Chapter 2481 The Invincible Garrison Clan

“W-When did you come?” Eustace shakily asked.

He had been so wrapped up in his world of terror that he never noticed Humphrey coming.

Back in the day, that would be impossible.

If Humphrey were his enemy trying to assassinate him, Eustace would have been dead.

Humphrey then sighed. “I’ve already noticed something amiss with you. You were lying when you were explaining how Death Sword broke, right? There was an error in your logic. You know better than anyone else the material of Death Sword. It’s indestructible, and even you can’t break it. So, I’m guessing that someone broke your Death Sword.”

It was a guess that Humphrey felt that was almost impossible, but the keyword was almost.

Therefore, he had voiced out his guess.

To his surprise, Eustace nodded. “Yes. I wasn’t the one who broke Death Sword. I couldn’t have broken it, so someone else did.”

“What? Really?”

Humphrey was horror-stricken.

Chapter 2482 The Most Honorable Homecoming

After finding out about Levi's true power, Humphrey was eager to have Levi return to the Garrison clan.

He was not going to invite him back with violence but with the most honorable homecoming.

They were going to offer the best terms to Levi to lure him back.

Soon, Humphrey reported the matter to the elders.

After hearing his words, they were equally shocked to their cores.

Like Eustace, they agreed with Humphrey's idea to invite Levi back and give him the identity of a Garrison clan member again.

"What about this? The two of you hurry back to the clan to tell the head of the clan about this matter. Ask the high-ranking ones to gather here. At the same time, we'll head to Levi to discuss this with him. We'll find out what he would want to agree to this."

After hearing Humphrey's arrangement, the two elders hurried back to the ancient Garrison clan.

"I'll treat them first, or else they might die any time."

Eustace and Humphrey then treated Donald and Tyrone.

Those two were the two most injured in the incident.

They were a second away from dying, so Eustace and Humphrey were doing their best to treat them.

They took out the best medication they could find.

Chapter 2483 Only The Strong And The Weak

Honestly, Levi would like to know why Eustace was back.

If he was back to stir up trouble, Levi was not going to let him off the hook easily.

If that was not it, then perhaps Levi would not mind listening to what he had to offer.

Nevertheless, Levi doubted that Eustace dared to stir up any trouble.

"Eustace and Humphrey of the Garrison clan have come to visit!"

Just then, a voice traveled into the house from the outside.

The moment Levi heard the sentence, he could guess why they were here.

They were here to have a talk; they were not here for trouble.

However, to Zoey and the others, that sentence sounded arrogant.

After all, they could not think of anyone who would warrant a polite visit from God of Massacre.

"Come in," Levi answered.

Instantly, everyone twisted their necks to look at Levi.

What a daring man! Is he not afraid of death?

After hearing Levi's response, both Eustace and Humphrey stepped into the house.

Zoey and the others immediately straightened their backs and narrowed their eyes as if they were about to face off their enemies.

“We now know what we’ve done wrong. Do you need us to annihilate Oakland City’s Garrison clan? All we need is an order from you, and we’ll work on it right away. We’ll definitely raze the Garrison clan in Oakland City to the ground,” Humphrey uttered.

Levi’s smile widened.

Just a while ago, they talked about how they’ll never lay a finger on their own people.

But look at them now. To appease me, they won’t mind wiping out an entire clan.

What a joke this is!

How absurd!

“Grand Master, maybe you’d want them to apologize instead. I’ll get everyone from the Garrison clan here immediately. I’ll make sure they’ll apologize to you and your mother,” Eustace continued.

Both of them were tentatively trying to butter Levi up.

They were offering everything and ready to agree to anything he requested.

“Stop the dilly-dallying. Didn’t you want me to go back to the Garrison clan?” Levi scoffed.

“Yes! We... we’re not the only ones who want this. We’ve informed the head of the ancient Garrison clan, the elders, as well as the council members. All of them wish to see you back to the Garrisons. In fact, the head of the clan is on his way here now. He wants to personally invite you back to the clan.”

Who in the world is Levi to be able to have Eustace personally come to invite him to join the clan?

It's just impossible.

"Hurry and tell us what you were talking about earlier. Don't pull our legs anymore."

Naturally, Zoey and the others did not believe in his words.

"He's telling you the truth. They were here to invite Levi back to the Garrison clan," Queenie said abruptly.

"What?"

All froze in shock.

No one believed in it until Queenie herself told them that Levi was not lying.

Then, when they thought about how Eustace had insisted on a private talk, they realized the talk must have been related to the inner affairs of the Garrison clan.

Moreover, they must not have wanted outsiders to see them asking Levi to join their clan.

Their reactions were much more intense than Eustace and Humphrey's earlier reactions.

They all either turned pale or had darkened expressions.

"This is ridiculous! How can a young member like him think of becoming the head of the Garrison clan?"

"That's right, that's right! Moreover, he's not part of the original bloodline! He doesn't have a pure bloodline! How dare he think of taking over the Garrison clan? He must still be dreaming!"

"Not even the members of the ancient Garrison clan dares to think of usurping the head of the clan like this. Does he have a death wish?"

Levi's term infuriated many Garrisons.

In fact, anyone could see for themselves the tinge of anger that colored Gabriel's face.

"He's pushing his luck," Phaniel snapped.

Eustace then said, "I think we should agree to his term. As long as he joins the ancient Garrison clan, we'll be able to have everything! He's simply too strong, after all. With him around, the Garrison clan will surely be at the top of the pyramid."

Humphrey added, "He's right. Levi's really strong. I, think that we should agree to his term."

At that, the others became even more livid.

At that moment, God Crusher was floating quietly in front of Levi just like a meek child.

If Queenie did not know any better, she would have thought that it was a gentle weapon.

However, the truth was that it was a weapon that only brought mass destruction.

Minutes later, Queenie could sense the incoming people as well.

The ancient Garrison clan was here.

Buzz...

Sensing the presence of visitors, God Crusher abruptly began trembling in anticipation.

"Levi, the elders of the ancient Garrison clan has come! Why aren't you out here on knees to greet them yet?" came a voice from the outside.

The Garrisons were all waiting for Levi to come out of the manor to greet them.

Despite hearing them clearly, Levi ignored them and remained in the manor with his eyes closed.

Eustace then barked out a laugh. "If you want to invite him into the clan, you'll have to go in yourself. It'll be impossible to have him come out and greet you all!"

"If he's a smart man, then he would know what the current situation is. He'll surely come out here, get on his knees as he greets his elders!"

"That's right. I believe that Levi is a smart man and will make the right decision," Gabriel and the others said.

Under the assumption that Levi would respect them because they were his elders, they stayed outside, waiting for Levi to come out and greet them.

Chapter 2488 Everyone On Their Knees

They were all taken aback by his words.

They never thought that Eustace would have kneeled in front of Levi like a cowardly worm.

“Eustace, Humphrey, you’re only bringing shame to the Garrison clan! You have no right to stay in the clan at all,” Gabriel snarled.

Once they were done chiding Eustace, they turned to look at Levi.

“You’re Levi?” Gabriel asked.

“Indeed. That’s me.”

“You’ve got guts to keep sitting despite seeing your elders! Get on your knees right away. Otherwise, you’ll face the punishment according to the Garrison clan rules, and you’ll be begging for death.”

“That’s right. You’ve already broken the clan rules by not welcoming the elders. Kneel and apologize now! Maybe we’ll let you off the hook for this.”

The elders had all started berating Levi.

To them, Levi had broken the clan rules, and he was a sinner.

“Also, let me introduce to you who this man is. He is the Garrison clan’s leader—Gabriel Garrison. You have to bow to him ninety-nine times in order to gain his recognition,” they demanded.

“I don’t like the way you speak to me, so go down on your knees before you keep talking,” Levi calmly said as he creased his forehead.

“Are you telling us to kneel before you?”

The elderly men stood transfixed as if they had heard the funniest joke in their lives.

How can we possibly kneel in front of a younger Garrison?

No way.

Levi did not reply to that.

Chapter 2489 Submitting To No One

This is just shocking!

Even though Eustace and Humphrey knew that all elites in the Garrison clan were no match for Levi, they never thought things would end so quickly.

They were already holding up so poorly against the sword.

How could they possibly defeat Levi?

Moreover, the sword had yet to reach its full power.

Perhaps, it had only unleashed less than a fraction of its full power earlier, but it had already defeated every member of the ancient Garrison clan.

If they could not even defeat the sword, how could they possibly defeat its owner?

It was just unfeasible.

Levi's strength was something they could not imagine.

However, if he could control the sword...

The sword sent out another wave of pressure, and a series of bone-cracking sounds traveled into everyone's ears.

Chapter 2490 Taking Over The Ancient Garrison Clan

They were drenched in sweat, and they could barely breathe.

To begin with, they had no plan to negotiate with Levi for they had wanted to take him down by force.

"W-We're here to negotiate!"

"As long as you come back to the ancient Garrison clan, we'll let you be in charge of the clan. Yes, I think that's the best option," Gabriel suddenly said.

Phanuel quickly chimed in. "He's right. The head of the clan has to be the most powerful person. Moreover, you're still young. I'm sure you still have tons of unlocked potential. If you're in charge of the Garrison clan, not only will you dominate over everything now, but in the future too.

"Yes, I, too, agree to Levi becoming the head of the ancient Garrison clan," Kushiell said.

Uriel nodded. "I have nothing against it."

"We agree too," Eustace and Humphrey hastily added.
