Chapter 2851 The South Pole Remained The Same

They thought they would be the safest during the catastrophe, yet, never did they expect such an outcome.

After all, none of them could have thought that the catastrophe would become a beneficial opportunity.

Not only did the humans not die from it, but they also turned into Deities who were far stronger than those from Lab of Gods.

Before the catastrophe, Erudia and Zarain were considered the top countries in the world.

However, the catastrophe turned the tide entirely—all the countries and forces became incredibly powerful simultaneously.

The top fighters such as Daxon from Erudia would pale by comparison.

The spiritual energy in the super-spiritual ley line was so domineering that any human who received its radiation would transform into fighters that easily overpowered people like Daxon.

In fact, Daxon would be an ant in the eyes of the Deities.

If Leviathans were to appear again, those mutated humans could destroy them effortlessly with their bare hands.

Chapter 2852 He Is Alive

If the environment in the South Pole turned out to be as good as the other places, Digital God might think Levi was dead.

However, the environment in that area was terrible beyond imagination, which meant there was a chance that Levi was still alive.

After all, it was the exact spot where the super-spiritual ley line erupted.

Hence, it was normal for it to be completely dark and filled with powerful energy radiation and irregular turbulences.

There must be some remains of the super-spiritual ley line since it could not have erupted completely.

A little remnant could still cause a considerable impact.

Suddenly, an idea crossed Digital God's mind.

Forces like Erudia and Zarain that did not benefit from the catastrophe could come to the South Pole to make up for their missed opportunity.

Beep! Beep! Beep!

Just then, the aircraft emitted abnormal warning sounds.

It seemed everything was malfunctioning after getting close to the area.

"Let's retreat. This place feels weird!" the pilot uttered.

Digital God insisted, "Let's go down and have a look. Don't worry! I will design a few more defense systems! I promise we will get out of here alive!"

Upon hearing his assurance, they dived into the South Pole glacier slowly.

Everyone was stunned and left in utter bewilderment.

They saw a figure appearing beside them.

The figure was not wearing anything. His body looked perfect and as though it was cast with gold.

They took a closer look at the god-like man.

It is Levi! He is alive! How could that be possible?

It was the core of the spiritual ley line.

It meant Levi was exposed to at least eighty percent of the spiritual energy of the super-spiritual ley line.

One could imagine its impact simply by looking at what had happened to the world.

However, Levi was alive after enduring most of the spiritual energy.

That was beyond impressive.

However, when they were still overwhelmed with surprise, the aircraft started moving swiftly again.

It was pushed out from the vortex by Levi.

All of them passed out due to the strong quake.

When they regained their consciousness, they found themselves already in a safe place.

Chapter 2854 Deity In Erudia

How strong have I become?

Levi wasn't sure.

Nevertheless, he felt utterly different than before.

Previously, he felt his power was so strong that he could destroy a planet.

Yet, now he felt like the entire world was within him. It felt somehow supernatural to him, as though the whole world was merely an illusion.

It was as if he was sitting above the world and seeing everything from a god's perspective.

The feeling was fascinating, as though everything was merely a blink away from him.

I didn't expect I could still be alive or save the world again. It must be my mentor! If it weren't for him, I would be dead now.

After leaving the South Pole, Levi made haste for Erudia.

He wanted to find out if the other humans survived the catastrophe.

Before long, he found out about the change that took place globally.

He was not startled as it happened because of him.

It was nothing compared to what he had seen in the core of the super-spiritual ley line.

Chapter 2855 The Weakest Will Be Oppressed

He had seen a lot throughout his lifetime.

Due to the change in the environment, some places became either permanently dark areas or raging with fire and frost.

These fire and frost were converted from spiritual energy, which was different from what everyone knew.

These places were the real forbidden areas.

Even a fighter who had been through the radiation could hardly survive in those places.

It would be a tremendous challenge for those who called themselves a Deity.

Even though the whole world had changed for the better, some places had become hellish.

They have no idea what is going on out there, yet they dare to call themselves Deities.

Nevertheless, Levi was not interested in that. The only thing that he cared about was seeing his friends and family.

He could easily defeat any of those Deities with a single move.

Not to mention, those Deities existed because of him.

In other words, he was the one who gave them the power.

By the time Levi returned to Erudia, everyone who had been hiding in Shelter had come out.

Chapter 2856 Enslaved

Even though most people had heard that there was no Deity in Erudia, no one ever confirmed it.
A hellish air enveloped the entire area and stunned everyone. The crowd suddenly felt like they couldn't breathe at all.

Thump! One after another, their knees fell to the ground.

They were unable to withstand the aura from that Deity.

If the Deity wanted to kill them, he could make hundreds of thousands of citizens within the area perish simply by releasing his energy.

That was the vast difference in power between them.

Evidently, this Deity did not come to kill but to show off his power.

On the other hand, he came to verify if Erudia escaped the catastrophe and if the country really did not have any fighter or Deity born out of the disaster.

After all, the world was still wary of Erudia.

They even suspected that Erudia hid their Deities and spread false news to blind the rest.

It felt as if lightning had struck and blown everyone into pieces.

Horror rose from the depth of everyone’s heart.

It sounded like an order from heaven, and no one dared to resist it.

“Hahaha. Divine Brigadier, the brain of The Cardinal Hall! You are no different from the ordinary citizens.” Just then, the Deity from Raysonia noticed Daxon among the crowd.

A malicious glint flashed across the Deity’s eyes as he spoke.

Less than a month ago, Daxon was still the top fighter in the world.

Yet, now he was going to end up becoming someone’s slave.

Now that the entire world was changing, it was as if his status had dropped from heaven to hell.

“Great! You will be my watchdog then! I will make you a customized gold chain!” The Deity intended to make Daxon his personal slave.

His lips curled into a satisfied smile as he decided on that.

Chapter 2858 The Fall Of Deity

As a deafening rumble pierced the sky, Ichirou felt it strike his soul, plunging him into the fiery depths of hell.

Boom! Suddenly another thunderous lightning flashed across the sky.

Hundred of thousands lifted their heads to watch the gruesome scene of the Raysonian Deity exploding into droplets of blood raining down upon them.

The scene was spectacular yet horrifying.

A Deity was shocked to death by a thunderclap. Who could imagine a Deity would be shocked into bits of pieces?

The bloody rain that showered upon the public soaked their skins. Almost immediately, the red raindrops disappeared into their skin, absorbed into their bodies. Their cores were revitalized with energy as though they had taken an enhancement pill. Its effect was much better than absorbing spiritual energy directly.

The flora, which was rained upon, also underwent a dramatic change in its biology.

After all, the spiritual energy within the blood of the Deities was equivalent to an enhancement pill.

However, the detonation of a Deity in the sky of Erudia had overwhelmed the public, overshadowing their surprise about the changes happening within them.

It was a terrifying scene!

"I supposed the Crown King was the cause of it," Daxon, the Divine Brigadier, blurted out.

Suddenly, a dreadful thought occurred to him.

Could it be the Raysonian Deity?

He shuddered at the thought.

Soon, words about the fall of the Raysonian Deity, Ichirou, in Erudia spread to all parts of the world.

The entire world was stunned.

The major organizations had firmly insisted there was no Deity born in Erudia and its allied nations. With that reasoning, they had lumped the latter as the weakest nations.

Who could've expected the catastrophe to happen immediately after?

The Raysonian Deity was instantly defeated after running his mouth in Erudia.

People from all over the world were taken aback.

They wondered if Erudia had lied about the existence of Deity.

Dr. Erebus' and Zoey's expressions darkened at their action.

Panic struck them. They didn't know what the Ancient Clan member had fed Forlevia.

Zoey was worried sick.

"You guys were the ones who forced me to do it! Don't think you can take her away!" that person shouted insanely.

“What did you feed her?” Zoey yelled in anguish.

“This is the Final Malice! The deadliest poison we developed after centuries of research. Over the years, we have collected a variety of poisons from every corner of the world. We meticulously picked out eighty-seven of the most potent poisons from the entire catalog and combined them into a blend of the deadliest poison. Hence, its name,” the person explained.

“Rest assured. No one has the antidote for it. Ancient cultivators have always been our research focus, and these poisons are related to both the eastern and western ancient cultivators. One of the poisons is related to Erudia’s Xenhall cleric. According to the myth, even Erudia’s Ecclesiastic Order can’t do anything with it. We have another poison that causes western Deities to lose their power once they are poisoned by it. Just think about it. Who could create an antidote for the blend of eighty-seven of the most potent poisons?”
