Chapter 2421 The Exhilaration Of The Iron Golem Technique

“Hmm?”

Levi had already told the fighters the truth, yet they obviously didn't believe him.

“How dare you take us for a fool, lad? Are you sick of living?”

“We're going to give you another chance. Answer seriously, or we'll finish you off!”

The fighters all threatened him.

In response, Levi groused in exasperation, “Why won't you believe me? It was really me who killed them!”

“Da*n it! Let's just eliminate him! I can't stand him anymore!”

One of the fighters on the Divine Leaderboard was already at the end of his patience.

He instantly whipped out his samurai sword and swung it at Levi's head.

He wasn't alone, for every single citizen of Raysonia probably hated the man to the bone and couldn't wait to kill him right then and there.

Anyway, we've still got Queenie to interrogate after dispatching of him!

For that reason, the others made no move to interfere even when the fighter intended to take the man's life.

Snap!

But when the sword struck Levi's body, it abruptly broke.

Clang!

At that same instance, a metallic sound resounded.

With a single glance, they saw that Levi's body had already turned golden at some point in time.

Chapter 2422 The Mystery Of Their Disappearance

"Who are you referring to?"

Queenie feigned ignorance.

"Six fighters on the Divine Leaderboard from Raysonia mysteriously vanished, so they must have come to Erudia! And I reckon that they came in search of you both!" Edmund replied.

“But no one came...” Queenie countered. “You can look around though there’s obviously no sign of anyone ever having come here.”

Everyone searched the place, but there was indeed no sign of anyone having been there.

Thus, they could only drop the matter.

“Perhaps my master acted. He certainly won’t allow those foreigners to come and challenge us!” Edmund announced.

Then, he changed the topic, saying, “Never mind. Why don’t I tell you all some good news? After some modifications, Garrison Industry’s specialized battle suit has successfully passed the simulation experiment and is now ready for use!”

In the next moment, he continued, “However, it’s of no use to me anymore. I’ve already attained Level Four of the Iron Golem Technique! While I’m a bit amateurish, I can still somewhat wield it. I’m already impenetrable!”

Chapter 2423 The Young Talents Have Returned

“Huh? It has to do with me as well?”

Levi was likewise puzzled.

“In order to have the group of young talents adapt better and faster to the new era as well as gauging their capability, we need everyone to duel them for assessment purposes,” Edmund explained.

“How will that work?” Zoey questioned.

“We’ll select fighters from the Provisional and Divine Leaderboard for them to challenge one by one until they’re defeated. With that, they’ll understand everything about the new era and also know how their capability ranks on either of the leaderboards.”

“I get it now! We’ll be acting as training partners for them! We’ll be the threshold that they’re going to challenge in order to know where they stand! For instance, I rank a hundred on the Divine Leaderboard. If they defeat me, their capability is within the top hundred. But if they fail to do so, they don’t rank within that list.”

Edmund nodded in assent. “Yup, that’s right! We’re generally setting the bar at the fighters ranking ten thousand, five thousand, and a hundred on the Provisional Leaderboard. In actual fact, we can just skip the Provisional Leaderboard since it will be a piece of cake for them to break into the Divine Leaderboard. We only want to let them have a look at the capability of those on the Provisional Leaderboard so that they have a general understanding of it. Anyhow, the top fifty on the Provisional Leaderboard is more crucial since it’s the backup list to get into the Divine Leaderboard. It’s to roughly test whether they’re capable of making it into the Divine Leaderboard.”

Then, he continued, “After much deliberation, we all think that Levi should be the fighter for that rank. He ranks eleven on the Provisional Leaderboard, so he’s the most suitable candidate.”

"I feel that my capabilities have ballooned more than a hundred times compared to three years ago!"
"You can now defeat anyone who stands in your way, huh?"

Each and every one of the young talents expressed similar sentiments.

"It's better to remain humble. I heard that tremendous change had taken place in these three years, and there are tons of fighters out there. We're not their match at all!"

Alongside the melodious voice, two goddess-like figures appeared.

It was none other than Josephine and Yasmin.

They were also exceedingly powerful at present, ranking top ten among the hundred of them.

"Yes, I agree! We've got to be humble. After all, we might be defeated right at the beginning of the tournament challenge."

Another female voice echoed.

Many of the young talents instantly went silent and even shuddered in terror, for it was the Warrior Princess, Jessica.

She was the woman they feared most and dared not provoke.

"Yeah, we've got to be humble and practice forbearance! Have you all forgotten Master's teaching? Why is the lot of you acting all high and mighty?"

Dubiousness was etched on Jessica's face.

She really couldn't imagine that Levi couldn't even make it into the list with only a thousand people.

The same went for the others.

What kind of Leaderboard is it that even our master didn't cut it? This is impossible!

Everyone didn't believe it, infuriating Edmund.

Why are they still unwilling to believe it and accept the reality when I've already said as much? Instead, they're still defending Levi staunchly! What kind of spell did he cast on them that he occupies such an esteemed position in their hearts?

"Listen here! He's presently not among the top thousand fighters on the Divine Leaderboard! He ranks eleven on the Provisional Leaderboard! If you don't believe me, take a look at the list yourselves!"

Still, no one twitched a single muscle, all unwilling to be the first person to make a move.

“Attack! That’s an order!” Levi roared.

“Jessica, you first!” he then specified.

Hearing that, Jessica, the Warrior Princess, sprang to her feet at once.

“Okay, Master! I won’t be pulling my punches, so do be careful!”

As soon as her words rang out, she immediately charged toward him.

“Annihilation Kick!”

Whoosh!

As she attacked, she launched a sweeping kick.

While her leg shot out, the sound of a strong gust of wind rushing past rang out.

The terrifying momentum made it seem as though she was going to destroy the entire training base, for it carried a destructive force.

That was the ultimate technique by an Eragon elder, annihilating everything with a single kick.

“What?”

The moment she unleashed that technique, everyone’s expressions changed drastically.

Chapter 2427 The Request Of Zoey

Pity rose within the hundred young talents at the sight of Levi's headstrong attitude.

With the specialized battle suit earlier, he could've ignored the reality and accepted each of our challenges. But now, the only ace up his sleeve is gone after having removed it. He'll have no choice but to battle us with his true capabilities. Alas, how could he be our match? Just a blow from Jessica is more than sufficient to wound him severely. Even if she were to pull her punches, he would still suffer some minor injuries. Furthermore, with so many people sparring with him one after another, it'll be exceedingly difficult for him to leave this place alive. Yet, he's still persistent and adamant in accepting our challenge!

His tall figure made a lonely picture, tugging at the heartstrings of each and every one of them.

"Be careful, Master, for I won't be pulling back my punches!" Jessica stated with her eyes trained on Levi.

"It doesn't matter, just get on with it!"

Levi was already prepared to have her come at him.

At that critical moment, Zoey abruptly cried out, "Wait a minute! Please halt for a moment!"

When her words rang out, everyone swung their gazes at her and wondered about her intention.

"Please gather your people, Sir. There's something I'd like to discuss with you," Zoey implored.

Chapter 2428 Defeating All The Young Talents

As Levi swept his gaze over his disciples in the training base, jubilation deluged him.

Yes! I don't need to hide my capability anymore! I can unleash some of it...

"Master, I'm going to make my move, okay?" Jessica couldn't help prompting.

"Hold on."

"Huh?"

Everyone stared at Levi in bafflement.

"Come at me together to save time!" Levi declared.

"Huh? But..."

Hearing that, they were all floored.

Go at him together? Is he really that crazy? But then, this does fit his style. Alas, his capability doesn't match.

"Here I come, Master!"

Jessica, the Warrior Princess, made her move right away.

A swift and forceful kick headed toward Levi, and it was even more powerful than the kick earlier.

Gazing at her approaching foot, Levi drawled, "You're too slow, downright sluggish..."

At that very moment, all the young talents felt that Levi was even more powerful than their instructors in Eragon's secret training plan.

What was more, the chasm was vast.

Yet, they told us that Master is only on the Provisional Leaderboard? And they made him the first round that was purportedly the easiest? Were they trying to play us for a fool when they gave us the most difficult one for the first round?

However, that wasn't Levi's limit.

His energy was still expanding, skyrocketing rapidly.

Whirr! Whirr! Whirr....

In the next instance, Level Nine of the Iron Golem Technique was unleashed.

Nine silhouettes materialized, and it was as though a scorching sun was blazing behind Levi.

That Golem body of his was entirely impenetrable.

An oppressing air that could subjugate all creation swept over the entire arena, and everyone felt as though they were close to being crushed to death.

Oh my God, Master is definitely far stronger than our Eragon instructors! Those people outside have no idea of Master's true capability. And so, he has deceived the entire world again!

Chapter 2430 Increase The Level Of Difficulty

The crowd had expected Levi to be all battered and bruised, barely clinging on to life by a thread.

In reality, however, there wasn't a single mark on Levi.

"You guys really pulled your punches and didn't hurt your master at all," someone lamented.

Meanwhile, Zoey furtively breathed a sigh of relief upon seeing that Levi was fine.

If he had sustained severe injuries, it would've really been a heavy blow to him. But judging from his solemn expression now, he must be devastated after having been defeated by his hundred disciples one after another, so much so that he doesn't even want to speak anymore.

"Can I leave now?" Levi asked.

"Sure! Here, a specialized battle suit for you!"

Edmund gave him a specialized battle suit, which he took.

It makes a pretty good undershirt. Why wouldn't I want it?

Gazing at Levi's disappearing back, the crowd heaved a long sigh.

Ah, his sorrow is palpable! Being personally defeated by one's own disciples is actually something extremely cruel!

The Twin Meteorites, Warrior Princess, and the others also stared at the man's disappearing back.

A riot of emotions brewed in their eyes.

I wonder how powerful he actually is when he's so powerful that the formidable Level Nine of the Iron Golem Technique is only a toy to him! T-T-That's... well, unfathomable!
