Chapter 261

It dawned on him that he was a technical consultant for the Defense Research And Development Centre.

He was still married to Sasha.

What she was doing was sabotaging a military marriage.

Suddenly he understood why Levi would not let him get a divorce.

So this was the reason!

Yet, everything was legal as well as reasonable.

It was Sasha who was unfaithful to their marriage, was it not?

They had also been dishonest and leaked the core technology, had they not?

They deserved to face the consequences of their wrongdoing.

After regaining his composure, Isaiah came to the restaurant they had agreed upon.

What surprised him was that Sasha was not alone. Tom and Charlie were also there.

Seeing Isaiah limping in, Tom sneered, "Didn't I say that this cripple would hobble over as soon as he hears Sasha's voice?"

"Is this a dud or a man? He knows full well that his wife is sleeping around, yet he still comes the moment she calls! What a loser!" Charlie sneered.

Sasha knew Isaiah's character and his temperament.

She knew that he valued his pride and would never allow that to happen.

So she attacked his weak point!

"You... you, slut!"

As expected, Isaiah was provoked.

He nearly jumped to his feet, clenched his fists and shouted in anger.

If everyone knew his wife was unfaithful and acted shamelessly right in front of him, he would not be able to control himself.

He just could not accept this.

"Well? Aren't you telling us?"

Seeing Isaiah struggling with himself, Sasha felt untold pleasure.

She could abuse Isaiah any time she wished.

Just when Isaiah was struggling within, Levi's voice came through the hidden earpiece in his ear, "Let her do it! Isn't that exactly the evidence we need?"

Levi had been watching the whole scene unfold before him through remote cameras.

Levi's words brought Isaiah to his senses. That's right!

Everyone looked at Levi in disbelief.

How is he so strong?

"Aren't you going to scram?" Levi asked coldly, glaring at the bewildered Sasha.

Sasha ran off immediately.

Levi then left with Isaiah.

"Levi, Isaiah, we won't forget this. Just watch out, we're going to get you for this."

As they watched Levi and Isaiah depart, Charlie and Tom were full of anger and hatred.

Before Sasha left, she asked the crowd if anyone had taken photos or video clips.

After confirming that no one did, only then did they leave.

After leaving the restaurant, Isaiah bawled his eyes out.

He was just an ordinary guy who wanted to live a peaceful life.

The muscles of these seven to eight people were well-developed, especially the biceps, which were as big as human heads.

The muscles lining the arms and legs bulged so much that they look like there were snakes hidden under their skin.

In addition, they were huge and looked more terrifying than normal gangsters.

These were physiques trained in the gym with the help of protein supplements. They may not be real fighters but their size were frightening enough.

The moment they appeared, Isaiah got the shock of his life.

In their presence, he felt small.

Their arms were bigger than his thighs. Just one punch would be enough to kill him, he thought.

Inside the room, Sasha, accompanied by Charlie and Tom, approached step by step.

One side of Tom’s face was swollen, and the same can be said for Charlie as well. They gazed at Levi with malicious intents.

“Haha, Isaiah, are you stupid? You just come whenever I asked you to?” Sasha laughed aloud.

She looked at Isaiah as if he was a retard.

Tom sneered, “Levi, something is definitely wrong with your brain. I didn’t expect you to tag along with him without any hesitation.”

At that moment, Isaiah came to a full realization of the situation and he pointed his finger at Sasha, saying, "That's right! Sasha and you two other, worthless beasts. Kneel before me and I'll give you a lighter sentence. Otherwise, you three wretches will definitely regret it!"

At the words of Levi and Isaiah, the trio were stunned.

Have Levi and Isaiah gone crazy?

Don't they understand the situation?

They're the ones facing a disaster, don't they know that?

We are not the ones stuck in a sticky situation!

At Isaiah's words, Sasha and her gang were furious.

"Are you not aware of it yet? You three are dumb asses!" Isaiah sneered.

He had never seen anyone so foolish before.

Sasha screamed, "Bash them up! Kill them! I want them to crawl out of here by the time we're done!"

The fitness coaches who were already impatient to attack rushed towards Levi and Isaiah, waving the steel pipes held in their hands.

Slam!

Kenneth Wayne cast a glance at Isaiah and said, "He works for the National Military, so Sasha having an affair is considered as violating the military marriage law."

"What?! He is a military personnel? No he can't be. I've been with him for ten years, how can I not know if he is?"

Sasha was totally bewildered.

Tom and Charlie were both puzzled, "Yeah! What type of soldier is Isaiah?"

Kenneth sneered, "Comrade Isaiah is in the Defense Research And Development Centre Technical Team! He is of course, considered a soldier, isn't he?"

"What? Why didn't I know that?"

Sasha and the other two adulterers were so frightened that their hearts leapt to their throats.

Isaiah came before the three of them, took out his Identity card and waved it in front of them.

Their eyes widened in surprise as they read the information and seal on the card. Terrified, they broke out in cold sweat.

They believed that if Isaiah spoke up for them, they would have a chance. At the very least, they could spend less time in jail.

"Slut, you are not worthy of me. Get lost!" Smack!

Isaiah fiercely slapped her on the face.

Slam! Wham! Smack!

"And you beasts! You are unworthy to be my students! Scram!"

Isaiah ferociously kicked the two men a few times.

"No... please..."

Sasha and the two men regretted.

His two companions said in confirmation, “That’s right. We tested it three times and it failed all of it!
Your product is of inferior quality!”

The young man Tony looked at Iris with disgust in his eyes, saying, “Morris Group, I’m warning you. If you continue to send in product like this, I will still reject them!”

“Hmph, you guys better think over it! The inspection result was way below acceptable!”

“The next test is in a week’s time!”

Tony left quickly after that.

Morris Group was not given even a chance to appeal!

Iris and the others hurriedly read the quality inspection report.

Finished reading, everyone was furious.

The reason was exasperating.

Iris and the team suspected that the quality inspection department had failed the product without even examining it.

The issues they had highlighted on were totally irrelevant to their products.

It was ridiculous!

Immediately, they realized that someone had sabotaged them.

"Oh, okay! Then let me do it. Not long ago, someone from your department delivered this, and told me that those medical devices are way below the passing grades. Not only that, but he also threatened to reject whatever products we send in for inspection!" Levi said.

"Huh? Did this really happen?"

Anxious, Cameron broke out in cold sweat.

“Shh... Let me finish. Before these devices reached the Bureau, I sent it to the Defense Research And Development Centre for quality inspection. After all, they will be used in the medical industry, and I don't want any issues. Guess what? Not only were they qualified, but the results were also perfect in every aspect!”

Levi glanced at Samson and smiled, saying, “Let me introduce you to Samson, the head of the Quality Inspection Department from DRDC.”

Samson handed the report to Cameron, “Captain Cameron, we tested this product five times, and not once did it fail the test. In fact, it is way better than all of the models available in the market.”

With trembling knees, Cameron started flipping through the report.

At the same time, Levi handed another stack of document to him and said, “Captain Cameron, now this is from your department.”

Finished reading everything, Cameron nearly fainted from fright.

The second report's content was obviously nonsense.

They clearly did not know what product they were analyzing, and simply rejected it.

Cameron was furious.

Tony was really arrogant, acting almighty.

"That's true. Captain Tony is in charge of the report section. If he says you pass, you pass!"

"Exactly. If he wishes to fail any product, there you go. In the Bureau, Captain Tony's word is law!"

In reply, Xawery Yount and Ron laughed.

Tony looked at Levi with disdain, "Today, the North Hampton Chamber of Commerce has also sent their products in for quality inspection. I don't even need to run through any analysis, and I'll give them a pass!"

As he spoke, his assistant who was on standby, handed Ron the quality inspection report.

Everyone present watched in disbelief...

Ridiculous!

Taking over the report, Ron looked at Levi and laughed, "Now you know who is the man in charge of the Bureau."

Tony glared at Levi and barked angrily, "Now get lost! I'm telling you. Within these six months, I will not pass any products you send in!"
