Chapter 2441 Archetype Of The Annihilator

The Annihilator! The only successful person to emerge from Lab of Gods' Project Genesis—The Annihilator!

Levi was sure that they were the archetype of The Annihilator.

Lab of Gods was trying to replicate them through its Project Genesis.

However, one couldn't really compare these creatures to The Annihilator, for the latter was created in a lab thirty years ago by Project Genesis.

It also meant that Lab of Gods had encountered these beings years ago.

Death Fiend said Lab of Gods dared not explore Restricted Area 76, so that means they had run into these creatures. They must've suffered a lot before finding out about these creatures' existence, so they got inspired to replicate the creatures by establishing Project Genesis?

Lab of Gods had discovered Restricted Area 76 decades ago according to Death Fiend, so the timeline matched perfectly.

It was obvious that Project Genesis was meant to create Gods using ordinary humans.

However, they didn't have enough funds to succeed, so The Annihilator was the only one that succeeded.

“Oh, how arrogant of you! This is interesting. You successfully sparked my interest!” a God with six wings remarked.

“Yes, I’ve never seen such a strong and interesting human in a while.”

“Finally, we shall have some fun!”

“Should we continue our hunt? This human seems to be stronger. I think he can hold on longer.”

“Come on! I have the same thought, too. We will have so much fun hunting him down!”

The Gods were discussing how to kill Levi like he was their prey.

For some strange reason, the Gods couldn’t leave this area.

Thus, their lives were boring.

When Forlevia and her masters arrived, they perked up and promptly chased after their prey as a form of entertainment.

Instead of killing their prey in one go, they teased Forlevia and the rest who ended up being trapped beasts.

Otherwise, there was no way Forlevia and the elders could’ve survived after two days.

If the Gods wanted them dead, they wouldn’t even make it past mere hours.

Chapter 2443 What Am I

The Gods witnessed the entire incident with their own eyes.

They were proud of their Impenetrable Armor made out of the strongest metal in the area.

The metal was strong enough to decimate everything on earth, for it held divine power within it!

In the past, even the strongest human failed to crush it.

Years ago, Lab of Gods wanted to get the resource away from them, but they killed every member who tried to trespass their territory.

This was an armor fit for Gods like them, and it was supposedly invincible.

Clearly, humans stood no chance against this armor.

But the reality was a far cry from their imagination.

Now, a human had crushed the supposedly invincible armor into pieces!

The Gods felt their hearts breaking at the sight of the remaining bits of the armor falling to the ground.

So it is not indestructible. Turns out it can be destroyed by someone who has enough power. But why did our comrade's body get ripped apart, too?

They were still waiting for the pieces on the ground to regenerate into a new body.
Time ticked by, but no miracle happened.
Instead, the blood with a golden hue was absorbed by the ground swiftly.
Once their blood seeped into the ground, it would become the best fertilizer for the earth.
Plants grew in an amazingly swift manner where the blood disappeared.
As the scene unfolded before the Gods' eyes, they were plunged into despair, for it meant that their comrade was dead for real.
He would never return to them!
No doubt, Levi's arrogant statement angered all the Gods.

“You’re asking for it!”

“You’re challenging our power!”

Their fury sprang to life.

Levi was already dead in their eyes.

“Kill him! Kill him now! I have no interest in the hunting game anymore. Charge!”

“Mm?” Everyone halted in their tracks, for they had no idea what he was referring to by “letting the energy go around.”

Even the Gods were rendered confused.

Boom!

Suddenly, an explosion was heard within the four-winged God’s body.

However, that was just the beginning.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Continuous explosions were heard.

It got increasingly intense, louder, and violent.

Right before everyone’s eyes, his chest, belly, brain, legs, and arms were blown up.

The explosions happened within his body!

Previously, Levi killed the Gods by blowing them up from the outside, but this time, the explosions happened within the poor victim’s body.

Anguished cries pierced the air.

After his body exploded to pieces, his armor also broke apart slowly.

Chapter 2446 Levi Is Stronger Than The Gods

They were all confused and unable to wrap their heads around what was going on.
Forlevia, her masters, and the remaining Gods had never seen such a formidable punch!
Levi was so powerful that he could destroy anything in his path with just one punch.
None of the Gods had the power to withstand his blow!
After all, over three hundred Gods had been crushed to bits with just one blow.
Who would've believed it if this news were to spread out?
Forlevia's masters were no match for the weakest God, but Levi had slain all the Gods with one single blow.
He was indeed unimaginably powerful.
One could even say Levi was a God instead of the creatures who claimed to be Gods.
They were nothing but lowly creatures who didn't even deserve to be called human beings.
The so-called Gods were still in shock, for the disaster was unprecedented.
"Who is he?" Forlevia's masters wondered aloud.

“Based on his mask, he looks like Dark Emperor who topped the Divine Leaderboard. He’s also Mommy’s master. Perhaps Mommy asked him to save us,” Forlevia explained.

Chapter 2447 Level Nine Of Iron Golem Technique

“Let’s see whether your body and Impenetrable Armor combined or my Golem body is stronger!” Levi declared.

The Gods were understandably dismayed when they realized their attacks had no effect on Levi.

“What? I can’t believe this human has a body similar to ours!”

“That’s impossible! I must rip him apart!”

Feeling provoked, the Gods promptly launched stronger attacks to break through Levi’s indestructible body.

Crack! Crack!

Indeed, his Golem body started cracking after being attacked continuously.

Though the Level Seven Iron Golem Technique was invincible in the outer world and had rendered Divine Brigadier helpless, it was easily destroyed by the Gods.

Right when the Gods were about to burst into laughter, a thundering, growling sound came from Levi’s body before a destructive wave of air washed over the people around him.

Levi’s Golem body grew increasingly blinding as the golden shade intensified.

There were eight rays glowing around him, indicating he had achieved Level Eight of Iron Golem Technique!

As far as the outer world was aware, only two fighters had achieved the highest level.

Thus, Forlevia’s masters parted their lips in awe at the sight.

The Gods gave their best, and they even resorted to their divine tools to break through Levi's silhouettes.

Boom!

The second silhouette smattered into smithereens.

Boom!

The third silhouette got crushed.

Boom!

Finally, the Gods made it past the sixth silhouette.

However, they came to a stop at the seventh silhouette, failing to advance further.

Though they united all their power, it remained impenetrable.

No matter how hard they tried, they could not damage it in the slightest.

That was the extent of their power.

Levi flashed a smile, as he had finally found what he wanted.

If the Gods attacked him one by one, they could destroy Level Eight of his Golem body.

Chapter 2449 Real Or Fake

“Huh?” Zoey's expression fell as she gazed at Celia in disbelief.

Everyone else shared the same sentiment, too.

Of course, this is Dark Emperor. Who else could it be? We asked for his help at Sacred Organization!

“Elder Celia, why do you ask that question?” Zoey responded carefully.

“Do you think Dark Emperor is that capable? Is your master capable enough of saving us?” Celia added.

“Well...” Zoey hesitated.

Yes, she’s right. Evie’s masters should be stronger than Dark Emperor. But why were they rendered helpless until Dark Emperor arrived to save them? That doesn’t make sense!

Zoey turned to look at Dark Emperor. It was as if the latter had become a distant stranger to her instead of being her master.

But I was the one who knelt to ask for his help in person. If she is fake, why would she come to this dangerous area for my sake? She’s not a fool!

At that thought, her doubts faded away.

Everyone must’ve underestimated my master’s strength. She’s way stronger than they thought!

Everyone turned their attention over.

They were eager to learn what had happened. What's going on? What is it that wounded the elders to this extent?

The incredible aura, the trail of golden blood, and the disheveled state of everything made it all seem so mysterious.

Everyone wanted to know what was going on.

In a way, they had witnessed the powers of a God because just as they entered the place, an extraordinary force swept over them.

It injured over half of their comrades.

"They call themselves Gods and are the most powerful clan we have ever seen. Even the ancient clan in Erudia is not a match against them. We rarely lose a battle, but this time, we lost and almost died in the process," sighed Celia.

"What? They're that strong?"

Everyone was going insane.

Even the elders of The Cardinal Hall and Eragon regarded their enemies as overwhelmingly powerful. Everyone knew exactly what that meant.

"God?"

The crowd trembled upon hearing that title.

There were many who were described as a deity by their fans, but none had ever given themselves that title.
