Chapter 2661 A False Alarm

Craig and the others slowly eased up their frowns upon hearing the good news.

So it was just a false alarm.

“Hahaha. Everything is fine! It was just a false alarm!”

“That scared the hell out of me. I thought we were doomed!”

Everyone was relieved.

Meanwhile, Zephyr froze on the spot, not knowing how to react.

Just then, the professionals started explaining. “There was an abnormal fluctuation in space! Now research institutes and scientists from all over the world, including Erudia, are searching and studying what was going on!”

“That’s right! The fluctuation was huge. It’s not strange that the monitoring stations got affected!”

The crowd started to discuss.

Craig smiled. “It was nothing then. There’s no need to be nervous. Let’s go back to work!”

Since everyone had made up their minds, there was nothing Zephyr could say anymore.

After all, Death Fiend had already acted on his end.

He was bringing even more men than last time.

"Forget it. I can't just stand here and do nothing! If something happens, the frontline will be the first one to be in danger! I must go there!"

Zephyr immediately packed his stuff and brought his men to the frontline.

The others could not be bothered less.

Why is he so nervous? Nothing is happening.

They thought Zephyr was acting foolishly.

He is fooling around because he is too free! He is just like Levi! The latter created a huge loss for Erudia and then vanished. And he has not shown up since then. They are both irresponsible pricks!

After taking the action, Lab of Gods had been monitoring the situation closely.

First, they resumed all the monitoring stations and sent the news to Dragonites.

Chapter 2663 What Is That

Erudia's coastline was calm and peaceful as usual.

Especially early in the morning...

Nonetheless, many fishermen were already out in the sea.

The port was crammed with boats, all of which were trying to compete for the limited anchoring spots.

Remnants of the defense system were still scattered across the open sea.

At that moment, everyone's face was filled with joy and delight.

Understandably, a plain and ordinary person only wanted stability and peace.

Meanwhile, there were three ships patrolling the parameters of Erudia.

Although the defense line had been withdrawn, the daily patrolling remained.

The deployment of three ships was the usual routine.

"Hmm? What's going on in front?"

One of the patrolling ships noticed an aberration ahead.

"That's weird. There should be sentry tower No. 3 thirty nautical miles ahead. Why is it not there now?"

"That's impossible. How can a tall structure vanished from thin air?"

...

They were all dumbfounded.

"Not only No. 3, but No. 1 and No.2 too!"

“This is an emergency!”

Chapter 2664 The Creation By Doctor Erebus

The guards by the coastlines rushed toward the scene upon noticing the abnormality.

However, they were outnumbered.

There were only a few hundred of them.

They deployed modern weapons to initiate their first round of attacks against the Leviathan.

Thud! Thud! Thud!

Bang!

The tremendous firepower resulted in a fiery bombardment on the Leviathans based on the previous war.

Despite the formidable powers of the Warmachine, they were no match for modern weapons.

The guards had experience dealing with Warmachines, and they knew the exact target of their attacks.

Especially when hundreds of them gathered together.

Undoubtedly, the firepower was overwhelming.

Accuracy was not pertinent as they tried to overwhelm the Leviathans with brute force.

Saving on their resources was only necessary if they lack firepower. But with their team together and full of resources, they no longer had that concern.

They were not afraid of the Leviathans.

Everyone saw the level of destruction that the Leviathan was capable of.
It was much stronger than the attacks before!
Knowing that they were overpowered, the only choice left was to retreat.
Snipers were stationed to provide cover.
Besides, it was a hopeful attempt to identify the weakness of the Leviathans.

However, the snipers' locations were quickly exposed and they were being targeted by the Leviathans.

Boom!

Boom!

The Leviathans sent out tracking missiles and wiped out the tall buildings in which the snipers were hiding.

Obviously, there was no weakness.

At the end of the day, the Leviathan was a masterpiece built by the most advanced technologies.

Meanwhile, the control room received a lot of distress signals.

The machines were struggling to handle the voluminous input of information.

Everyone in the control room was panic-stricken.

Because of Zephyr's false alarm previously, everyone grew numb and let down their guards.

However, the wave of distress signals was unexpected and had caused them to act frantically.

It's true!

Zephyr was right!

Levi was also right!

"The observation post noticed an abnormality! I repeat, an abnormality was spotted!"

"The coastlines by the east were breached!"

"The coastline by the south suffered similar fate!"

"This is an emergency! This is an emergency! Unidentified Warmachines managed to break through our defenses and have reached the coastlines! The damage caused is unimaginable!"

"My men are retreating. We have given up on a large area of territory!"

"We faced off against an army of unidentified Warmachines! They were indestructible, and appeared to be immune to all our attacks! On top of that, they have a myriad of techniques to attack. Their powers are substantially stronger than the ones before!"

Craig, Nicholas, and Chandler were thunderstruck.

Their minds went blank upon the realization.

Nobody was spared from the shock of the startling revelation.

Zephyr’s premonition was spot-on; Death Fiend’s insistence was grounded.

Even Crown King’s prediction was dead-on.

His idea of building walls as a defense barrier was proven to be correct as well.

If everyone had listened to him, there would already be a three-hundred-meter tall wall alongside the coastline of Erudia, shielding the country from those Warmachines!

Otherwise, how would they be able to land on Erudia?

It would have been virtually impossible for them to accomplish that!

Chapter 2668 The Disappearance Of Sacred Organization

Whether or not Erudia would be spared from the downfall would depend on Nicholas' ability to effectively deploy his resources.

Craig's army was essentially buying him more time to carefully administer his plan.

As for Chandler, he was in charge of mobilizing all covert sentries in Erudia to support the frontline battle. At the same time, gather information on the enemies, preventing them from ambushing Erudia from within.

Finally, Gary was tasked with evacuating as many civilians as possible so that they would be spared from the disaster.

Even though the construction of Shelter was stopped midway, Sacred Organization had built around twenty to thirty of them.

They would be able to shield most civilians from harm if they were able to look for other safe zones.

At the very least, they had a backup plan of shielding the remaining civilians in inland cities.

However, their plans were not without risk, as it would largely depend on the situation at the frontline.

The more dire the situation was, the more Gary was reminded of Levi's prediction.

He could not help but ponder the upsides of having a three-hundred-meter tall wall.

What if we also have hundreds of shelters? How many losses would we be able to avoid altogether?

Chapter 2669 Another Disappearance

"If Restricted Area 76 manages to take down Oakland City and Dragonites, then Erudia would already be on the losing end!" the others exclaimed.

An epiphany hit Lucifer as he said, "That's brilliant! If even we do not know where they've gone to, Erudia would also be clueless about it too!"

"So, what are you guys worried about? It's Erudia that should be concerned about this. It's a good thing that they've disappeared. Erudia would have been eradicated when they finally make an appearance," Mr. X sneered.

He could not wait to witness Erudia's downfall.

Erudia's predicament soon spread to The Cardinal Hall and Eragon, which also incited chaos.

At the same time, The Manifest Court had caught wind of the news and shared some insights on dealing with Warmachines.

The Cardinal Hall had mobilized all of its resources, while Eragon only about half of theirs.

The latter dared not mobilize all its forces, owing to the nature of its organization.

In actual fact, Eragon was made up of many branches, all of which held parts of Erudia's top secret respectively.

Everyone started to look for Daxon.

Meanwhile, the former Dark Emperor's Senior Disciple brought his father, Daxon, before the former Dark Emperor's grave.

The Senior Disciple wailed, stumping Daxon.

"All right, now that I've paid my respects to your late mother, I should go," Daxon said before he turned around to leave.

However, Senior Disciple hugged his legs and said, "How could you leave after seeing this? Don't you want to avenge her? How could you contemplate working with my mother's murderer?"

Senior Disciple of the former Dark Emperor cried as he stopped Daxon from leaving.

The Cardinal Hall had been trying to reach Daxon so that he could step up and command the situation upon knowing that Erudia was in a crisis.
