Chapter 2781 The Enhanced Version Of Leviathan

Hiss! Hiss! Hiss!

The Diviniterians gasped as soon as they saw a ginormous being coming out of the vortex.

It looked almost the same as the Leviathan created by Dr. Erebus, but it was three times greater in size, which meant it was nearly a thousand feet tall and more than half a mile long.

The Diviniterians were utterly stupefied when they encountered something that gigantic. My goodness! The Leviathans were already giants, but this creature is even larger! And its structure looks almost the same as a Leviathan. This thing must be created based on the same design!

It was only then the Diviniterians realized that the Zarainians knew all along about the Leviathans they hid under the power station. The Zarianians must’ve studied our Leviathans thoroughly. Otherwise, they wouldn’t have been able to replicate the creatures. Be that as it may, it’s almost unbelievable how they managed to create a bigger and stronger version of our Leviathans in such a short time. In terms of material used and combat power, the Zarianian’s version seems to be far superior. But how did they even do it?

Covered in cold sweats, the Diviniterians all froze like statues in the face of the enormous being.

Chapter 2782 The Fighters Of Sacroria

The Diviniterian troops were helpless.

Only Mr. X and the rest clashed with the enemies directly, hoping to find a solution.

However, they could not break through yet.

Behind them, the Defenders of the Galaxy were starting to corner them.

They had no choice but to battle it out—there were simply no other solutions.

“Has the alliance and those from Erudia caught up with us?” asked Mr. X warily.

“Not yet! We don’t know if it’s a part of a scheme. When the alliance faced the full force of our troop’s attacks, they were delayed. Till now, they had not broken through the defense barrier. Why do I feel that they’re doing it on purpose?” the subordinate answered, feeling puzzled.

Frowning, Mr. X replied, “They’re doing it on purpose! They are deliberately staying back to watch us fight with the Defenders of the Galaxy. The more violent the battle, the better. In fact, the best-case scenario for them is if both parties suffer severe losses!”

The others chimed in, “Yeah, that’s right! They’re definitely spectating this.”

“They want us and the Defenders of the Galaxy to take a massive blow. Theoretically, both of us are the alliance’s enemies!”

Everyone thought the alliance stopped moving after encountering a Diviniterian troop’s attack because they wanted to spectate the fight and that it was a deliberate act on their side.

However, they also understood that it had nothing to do with any plots or the alliance hoping to spectate the fight.

Chapter 2783 Only They Are Worthy Of Anything Related To God

When those from Diviniteria witnessed that scene, they erupted into an uproar.

It was the greatest moment for them.

Overwhelmed with joy, many of them immediately burst into tears.

Even Mr. X was so excited that he felt like crying.

Sacroria is finally here! Diviniteria's ambitious plan is going to be fulfilled... Once Sacroria appears, everyone else will be a complete nonentity. All they can do is wait to be slaughtered. Everyone will soon die! None of them will remain standing.

That sudden scene caused both sides to be stunned. Subconsciously, they froze and glanced in the direction of the arrow.

Indeed, a golden figure was floating in the sky, enveloped in a saintly glow.

He was holding a golden crossbow.

God! A true God! Compared to people like Mr. X in Diviniteria, he's the only one who can truly be called a God!

A God, just like those mentioned in the legends, had appeared in front of everyone.

It was simply too unbelievable.

Chapter 2784 Levi Can Finally Unleash His True Powers

The eighteen Archangels of Sacroria wore gold armor, looking as dignified as gods.
Judging from their domineering aura, Levi could tell they had immense strength.
Indeed, they were much stronger than the people he had encountered at Restricted Area 76.

However, they could not be hailed as Gods.

They just happened to be a mighty race above the level of current civilization, possessing the most powerful talent and the most advanced technology.

It was probably a very advanced race that had been around since ancient times.

However, there were only a dozen of them left at the present moment.

Their objective of setting up the Lab of Gods was perhaps to restore the previous prosperous days of their race.

As for the core members of Lab of Gods, they were a random mix of people.

For example, Dr. Erebus was just an ordinary human being. However, due to his strong powers, he was recruited into the Lab of Gods and was even made a part of Sacroria.

In other words, they were merely a motley crew of people with strong abilities.

However, the objective of the crew was to create those Archangels of Sacroria.

According to Levi's understanding, the objective of Project Genesis was to create a place like Restricted Area 76.

He did not expect it to be the creation of Sacroria!

After observing the situation, he immediately caught on.

Smythe and the other higher-ups were all smiling.

Seeing that Sacroria had entered that area, the men grinned from ear to ear.

Why are they so happy?

Black Hawk was confused.

He was unable to figure out how Defenders of the Galaxy could defeat Sacroria, given the current circumstances.

Yet, his superiors looked so calm and confident, as though they had everything under control.

It would be possible to deal with Diviniteria alone, but after witnessing the prowess of the eighteen Archangels of Sacroria, Black Hawk was utterly numb with shock.

It was just not something they could handle.

From his understanding, it was impossible for Zarain to come up with a solution to deal with Sacroria.

Thus, the man was unable to figure out the reason for his superiors' excitement, especially when Sacroria was already getting closer to the command center.

Perhaps they do have a plan in mind?

“Let's begin then!” Just then, Smythe and the other exchanged glances and began to issue an order.

“Begin? What does that mean?”

Instead of responding directly to Black Hawk's question, the man replied placidly, "Just wait and see!"
Everyone was still unable to return to their senses.
In front of them was a gigantic panel created by merging hundreds of thousands of solar panels!

Even though those might not be solar panels, the panels were functioning in a similar manner. Even the technology used to manufacture them was the same.

While everyone was still gaping at it, the gigantic panel was suddenly activated.

The countless gadgets that were fixed onto the panels started operating.

With crackling sounds, electric currents traveled across all the gadgets.

The energy flowing across the panels was downright terrifying, sending shock waves across the ocean.

There were sudden flashes of lightning followed by claps of thunder in the sky, and a storm ensued.

Everything that was happening appeared to be against the laws of nature.

Boom!

Suddenly, a deafening noise sounded, which seemed capable of tearing the world apart.

Chapter 2787 A Territory Under The Control Of Zarain

"Did they tamper with the magnetic field?" Cyrus asked.

That seemed to be the case, according to his experience.

Previously, in order to deal with those who possessed superpowers, equipment was specially created to manipulate magnetic fields.

The more intense the disturbance, the more effective it was at restricting the powers of those fighters.

Under such circumstances, there was no way the fighters could exercise any of their skills or superpowers.

"No! It's not that simple. Not only did they tamper with the magnetic field, but they have also manipulated everything else in the environment!" Levi replied in astonishment.

According to his observation, Zarain's gigantic panel did more than just manipulate the magnetic field. It had changed the magnetic field completely.

The poles of the magnetic field had been reversed, which resulted in the current phenomenon where everything seemed to be working in the opposite direction.

The stronger fighters could easily feel the effects of entering into a completely different environment where the magnetic field poles were reversed entirely.

The impact was just too keenly felt.

Naturally, the objective of doing that was to deal with Sacroria.

Chapter 2788 Important Discovery

Within the areas controlled by Zarain, it was extremely easy to restrain objects that were made of metal.

A slight interference with the magnetic field was enough to get it done.

In spite of that, they were confident their weapons were still powerful enough to pierce the equipment.

Boom!

When their holy weapons struck the equipment in front of them, a strange shockwave reverberated across the surface. However, it wasn't damaged at all.

Once the shockwave dissipated, everything returned to normal.

However, they had assumed Levi faked the two groups to intimidate them.

In truth, Levi was doing it to lure Sacroria out.

Nevertheless, Dr. Erebus deserved credit for unraveling the charade.

Unfortunately, there was nothing they could do after learning of the news, especially in their current predicament.

As a result, Mr. X and his men fell into silence.

After all, Sacroria and Diviniteria's current enemy wasn't Erudia at all.

Instead, it was Zarain, who knew them extremely well.

Furthermore, by the time they found out, it was already too late.

At the crucial moment, Mr. X ordered, "Dr. Erebus, you have to go into hiding, as things aren't looking good here. Therefore, you shouldn't come here matter what."

Initially, he had hoped that Dr. Erebus would arrive with reinforcements.

However, the current situation was too risky for him to do so. Therefore, he had better not come over just in case everyone was killed in the battle.

The only hope they had left was to get Dr. Erebus to go into hiding.

It was unbelievably terrifying, for they didn’t know who would be next and when their turn would be.

To make matters worse, watching their comrades fall made them feel as if they were next.

That method of dying was terrifying psychologically.

Those who were awaiting their impending deaths were the ones who let out the most excruciating screams.

Even Mr. X was filled with panic when he saw everyone dropping dead like flies all around him.

There was no way he wouldn't be frightened.

In contrast to how Diviniteria had proudly assumed that they could conquer the world and make enemies of everyone, they were now being slaughtered like livestock.

Moreover, they didn't even have the ability to defend themselves.

It was an extremely pathetic sight.

Everyone from Diviniteria couldn't believe how Zarain's equipment could attack them with such ease.
