Chapter 2891 The Imperial Family Of Raysonia

“Hahaha!” Everyone burst out laughing once again.

The more serious Digital God sounded, the funnier they found his statement to be.

Damn, I can't take this guy seriously! I'd get it if he threatened us with someone we actually feared, but Levi? Come on, now. Besides, Xyperia fears no one at all! Even countries as powerful as Zarain don't pose a threat to us, so who is Levi to challenge us at all? Is this meant to be a f*cking joke?

Just like that, Digital God left Xyperia with everyone laughing at him.

The leaders of Idrae stepped forward and told Titan Lord, “From here on, we shall serve Xyperia with our lives!”

“Yeah! We will do everything in our power to help Xyperia!”

Imagine how crazy things would get if countries without Deities like Erudia and Zarain were to find out about this! We may already have tens of thousands of Deities, but this offer is way too valuable for us to pass up! Idrae is an extremely valuable resource to Xyperia, so we must

We won't be able to get our hands on this poison's information, but that's okay! We'll be able to obtain all that data after we analyze the poison ourselves. The experts from Zarain and Shield are researching it extensively. With enough time, I'm sure they'll figure it out!” Dr. Erebus told Levi

Chapter 2892 The Poison Handbook

“My men found out that the imperial family in Raysonia are hiding a long-lost Poison Handbook. It contains a record of all the poisons in the world! The handbook actually belongs to Erudia, but it mysteriously went missing at some point. Who would've thought it'd end up in the Raysonian imperial family's hands, eh?” Levi explained.

Dr. Erebus' eyes lit up after hearing that. "What? Something like that exists? A book about all the poisons in existence? That'd greatly increase our chances of curing Evie, right?"

"I believe so. The Poison Handbook is something that my subordinate, Venom Fiend, has always wanted to get his hands on. You could even say it's his ultimate goal in life. He has been searching for it for many years, but to no avail. We got lucky this time, though. The imperial palace of Raysonia took some serious damage from the spiritual energy revival, and it revealed the location of the Poison Handbook as a result."

"If the Poison Handbook really exists, then it should contain information on how to cure the poisoning! This is really promising!"

Dr. Erebus grew excited as well.

Not only was his primary goal to cure Forlevia, but he also had a strong motivation to get rid of the poison.

After examining his daughter's condition, Levi put her body into a state of suspended animation to suppress the spread of the poison as much as possible.

After making all the necessary preparations, the three of them headed over to Raysonia.

"Where can I find those Erudians you guys were talking about? I want to go have a look!" Levi asked one of the pedestrians.

"They're in Black Dragon Hall! There are four Deities there, so I'd say they chose the right place to go to!"

Having heard that, he immediately headed over to Black Dragon Hall with Dr. Erebus.

Black Dragon Hall was the Black Dragon Clan's headquarters in Raysonia.

The clan had tons of elite fighters to begin with, and four of them became Deities after being strengthened by the spiritual energy revival.

Fighters of various other classes too, emerged all over the country.

Meanwhile, Zoey and the others were kneeling in silence outside Black Dragon Hall.

They had brought a lot of people with them, including Forlevia's mentors as well as relatives of Zoey, Levi, and the Lopez and Black families.

Having run into a dead end at Xyperia, they set their sights on Raysonia instead.

They knew Xyperia would never agree to help them out due to conflicts of interest, so they could only hope that the Raysonian Deities would sympathize with them.

Chapter 2894 Bow Down Thousands Of Times

Loud gasps could be heard among the Raysonian citizens watching from a distance.

There were over tens of thousands of people in Raysonia, and that number was still increasing over time.

Zoey and the others would have to bow down tens of thousands of times, and this was just the beginning of their humiliation.

It was obvious that the Raysonians were bullying them to extreme levels.

Noticing some pets in the distance, the man then added, "These animals are also a part of Raysonia, so you must bow down to them as well!"

What? This is ridiculous! Not only do we have to bow down to the people of Raysonia, but also to the animals in the country? These people are clearly going overboard with this!

"Of course, you guys have every right to not do so. Like I said, whether you receive help from our Deities depends on your sincerity. You must first obtain the approval of our citizens before you can seek out our Deities. Isn't that right, people?" Yamada Hayato asked the crowd.

"Yeah! That's right!" the crowd shouted in response.

Thrilled at the thought of having the high and mighty Erudians bow down before them, the crowd agreed with his statement.

They wanted to see Zoey and the others bow down to each and every one of them.

"Do it! Bow!" they shouted.

Chapter 2895 When Did He Get So Strong

The entire place fell into a deathly silence.

Nobody had expected someone to intervene and stop Zoey and the others from bowing down, let alone send Hayato flying right before the Black Dragon Hall.

This is the Black Dragon Hall we're talking about! There are four freaking Deities in there! No one in Raysonia has ever dared cause trouble here! It takes a Deity to challenge another, and there are four of them in there! This guy must've lost his mind!

Everyone thought to themselves as they stared at Levi.

Hayato's body twitched violently after hitting the ground for a brief moment before going completely motionless.

The crowd went up to get a closer look, only to scream in shock when they saw the state of his corpse.
His limbs were torn out of their sockets, and his body would fall apart at the slightest touch.

That commotion was so huge that it startled everyone inside Black Dragon Hall.

A group of people came rushing out seconds later.

"What happened? What happened?" the fighters shouted.

They got enraged when they saw that Hayato had been killed in cold blood.

"Who did this?"

They were losing their minds at that point.

As Levi was standing right outside the door, they knew it had to be him.

I didn't come here to ask your deities for help! I'm just here to kill people! Why would I want to talk to anyone?

Levi showed absolutely no mercy as he made his way deeper into the Black Dragon Hall.

Everyone was petrified when they saw what happened.

Zoey and the others were especially shocked when they felt the strong murderous intent from Levi.

Of course, they knew he was just avenging them as he couldn't stand them being humiliated like that.

The others at the scene, however, were on the brink of losing their minds.

What? Is this guy a psycho? How dare he just show up at Black Dragon Hall and start killing everyone? Does he not give a d*mn about the four deities here? This is way too crazy!

"Oh, no! He'll offend the Deities! Not only will we be unable to save Forlevia, but we'll all end up dying here too!"

Chapter 2897 Killing A Deity In A Second

Since many people had died in Levi's hands, the Deities were determined to punish him even if Dr. Erebus tried to stop them.

“Erebus Angel, this is a matter between him and us, it has nothing to do with you. Please, leave.”

They respectfully asked Dr. Erebus to stay out of the matter.

Although they were somewhat afraid of him, they were firm in their stance whereby Dr. Erebus must not involve himself in this affair.

Upon hearing that, Dr. Erebus chuckled and replied, “I doubt I can interfere even if I wish to.”

He was aware that he had no right poking his nose into Levi’s business.

Once Dr. Erebus finished, he cast a sympathetic glance at the four Deities before him.

Clearly, they have no clue what is going to happen next. Even until now, all they’re worried about is that I might get involved.

After listening to Dr. Erebus’ reply, the Deities from the Black Dragon Clan heaved a sigh of relief.

As long as Erebus Angel agrees to stay out of this, we can go all out to kill Levi without worry.

Levi suddenly sneered after a thought flashed through his mind. “You know, I think I may have found the perfect gift for the imperial family of Raysonia.”

Levi was implying. I guess the gift he’s talking

Their attack nearly wiped out the place, causing an earthquake to occur.

The earth rumbled loudly as though it was about to split open.

Even Dr. Erebus was shocked by the sight.

He might be powerful, but he was aware that he would have stood no chance against the Deities if they were coming at him all at once.

A strong surge of pressure landed on everyone.

Their powerful spiritual energy was actually the power of the universe, and they were using it to reign over everyone.

That was why they were known as “Deities,” for they had control over the universe.

Everyone had to bow before the Deities.

When their intimidating auras enveloped the surroundings, everything beneath them would be ripped apart, let alone ordinary human beings.

To have all three Deities attacked in unison, one could imagine how horrifyingly powerful they could be.

Dr. Erebus felt like he was about to burst from the invincible aura.

Right then, Levi took action.

He ignored the aura and took a step forward.

Without any hesitation, he went to Shunsuke and allowed the latter to attack him repeatedly.

Despite being attacked, Levi was fine.

Chapter 2899 Evie Is Safe With Me

They were relieved that Dr. Erebus had gone in with Levi.
Although they knew that Levi was strong, the first thought that came into their mind was that Levi must've escaped unscathed thanks to Dr. Erebus.
After all, Dr. Erebus was Erebus Angel, the world's savior.
People around the world respected him greatly.
That must be the reason why they were both able to escape.
Nothing else seemed possible.

The only other explanation was that Levi killed everyone in Black Dragon Hall single-handedly, including the four Deities.

But obviously, that possibility was simply too preposterous to even consider.

Since the spiritual energy revival, no Deity had ever been murdered.

Both Ichirou and Abner were killed by ferocious beasts.

As there was no precedent of an ordinary human killing a Deity, they refused to believe that Levi had killed not just one, but four Deities.

“From now on, I’ll figure out a way to treat Evie. So stop running around seeking help. It’s useless to seek help from the Deities. If you insist on helping, return to Erudia,” Levi announced to the crowd.

Evidently, both newcomers hailed from the imperial family of Raysonia. After all, not everyone had the right to wear clothes embroidered with sixteen chrysanthemums.

As it turned out, the men had mingled with the crowd earlier and saw Levi leaving unscathed.

They got curious as to why the Black Dragon Hall allowed him to leave after he had killed so many people there.

It wasn't normal for Black Dragon Hall to release him without teaching him a lesson.

After all, the Deities in Black Dragon Hall were vicious beings.

The imperial family of Raysonia had been in discussion with the Deities for a long time. The Deities had agreed to join forces with the imperial family of Raysonia, but ended up stating their conditions.

Each and every condition was harsher than the one before.

Now that Levi had killed so many of them, there is just no way the Deities would've let the matter slip.

It's simply impossible.

In fact, many others had the same doubt but couldn't muster the courage to head in and find out the truth for themselves.

However, the men from the imperial family of Raysonia had no problem doing that.

Hence, they sneaked into Black Dragon Hall.

Once they stepped in, the unmistakable metallic smell of blood overwhelmed their senses.

Clearly, a fight of the century had ensued in the hall.

Slowly, they walked in.
