gothic? Women have always stripped me to eat. Would you like to try it?"

Seeing his arrogant appearance, Xing Lu was so angry that she said, "Then have you heard of the privilege of beautiful women?"

Qin Yu looked back and forth in a panic, "beauties? Where...where are there beauties?"

"Qin Yu." Xing Lu stood up angrily and annoyed, reaching out to hit him.

The wrist was grabbed, and then she was pulled to Qin Yu's side, "Try it, you will get used to it."

The warm moisture from the ear pinna made her whole body itchy, and Xing Lu's hands moved involuntarily.

"Open your mouth!" He stared at him fiercely, but most of the lobster peeled in his hand entered Qin Yu's mouth.

After chewing carefully, Qin Yu shook his head and said, "Fragrant, this shrimp tail is really good. I will take two packs later."

Xing Lu raised her eyebrows, and said with a cold face, "Why, you still want me to go home and strip it for you?"

I don't know what the * is it?

Why did he suddenly peel off the shrimp tails...but why is it sweet in my heart!

What's wrong with this * sweetness?

Without hearing Qin Yu's answer for a long time, Xing Lu looked up curiously.

Seeing his quirky smiley face, I suddenly remembered what he had just said.

Come back home! !

"Don't get me wrong, I mean to go back to the hotel... No, go to the hotel where you stayed."

"Bah, baah, I'm going home, you go to the hotel!"

Xing Lu finally explained clearly, the shrimp tail in her hand was also peeled off.

He habitually brought the shrimp tails to his mouth, his fingers were suddenly bitten by his teeth, rubbed gently and left.

Are you being molested? ? ?

Xing Lu was full of question marks.

Looking at Qin Yu's indifferent look again, it was like an accidental touch.

Just when she wondered if she was thinking too much, a smile appeared in the corner of Qin Yu's eyes.

"Qin Yu, you...excessive."

Xing Lu was embarrassed and threw the shrimp tails on the plate, "No more peeling."

He smiled and took a pair of gloves, "This shrimp tail is really fragrant, it's a pity that no one will eat it after peeling it off."

Xing Lu turned to look at him, and said as if to bite, "Who said no one would eat it, give it to me."

He opened his mouth and bit at the shrimp tail in his hand.

"Hey, my finger."

"Bite you to death."

The sour smell in the air floated into the shop, and the waiter in front of the glass window shook his head and ran into the shop.

Ooh~

Who can stand this grievance so much that life can't get through.

...

A piece of wine was emptied, and Qin Yu supported Xing Lu into the car with a face as usual.

The driver in the cab quickly got out of the car and opened the door, "Qin Shao, where are we going next?"

According to his idea, this kind of start must be to go to the hotel.

"Don't go to the hotel, go home, just where the car is this morning."

In the middle of the night, there are some hotels that do not go back to.

No serious people go to the hotel, go home, go home!

Rolls-Royce Gust stopped at the door of the building, Qin Yu hugged Xing Lu, and the driver helped Jiang Luo who had just become sober.

"Okay, go back! I have a hard time today."

"This is what I should do, Qin Shao, then I will go back first."

Back down and bow, and the driver gently brought the door when he went out.

While standing in the corridor waiting for the elevator, the driver glanced enviously at the closed door, young, so good!

...

The next day, Xing Lu rubbed her sore and swollen head and sat up.

Then he fell back to the bed in an instant, no, his head hurts too much.

what!

what is this?

I noticed something long and hard behind my head.

Xing Lu curiously touched her hand, tilted her head to look...

"Woo." Covering his mouth with his hand, he screamed back, Xing Lu looked at the man next to him with a complex expression.

The sunlight in the gap between the curtains just shone on his side face.

With the carved three-dimensional lines, the pores on the face are even more exaggerated than women.

Only by sticking it up can you see the presence of pores, 'this skin is too good, isn't it? '

Healthy wheat skin is bathed in the sun, as if covered with a layer of golden luster.

Xing Lu whispered idiotically: "He is really handsome!"

Qin Yu, who was still asleep just now, opened his eyes and asked with a smile, "What's so handsome?"

"You, all right!"

Although Xing Lu was a little shy, she still put on a nonchalant expression.

After getting out of the bed wrapped in sheets, Xing Lu planned to wash it first.

As for what the situation is now, it's not too late to talk about it later!

Anyway, what should have happened has already happened.

Besides, I took the initiative to ask him for a drink last night and got drunk.

Isn't it the initiative to give him a chance?

Chapter 246: Ye Jinlan

Like is like, Xing Lu still has this courage.

When the two came out of the bedroom, Jiang Luo had already cooked breakfast in the kitchen.

"Sister Xing Lu, Brother Qin Yu, try my craft!"

Jiang Luo made hot and dry noodles. Xing Lu remembered that there was no noodles at home, "Where did you find the noodles?"

"I went out in the morning to buy, and there were eggs and side dishes."

The peeled eggs are placed in a small bowl, and the two refreshing side dishes make the index finger move.

Seeing the two eating noodles feastingly, Jiang Luo smiled contentedly.

She knew that her abilities were limited, and there was nothing to help Qin Yu.

Sister Xing Lu is so beautiful, noble and elegant!

Standing in front of her, Jiang Luo would feel embarrassed and embarrassed.

Fortunately, she has had the experience of cooking by herself since she was a child.

In order to save money when he grows up, he has practiced a good cooking skill.

This breakfast is the only thing she can do.

It may be insignificant to them, but it contains her gratitude and heart.

Now, seeing the two eating so happily, Jiang Luo was also happy.

"Brother Qin Yu, if it is not enough, there is still in the pot!"

As soon as Jiang Luo finished speaking, Qin Yu handed her the empty bowl, "One more bowl, thank you!"

Cook the noodles and adjust the sauce!

Whether this bowl of noodles is delicious or not, the secret lies in the sauce.

The ingredients Jiangluo prepared were very rich, and the noodles tasted spicy and delicious, and one bowl was not enough!

After eating three bowls in a row, Qin Yu felt full.

Another glass of freshly squeezed juice, comfortable!

Glancing at the time, Qin Yu glanced at Luo Luo who was packing up the dishes and chopsticks, "Luo Luo, don't clean up, the plane will be delayed if it is delayed."

"Ah, let me wash it quickly." Jiang Luo speeded up the movement in his hands.

Xing Lu went up and grabbed the loofah brush in her hand, "I'm here, don't delay and hurry up, hurry up and clean it up."

Jiang Luo robbed it a few times but didn't grab it, so he could only give up!

Time is too late.

Dongxi Jiangluo got up in the morning and packed it up.

Helping her carry the suitcase, Qin Yu personally took her to the door.

"When you get there, work hard. The accommodation has been arranged. It's near the company."

Looking back at him, Jiang Luo nodded with red eyes, "Well, thank you Qin Yu, I must work hard."

When he left Shimen, in Jiang Luo's heart, his life belonged to him.

As long as Qin Yu said, let her do anything!

It's a pity that he is not beautiful enough to be worthy of him.

Jiang Luo decided to go to the company, study hard, and work hard to repay Qin Yu's kindness.

Even if there is no salary in this life, as long as there is a stutter, you will not die from starvation!

She Jiang Luo would work with Qin Yu till the end, without any regrets.

Watching the car go away, Qin Yu sincerely hopes that she will have a bright future.

At the same time, live your own little life well.

Starting today, she can finally live for herself wholeheartedly.

Qin Yu believes that her future is infinitely exciting, and he is looking forward to witnessing this moment with his own eyes.

...

"Brother Yu, the Ye family is settled. Besides, time will definitely speed up."

Qin Yu was surprised: "Will the Ye Family come forward?"

"You too underestimate the Ye family, just say hello!"

"Mouse is now a hitman, Ye Jiazhi said he should choose whatever he wants!"

After Li Xiao finished speaking, he couldn't help but shook his head and smiled bitterly. In this arrogant tone...

Comfortable!

Previously, Xu Hao was there, but he did not suffer a run from the local yamen.

The answers to the two plots of land that I fancy are both, foreign companies are already in talks, and they can't give it.

Xu Hao is very angry!

But the other party is just delicious and good treatment to coax you.

Recognize beaten confession and never retort.

Land...No!

Xu Hao has no temper, so he can only say that he wants to understand the inside story first.

The other party didn't let it go, just one sentence: I'm talking, it's settled!

After receiving the call from Li Xiao, Xu Hao exhaled fiercely, "I really want to see it. Who will decide with me now."

The fox faked tiger's power, and he was talking about Xu Hao's current state.

Pulling the Ye family's banner, Xu Hao first sent someone to send in the details of the previous two pieces of land.

This is not over yet.

He has to go through all the land that has potential and meets the conditions around the abandoned city.

"You don't know, mice look at people in this way now, don't have to look straight."

Li Xiao tilted his head back and turned his head exaggeratedly with his nostrils facing the front.

Qin Yu picked up the tea amused and said, "Is it such an exaggeration?"

Li Xiao's expression returned to normal, and he nodded firmly: "It's just such an exaggeration."

Yang Chengjun sat alone on the tukang beside the wall, looking drowsy and lazy.

This is a tea room opened in a courtyard house. Qin Yu, Li Xiao, and Yang Chengjun are here not only for tea.

They were still waiting for Cheng Yaojin and Ye Jinlan, who only knew his name but didn't see him.

"Shi Lang Cheng, this is it."

The door curtain was opened, and Cheng Yaojin came first: "The traffic in Shangdu is really a headache. Sorry, I'm late."

The two nodded in response.

All eyes were on the woman following him.

"Introduce you, Ye Family, Miss Ye Jinlan." After Cheng Yaojin introduced, he put on a look waiting for a good show.

Xiuya and exquisite!

When Qin Yu sees a woman, he always pays attention to the dress of the other person.

But today is different, Ye Jinlan came in.

The scholarly elegance radiating from the inside to the outside makes it hard to care about anything else.

Whether it is appearance, dress, dress up.

For her, they are nothing but embellishments to set off her own temperament, not important at all.

There are poems and books in his belly, and his home is also fragrant. These two poems are only appropriate to describe Ye Jinlan.

Qin Yu retracted his appreciative gaze, and his expression returned to calm.

Looking at Li Xiao again, he stared at each other intently like a goose.

Looking at Yang Chengjun on the hot kang, this girl seems to be asleep!

Kicked him calmly, Qin Yu smiled and stretched out his hand, "Miss Ye, meet for the first time, Qin Yu."

Ye Jinlan's finger touched him lightly, and then she retracted it.

"Hello, Li Xiao." Li Xiao's expression also returned to calm, but the look at her was a little weird.

He was also the first time he saw such a temperamental woman, surprise is inevitable.

Cheng Yaojin was a little surprised. Qin Yu could wake up from Ye Jinlan's temperament so quickly.

You know, when I first saw her, I stood blankly for several minutes.

Until Ye Jinlan frowned unhappy and said, "When do you want to see?"

Cheng Yaojin was completely awake.

Now when I think back to how he was dumb, a strong sense of shame will rise in Cheng Yaojin's heart.

What a shame.

Surprise is surprised, but business matters.

"Chengjun, Junzi." Li Xiao patted Yang Chengjun who was asleep, and finally called him.

Seeing the two more people in the room, Yang Chengjun nodded casually.

Sitting peacefully in his position.

What temperament goddess has nothing to do with him.

The old man had already confessed before he came, that the Ye family's women were incompatible with their Yang family's characters, and they were guilty!

If you can talk less if you don't talk, come back as soon as you are done.

Furthermore, compared to this kind of family daughter.

Brother Jun still prefers the 857 in the nightclub.

Obedient, sensible, and varied!

Let her go east and go east go west and go west.

The most important thing is that there is no burden, just have fun.

Brother Jun likes this when he spends money on music.

Each seated, Cheng Yaojin said immediately: "No problem, let's get the business done first?"

Li Xiao nodded and replied: "No problem, I will sign on Xu's side!"

While speaking, Li Xiao handed over a notarized certificate prepared by Xu's family to the other party.

After Cheng Yaojin watched it, he passed it over to Ye Jinlan.

He waited until the other person finished reading and nodded before he put the file away.

"Lixin, Flamingo, and myself, are all represented by me."

Qin Yu also showed two fair documents to the other party, saying that he could call the shots.

In fact, anyone who is smart can see it.

Whether it is foreign investment Flamingo, or Lixin Investment.

It's just a superficial camouflage.

Besides Qin Yu, who else actually controls the person!

Therefore, Cheng Yaojin and Ye Jinlan were not surprised by this.

To confirm the authenticity of the document again, Cheng Yaojin also handed it to Ye Jinlan.

After the other party has read and confirmed, he nodded.

Then put things in the leather bag at your feet, the whole process behaves very naturally.

Naturally, it feels something is wrong!

It was as if Cheng Yaojin was not here to talk about business, but specifically to help Ye Jinlan as an assistant.

It was just a senior assistant with the prominent title of Cheng's elder and young assistant.

Chapter 247: My favorite

After signing the contract, celebration is a must.

The five moved to the arm room, and the food was served one after another.

Two bottles of Maotai were placed on the table, and Ye Jinlan frowned unconsciously.

Cheng Yaojin didn't see it.

Otherwise, he would never take the initiative to get wine.

I also poured a glass for Ye Jinlan!

As the host, Cheng Yaojin stood up and said: "Cheers for our cooperation."

The others stood up in cooperation, only Ye Jinlan didn't move, "I don't drink!"

A cold sentence, without the slightest apology or explanation.

In her opinion, whether to drink or not is her own choice.

There is no need to be sorry for this kind of thing, or to explain anything.

...Isn't it a reason not to drink?

Cheng Yaojin's complexion changed, trying to save face, "Jin Lan doesn't know how to drink, let's drink ours."

"Who said I can't drink?" Sitting Ye Jinlan looked up at him, "I just don't like it."

This is not only the face, but the lining is swollen.

Qin Yu smiled, as if waiting for a good show.

However, Cheng Yaojin also has a few brushes to be able to achieve the position of assistant man.

Such things as skins are sometimes very precious.

If anyone soils it, he will never die!

But sometimes it is worthless.

Recognizing people trampling and spitting, pick it up and wipe it, it is still as bright as fresh.

Works!

"That must be my memory. Come on, let's do one first!"

Cheng Yaojin took the initiative to admit his mistake, but Ye Jinlan didn't hold on to it either.

She just did what she should do instead of letting others interpret herself.

It is such a woman who would believe in the existence of [Miracle].

It's ridiculous!

Scanning analysis system:

Ye Jinlan:

Age: 19.

Height: 173cm.

Weight: 46kg.

Specialty: Flawless as jade.

Face value: 91-.

Body: 90-.

Miracle belief value: 24 【Pan believer】

Analyze the data: mental and ideological giants still cannot get rid of worldly troubles.

[The person I love is a world-famous hero. One day he will step on the colorful clouds to pick me up? ? ?

This is the second [pan-believers] Qin Yu has seen.

The first one was Jiang Luo, who had just been sent away in the morning, and is now a [Mad believer] with a belief value of 99.

Judging from Qin Yu's observation, she can be said to be obedient to herself.

Belief is indeed a powerful and terrifying thing.

According to Jiang Luo's experience, if Qin Yu can help Ye Jinlan realize her inner wish.

She also has the potential to become a [mad believer].

100 million experience points, generous special rewards.

No matter what it is, Qin Yu wants it.

However, Ye Jinlan's wish does not seem to be so easy to realize.

‘Are you free from the shackles of the family?’

This is much more difficult than allowing Jiang Luo to regain his freedom and regain his new life.

If Jiang Luo's difficulty is easy, Ye Jinlan's difficulty is hell.

"Brother Yu, Brother Yu, Miss Ye is talking to you."

Someone touched him, interrupted his thoughts, looked up at Ye Jinlan, "Sorry, I'm distracted."

"Did you develop the technology of the Kuafu lithium battery pack?"

Ye Jinlan didn't care about his explanation, and asked the previous question again.

"Yes and not..." Qin Yu neither admitted nor denied decisively.

As for the truth, let them guess.

What smart people are best at is not to make up for themselves

Looking at Cheng Yaojin, it was doubtful, thoughtful, and then suddenly realized.

Looking at Qin Yu, his gaze was a bit prying and complacent, and he clearly said, ‘I understand, do you think you can hide it?’

This awareness, this tacit understanding, absolutely!

"So is it or isn't it?" Ye Jinlan asked, making Qin Yu a little bewildered.

No, have you read the script?

It's okay to add drama to myself

"Kuafu has its own R&D team, but it's not in China!"

Since she likes to get to the bottom, Qin Yu responds according to what she thought before.

The mysterious R&D team is not in Xia Country.

Where, no one should be stupid enough to ask, right?

"Then where are they?"

Seeing Ye Jinlan's plain and serious expression, Qin Yu took his wine glass and took a sip, smiling without saying a word

In fact, almost vomiting.

Is this woman really upright, or deliberately pretending to be innocent?

Want the answer, guess it yourself!

You are already an adult, and you should learn to think for yourself.

Brother Yu is not a teacher, there are so many and why.

Seeing that he didn't answer his own meaning, Ye Jinlan didn't bother to ask.

It's like she is really asking casually instead of trying something.

In short, no matter what.

The other party did not continue to question, and Qin Yu was happy to end the topic.

Xu Hao has two favorite locations for the location of the battery factory.

One is in the north and one is in the west.

The areas where the two plots are located belong to the key development projects of the abandoned city in the next five years.

The surrounding traffic, supporting facilities and facilities are being improved.

The choice to live is a bit biased, and the supporting facilities are not perfect.

But it's perfect for building a factory.

"Is the west side better?"

Li Xiao pointed to the position of the red dot on the map, "Xixian has a bright future for development, and there is the support of the imperial court in the back. It's not wrong!"

His ideas coincided with Cheng Yaojin's.

The other side also believes that Xixian's future prospects are better than that of the north.

Yang Chengjun pointed to a line of small characters next to the red dot, holding a different view, "Don't forget, the most important weapon factory of the imperial court is in the north."

Abandoned capital has always been the imperial court's weapons depot, and there are many military research institutes and state-owned research institutes.

The weapons factory mentioned by Yang Chengjun was one of the most important weapons R&D and manufacturing plants in the northwest and even in China.

It will be built in the abandoned city, also thanks to his geographical location.

Located in the central hinterland of Xia State, it is the largest and one of the most important inland ports and transit stations in the country.

This is its natural geographical advantage.

Looking at two points on the map, Qin Yu pointed to the north, "I think this piece of land is more suitable."

"Reason?" Cheng Yaojin asked.

Qin Yu sorted out the following thoughts: "First of all, Xixian's future development direction is to focus on the population of residents and create a new city suitable for living."

"This is the core of development and will not change easily."

"If the factory is placed here, will it affect the residents someday and cause conflicts between the two sides?"

"As you all know, Abandoned City is developing vigorously and is competing for places in Zhili City. It will not be easy to find plots in the suburbs at that time."

Compared with Xixian, Qin Yu is more optimistic about the arsenal area that is located in the main road north of the link to the abandoned capital.

"Whether it is traffic or the environment, it is more suitable to build a factory in the north."

After talking about his opinions in one breath, Qin Yu, who was a little thirsty, took up his glass and drank it.

After several people thought about it, they felt that what Qin Yu said was somewhat reasonable.

According to what they know, there was a large-scale relocation operation before.

In the factory area within the second ring road, pollution and nuisance to the people are involved.

All moved out of the third ring road, no exceptions!

It's about the development of the entire city, even the Ye Family doesn't have to do it right.

It's no good, you have to provoke a commotion, why bother?

"I think it can." Ye Jinlan said.

Cheng Yaojin also agreed: "The problem Qin Yu said does exist, so it's okay to put it to the north."

The transportation and geography of the arsenal are not bad.

If the site is not moved in the future, perhaps this area will develop into a new industrial area.

The environment is more suitable for the development of enterprises.

Li Xiao picked up the phone and said, "That's it. I'll send a message to the mouse."

Cheng Yaojin and Ye Jinlan were about to leave before eating a meal.

There is still something in the department in the afternoon Cheng Yaojin has to send Ye Jinlan back first.

After the two left, Li Xiao looked at Qin Yu and smiled: "What do you think?"

"He wants to chase his sister!"

Hearing what he said, Li Xiao and Yang Chengjun both laughed.

This is the point.

The Cheng family wants to marry the Ye family. This is a big step. Are you afraid of getting involved?

...

In the quiet Longqi car, Cheng Yaojin and Ye Jinlan sat side by side in the back row.

Seeing beside him seems to be independent of the world, not a world of fireworks...

To put it bluntly, Cheng Yaojin felt that she basically did not have the emotions and desires of a normal person.

But the family decided for him this 'marriage,' of course it's one-sided.

It is difficult to rely on the Cheng family's own strength to be one step closer.

Therefore, we must learn to take advantage of the situation.

The Ye family is the goal set by the Cheng family.

As long as Cheng Yaojin can marry Ye Jinlan, the power and status of the Cheng family can rise to a higher level.

However, "What do you think of Qin Yu?"

Ye Jinlan, who was looking at the scenery outside the window, kept silent, as if he hadn't heard him at all.

This kind of performance actually made him breathe a sigh of relief.

Ye Jinlan has always been like this for things that he is not interested in.

Cheng Yaojin had to admit that as a man, Qin Yu brought him a bit of pressure.

And between excellent things, there will always be unexplainable attraction.

Cheng Yaojin didn't want to have an emotional rival when he was unsure.

Chapter 248: Is the air conditioner temperature high?

Chase Ye Jinlan!

Cheng Yaojin has been confident about everything since he was a child.

Even if you are not 100% sure, at least 50 or 60%.

But this time...

If he can choose, Cheng Yaojin really wants to change his goal!

It's a pity that among the Ye family girls, only Ye Jinlan is the favorite of the old man.

It is her attitude and temperament that is uncontested and independent of the world.

Let the old man like it very much and always protect it.

Ye Jinlan is also proficient in piano, chess, calligraphy and calligraphy.

Especially chess is the best. Accompanying the old man to the next game every day can make him happy all day.

This is also the reason why the Cheng family would let him pursue Ye Jinlan!

As long as you can marry her, you will love the house and get a little care from the father.

Cheng Yaojin's front was getting narrower and narrower, and his way to the top was about to reach the top.

It will become a golden avenue again, leading directly to the cabinet!

"It's just..." Looking at Ye Jinlan looking out the window again, her appearance, figure, and character were all excellent.

It was because of his cold temper that Cheng Yaojin couldn't figure it out at all.

She doesn't like what normal girls like, but Ye family cares and Elder Ye prefers.

There is no sense in the world!

If it were put on an ordinary person, it would have died many times.

But she was Ye Jinlan, so she had to chase her.

This is too horrible!

...

The old Cheng family wanted to climb the Ye family, although this matter had nothing to do with them.

Li Xiao and Yang Chengjun passed the news back home for the first time and ventilated with Xu's family by the way.

The original three are cooperative relationships.

Now because of the two cooperations of juniors and the battery factory this time, the relationship must be closer in the future!

At this time, Qin Yu may seem unimportant, but in fact it is becoming an important link for the establishment of the three cooperative relations.

This can be seen from the increasing voice of Li Xiao and Xu Hao at home.

"Brother Yu, Junzi and I will go back to Hudu tomorrow, how about you?"

This time I came out to do business, and now it's time to go back for business.

"I'll go home!" Qin Yu smiled pointedly.

Seeing him behaving like this, Li Xiao's eyes lit up: "Is there any action?"

Qin Yu nodded and shook his head again, "It's hard to tell now, I have to go back and have a look."

Li Xiao nodded hurriedly and said, "I should see it in person. I will prepare the money first."

No blame for his performance, the changes brought about by the two investments.

Outsiders don't know, Li Xiaoneng, as the party concerned, doesn't know?

Kuafu Technology's 1% share, if not for these two investments.

Even if the family agreed to let him hold shares, Li Xiao couldn't afford to pay.

With the addition of the Ye family, the shares of each family have been reduced to 5%. This 1% is more valuable than it was at the beginning.

Looking at Yang Chengjun again, he looked like a okay person.

Li Xiao slammed his lips enviously, but this kid took 2% of the shares.

Sure enough, those who are favored are confident.

...

Talk to Xing Lu first, although she doesn't care at all.

But it can still be seen that she is pushing the pretense!

Qin Yu promised that she would come to see her from time to time, which made Xing Lu's mood change from overcast to clear.

The two went out at the same time, Xing Lu put on her HNA uniform.

HNA's blue and white uniforms are very attractive, and the purchasers have a good eye.

If it weren't for not knowing him, Brother Yu would want to add chicken legs to him.

"Do you know what you are called on the Internet?" Qin Yu whispered in Xing Lu's ear.

"A stumbling block on the road to success, a confused little baby."

Blushing, he glanced at the driver in front of him, "Two hours before takeoff, there is a hotel near the airport..."

Eat the marrow and know the taste, just experience the beauty of love.

Xing Lu's passion was also provoked, and the firewood exploded at the touch of it.

"I think the VIP room is better. It's not good to miss the flight."

Bringing Xing Lu to the VIP lounge, independent rooms are not allowed.

But there is no problem with the bathroom, but the sound insulation effect is a bit poor.

Every time there was a sound of opening the door, Brother Yu had to slow down and cover Xing Lu's mouth with his hand.

Just this, she was bitten several times.

It's exciting!

...

When she left the VIP lounge, Xing Lu changed into a spare uniform.

I put on makeup by the way.

The previous set can't be worn anymore, so I have to clean it when I go back.

Fortunately, it didn't get on the hair, otherwise it would be bad.

This was teased by Qin Yu again, saying that she had come prepared with bad intentions.

Or else, why is there a spare uniform in the box?

"How come I see him like a demon." Thinking of the previous madness, Xing Lu unconsciously covered her cheek with her hand.

So hot!

Xing Lu couldn't believe it, and she didn't even know herself.

She was not like this before.

Before I met him, I wouldn't even think about such crazy things.

Let alone do...

"Xing Lu." The colleague who flew on the same flight as her rushed forward, "What's wrong with you, uncomfortable?"

Looking at her red cheeks, the colleague asked with some worry: "The face is so red, do you want to tell the flight attendant, ask for leave?"

Xing Lu quickly put her hands down, "Is there? The airport is too hot, I don't know why the air-conditioning temperature is so high?"

These two days have been cooling down, shouldn't it be cold?

Besides, she only wore a thin uniform. Shouldn't it be cold?

Seeing the puzzled gaze of her colleague, Xing Lu speeded up and said: "Hurry up, I should be trained by the flight attendant again when I will be late."

"Ah! I forgot all about it." After dragging his luggage all the way, the previous question was quickly forgotten.

The plane took off, two hours later.

Qin Yu sat on the matte G63 and looked at Lu Qing, who was manipulating the mechanical monster next to him, "How does this car drive?"

Lu Qing patted the steering wheel with a smile, "I didn't get used to it at first, but I like it a little bit after driving it a few times."

Broad career, rough lines.

It feels very safe to sit on it, which is very different from driving a 911.

Wear a sportswear with matte black G63, handsome!

"By the way, Jiang Luo's accommodation has been arranged, and he is now officially employed."

Lu Qing glanced at him, "I want her to rest for two days, but she insists on going to work, saying that this is the best reward for her!"

Qin Yu nodded, "Let her go, she needs to work to make herself forget her unhappiness."

It is natural to say that liberation is natural, but it is impossible not to be lost in the heart.

So there is no home, even if it is a home that wants her to escape.

The * from blood and family affection will still affect her!

What Jiang Luo needs most now is time.

Everything can't escape the passing of time in the end.

Qin Yu had already explained Jiang Luo's situation clearly to Lu Qing before sending her.

When they first arrived at the company, Qin Yu and Lu Qing walked out of the elevator, and they saw Zhang Qiqi and Jiang Luo in the front desk.

"Good for President Qin, good for Director Lu."

The two stood up and leaned in greeting in unison.

"Yeah." Nodding in response, Qin Yu looked at Lu Qing amused after he left, "Did you teach?"

Lu Qing responded: "Well, there is no rule without rules. Since you are a good boss who is close to the people, I can only do this wicked person."

According to common sense, the chief financial officer cannot manage these.

This should be the work of personnel and administration.

But the company does not have these departments now Lv Qing is also the dual identities of the chief financial officer + wife boss.

Teach the front desk some rules and such things, naturally no one will say anything.

"Are you a good helper?" Qin Yu said.

Lu Qing said with a horizontal eyebrow: "What do you mean, I am, if you find the treasure, it will be cheaper for you."

Talking and laughing into the meeting room, Zhang Qili is already waiting.

"You talk, I'll go to the office."

The move of Lu Qing withdrawing and leaving made Zhang Qili's heart beat wildly.

This, why does he have a bad feeling?

"Old Zhang, I asked you to come because I have something to ask you to do."

"As long as Shao Qin orders... as long as it doesn't do any more analysis."

Zhang Qili wanted to say something in advance.

What happened last time was enough for him to be frightened, and he has not recovered yet.

One success is enough, at least let him rest.

Otherwise this little heart can't hold it!

"You are really right. I want you to make a report, Petroleum!"

Petroleum, these two words are full of temptation, but also make him confused.

The boss is not going to make a fuss on oil, right?

That's the gold seeded player in the arena. I don't know how many pairs of eyes are staring at him day and night.

A little bit of wind and grass, it is a thunderstorm.

Want to make an idea, the boss is too courageous, right?

However, if you have an idea, just make an idea!

Why do you have to get involved with me?

Boss, I'm weak and courageous, I can't stand the storm!

Chapter 249: Fame and fortune can only be achieved by the top pot

Twenty minutes later, Zhang Qili left the conference room dejectedly.

Report that he is willing to do it, or not to do it.

This pot, he is determined by his back.

For Zhang Qili, this has both advantages and disadvantages.

Benefits His ability has been valued, and he has a place to be used, and he is no longer a dispensable marginal figure.

The downside is that if something goes wrong, it must be him who is brought out to top the pot.

But this is to consider from his standpoint!

Brother Yu will do something unsure?

It's impossible, it's not the exact 'news' from the system, the ghost went to the international futures market to find death.

Tens of billions are not enough for a wave, let alone his money.

As long as Zhang Qili stays in Lixin Investment steadily, follow him well.

Other Qin Yu can't guarantee.

But fame and fortune are absolutely indispensable for him.

Investment genius, financial tycoon, such a name will sooner or later fall on his head.

As for the bonus...

When is Brother Yu being generous?

It must be an illusion if there is that, Qin Yu himself doesn't remember it anyway.

"Lolo, come to the office!"

After passing the front desk, Qin Yu called Jiang Luo to the office, "Are you still used to work?"

"Habits, everyone treats me very well, Lv Qing prepared a dormitory specially for me, that is..."

Seeing her embarrassed, Qin Yu said straightforwardly: "What is it, just say it."

"I'm the only dormitory in the entire company. Isn't that a bad idea?"

Jiang Luo was mainly afraid of affecting Qin Yu, and she was the only one covering the entire company.

Not to mention outsiders, even she herself thinks there must be something in it.

But she can't just say when she meets people: It's the boss who has a kind heart, pity me, what's the matter with our family! ! !

"That's it?" Qin Yu frowned, "Luo Luo, let alone there are no rumors, it doesn't matter if there are rumors, people are social creatures, but you can't be too concerned about other people's opinions and opinions."

"After all, people and ghosts have mouths, you can't stop them." Qin Yu smiled at her thoughtful look, "Okay, don't think about these things, and do your own work. ."

"I see, Qin Yu..." Jiang Luo quickly shook his head thinking that this is the company, "No...Qin, then I will go out to work."

"Yeah." Looking up at her, Qin Yu said gently: "When there is no one, you still call me Brother Qin Yu."

From a young age, Qin Yu wanted to have multiple children in the family, and not all the only children were good.

It would be a good thing to have such a sensible and well-behaved sister!

...

Seeing Jiang Luo jumping back all the way, with the excitement that couldn't be hidden on her face, Zhang Qiqi asked curiously: "Luo Luo, what did the boss say to you, so happy to have a salary increase?"

Jiang Luo shook his head and said nothing.

What is a salary increase?

For Jiang Luo, Qin Yu's words and deeds are what she cares about.

Such things as wages all depend on fate.

Brother Qin Yu said that you can give yourself as much as you want, and you don't have to give it!

She doesn't care about money!

As long as she can stay in the company and stay with Qin Yu, this is the best life in the world.

As a [mad believer] Jiang Luo has a heart full of Qin Yu's body.

In her heart, Qin Yu's words and deeds contain profound meaning.

His every move, any decision is absolutely correct.

Anyone who dared to refute is equivalent to [enemy] in Jiang Luo's heart, and she will use a small book to remember it in her heart.

Nothing made Jiang Luo start more than getting Qin Yu's approval and praise.

Even an encouraging and kind look will make her excited for a long time.

...

In the office, I thought of Jiang Luo looking at him.

Qin Yu began to seriously consider where she should be placed.

Just being a front desk was a bit of a waste of Jiangluo's talent and trust.

That fanatical look with admiration made Qin Yu know that she can absolutely trust her.

The full value of belief value and the mood value that immediately soared to the peak after receiving his own comfort.

Undoubtedly all confirmed his speculation!

"Let Jiang Luo manage Lixin's investment?" Qin Yu was taken aback by his own thoughts, but suddenly felt that it was a good idea.

Jiang Luo's major is accounting, and it can be regarded as linked to finance!

Coupled with her admiration for herself and her obedience to her words, this does not happen to be the best person to manage the company.

It is impossible for Qin Yu to focus his energy on a certain company or something.

If he becomes a senior hitman, what is the meaning of the existence of the system, and how can he enjoy life?

Busy every day, just to make so little money, why bother?

'system.'

Looking at the few cards laid out in front of him, Qin Yu thought that maybe this time was just an opportunity.

However, let's wait until Zhang Qili submits the report.

...

Since I came back, I was naturally going to visit Lu Guohui and He Hong.

It has become the norm for the two families to get together, and it happens that Qin Han and Liang Chuyu are also free today.

Everyone made an appointment to eat hot pot together!

It's not so formal, but it's more intimate and the atmosphere is more lively.

He Hong, who was packing up at home, looked at the dressed Lu Qing, "Do you and Xiaoyu have any plans for the future?"

Hearing Du's mother wanted to play with herself again, Lu Qing shook her head helplessly.

"You kid, what do you want to say, shaking your head for?" He Hong looked at Lu Guohui angrily and amusingly, "Look at your good daughter, now I don't want to tell me if I have something on my mind."

Lu Guohui: ? ? ?

He waited for almost an hour, and everyone was stunned!

He Hong's face sank when he found that he didn't reply to help him, "Old Lu, I'm talking to you!"

"Ah yes, girl, do you have any intentions to communicate with your mother, your mother is here." Lu Guohui quickly put down the small leaf red sandalwood bracelet in his hand, and assumed a fatherly attitude.

Lu Qing leaned to the door, knowing that he would not be able to get through today if he didn't say anything, "We have no plans. Just take one step and count as one step."

"What do you mean by taking one step as one step?" He Hong was anxious. "I haven't talked about the future or marriage?"

"Mom!" Lu Qing was really dumbfounded. "Neither of us have graduated yet, and we are just getting married, and the legal age is not enough. What is the point of talking about this?"

"Of course it makes sense, indicating that he has the intention to live with you." He Hongbai glanced at his daughter and felt that she was a stupid girl.

Why didn't he inherit his cleverness at all, Xiao Lu was alive and well.

"Mom, don't worry about these things." Seeing He Hong's thoughtful appearance, Lu Qing warned: "Emotional matters are the most taboo for outsiders to intervene. Don't always think about talking to Qin Yu."

"We were both good. If you and my dad always put him under pressure and scared him away, then I will...I will go back abroad and never come back again."

Seeing her true expression, He Hong knew that this girl was serious.

However, what the child said is right.

It is true that feelings are the most taboo for outsiders to intervene, and I and Lao Lu are indeed a little anxious.

Like the last family banquet, if it weren't for them, they had known the Qin and Han family for many years.

Old Qin and Chu Yu would be happy to see their son being embarrassed?

Even if you don't say it, He Hong understands this truth, and it is definitely not happy to replace it with herself.

It seems that he and Lao Lu are a bit out of square.

On the contrary, Lu Qing sees transparently!

"Okay Mom won't say anything, but Mom still has to remind you."

He Hong took her daughter to sit next to him, and whispered softly: "No matter what time it comes, you must be aware of it!"

"Although I don't want to admit it, Mom still has to say that Xiaoyu is too good now, and such a boy always attracts bees and butterflies!"

"Even if you like him again, always keep an eye on him and give yourself a way out!"

"Mom is not talking about money, our family is not short of money, what mom is afraid of is your sadness."

He Hong's worries were not a matter of one or two days, since the Qin family bought Nanhu Manor.

Her mind became heavier, and she was worried that her daughter would be emotionally frustrated!

When it comes to money, although their family doesn't have that much money.

But there is absolutely no problem in giving Lu Qing a wealthy and luxurious second half of his life.

He Hong was afraid that she was hurt emotionally and would never be able to get out again.

Feelings hurt the most.

...

"Uncle, Auntie." Qin Yu, who came first to occupy the seat, got up to say hello when he saw Lu Guohui's family.

"Xiao Yu has become handsome again, it seems that he has grown taller." He Hong walked to him with a smile, stretched out his hand and squeezed his arm: "Well, the body is also strong."

Qin Yuxian responded with a smile: "I usually pay attention to exercise. My dad always said that the body is the capital of the revolution."

"Your dad is right, right, where are they?" He Hong looked curiously when he found that the Qin Han couple were not there.

Qin Yu was about to say that no one had arrived, so the two of them walked in from the entrance, "This is not here!"

Chapter 250: It's okay to regenerate one

Maybe the psychological burden is gone.

There is no need to worry about the future of his son, buying a house, buying a car, getting married and having children.

Qin Han and Liang Chuyu have become more and more youthful!

I remember a few years ago, the two had no time to socialize and eat before the end of the year.

Nowadays, there is a lot of time.

"Dad, don't you want to quit the burden, do you?" At the dinner table, Qin Yu was like a joke to test his father's mind.

If he really decides not to do it, Qin Yu will be the first to raise his hands in support.

Fighting father and son soldiers, fighting tiger brothers.

If Lao Qin withdrew from the system, he would hand over all the abandoned capital to his father!

Snapped.

With a blow on his head, Qin Han pointed at him and said with a smile: "What good thing do you kid think of, let Lao Tzu work for you?"

Although Qin Han didn't say it clearly, he knew from the look in his eyes, "Your kid is afraid that he is thinking about farts. Is it because Pisong has recently been used for father to give you seven wolves to hold you tight?"

Shrinking his head in fear, Qin Yu smiled flatteringly, "I'm not afraid you are too hard!"

"My mother and I are only over forty, so what hard work?"

Qin Han picked up the wine glass and swiftly killed it, "If you work for another 20 years, I won't feel hard for you."

Lu Guohui nodded in agreement.

When a man is young, he refuses to obey the sky, and he refuses to obey the old when he is old. They are all virtues!

"Xiaoyu, if you want me to say that your dad has to continue to do it, it's okay to relax, but don't be idle." Lu Guohui raised his hand to drink with Qin Han, "Human, this one will be useless after leisure!"

"That's right, come, let's go." Qin Han's headache dries quickly, and Lu Guohui is not to be outdone.

Raise your neck and do it!

Liang Chuyu looked at her man with a smile, and when they finished talking, she said, "Recently, I don't want to open this with your dad. Since you're good off, we don't have to work hard anymore!"

"Some jobs can be pushed and pushed. Mom closed the work of the two companies outside. What do you think?" Liang Chuyu said this, with an unnaturally nervous expression.

She didn't want her son to feel that she was shirking responsibility or putting pressure on him.

Let him have other burdens. If this is the case, Liang Chuyu would rather be more tired!

"It should be over a long time ago." Qin Yu picked up the chopsticks for Lu Qing, put it down and said, "If you want me to say you and my dad should walk around, take a look at the great rivers and mountains of the motherland, and you can also go outside to open up your horizon."

"Why did so many people think that foreign moons are round in the early years? It's just that they haven't seen the world before!"

Qin Yu really wanted his parents to go out more, and spent the first half of his life busy establishing a family.

After the work stabilizes a bit, I have myself again!

This delay is more than ten years, and he is about to go to university.

The two again began planning for him to graduate, work, buy a house, buy a car, give gifts, and get married in the future.

After marriage, if you have a child, who will bring the child and do you want them to help.

It's almost passed in my heart, and the whole life passed like this.

Qin Yu knew that they would not blame anyone, and he felt fortunate to be born in such a family.

But deep down, there is always regret.

Who doesn't want to travel the world, who doesn't want to travel around the world.

But responsibility limits action, and wallet limits thinking, so that all beautiful plans are known to exist on paper and vision.

At the age of 20, I said that there is always a chance at the age of 30.

At the age of 30, I said that there must be a chance at forty, and the child will be older then.

When I was forty years old, I said that my child should consider graduating from university and getting married.

Fifty, sixty, when it's old.

It is worth it to say that in this life, it is worth watching the children grow up safely and live and work in peace!

Is it really worth it?

Qin Yu doesn't think so, in short, this is not the life he wants.

Nor do they want their parents to spend their lives like this, they should have their own lives and ideas.

"Dad, Mom, I will support your decision no matter what it is." Qin Yu thought for a while, and then said: "In addition, I recently made a lot of money, and I will leave it to you and my dad to keep it."

"How much did you earn?" Hearing that his son is so sensible, Liang Chuyu is now in a good mood.

Qin Yu picked up the chopsticks and clamped a piece of tofu, and said while eating, "Not much, more than 50 million."

Click!

Liang Chuyu dropped his chopsticks on the table and asked, "How much?"

Asking the waiter to take a pair of new chopsticks, Qin Yu handed it over to her, "Mom, if the company is not making money again, I will take a part first, and you will not worry about money in the future."

Why is Liang Chuyu so surprised that he has bought two hundred million manor, and what is fifty million worth?

But some things are not so calculated.

The company's money is used to buy a house, and the company's account is taken, and it is also under the company's name.

In Liang Chuyu's view, even though this house is living in his own family, it belongs to their Qin family in name.

But it also offsets a large amount of tax for the company, which is a company's long-term investment in fixed assets.

Any company will have similar operations, which is not surprising at all!

But what Qin Yu said just now was to take 50 million for himself and Qin Han for safekeeping.

What does this show?

This shows that the fifty million yuan actually belongs to Qin Yu, and is their family's asset.

No one can take it away!

If you say that, your family now has tens of millions of assets, so you can be regarded as a middle class?

Happiness came too fast, and Liang Chuyu couldn't accept it.

If Qin Yu knew, my mother felt that she had just passed the middle class standard.

I must laugh at her: Mom, is your standard of middle class a bit high?

"Wife, son is here, don't be too excited, just learn to enjoy the blessing." Qin Han hugged his wife and comforted.

Don't look at Qin Han's unsmiling and rigid appearance.

When facing Liang Chuyu in private, it was also a husky that just jumped off.

Qin Yu still remembers that when she was a child, she accidentally broke into her parents' room.

Qin Han was barely spine, waving his shirt over his head like a child in his hand, jumping and jumping under his feet, as if he was beaten with blood.

At that time, Qin Yu was young, thinking that his father was playing airplane games.

Had to pester Qin Han to take him to fly together, and also made a propeller with his own clothes. '

Now recalling Qin Han's resentful eyes at that time, Qin Yu couldn't wait to laugh under the table.

With the good news from Qin Yu, the dining atmosphere became more lively.

Somehow, Qin Han and Lu Guohui talked about the second-child policy!

"In recent years, the second child has been open, but young people are reluctant to give birth. What do you want to do one by one." Lu Guohui shook his head and smiled bitterly.

"Old Lu." He Hong slapped him with a smile, "The children are still there!"

"What are you afraid of, how old you are, and you are not a child." Qin Han said: "Old Lu is right. If the second child was let go, Xiaoyu would definitely be more than one in our family."

"It's not too late!" Qin Yu replied indifferently, "If you want to give birth, I really don't mind multiple younger brothers or younger sisters."

Thinking of the sudden addition of a child to play for him, Qin Yu looked at his parents with bright eyes, "If we don't have a baby with a baby, we are rich and auspicious, our family's life will definitely be better."

Liang Chuyu let go and handed the chopsticks to her left hand, and when she got up, she hit him with the chopsticks.

Qin Yu was clever and hid directly behind Lu Qing, making her laugh helplessly, but still helped to calm the embarrassed Liang Chuyu.

"Auntie, I think what Qin Yu said is right, what age is it now, and it's normal to have children in their forties."

Lu Qing is telling the truth, what's going on in her forties, why can't she have children.

As long as you can make a living, it is not illegal to steal or snatch, whoever loves to say let him go.

Can there be less meat or what?

He Hong found it interesting, and followed up with a booze: "Chu Yu, I think the child said it quite well, if you and Lao Qin are really thinking about it, ask for it early."

Liang Chuyu gave her an angry look: "Sister He, why are you messing around with your child, wanting to give birth to you and Lao Lu Sheng."

He Hong glanced at Lu Guohui, disdain to spit out: "I want to I'm afraid that some people won't work!"

"Who can't do it anymore?" Lu Guohui stood up quietly, "Be born to be born, go, go home now."

Lu Qing is stupid!

This is not to say that if Liang Chuyu and Qin Han give birth to Qin Yu a younger brother or sister, why suddenly the fire burns on their own heads?

Dad~

Mom~

Your two elders have to be calm!

Sitting back to the original position with his ears pulled, Lu Guohui still muttered, 'Let you say I can't do it, I still don't believe in this evil... When my tonic wine is for free? '

After being quarreled by the two, the topic just passed.

Only Qin Yu, who was paying attention to his parents, saw the two looking at each other, his eyes clearly moved and hesitated.

I'm afraid that I really want to have a younger brother and younger sister to play with?
