Chapter 2561 They Are Already Here

They looked so upset that it seemed like they would break down in tears anytime.

Dread filled their faces as they reluctantly walked through the campus gates.

They felt like they were lesser beings compared to the other students at Carigrey Academy and kept their heads low as they didn't dare look at them.

The students had proud expressions on their faces as they lined up on the field in front of their respective teachers.

They were all eager to show off who their teacher was, except for Troy and the eighty-six chosen men who didn't want anyone to know they were students.

Everyone cheered when they saw the teachers like Divine Brigadier, Eustace, and Gabriel make their appearance moments later.

Determined to get Levi replaced, Troy and the others clenched their fists instinctively as they glared at him.

A student sneered at Troy and the others as he said, "That may be true, but we'll be performing way better and improving a lot more under the guidance of great teachers! Unlike some people, we have a much higher chance at being selected by the chancellor and vice-chancellors!"

He's right... With a teacher like Levi, there's no way we'll ever be able to excel and outperform the others! He's so weak that he can't even make it into the Provisional Leaderboard! I bet he'll only be able to give us theoretical lessons instead of practical ones! It'd take a miracle for a weakling like him to make us strong! Oh, well... I guess we'll just have to make do with this for now and see how things go...

They all exchanged glances at the thought of that.

Daxon then briefed them on the location of their dormitories, training grounds, and the ground rules at the institute.

Everyone froze in shock as they didn't expect Levi to say that at all.

Is he admitting to it right now?

"That's right! I think you're weaker than us! You're not qualified in the slightest!"

Bruno was the first to step forward.

Being a fighter ranked ninety-nine on the Provisional Leaderboard, he was only a step away from the Divine Leaderboard.

Naturally, he didn't take it too well to have a teacher who couldn't even make it into the Provisional Leaderboard.

That's right! Just do as you are told and train hard instead of asking so many questions!

He glanced at Bruno and Troy as he asked, "You guys think you're smarter than the others, huh? You think you've got what it takes to back up your arrogance?"

“You...”

The guys were enraged, but Levi simply flashed them a smile as he continued, “You really want those pieces of trash out there to teach you guys?”

As Lab of Gods had trained them to be elites, they refused to give up.

Never once did they forget their mission—to stay here!

“Comrades, we can’t leave like cowards! We need to find a way to get other teachers to take us as students. Listen to me! We shall get on our knees for three days straight. That way, the high-rank officials won’t ignore our plight!” Eskild announced.

“All right! Let’s do that!”

Soon, Eskild and the other six went on their knees on the square in the middle of Carigrey Academy to ask to become someone else's students.

Just when Troy was about to take action, Levi called out, "Wait a minute."

"Ha! Are you afraid of Troy?"

“Never mind if you’re scared. We’ve never respected you, anyway. You can still be our teacher and teach us!”

Playvolume00:00/00:44TruvidfullScreen

“Yes, as long as you give in, we’ll let this off!”

They promptly joined in the discussion.

“No, what I mean is, you should all join in the fight instead of sending him!” Levi explained.

“What?” The moment those words left his lips, everyone fell silent in astonishment.

They couldn't help but beam in delight.

Initially, they thought they had gotten the worst teacher, but Levi was, in fact, the strongest teacher!

All the teachers are no match for him!

Luck is on our side! Eskild and the rest who have escaped earlier are fools to have missed the opportunity. If Eskild was upset, he could've challenged Levi.

At that thought, everyone's lips curved up.

As soon as Levi said that, everyone else stared at him intently.

“I’ll train along with you, and provide instructions when needed. However, I can’t promise you’ll improve quickly. It might take three to ten years to see an improvement,” he warned.

Everyone gaped at his words.

In this era where improvement was swift, no one could afford to wait for ten years.

The world might not even exist after ten years!

No one could wait that long.

It was Daxon and the others who had made that announcement.

“Huh? What’s going on?” Everyone turned to look at them.

“The chancellor and vice-chancellors caused it when they were training,” Daxon announced.

As all three positions were Levi technically, he wasn’t lying.

“What? The chancellor and vice-chancellors are that capable?”

“Oh, dear! They are stronger than Karsten!”

“I’m going to be a good student, so the chancellor or vice-chancellors will set eyes on me!”
