Chapter 291: Ecstasy

Liang Chuyu's worries are normal!

In just three months, his son's achievements have reached a level beyond the reach of ordinary people.

It's not cold from the heights, and the wind is heavy and rainy, so much hard work for him alone!

"My mother, just put your heart in your stomach and wait for the blessing with peace of mind. I know how important your son is!"

Holding her mother's shoulders, Qin Yu smiled and said, "Since childhood, when did I worry about you and my dad?"

"You will coax your mother." Liang Chuyu looked at him funny, "Your dad can't make a fart with three sticks, and don't know who you are like?"

"I am a self-contained faction, free and unruly!"

"Free and unruly? Why, why do you still want to go wandering around the world?"

Liang Chuyu's eyebrows crisscrossed, and angrily said: "You just put on your wings and went to the sky. That is also my son. If you should go home, you will go home."

"Yes, yes, my dad and I are both kites in your hands, and you landed as soon as you pulled the string."

Liang Chuyu smiled satisfied and suppressed his inner worries.

The kite is led by a string, but if it flies too high, the wind is too strong.

Forcibly closing the line will only hurt both sides...

A broken kite is not a good thing!

Watching Liang Chuyu leave in the company car, Qin Yu walked back home.

Ding, ding!

Shen Chuxia: 'Qin Shao, when are you free? '

Shen Chuxia: "Picture X2. '

It is the room number of the room card and the rose petals that cover the bed.

In the middle is a black lace dress.

Want to seduce Brother Yu with such a small scene?

Hiss~

"Lazy pig, I will be late if I can't afford it..."

Pulling Lu Qing who was sleeping, suddenly turned his back and hugged his neck and pulled it down.

Qin Yu fell on the bed and was held by her like an octopus.

Lu Qing smiled, muttering dreamily: "Don't move, sleep again!"

...

At noon, Qin Yu sent Lu Qing to school.

He grabbed his schoolbag and jumped out of the car, "I blame you, this time I will be scolded by my instructor again!"

Seeing her running into the school gate like a wind, Brother Yu is full of innocence...

Is it because you insist on the roots of the old tree, what do you do with me?

When people arrive at the W hotel, Xu Hao is waiting in the restaurant, and Talisa is with him.

After finalizing the cooperation before, she returned to Barrow for a short time.

This time I come back and do not plan to leave again, and will stay in the abandoned city for a long time as the representative of Flamingo's equity.

"You seem to be very upset?" Talitha asked jokingly, "Am I getting in your way?"

Xu Hao was stunned, he didn't understand Russian!

"How come, I'm glad you can come." Qin Yu responded in fluent Russian.

Talisa blinked mischievously: "If we were discovered, how would you explain it?"

Qin Yu said, "Is there anything I need to explain?"

Seeing that he looks like a dead pig is not afraid of boiling water, Talitha clasps her fists and nods her head in admiration: 'I lost it!'

"Hey, what are you two talking about, can you use Xia Yu?" Xu Hao was anxious.

Sitting here like a fool, listening to the two people whispering endlessly, don't mention it too embarrassing.

Qin Yu pointed to the food on the table: "You can't stop your mouth when you eat?"

Yes, nothing happened to me.

Xu Hao immersed himself in eating, only treating himself as a transparent person.

"These friends of yours, are you reliable?" Talitha ate dessert and looked at Xu Hao with a smile.

It was a little hairy when I showed him, I always felt that this woman was talking bad about herself.

"Trust and loyalty are only relative, and only benefits are eternal!"

Qin Yu drank the freshly brewed black tea: "I think the benefits I bring are enough to guarantee this."

Talitha retracted her gaze and nodded in agreement: "Yes, Qin, you are a magical person."

Qin Yu smiled slightly, "Some people are like miracles. Do you believe in miracles?"

miracle?

The Barrow people do not believe in miracles, they only believe in their own strength and the law of survival of the weak!

But the appearance of Qin Yu broke Talitha's inherent perception.

From his rescue of his father, he showed keen sense of smell and judgment in the financial field.

Create an existing situation in just a few months!

If these are not miracles, Talitha can't find a suitable word to describe it!

So, do miracles exist?

...

Scanning analysis system:

Talisa:

Age: 23.

Height: 177cm.

Weight: 48kg.

Specialty: Barrow Fighting Technique, Basic Psychology, Paya Ti, Yin Meng Jia Jiu-Jitsu (Advanced).

Face value: 94-.

Body: 96-.

Mood value: 75↑.

Favorability: 92↑.

Freshness: 87-.

Miracle belief value: 11 [shallow believer]

Analytical data: 【Soft Multinational Jiu-Jitsu, blended into self-made fighting techniques, it can be ecstasy or broken! 】

Both body and appearance have increased by 1 point.

The mood is not bad, and the favorability has risen by 2 points, which is still in the rising period!

The freshness has not changed, and the biggest change is naturally the miracle belief value.

With 11 points of faith, it means that she is already a [light believer in miracles].

Specialties and data analysis are a bit interesting.

Basic psychology?

Fighting, Jiu-Jitsu...

The combination of these things gives people a special strange feeling.

Qin Yu asked casually, "Talisa, what was your major in college?"

"I didn't go to college and enlisted in the army!" When Xu Hao was a little surprised, Talitha asked, "Is it weird for a woman to be a soldier?"

"Not surprising at all!"

Xu Hao quickly shook his head and denied that he didn't want to be beaten to death by a female boxer: "It's just that you are so beautiful, it's hard to imagine you in a military uniform."

Hearing his compliment, Talisa said with a big smile: "Thank you."

Turning his eyes to Qin Yu: "Do you want to see me in a military uniform?"

...

It doesn't matter what you wear, it's mainly because you want to experience the atmosphere of a foreign military.

Talisa wearing a beret...

What to say?

There is a touch of charm in the heroic and saucy.

The body is delicate and tall, and there is a sense of helplessness that is at the mercy of others!

Can instantly arouse a man's desire to protect and conquer...

Or, she was pressed to the ground like a wild beast and tossed her wantonly.

Choosing this kind of thing has never been what Qin Yu is good at.

So he decided to try both!

The end result was that Talitha almost succeeded in killing him and rubbed him on the ground.

Thinking of the thrilling scenes last night, Brother Yu is still a little scared now!

If it weren't for his veteran combat experience, he would seize the opportunity to make a strong counterattack.

Let Talisa completely lose the power to fight back, sinking into the quagmire and unable to extricate herself.

The honor of General Yuge Yum will be ruined!

After receiving a video from Xu Hao, he was filming the start of construction on the construction site.

"Brother Yu, look at this hot scene, Yamen guarantees that it will be accepted in 3 months, and it will be officially put into production at most half a year, and all the equipment will be installed in place!"

With the care of the Ye family, the local government showed 2,000% sincerity.

From land, to infrastructure, like water, electricity, heating, transportation and so on.

Including the follow-up equipment installation and commissioning, all are in charge of the Yamen side.

They just need to send someone to follow up and make sure everything is normal!

"When will the technicians be in place?" Qin Yu's drawings are still here. Before the formal production, he needs to train relevant technicians.

You must know that he is not just the legal representative and controlling person of Kuafu Technology.

He is also the company's chief executive officer and technical officer.

Having multiple jobs at the same time perfectly embodies what is meant by 'those who can do more work.'

"The first batch will arrive next Monday. They are all 985 freshmen. I finally stopped these people."

This time, Xu Hao made real money for this talent recruitment.

Using the power of the two companies, they just grabbed a group of high-level talents from the National Research Institute.

These people originally wanted to join the national research institute.

In the end, he didn't know how he was moved, and he just abducted people to Kuafu Technology.

"Brother Yu, I promised these people that our company's technology absolutely surpassed the peers for 20 years...More than that, you must help me, brother!"

Xu Hao held the phone in his hand, begging with all his cheeks.

It's not that he can't do it. If you want to make these cutting-edge talents (nerds) tempted, you can't have anything real.

Money alone can't touch their inner persistence and ideals.

Only technology can make them shine and give up all principles and persistence.

"You didn't even think about asking me when you promised?" Qin Yu was really surprised. It has been twenty years since he opened his mouth, so you dare to say it.

Brother Yu, if I hadn't been forced, wouldn't I be miserable by you this time?

"Hey, I didn't get off the stage at the time, so I had to bite the bullet and get on." Xu Hao responded with embarrassment.

Hearing what he said, Qin Yu could already think of what happened.

It must be that he was so shocked that he couldn't come to the stage, and he blurted out his mind and promised Xu.

Thinking of the last time I bet with someone, I wore a non-Chinese costume for a month.

I'm afraid the bet this time is not so simple, "Let's say, what's the bet this time?"

Chapter 292: Ichiwa Ichi + Ichi

In the compound of the No. 3 Institute of Shangdu, I ran three laps and made a small comment in public!

Xu Hao really bet...

"It's no help, wait for death!" Qin Yu was about to hang up.

Xu Hao cried and said, "Brother Yu, don't, save my brother's life, I will arrange it with you in the future!"

"Let me arrange it?" Qin Yu thought for a while, as if there was nowhere to use it.

"Forget it, let's wait for death!"

Xu Hao promised to arrange ten consecutive games in the future, all of which would be paid by him.

Qin Yu reluctantly said after the girls did not repeat the same situation, "Don't say it's 20 years, half a century is enough."

Xu Hao clenched his fists excitedly: "I knew it!"

Previously, he didn't just talk about it, but convinced those talents with just one mouth.

Instead, he took the castrated version of the drawing directly on the table, "All those present are experts, you decide whether or not it is."

Otherwise, there is no proof!

Let alone whether those talents are willing or not, the research institute alone will not agree to release them.

What kind of place do you think this is, if you come to an aristocratic family, you can rob people in an upright manner. Do you want to do it again?

The research institute also took a fancy to the potential of this technology, which is conducive to promoting the country's technological development and the cultivation of high-end talents.

Only by breaking down the monopoly and technological barriers of the Western world will people agree to release.

Otherwise, just give Xu Hao ten faces.

He couldn't afford to take people away from the research institute and rob people from the country. What did he think?

...

The progress of Kuafu's technology is in full swing, but Shen Chuxia is anxious as far away as Hudu.

Just now, she received a call from Xingli, saying that Qin Yu's group was in the abandoned city, and was not in Hudu at all.

Huu Variety Arts and Literature Huu. Moreover, Xu Yue has already begun to do it.

Xu Yue: "Shao Qin, are you returning to the abandoned capital? I seem to see your car in the morning."

Xu Yue: "Qin Shao, last time I said goodbye, I always wanted to talk with you in depth."

Xu Yue: "It happens that there is no one in my house these few days. Wouldn't it be better for you to come here?"

After sending a few messages one after another, Xu Yue waited anxiously.

This time she didn't just want to compete with Shen Chuxia, but also the most critical reason.

There are 100 million in the Ministry of Households!

After all, the money will be transferred from the bottom to the place, and then it will be supervised by the local branch.

In the end, it will be in the hands of C&D Bank or on the books of other banks.

Who will be responsible? The big difference is gone!

嶺巖Variety show literature. The president said at the morning meeting, "Whoever can win this business is the new vice president."

Originally Xu Yue felt that she was out of play.

No matter how you look at it, at Hudu, Shen Chuxia, who is also Qin Yu's personal account manager, has a better chance than herself.

She just wants to start, people are in the deserted capital, what can be done if they are thousands of miles apart?

Unexpectedly, God closed a window and opened an extra door for her.

Qin Shao unexpectedly returned the abandoned capital, and did not notify Shen Chuxia.

Is there something tricky in it?

Shen Chuxia clearly said that she had already seen Qin Shao, and the two had a very happy conversation!

But Qin Shao was clearly in the abandoned capital, and his consumption record tells everything.

In other words, Shen Chuxia had been lying before.

Maybe, she didn't even see Qin Shao's face...

Tired? ? ?

Thinking of this possibility, Xu Yue's whole body groaned with pleasure.

Happy, too happy.

Shen Chuxia has been notified in the line, but even if she booked the air ticket now, she will come back.

Also got the night out.

These few hours are Xu Yue's last chance to stand up, she will never miss it!

After waiting for half an hour, no one responded after reading the WeChat account...

Xu Yue walked back and forth, and finally gritted her teeth and pressed the number that was already in her mind.

"Hey, Shao Qin, this is Xu Yue..."

After receiving Xu Yue's call, Qin Yu's tone was a little unhappy: "What's the matter?"

At this time, he is practicing Barrow Jiu-Jitsu with Talitha. This technique requires him to be extra dedicated and focused!

Otherwise, it is very likely to hurt yourself.

Just now Xu Yue called, which directly disrupted his rhythm, giving Talisa a chance to take a break.

The doomed victory is now full of variables!

"Sorry, Shao Qin, did you bother you?" Xu Yue's heart was half cold when she heard the gasp from the other side, "Well, I just want to communicate with you in person."

Slap~

It seemed as if there was a flapping sound coming, "No time, I'll talk about it later!"

Toot toot~

When the phone hung up, Xu Yue's heart was completely cold.

This is the first time that she has run into a wall in front of a man, regardless of her status.

She would praise her a few words, and say two compliments to her.

This pair of skins is Xu Yue's greatest support, and it makes her proud!

But today, she suffered a cruel and ruthless blow in her most proud place.

So that Xu Yue still couldn't believe that what she heard was true.

She asked a man...rejected?

Is the novelty passed, or the woman opposite is better than herself?

Xu Yue looked at the call log on the phone unwillingly, thinking about it, getting more and more angry.

As his eyes turned, Xiao Jiujiu in his heart began to calculate.

Shen Chuxia didn't see Qin Yu, and her appointment was refused...

He has lost interest in himself and Shen Chuxia?

No, it shouldn't...

If this is the case, I am afraid I can't even make this call.

The process last time was very beautiful, and Qin Yu was also extremely excited.

Xu Yue suspected countless times that night that if she hadn't had Shen Chuxia, she might have died of overwork on the spot...

"Shen Chuxia!" Xu Yue's mind flashed, and suddenly thought of the problem.

Yes, it was Xu Yue and Shen Chuxia that night.

After that, only Xu Yue, or Shen Chuxia...

1 and 1+1 are of course not comparable!

Do you want to join her again?

Xu Yuexin is unwilling, but considering that this competition is not only in the bank, there are many other peers who are not weak.

Xu Yue made up her mind to put the meat in the pot first.

As for who should be in the back, it depends on their own ability...

Last time, Shen Chuxia was even better and asked Qin Yu to call her as her account manager.

This time, Xu Yue didn't believe that she could have the last laugh.

You know, if you fight for physical strength and endurance, you are better than yourself.

Besides, you have to be younger and have better resilience!

Big deal...

The old lady fights out and drives one more way, three ways together!

Can't hold your little Shen Chuxia? ? ?

In the afternoon, 5:20.

Qin Yu drove to the entrance of the school and picked Lu Qing to have dinner.

The two made an appointment to eat hot pot, so there was nothing to entangle after getting in the car.

Go straight to the sea fishing!

This will happen to be the peak time for dining, and you will have to wait an hour in line.

Qin Yu directly showed his members.

The highest-ranking Black Sea members, skip the line, and the next table is theirs.

Someone here has informed the guests of the signature that their tables are being cleaned.

But because of Qin Yu's sudden appearance, the other party needed to postpone the table back again.

The guests at that table expressed their dissatisfaction on the spot stood up and argued with the waiter.

At the same time, Qin Yu and Lu Qing walked into the store under the leadership of other waiters.

Neither Qin Yu nor Lu Qing felt that there was anything wrong with it!

They are just enjoying their rights, and the rules are set by the store.

Any conflicts and misunderstandings should be resolved by the store itself...

Order a good dish and wait for it to be served!

The guest who had been interrupted before happened to be taken by the waiter.

Seeing that Qin Yu is the person who'switched in', the male host said with disdain: "What the hell!"

Chapter 293: Wang Lao 80% can not be refined

Fanning his nose with his hand, Qin Yu said with disgust on his face: "Where is the old bastard, his mouth full of stinky underarms?"

The old man who was passing by stretched out his hand and said, "Who are you scolding?"

Qin Yu didn't even lift his butt, and laughed to himself: "Whoever scolds is the one who scolds. Haven't you heard of it?"

"Some  feel that if they live a long time, they will become fine, and they can show off their power!"

"I haven't heard of it. After the founding of the People's Republic of China, it is not allowed to be refined? Anything that becomes refined will be cooked randomly.

The mistress couldn't help seeing his man's face flushed with anger.

Baba ran to Qin Yu, "Why are you a little kid talking so badly, your grown-up..."

Snapped!

Qin Yu patted the table and stood up, the woman was startled by the huge movement.

"Fart and fart, don't smoke others." Qin Yu squinted and stared at each other: "If you don't have the ability, then you will be squeezed. Don't learn to be a * like a bitch!"

"Two, two, both calm down." The previous waiter found the master who brought him.

A new hired employee of him, he immediately went into chaos when he encountered such a thing.

"We all calm down. No matter what the problem is, it's our fault. What two people should tell me."

The store manager first took all the responsibilities on himself, let the two groups extinguish the fire, and all other things would be resolved.

"How does your sea fishing provide services? I have notified me that there is a table. If someone comes, I will jump in the queue. Do you still want to do it in sea fishing?"

The old man is a veteran cadre with just one mouth, and he always says, "Do you want to do it?" '

It seems that with a word of him, Hai Lao can get out of waste.

"Sir, this gentleman is the highest level of our sea fishing, a member of the Black Sea, has the right to eat first!"

"I apologize for the inconvenience caused to you."

"But our staff also followed the rules, and immediately arranged other seats for you, and gave you three dishes."

"If you still have any needs, you can tell me, and I can arrange it for you!" The foreman didn't have a word of excuse.

First repeat what you have learned, and then tell you how the store handles it.

Finally, let me say that no matter what your needs are, you can put them forward!

"Members can jump in the queue. What are your rules for fishing? Is there a courtesy to jump in the queue?"

As soon as the woman saw the foreman's attitude, she immediately became public.

Flirting like a shrew...

No, just a shrew, yelling on the spot.

The eyes of the diners around were attracted, staring at what happened?

"This is the rule established in the store. I think you will have a membership system in any store. This is also to better serve our customers."

"Of course, I apologize to you again for the inconvenience this has caused you."

"If you feel dissatisfied, you can complain to the company. We will listen to your suggestions carefully and make corrections."

"In addition, I personally call the shots. Today's meal is free for you. Do you think you are still satisfied?"

The old man who hadn't spoken for a long time waved his hand: "Am I sending you a meal? What I want is attitude."

The foreman kept smiling and asked, "Then what do you want to do?"

The old man reached out his hand and pointed at Qin Yu: "Let him apologize to me!"

The woman raised her head proudly, "Yes, let him apologize... Also, there is no shortage of free orders."

Lu Qing couldn't help it, "Are you two sick? Get treatment quickly if you are sick, and see if you haven't been vaccinated against rabies and run out to bite people here."

The diners around can also understand, it is because of the membership priority system!

Whether there are any problems with this system, let's leave it alone.

After all, it is not a matter of one family or two families.

But as far as this matter is concerned, people just follow the system and prioritize meals for their members.

I will make another arrangement for you immediately, and give you three dishes for free!

What else is unsatisfactory?

what?

How did they know that they made arrangements right away.

It's clear that the bottom of the pot on the table is not up yet!

As long as people who have been to the sea fishing a few times know that it takes less than 5 minutes to place an order to the pot.

Does such a simple question still need to be asked?

"What is your little girl talking about? Believe it or not, I'll smoke you?" The old man threatened with a gesture of being supported by someone.

As soon as the voice fell, there was a gust of wind in my ears.

Follow the black in front of you, pop~

The man was knocked to the ground, his brain buzzing.

The woman was taken aback when she saw her man being pulled directly to the ground.

Then he sat down on the ground, waved his hands and kicked his legs arbitrarily, shouting in his throat: "Hit someone, * ~ murder..."

Previously, he was hitting people, and the conversation turned into a murder!

The old man lying on the ground was getting ready, when he heard his wife's yelling.

He tilted his head and lay down again.

Today is not tens of thousands of dollars, he can't get up!

"It's killing, it's killing~" The woman cried and yelled, then suddenly turned her head and stared at Qin Yu: "Losing money!"

The mood changes before and after are almost seamless.

There is no abrupt feeling!

As if things should have been so, it should be developed according to the current situation.

Hit people, lose money...

There is nothing wrong? ?

"How much do you want?" Qin Yu asked while sitting in her seat, looking at the woman with a smile.

Seeing his confession, the woman is two hundred thousand with one mouth.

"There is no two hundred thousand today, just wait for the lawsuit!" the woman roared with exhaustion.

The veteran cadre lying on the ground specially cooperated, holding his head and yelling 'faint', 'pain', 'uncomfortable'.

He even exaggerated retching a few times, which looked particularly painful.

Brother Yu is really...happy to encounter this kind of thing during a meal!

Today he wants to compare this truth and teach the king to be a man.

"Two hundred thousand, you can think about it." Qin Yu took out his mobile phone and put on a silly and big money attitude.

When the woman saw that this was wrong, she was missing.

As soon as he rolled his eyes, his eyes rose by 100,000, "300,000, our man has an old problem, this will definitely break you, 300,000 may not be enough to cure.

"Okay, 300,000." Qin Yu smiled and nodded: "Come on, transfer the money to you!"

The woman was stunned directly, followed by ecstasy in her heart: Is there such a fool these days?

Reported the card number in a panic.

The Vixen stared at Qin Yu's digital amount again, one 0, two 0...

300,000, a lot of money was transferred to her bank card.

When she saw the transfer text message prompt, she almost fainted happily.

"Is the money here?" Qin Yu asked politely with a smile.

Lu Qing watched him by the side and smiled, based on her understanding of her own man.

Qin Yu is the kind of master who would admit to confession and make people wrong the money?

Looking at the happiness that is immersed in a windfall, yelling, "Fortunately for you, I won't care about you this time, but you have to leave a phone call, just in case..."

The vixen who wants to do something more in the follow-up, Lu Qing's eyes are full of sympathy!

"The phone must be reserved, but it is not for me."

Seeing the catch fast coming from the entrance, Qin Yu stretched out his hand and pointed: "You should talk to catch fast!"

"What's the matter?" The shrew turned her head, and the two arresters showed their credentials.

"Hello, now someone is accusing you of fraud and you need to cooperate in the investigation." The arrester explained his intentions and asked her to follow along.

"What scam, who did I scam, did you make a mistake?"

The woman put on a pungent look, this would not realize the seriousness of the problem.

There was a man pretending to be dead lying on the ground, and a clever one stood up, "Fraud, who did the fraud?"

"Did you make a ghost?" The man pointed the finger at Qin Yu, who else could be here besides him.

Qin Yu readily admitted that it was he who told Xu Hao to report to the police.

The target of the fraud is naturally himself.

The amount, no more, no less, exactly 300,000 yuan!

"That's the compensation for his beating. Our man has old problems in his mind. He slapped someone..."

The shrew pulled her own man to explain the situation, and her finger behind her suddenly twisted on the man's waist.

"Ouch~" The man jerked his waist forward and stretched out his hand to cast downward.

Immediately, the reaction was wrong again, and he put a flower under his armpit with his palm, and touched it up against his forehead: "Pain, headache!"

The ostentatious performance made all the diners dumbfounded.

This is an individual talent!

"Since someone called the police, we must investigate."

The two arrestees said blankly: "As for the specific compensation or fraud, we will naturally investigate it clearly."

Chapter 294: Nothing wrong!

The woman still wanted to spoil her, and the two caught quickly, their eyes widened.

Staring at her with wide eyes and said nothing.

The courage that the woman just braced...

It's leaking!

"Go and go, we are good citizens, and we are not afraid to cooperate with Yamen in handling cases!"

The woman murmured and walked forward, just in the corner of her eye to see Lu Qing who was snickering: "Why don't they go?"

"Where is so much nonsense!" The catch quickly ran out of patience, grabbed a backhand, pushed the shrew and walked out.

"Hey, you, oops..." The man's wrist was also twisted behind him by another arrester, and he was directly taken out.

When Xu Hao came in, he happened to have a face-to-face meeting with the two of them: "Just these two goods, dare to swindle Brother Yu's money?"

"Mr. Xu, let's take someone back to investigate the situation first!" The two arrests quickly glanced at each other and did not easily draw a conclusion.

What is the specific situation, we have to investigate it later!

"Okay, get busy." After saying hello, Xu Hao walked straight over.

"Brother Yu, what's the situation?" Sitting next to Qin Yu, Xu Hao looked at Lu Qing and asked, "Is my sister-in-law okay?"

"It's okay, Qin Yu is here!" Lu Qing looked at Qin Yu very happy.

A handful of dog food was forced into his mouth, before he could swallow it.

People rushed to the opposite side for Qin Yu and changed positions with Lu Qing.

"I'll go, Brother Yu, you are too realistic!" Xu Hao, who was seated again, was about to vomit.

He eagerly came to help, but was disgusted.

Qin Yu responded frankly: "I am not used to sitting next to men."

Before Xu Hao spoke, Lu Qing asked first: "Then you are in Hudu, who is sitting with you?"

Tilting his head to look at her playful expression, Qin Yuxin said: This girl has also failed to learn.

"A person, alone!"

Without Qin Yu saying a word, Lu Qing rolled his eyes upward once.

Even ghosts don't believe this!

Unless you add money...

There are some things that don't need to be delved into. The bottom of the pot came up, and the foreman came to express his apologies in person!

"Today's meal order is free, and a plush bear is given to you, madam."

"I hope you will like this gift. Hai Lao thank you again for your support."

Lu Qing was very happy to accept the tall stuffed bear.

The previous foreman's handling is also very appropriate, and impartiality is the best attitude.

As for the little depression in my heart, it has long been blown out of the clouds.

Let the plush bear sit with Xu Hao, he was a little depressed at first.

You two show affection to each other, let me play with a teddy bear? ?

Halfway through the meal, he couldn't remove his hand from the stuffed bear, and he had to feel it while eating.

This hair is so comfortable!

Yamen, Wang Laoba, who explained the situation, squeezed his throat: "I have a disease in the head, and the money is not enough for me to see a doctor."

"Can you provide cases, treatment lists and consumption records?"

Catch quickly lowered his head and looked at the confession: "If these prove to be true, you will be able to leave."

If he is really sick, it will cost a lot and have a clear record.

Then this matter certainly cannot be characterized as a fraud, at most it is a controversial issue of how much compensation should be paid!

The man glanced at the woman, and the dodging eyes represented his guilty conscience.

After waiting for him fiercely, the woman said, "No, we are the old genius doctors who have taken care of me."

Upon hearing this, the arrest is coming soon.

This is true. The performance before the Spring Festival is here!

After eating a meal for two hours, Brother Yu was full.

Picking up the phone and preparing to leave, the yamen call came...

The two were lying and not admitting that they were lying. They only said that their man was sick, and his head was sick.

Especially serious.

If you don't believe me, you can check it yourself.

The man also cooperated and said that he had a headache, his whole body ached, and he wanted to vomit and dizzy.

All kinds of discomfort!

"This matter, if he keeps yelling pain, it will be uncomfortable... it's hard to find out!"

Not only that, if in the end there is no evidence that the other party pretended to be sick, there will be compensation for the expenses during this period, I am afraid it will be even more.

"Check, arrange the best hospital, and ask the best brain specialists in the country for consultation!"

trouble? Spend money?

Brother Yu is really not afraid of this.

If you are sick or not, you must check it out. It doesn't matter how much money you spend!

When Wang Laoba and his daughter-in-law learned the news from the capture, the two were instantly dumbfounded.

This is very different from what they think. Isn't the rich people very busy?

It's time to be busy, Qin Yu is busy with her.

The inspection has been arranged, and it is at the most authoritative military medical college in the northwest.

Not only that.

Xu Hao also invited two Hudu experts, who are well-known in brain departments across the country, to the Military Medical University for consultation.

All kinds of weird examinations, blood draws, and analysis.

Have to come several times every day!

The same rule out his possible illnesses.

After spending nearly a million before and after, Qin Yu didn't even blink his eyelids.

In just two days, a total of five authoritative brain experts came to a conclusion.

Nothing wrong!

The next step is much simpler, let's understand the lawsuit!

Accused of extortion, the amount involved is 300,000...

The treatment and other expenses incurred due to the circumstances of the case cost nearly one million.

This is great fun!

The two wanted to find Qin Yu to reconcile, but they learned that the other party was unwilling.

It's useless to lose money, just one requirement: to be able to make multiple judgments and never settle!

Money, Brother Yu has it.

It's not good to be angry!

Qin Yu hadn't been idle for the past two days. After his father Qin Han came back, he talked with him alone.

Jianfa frequently hinted to him that he wanted to invite him to experience the joy of 1+1 again.

What you want is nothing more than the business of Kuafu Technology. In the future, hundreds of billions or even trillions of plates, who doesn't want it?

Xu Yue and Shen Chuxia are limited by their location and vision, they can't see clearly!

The people above see it clearly, compared to Kuafu's future earnings and the background behind it.

The tens of billions of start-up funds are in pediatrics!

Qin Yu wanted to know, did Lao Qin plan to change the guard?

"Dad, I think it's pretty good. It's easy and can be promoted. Jianfa is also one of the four major industries. It's better than your province."

Qin Han's eyes stared: "Why, I can't look down on Lao Tzu's work if my wings are not strong!"

Qin Yu shrank her neck and muttered with a smile, "I'm telling the truth!"

Qin Han wanted to reprimand him again for nothing else.

I just feel very refreshed in my heart!

However, thinking of the pocket money that is about to get in hand.

Lao Qin thought that he still had to save him a bit of face: "I have thought about what you said, and I have a good job now, so don't worry about it."

Does Qin Han want to change the guard?

I think and don't want to.

Work relaxed, high-level, high salary, good treatment!

I don't want to change it when I see this.

But he still feels a little bit reluctant to take up his current position in his heart.

Of course, there is another reason for this.

He is afraid that after his change of job, his son's business will be placed in C&D, which will cause conflicts of interest and give others a handle.

Although I am a bit busy now, at least I have a clear line with my son's career.

Some people want to make trouble and have nowhere to start.

Since I decided to buy Nanhu Manor, I learned that my son had made several hundred million.

Qin and Han's actions in the past became more and more cautious.

We can't help my son in business, at least we can do it without causing trouble.

Qin Yu also thought of this and blurted out: "Are you afraid of being grabbed to make a fuss?"

"There are concerns in this regard, the three of them become tigers, and they have to guard against it!"

Qin Han also did not pretend to say bluntly about the concerns in his heart.

Qin Han's worry is not unreasonable, but Qin Yu felt that there was no need to exaggerate it.

"Dad, how are your business abilities?"

"The first in the line, and the top in the whole line."

Qin Han still has this confidence, even if he wants to be low-key, he won't be humble in front of his son.

Which Laozi doesn't want the look of his son's worship.

Like which son does not want parents' affirmation?

However, Qin Han hasn't enjoyed this kind of worship for a few days.

Suddenly, his son became the flying pig at the tip of the wave, and he was almost out of sight.

This feeling, don't mention how depressed Lao Qin is!

I am afraid that in a few years, his achievements in this life will be compared with him.

It's not worth mentioning...

But no one is behind, wanting to make a difference in the province where the relationship is complicated and the geographical power is entrenched.

too difficult.....

It's not that Qin Han has been able to have free time from time to time recently.

Live the two-person world with your wife and rekindle your youth!

It was only obtained by asking for something in the industry, nothing more than wanting him to pull his son's business into the industry.

Even if you put it in your own hands.

The meat that enters the pot will rot sooner or later, and it will never be too late.

However, Qin Han could see clearly.

Doing so will only restrict Qin Yu's development, and will not do him any good.

Therefore, he has been evasive during this period of time, just not giving a precise word.

I was always busy like a dog in previous years.

Finally had this opportunity, don't you take the opportunity to enjoy the holiday, and wait to experience the 996 blessing again?

As the thoughts in his mind turned, he also heard Qin Yu's solution.

Entering another branch does not have direct contact with his business.

Chapter 295: All for nothing

After thinking about it again and again, Qin Han still rejected his proposal!

His current job is pretty good, besides...

No matter how he hid his ears and steal the bell, in the eyes of outsiders, he used his son to keep pace.

The implications are unclear!

Because from the beginning, the opponent's purpose was not him.

Wangjiang Tower is the famous Lamb Soup Restaurant.

In the private room on the second floor, Qin Yu was eating steamed buns 'hululu'.

As an authentic Guanzhong person, mutton steamed bun is an indispensable delicacy.

If you don't have a meal every three to five, the roundworms in your stomach will have to be noisy!

I was having a good time, and the door was opened.

Two beautiful figures walked in, "Qin Shao, you made me wait so hard!"

In Qin Yu's impression, it must be Xu Yue who would be so coquettish.

It's Shen Chuxia who can speak...

Look at Xu Yue, who is holding it aside, pretending to be reserved and elegant.

These two girls are going to engage in a wave of anti-talking? ? ?

"Eat first!" Qin Yu took a piece of braised beef and put it in his mouth, eating Zhengxiang.

Xu Yue and Shen Chuxia sat down and ordered three tael of beef buns each!

Although the mutton steamed bun is the most authentic, many people...

Especially girls who are not used to the taste of lamb will switch to the taste of beef.

It tastes good too!

3 taels is a half pancake, probably enough for Yu brother to stuff his teeth.

What he wants is 6 taels or three pancakes.

The biggest sea fishing bowl can only fit a full bowl!

"Qin Shao likes to eat steamed buns, and I especially like them too."

Xu Yue is not a quiet temper, not long after sitting down, she can't help but start talking.

Shen Chuxia glanced at her, 'this is your own bad rule, I will leave it to you next.'

Quiet and dignified are her nature!

Just pretending to be tender and coquettish, don't mention it too embarrassing...

Qin Yu pulled the steamed bun without raising his head and said, "Speak less when eating!"

"..." Xu Yue's mouth slumped, a little aggrieved.

I am so pleased with him, why should I be so fierce?

Does he Lianxiangxiyu who don't understand?

No matter how you say it, you can count as...a beauty, right?

Xu Yue's self-confidence has been hit a bit severely recently.

Everyone began to question their own looks. Isn't that the same thing in the eyes of the boss?

After all, for the big guys.

Beauty is really not a scarce resource!

If you can send it yourself, wouldn't others not send it?

Looking at Shen Chuxia, this is not an obvious example.

How many bosses wanted to attack her before, holding them all the time, pretending to be innocent!

I met Qin Shao who was so young and promising, with a handsome appearance.

Isn't it also stuck in, unable to extricate themselves?

Just for performance, position, salary?

It wasn't that there was no chance before. He Dong, the bald, bad old man, was about to be fascinated by her.

In the end, I didn't even touch a little hand...

Fart performance!

Xu Yue just can't look down on her, she is obviously a * herself.

Waiting for the price, you have to pretend to be a chaste woman.

Vomit~

Seeing her glance at herself from time to time, Shen Chuxia curiously asked: "What do you always see me doing?"

Xu Yue rolled her eyes: "I think you are beautiful?"

Shen Chuxia knew she was telling the truth, but couldn't think of the reason.

Didn't you make an appointment before you come to be the plastic sister for the time being? ?

Now she has other plans, want to turn her face?

From the appointment to the present, only half an hour before and after...

The boat of friendship, the quality is good and bad!

After eating, Xu Yue rushed to pay the bill, behaving very positively.

Looking at her flamboyant back, Shen Chuxia said sincerely: "I haven't seen her affectionate anyone so much."

Qin Yu wiped his mouth and said indifferently: "I can't get it easily, I get what I can lose at any time... The most heart!"

"what about me?"

Shen Chuxia asked abruptly: "Are you going to have to worry about gains and losses?"

Seeing her tight face, Qin Yu smiled: "It's up to you to decide."

I gave the head away by myself, and the blame was hit by the tower?

It doesn't make sense...

On the big G with a wide field of vision, Shen Chuxia stepped into the co-pilot first.

Since it's a worry about gains and losses, I'm in danger!

Indisputable is definitely not enough.

Everyone understands the truth of one step fast and fast step by step.

Xu Yue, who sat in the back row, stared fiercely at Shen Chuxia's back, "She's actually playing yin? Bi Chi..."

The plastic sister flower combination burst.

Existence time: 56 minutes 57 seconds.

"Shao Qin, it's better to go to my house." Xu Yue didn't sit still and launched a counterattack on the road, ready to give full play to the home court advantage.

Shen Chuxia is not to be outdone...

Today she wore a formal workplace suit, and at this time she seemed to accidentally hit Qin Yu with her elbow.

The other hand pulled the hem of the left leg upwards!

Under the serious trousers, there is a restless black silk soul hidden.

"Okay, show the way!" Perceiving the two secretly fighting, Yu Ge just wanted to laugh: "What black thread, at home, under the holy light! '

Stop the car and walk into the elevator, and start [beat left and right].

Before people enter the room, their minds are confused.

Seeing the red wine in the living room, Qin Yu got a glass and walked into the room with it.

Wow~

Splashing water, the [Happy Hour] is here.

...

To say that Xu Yue still has two brushes, there are a lot of electric toys hidden in the house.

As simple as Brother Yu, it is unheard of!

Fortunately, he is 'hardworking and easy to learn' and he is quick to learn everything.

This evening, not only opened the door to a new world.

It also brought him new knowledge and strange knowledge increased.

Tofu brain, vegetable box, a refreshing side dish.

The breakfast is simple but also rich!

Eat and drink, drive away.

What Xu Yue and Shen Chuxia wanted here, Qin Yu didn't give any promises.

Play for fun, business belongs to business!

If C&D wants to win the business of Kuafu Technology, it depends on their sincerity!

This is not what they talked about. Qin Yu only promised to meet with the president tonight to see what conditions the other party can give.

Since Qin Han rejected the position of vice president, this condition is naturally unresolved.

To express their sincerity, they have to work harder!

what...

Shen Chuxia.

Xu Yue.

Isn't that an extra for nothing?

...

Busy all night, exhausted from tossing!

Even the promise hasn't been left behind, only the residual warmth after the crazy joy is left in my heart.

Looking at Shen Chuxia lying next to him, Xu Yue didn't get angry, "Hey, get up, I want to go to your house."

"Turn your face so quickly? You didn't have to ask me for help last night!" Shen Chuxia tilted her head and said expressionlessly.

Xu Yue's cheeks flushed.

Don't look at Shen Chuxia's high coldness, but after all, he is a married woman...

Talking about this kind of men and women is more sophisticated than Xu Yue.

However, she was also an eye-opener last night.

The covered electric toys are a vivid encyclopedia!

"It's still young people who can play!" Shen Chuxia's expression was a little teasing.

"Walk." Xu Yue sat up and pushed her out.

Boom!

Shen Chuxia fell under the bed and couldn't get up for a long time.

Just when Xu Yue was curious and worried, when the probe went to look...

The buzzing vibration suddenly hit, "Shen Chuxia, you are a mad girl."

"Oh~"

...

In the afternoon, exactly 5 o'clock.

Xu Yue and Shen Chuxia appeared together in the president's office.

"Are you all ready?" Looking at the two golden flowers in the line, he was able to do it.

The president said calmly: "Then set out, as long as we can let the account fall into our line today, you both will be a great accomplishment!"

Shen Chuxia and Xu Yue didn't say anything, they didn't seem to be tit-for-tat rivals anymore.

On the contrary, they are like comrades in the united front!

When the line of sight is inadvertently brought into focus, it will instantly move away in a hurry.

There was a bit of awkwardness and a touch of shyness between his expressions...

The president was particularly curious at first, but as his imagination spread.

A faint light suddenly rose in the eyes.

Looking through the rearview mirror to see the two deli and clean in the back row, I can't help feeling that they are still young people after all.

For an old guy like him, he was more than a loser, and he didn't have enough strength.

If I can achieve what he does at his age...

No, as long as there is one-tenth of his achievements.

It must have been in the mortal world, and passed vigorously!

Why bother to sigh for the old, powerless!

"Mr. Qin is younger than I thought. I can't accept the old!" Xu Xingchang shook Qin Yu's hand, full of emotion.

Before coming, Governor Xu knew that he was not in his prime.

He is a real young talent, promising young.

I was really shocked to see me!

At such a young age, he can leverage tens of billions of capital to join Hudu, and the wealthiest families of both places in Shangdu.

With such means and courage, Governor Xu could only think of one person at his age.

Chapter 296: Chang'an Night Banquet

"President Xu is polite."

Shake hands, nod and smile, business blows.

After a wave of meeting procedures, the two parties took their seats.

The so-called seated separately is...

Xu Xingchang sat alone on the opposite side, and Qin Yu was tightly sandwiched between Xu Yue and Shen Chuxia.

Old Xu called an envy in his heart...

Young and promising, so happy!

This posture, old admiration...

"Shao Qin, Chang'an Night Banquet is a must in Northwest China. If it weren't for you, Governor Xu wouldn't bother to arrange it!"

Shen Chuxia took the initiative to speak and cut into the topic.

The bureau tonight was arranged by President Xu, a membership club.

Eating, sauna, massage...

One-stop!

Eat, drink and have fun, as long as you want it, there are all here.

As a local snake, President Xu of a place like this is naturally a VIP among VIPs.

Don't look at his low posture in front of Qin Yu.

That's because compared to other entrepreneurs, he is a strange alternative!

How can there be entrepreneurs with massive resources?

Oh~

financier?

Sorry for disturbing you.

Call the boss~

"Should we arrange a show?" After the three drinks, Governor Xu became interested.

Qin Yu put down his chopsticks: "Ms. Xu is free."

I looked at both sides as I spoke, and the meaning couldn't be more obvious, 'I've got enough food.'

"Haha, right and right." Xu Xingchang laughed heartily: "I have forgotten our two golden flowers."

"Qin Shao, you don't know, how many people are staring in a hurry, or Qin Shao has the ability and the means!"

Man, two glasses of wine are indispensable.

After a while, President Xu's arrangement came.

Two figures, 87+ looks, and an average age of 35's 'girls' are here.

"Hello, Mr. Xu, my name is Fangfang." On the left, the girl with a bright red dress and fluttering hair leaned slightly.

"Hello Mr. Xu, I am Qinqin." The little green skirt on the right, the black silk ecstasy'girl' is generous and generous.

From the outside, you can never guess the age!

Looks no worse than a 20-year-old girl, this technique...

Looking at the freshness again, 60 failed, how many cuts is this?

Freshness includes two key points: [health] and [friction amount].

In other words, if it falls below a certain value, it will not continue to fall based on [health].

Judging by the value of 59 and 58 for two people...

Basically it's almost the same, at least 30+ cuts!

Fortunately, this place has high security requirements.

Although the two are highly skilled and experienced, they are at least fine.

This is the greatest respect for customers, it's okay.

After all, you can't be too demanding when you come out to play, and Tian Xian'er won't fall here, right?

I have been hid by the golden house a long time ago and have been raised...

The two of them sat next to Xu Xingchang, holding his arm, rubbing the soft bones on the arm.

IQ decreased by 200%, willpower -5, -5, -5...

The goal has been extinguished!

Xu Xingchang happily enjoyed the service of the two 'beautiful girls'.

I forgot all business matters.

Seeing that the meal was about to end, Shen Chuxia couldn't sit still.

"President, President, the provincial branch has issued a new guidance document, do you want to tell Qin Shao?"

As Shen Chuxia said, Xu Yue had stretched her long legs and kicked on the long legs.

A guilty conscience returns to a guilty conscience, but things still have to be done!

Even in retrospect, the president can only admit that he is unlucky.

This is saving his career.

If you let the head office know, send him to contact Qin Yu.

In the end, just drinking with the beautiful woman, President Xu couldn't ask for any benefit.

"Ah? Ah! Right." President Xu finally came to his senses under the reminder of the two.

"Shao Qin, I heard that Kuafu's side will be officially put into production in half a year?"

When Qin Yu heard the other party's tentative remarks, Qin Yu smiled and said, "Don't hear it, I believe you know everything you should know."

"Let's just say, what conditions can C&D give me?"

I went around in the clouds and mist for three to five hours, and I didn't talk much about it, and people fainted first.

Simple, straightforward, and straightforward talk!

Okay, no, it's just a matter of one or two words.

"Well, young people are happy when they do things." Governor Xu proudly praised: "Then I will just say it."

"As long as Kuafu stays in C&D, the credit line, as long as there is a need, just speak up."

"C&D's overseas institutions will also fully support Kuafu's international expansion and provide them with the support and convenience they need for business!"

"Of course, this is the future, let's talk about the present."

There are indeed many promises made by President Xu. The credit line of 50 billion yuan can borrow the channel of C&D at a relatively low cost.

Including overseas channels, these seem remote.

But judging from Qin Yu's development speed, it may be realized soon.

In fact, cooperation with the bank is a win-win situation for Kuafu!

President Xu put his posture so low, first, he valued Kuafu's future development potential, and exchanged the present for the future.

The second is the power represented behind Kuafu.

Shangdu Ye Family, this is the thigh that everyone wants to hug.

Not to mention Governor Xu, even the upper part of him is the same.

But the point is, you don't even have a chance to hold it!

Now, suddenly there was an opportunity, right in front of my eyes.

Do you say he catches it or... catch it?

With a volume of tens of billions, a credit line of 50 billion is directly given, which is impossible without a big leader nodding.

Jianfa's greatest sincerity was to tie Kuafu onto Jianfa's ship.

At the same time, he leaned on the side of the boat of the Du Ye family.

Of course, this does not mean C&D, but someone wants to find a new backer.

Qin Yu is limited by information and has limited understanding of the channels and channels inside!

But it does not prevent him from discussing business with President Xu, "I feel the sincerity of President Xu."

"Personally, I am very satisfied." Qin Yu pondered for a moment, and said again under the expectant gaze of Governor Xu: "If the partner has no objection..."

Hearing Qin Yu's answer, Governor Xu knew that he hadn't run in vain.

As far as he knows, the Ye Family of Shangdu attaches great importance to the opinions of this suddenly emerging young man.

Otherwise, why would he condescend as a president?

To please a young man who is not as old as his son...

When I think of my own bastard, I look at Qin Yu's energetic look.

Xu Xingchang's thoughts of pleasure faded immediately.

An uninteresting breath of a sage rose in his heart, 'at about the same age, why does my own * only know how to cheat?'

Rubbing his forehead, the evil fire in Xu Xingchang's heart burst forth.

If I don't come back tonight, I must break his leg!

The food and drink were emptied, and the two 'beautiful girls' began to squeeze Governor Xu to rest.

"President, take a good dip after drinking, our sisters will definitely serve you well."

The two squeezed from the left to the right, and they didn't even see the shoulder straps slipping off.

It should be said that it was deliberate...

Without some excitement, how can Xu Xingchang stay?

But he was no longer interested in this meeting, and the evil fire rushed into his forehead, wishing to catch his own * right in front of him.

Pull out the belt and let him experience what father love is like a mountain!

"Well... another day, I still have something to do today." Once you take your heart, the little scene in front of you will not shake Governor Xu.

"Qin Shao tonight, why don't you just spend the night here?" Before leaving, Governor Xu arranged the project for Qin Yu.

Separately set aside a soup pool, massage room and rest room.

Naturally, the service person doesn't need to make arrangements, "Xu Yue, early summer, you have to serve Qin Shao well."

Once again, Xu Xing confessed and left in a vigorous step.

In his heart, his palms are itchy, 'I'll have to let the driver drive faster later.'

...

Following the waiter, I changed to the Tangchi Room, an empty room with an area of about two to three hundred square meters.

It is arranged like a hot spring bath, and in the middle is a bath made by hollowing out a large stone.

There are two massage beds next to the wall, and a dressing corner separated by a plastic sheet...

Plastic cloth is like frosted glass. From the outside to the inside, the hazy beauty is more tempting than the intuitive experience.

This designer is a master!

The armrests of various angles can be seen everywhere, the hooks above the massage table and the hanging red silk...

Well, it must be used for shelter, like a bed curtain.

It must be so, that's right!

As for the weird expressions of Xu Yue and Shen Chuxia, it must be because the temperature in the room is too high.

Let their bodies react naturally, 'oh, woman, it's trouble.'

Soaking in the pool, Yu let his body float on the water naturally.

Others, all consciously!

Isn't it a good time to test automation?

Chapter 297: Bluefin Tuna

In this country, neon, some cultures are still very good!

Like dedicated teachers.

Automatic specialization skills and techniques taught.

If you can learn and use well, you will hardly meet a rival in the world...

There are also lessons to be learned from the enjoyment of civilians.

Like the Tangchi that Yu Ge experienced, it's great!

Only one thing, waste legs.

The average person may be difficult to withstand, and will have to leave in less than 5 minutes.

Seeing Shen Chuxia who called for the third time, Qin Yu straightened his clothes and walked out.

"Shao Qin, I'll see you off." Xu Yue followed in a low voice.

Shen Chuxia took the phone and looked at the back of the two.

Wanting to chase but afraid of Xu Yue making trouble, in the end he could only sigh helplessly.

...

Put people in the car and watch the car go away.

Xu Yue heard footsteps coming from behind, "People have already left."

"I saw it." Shen Chuxia replied coldly: "Just so little time, what can you do?"

"There is so much that can be done." Xu Yue smiled mischievously and deliberately threatened: "What do you think?"

What is not done is not important, the important thing is to see Shen Chuxia in fear.

She feels happy.

Humph~

Even if all the benefits are taken up by her alone, Xu Yue still has to add a bit of blockage to her.

Nothing else, just for your own physical and mental pleasure!

Xitong Great North Gate.

Lu Qing, Jiang Jiahui, and Fang Mei got on the bus together.

"The two of us are here to make light bulbs, will the male gods dislike us?"

Jiang Jiahui sat in the back row with Fang Mei in her arms, and looked at the two with a smile.

Qin Yu grabbed Lu Qing's hand: "How come, Qingqing's friend is my friend."

"Huh~"

"Oh~"

Dog food is a bit supportive and full of belly!

Tomorrow is the weekend and nothing will happen.

Lu Qing invited the little sisters in the dormitory to have dinner, watch movies, and go to the bar Lele by the way.

What she said is music or beer!

The last time I went to the store was not bad, and Lu Qing became friends with the resident singer inside.

"What's going on tomorrow?" Qin Yu asked about her tomorrow's arrangements when she went to the hotel.

"No!" Lu Qing blinked and said innocently: "If no one has an appointment, then sleep at home."

Qin Yu clutched her hand tightly, causing Lu Qing to beg for mercy quickly: "It hurts, it hurts, it hurts, are you a bear?"

Shaking off his palm, Lu Qing cried and laughed and said, "My hand is almost broken by you."

"I don't have a bear, but the child bear can consider it!" Qin Yu looked at her with a weird smile.

Lu Qing was taken aback, and shook his head quickly and said, "No, no."

Although it is annoying when relatives come every month.

But she hasn't done the 'VVIP' treatment of resting for ten months, lying down and cultivating.

"Hey, you two are really enough, can this kind of thing go home and discuss it?" Jiang Jiahui paralyzed and looked out the window irresistibly.

Why should I go through this? ? ?

Fang Mei has taken it off, and her ears automatically block keywords, looking out the window to admire the scenery.

Look at those two puppies, so good...

I saw Teddy press down on the cute little white dog, oh oh oh...

Pooh!

Fang Mei retracted her gaze and lay down on her seat.

This world is too difficult.

Today they are going to eat neon cuisine, and Qin Yu knows a good restaurant.

Right in the alley next to the city center, the master is from Hokkaido.

Therefore, most of the ingredients in this store are also from Hokkaido, all kinds of fish, raw food is the most abundant!

When they entered the shop, there was a group of people in the middle of the shop, and the chef in the middle seemed to be performing something?

"Sir, that's Mr. Oshima, the chef, who is auctioning the bluefin tuna that arrived today!"

Hearing the introduction of the waiter, Qin Yu immediately became interested.

I have always heard of tuna, and bluefin tuna is the most respected, the meat is the richest, delicate, and the aftertaste is endless.

Now that I met, how could Brother Yu miss it?

Looking forward, there is only half of the outline on the table. The master is dividing the meat, and the auction will not start later.

Bluefin tuna is sold by gram, and the unit price of 50 grams is 3456 yuan.

"Last year, Neon caught a bluefin tuna of 346 kilograms and sold it for 2.65 million dollars."

"This fish is not inferior to that fish king in terms of quality or weight."

The waiter introduces so much, the core of it is just two words: it's worth it!

Whether it is worth it or not, it doesn't matter to Brother Yu.

The important thing is whether it tastes good or not!

Just like when he buys luxury goods, whether he likes it or not is the key.

In life, two things are most important: do what you want to do and eat what you want to eat.

What's the point of being powerful if you can't do both of these?

"Let's have two catties?" Qin Yu affirmed to look at the movements of Lu Qing, Jiang Jiahui, and Fang Meiyi: "Come on two catties!"

This makes the surrounding diners very upset, come two catties?

50 grams, one or two is 3456 yuan.

One catty will cost 34,560 yuan, and two catty will cost 70,000 yuan.

Are you buying cabbage?

When Qin Yu brought in Lu Qing, Jiang Jiahui, and Fang Mei, this unhappiness was already accumulating.

A person brings three beauties, and TM are all beauties.

Jiang Jiahui and Fang Mei are not as prominent as Lu Qing.

Can be placed in the crowd, is also a symbol of beauty.

Especially Jiang Jiahui, the long legs wrapped tightly under the jeans are like two chopsticks.

Pretty!

But all three of them came with a man, and the other one is so handsome...

Brothers, do you know what a shortage of resources means, sharing dedication?

Handsome, amazing?

"Children, this tuna costs more than three thousand one or two, and two catties is tens of thousands!"

The glamorous woman with heavy makeup said pretentiously, "Of course, it's okay to buy a little and taste it."

"Will we buy it or not to care about you?" Jiang Jiahui is not a weak temper that can be manipulated.

Immediately stunned and went back!

Eat a meal, if others can afford it, what matters to you?

You have money to eat yours, see if you can close that mouth.

The woman glanced at Qin Yu, with a bit of mean disgust and irritation in her eyes: "I'm doing this for your good. It's not good to be ashamed."

Beautiful girl and handsome man, young and free!

It made her feel particularly upset, just wanting to find some trouble and add a block to them.

Such idlers have a lot in life.

Quite a lot...

The surprising brain circuit is certainly not understood by normal people.

Glancing at a woman as if she just got off work in a nightclub, Qin Yu looked at the man with a big belly next to him.

"Uncle, you must have a good vision when choosing a woman. My ancestors have taught me, and the curse comes out of my mouth."

Speaking of the auction has begun, the first 500 grams of the auction is from the belly of the fish, which is the best location for fat.

Starting price: 38,000 yuan.

Right from the beginning, the price soared to 5,000 yuan.

Qin Yu also stopped paying attention to the old man and Er Nai opposite, and raised his hand and said, "80,000."

"Five thousand and five." The old man said, his expression was inexplicably superior.

stiff...

With a smile on his face, the old man turned his head in disbelief and looked at him as if he was saying, 'Fake?'

"This gentleman bid 80,000, is there any higher?" The man standing beside the chef looked around like the manager or foreman.

The smile on his face is really brilliant.

When deciding on the ingredients, they were still a little worried.

I am afraid that the auction will eventually pass or the price will be too low.

Unexpectedly, it was such a coincidence that I actually met an old glutton.

If you are a real gluttonous diners, you will never miss it when they encounter truly top-notch delicacies.

"The deal, congratulations, sir!" The store manager pointed to Qin Yu's location.

The fish was put on the tray, and the waiter followed Qin Yu's side.

Another waiter brought the POS machine and waited for payment...

"How long can this meat be kept fresh?" When paying the money, Qin Yu thought that his parents might not have eaten it either.

There is also Lu Guohui and his wife, it is also good to give a share.

"Sir, if it is chilled, it can be stored for 8 to 10 hours to ensure that it will not lose its original taste and texture."

Qin Yu nodded and replied: "Then let's get two more, take it with Chill."

Lu Qing curiously asked, "Have you finished buying so much to eat?"

Qin Yu smiled: "One for my parents one for Uncle Lu and Auntie, how can there be more?"

Hearing him say this, Lu Qing took his arm happily.

Put your head on his shoulders and show a happy smile!

Jiang Jiahui and Fang Mei are already shocked by the bluefin tuna and its price.

Eighty thousand yuan, just to buy such a big piece of meat? ? ?

Imagine that it will be limited by poverty.

Although I have heard the name of bluefin tuna, I know that it is very expensive.

But before today, there has never been an intuitive and accurate concept.

Eighty thousand yuan, his father earns so much a year, right?

Is the world of rich people so self-willed?

Chapter 298: Gift of nature

The basic salary of the abandoned city is not very high, and the annual salary of 80,000 is already considered good!

With the bonus, it has already passed six figures.

In ordinary families, it can be regarded as a relatively shortcoming family, and a well-off family with more than a few.

Jiang Jiahui felt that way in the past!

after.....

"Eighty thousand." The second piece was bought at the same price, and the last piece was slightly cheaper.

Because the location is different, the meat quality is naturally different.

Qin Yu wanted to give the second piece to Lu Guohui, but Lu Qing resolutely only accepted the third piece on his back.

If she couldn't help her, Qin Yu didn't insist anymore!

Let the waiter take the two pieces of meat to freshen them on ice, and the three of them sit in their seats, waiting for the arrival of the chef.

Today all bluefin tuna sashimi will be prepared by the chef himself.

The order is naturally based on the order of the respective auctions.

Qin Yu and the others were the first, and the chef was naturally the first to arrive.

Tuna is not easy to slice too thin, it will lose the high-quality taste of the fish itself.

When you put it in your mouth, the chopstick-wide fish fillet is refreshing and not greasy, and the meat is smooth, delicate and elastic.

The entrance has a jelly-like glutinous softness, which melts as the fish flesh in the mouth.

The natural scent of fish is bursting, not strong, but deep into the throat, which is unforgettable!

Jiang Jiahui used the tip of the fish fillet and tapped the mustard soy sauce.

Put it in your mouth and chew gently, and your expression will light up: "It's delicious!"

Fang Mei nodded in agreement: "It's delicious."

Lu Qing's expression was not so exaggerated, but he was also very happy to eat.

She has eaten bluefin tuna, but it is not always available.

Since the protests of international organizations have intensified, and have received support from more countries and civil forces.

The pressure and cost of salvaging bluefin tuna are also increasing.

Occasionally, there will be radical protesters who use yachts to follow fishing boats into the sea to protest.

The fishing boat is not only unable to respond, but also to ensure its safety.

Give each other supplies and fresh water to sustain life...

If there is any accident, let alone make money this trip.

It's lucky not to lose the pants.

Until now, only Neon ignored it.

'Ding! '

'The host experienced the top delicacy from nature and triggered the mission! '

'Nature's gift: Only when the natural biological chain remains stable can you taste more delicious food and demonstrate the charm of miracles! '

'Save the endangered species so that it can thrive! '

[Hint: This task is long-term, and the measurement standard is the number of races. For every 10 more numbers, a reward settlement will be carried out.]

[The perfect cycle between nature and living things is a miracle!]

There is no direct reward for tasting the top delicacy like bluefin tuna.

Instead, it triggered a [long-term mission], a gift from nature!

This task is quite meaningful to save the natural biological races that are on the verge of extinction...

For every increase of 10, a reward settlement will be carried out.

It's just that, this [endangered] standard is not known whether it is a human definition or a system only has a definition.

If it were defined by human standards, there would be much room for maneuverability.

After all, the reproduction ability of some endangered organisms is quite strong.

The responsibility of saving the world still falls short of Brother Yu.

All he can do is to do his part and do what he can.

Donating money is the easiest way.

It's just that some money is donated for nothing, but some are different.

This is what he thinks, it's more appropriate to leave it to Old Qiao!

If you want to solve the problem from the source, you must solve the problem-making talents.

There is no killing without buying and selling?

This is basically nonsense, because if you lose your material pursuit.

Then the 'ideal country' of equality for all can basically be realized.

is it possible?

Of course it is impossible!

Therefore, to solve the problem, we have to promise higher benefits.

In the market, the asking price for rhino horn is as high as US$1,980 per ounce.

The prices circulating on the black market are higher, and with such high profits, people will naturally take risks.

But if the hunter receives a reward, anyone who hunts this creature will be hunted.

Give higher benefits and let hunters become prey!

I can't worry all day...

I believe that doing so will be more effective than pure appeal and passive protection!

Anyone who hunts white rhinos will receive a bonus of 5 million dollars...

This is the red line that Qin Yu drew for the poachers.

Want to make this money, no problem!

As long as he can make sure that he avoids the bonus hunt, he has the life to spend the money.

You can try to take risks.

"What are you thinking about?" Lu Qing found that Qin Yu had been thinking about problems absent-mindedly, and Lu Qing touched him curiously.

Qin Yu smiled back, "I'm thinking about how to save the world!"

Lu Qing looked at him in surprise, not thinking that he was teasing himself, "What do you mean?"

"Seeing this, I suddenly thought of those endangered creatures, maybe I should do something."

The greater the ability, the greater the responsibility.

Although Qin Yu has not yet grown into a giant crocodile, he can also start little by little.

First of all, it started with the white rhino, which was the most severely hunted.

When he heard him talk about his own methods, Lu Qing's expression became even more weird.

Turn the hunter into the prey, and warn latecomers with blood that if you want to do something wrong, you will have to pay the price.

It sounds like you are acting in a movie, "Can it really be like this?"

"Have you heard that art comes from life?"

Qin Yu mocked and said: "Reality is more magical than movie stories, if you have to observe carefully!"

In this world, there is no more magical element than [humanity]...

It is kind and great, and so is cold-blooded cruelty.

It can not only give birth to great saints, but also give birth to evil demons.

Hell and heaven are empty, angels and demons are in the world!

The extinction of the northern white rhino is a tragedy that Qin Yu learned when he was in junior high school.

Obviously there is a chance to thrive again, but because of the civil strife among the warlords.

The poaching group with AK and RPG, ruthlessly hunted the entire group in front of the protector.

Created a tragedy that the race was annihilated!

If there were stronger external forces to intervene at that time, could this tragedy be prevented from happening?

Qin Yu didn't know, he was also incapable at that time.

But now, I believe he has a certain ability to try.

When pure material cannot be satisfied, spiritual needs become especially important.

Qin Yu is gradually changing in this direction!

Just like feelings, pure trading will only be satisfied with the ***.

The spiritual needs and gaps cannot be met.

Feelings are the core of human evolution.

It is also the only way for a person to grow up.

Brother Yu has a deep understanding of this, because his experience is richer and more exciting than others!

At this time, Jiang Jiahui and Fang Mei did not hear the whispers between the two.

Instead, they are all thinking about another thing!

After today, can I still afford bluefin tuna one day in my life?

Just take 100 grams, two or two to calculate.

The quality standard of fish is lowered to another level, and the price is about 2000.

The price of my own sip just now.

After graduation, the salary is calculated at 6000 yuan per month.

A month to eliminate daily expenses is probably enough for such a bite.

Forget the so-called tuna in the buffet.

Could it be yellowfin tuna, bluefin?

The minimum standard is not enough for it to compensate.

This knowledge is the science popularized by the chef through translation in the process of making raw food!

The more they listened, the more depressed they became.

The money earned for a month of hard work is not enough for others to eat by two bites.

This kind of strong sense of gap is really shocking people's confidence.

Jiang Jiahui's heart has risen more than once, "Why work hard What has changed?" S frustrated thoughts.

I have seen Qin Yu and Lu Qing driving luxury cars and occasionally wearing luxury goods, but this feeling is not strong.

But it involves the most basic survival needs of mankind: eating.

After experiencing this personally, that kind of oncoming suffocation...

"Fang Mei, I suddenly feel like crying, what should I do?" Jiang Jiahui pursed her mouth and looked at her sister in a crying voice.

Fang Mei's expression instantly collapsed upon hearing her say this: "Can you stop talking like that? I'm about to cry."

Lu Qing turned around curiously without hearing the movement of the two for a long time.

At a glance, people are stupid!

Why did the two of them eat, and suddenly they started to cry.

What's the situation, filming?

Chapter 299: Love movies can't add some action?

"It's okay, it's so delicious, so touching..."

Facing the question of their best friends, Jiang Jiahui and Fang Mei naturally had no face to tell the truth.

I thought that this day I would wait until some day after graduation to get together, and then I would really appreciate it.

Who ever wanted to suddenly have a fairy boyfriend, let them experience the cruelty of the social class in advance...

Too cruel, too unwilling!

Thinking about it, Jiang Jiahui left tears of humiliation again.

The bluefin tuna in my mouth...

It smells so good!

"Is it tasty?"

Lu Qing looked at the two, Jiang Jiahui and Fang Mei nodded desperately.

"Eat more if it tastes good."

Qin Yu stopped his chopsticks and looked at the assistant chef who was cooking other dishes:

"Remember to save some stomach, there are still many left!"

Jiang Jiahui told Fang Mei that she knew, and no one stopped her movements!

No matter how delicious it is, can 80,000 catties of bluefin tuna be delicious? ? ?

As for the rest of the food, just open the belly and eat it.

Dry rice, dry rice soul!

It's done...

A meal cost 240,000 yuan, completely refreshing the three views of the two.

It can also be regarded as letting the two understand what is meant by a meal...

It turns out that there are standards for being a fan.

Sorry, disrespect, goodbye!

I'm not worthy...

It's not far to watch the movie, and it's just over two sky bridges.

"You just drank sake, and you'll be able to drive later when you come back." Lu Qing suggested that everyone walk over, just to digest.

Qin Yu naturally agreed, and Jiang Jiahui and Fang Mei, who followed them, had no objection.

The two of them are little followers today.

Miss Lu said where to go, let's follow where to go.

Don't ask too much, ask is to be critically hit by the power of wealth!

On the way to the flyover, it happened to pass Haagen-Dazs.

Lu Qing licked his lips and became a little greedy again.

As far as she is concerned, ice cream is the lady's fur mink...

Seeing her greedy cat, Qin Yu took her and walked inside.

"All flavors come in one ball, divided into two portions!" 24 flavors, one for each.

A total of more than 700, less than 800, cheap!

Taking the box out of the store, Fang Mei couldn't help it: "Qin Yu, do you usually buy things like this?"

"Nor." Qin Yu responded with a smile: "I also often eat roadside stalls, as long as I like it!"

Looking at the spoonful after spoonful, Lu Qing was so happy that he was jumping: "Isn't happiness the most important thing in life?"

Following his gaze, Lu Qing who was full of happiness was so dazzling!

A sorrow and sorrow emerged in Fang Mei's heart, 'this is the happiness that belongs only to the rich, right? '

Haagen-Dazs hasn't eaten it before, but they sometimes ask for two or three * when they get together to celebrate.

Or everyone can put together the AA order!

It's a wayward behavior that is enjoyable to eat like this, and picks the taste at will.

It's the first time!

A ball is thirty or forty, not that you can't afford it.

Is really reluctant...

"By the way, at what age did you eat this for the first time?" Jiang Jiahui asked purely curiously.

Qin Yu shook his head: "I don't like to eat these very much, for the first time."

He has no feeling for ice cream, and he rarely eats snacks.

Just like dry rice, that stuff is so fragrant!

Lu Qing said while eating, "I have the impression that I am in the second grade of elementary school."

As soon as the two felt normal, Lu Qing continued: "But my mother said that she took me to the kindergarten, but I don't remember!"

Miss Lu, please stop talking.

God talks to death, you know?

When it comes to the cinema, Brother Yu is a ruthless withdrawal machine.

The three women got together, whispering and discussing what to see.

I think about this, and that too.

Tangled!

None of the key selections are the ones that Brother Yu loves to watch.

What's so good about romance movies? ?

Then don't add some action to the play, it's only for the macho!

A romance film with no action skills.

Empty and boring.

There is no soul...

Finally, the three finally reached an agreement.

If you want to watch a romantic comedy, you should have fun. Happy is the most important thing!

Book your tickets and buy all the drinks.

When Brother Yu came back, his hands were full.

"Let's go!"

Enter the theater, divide things into one, and the four people's drinks are at room temperature.

Finally, he actually took out a warm treasure sticker from the bag!

"Paste this."

Just eat so much cold, it will directly drink hot will only stimulate the intestines and stomach.

Instead, use Nuanbao stickers.

It can avoid the discomfort caused by the shade, and it will not hurt the intestines and stomach!

This thoughtful move caused Jiang Jiahui and Fang Mei to be hit by a billion points again...

Why, God!

Even if a good man is in someone else's house, he is still by his side.

Can it work? Can it work!

The two people who were originally looking forward to the movie finally did not remember what was acting in it.

Two hours of viewing time.

Basically they were used to sneak a glance at Qin Yu and Lu Qingxiu's affection.

This year's lemon tree, I am afraid there are hundreds of acres!

So sour...

After watching the movie, Jiang Jiahui and Fang Mei really couldn't stay.

No matter what Lu Qing said, he insisted on going back to the bedroom!

"We won't bother you later."

Jiang Jiahui concealed her inner envy and joked: "Or, it's time to delay business."

Fang Mei just agreed and laughed, she didn't have Jiang Jiahui's city mansion!

The envy and a trace of yearning in his eyes were all clearly seen.

Send them to the taxi and watch the car go away: "Aren't you happy?"

Lu Qing looked back at Qin Yu, asking him.

"???" Qin Yu was confused, and asked what he wanted.

Man, you have to be stupid when you should.

This is not a scheming, but an expression of maturity. Never show off your external sunshine and charm in front of a woman.

Make the sun emit a radiant light, and illuminate the earth!

This kind of thing should be kept low-key, and good deeds do not leave a name.

Purely basic...

"Just pretend to be stupid!" Lu Qing was still satisfied with his attitude when he said that.

Holding his arm, the two first went to fetch the chilled tuna.

Then drove to Nanhu.

When I first went to Lu Qing's house, Lu Guohui and his wife were not there, and the aunt said that they had gone to a meeting.

Give the ingredients to the aunt, Lu Qing went out and called her mother!

"Thank you Xiaoyu for me, the child is really interested..." What bad thoughts can the mother-in-law have toward the son-in-law?

Back to Nanhu Manor, Qin Han and Liang Chuyu didn't come back either!

"I'll call and ask." It's almost time to get off work. Qin Yu called to ask, and the two were on the way.

"The tuna I bought, you two have a good fortune today!" After a few casual words, the phone hung up.

Let the auntie start to prepare the food, the fish fillets are cut by the chef.

You can just open the chilled box and put it on the plate later!

Before people entered the house, Qin Yu and Lu Qing heard the engine sound outside the door.

Quickly throwing away his big hand that was making strange things in his clothes, Lu Qing ran to the full-length mirror to arrange his hair and clothes.

"Xiaoyu!" Liang Chuyu entered the door carrying her bag, and first saw Lu Qing in front of the mirror at a glance.

"Qingqing is here too, great, auntie, add two dishes tonight." Liang Chuyu changed it better, took off his coat and hung it on the hook.

"Auntie...Hello uncle." Lu Qing smiled and greeted Qin Han who came in behind.

Qin Han said kindly, "Qingqing is beautiful again, haha..."

"Why!" Lu Qing was a little shy, in front of the two of them.

Especially when Qin Han was there, her temper was hard to let go.

"Don't say it, it's so beautiful." Liang Chuyu, who had changed her shoes, pulled her inside.

When I came to the living room, I saw Qin Yu who was lying on the sofa, and said disgustedly: "I don't know how to get Qingqing fruit for the dead child.

"Go, wash two apples in the refrigerator." Liang Chuyu kicked his ankle imaginarily and pulled Lu Qing to sit down together.

Lu Qing just laughed, looking at Qin Yu with a bit of ostentation.

Hmph, let you bully me again, tell Auntie next time!

Gave her a note, 'evening, alone, husse? Qin Yu walked towards the kitchen to comprehend the expression in his eyes.

My mother, the adults, have ordered not to move quickly?

After returning with the washed apples, Liang Chuyu didn't peel it. "Why don't you peel it? This kid doesn't know how to cut it and serve it."

Qin Yu: ㄟ(ˋ ㄒ) ㄟ

"Forget it, let me do it!" He stood up and grabbed the plate in his hand, "You speak with Qingqing, and I will see how the meal is prepared."

When Liang Chuyu walked away, Brother Yu, who was a docile sheep before, showed the camouflage under the sheepskin.

The big bad wolf opened his eyes and walked towards the little white rabbit with his teeth and claws open!

Weak, helpless, poor...

The little white rabbit can only dodge backwards trembling, but can't escape the control of the wolf's claws.

In the end, he could only succumb to the lewd might of the big bad wolf.

Let him play arbitrarily, his clever eyes looked at the kitchen frequently, always alert for the "red light" signal!

Chapter 300: It's nice to have a daddy

When Liang Chuyu came out again, Lu Qing's face was red.

"What's wrong with Qingqing?" Putting the cut apple plate on the table, Liang Chuyu touched Lu Qing's head with concern, "Isn't it sick?"

"Auntie, I'm fine...hot, too hot!" Lu Qing explained bewildered.

At the same time, while Liang Chuyu was not paying attention, he glanced at Qin Yu fiercely.

The affectionate, charming charm that radiated from the cut water in his eyes made Qin Yu wish she would rectify the Fa on the spot!

"It's okay, come and have some fruit." Let Lu Qing eat the fruit, Liang Chuyu looked at his son: "How much is the tuna you bought?"

Qin Yu smiled and said, "I don't have much money, let you and my dad have a taste of something new!"

Liang Chuyu gave him a white look: "Why, when your mother hasn't seen the world, can you fool around?"

"Is the bluefin tuna cheap?" Although Liang Chuyu hadn't bought it herself, she had tasted it with the unit leader and had seen it before.

Last time they ate more than 100,000 yuan for a meal at that Hao Ting Hotel.

The bluefin tuna on the table is worth thousands of chopsticks. Can it be cheaper?

Qin Yu licked his face to please: "Hey, more than 80,000!"

Hearing him say this, Liang Chuyu was immediately unhappy, "More than 80,000 yuan, why do you buy it?"

Mom feels distressed again!

However, Qin Yu had already figured out a countermeasure, and raised his hand to Lu Qing: "Qingqing wants to buy it."

"Huh?" Lu Qing stared and opened his mouth wide.

Liang Chuyu's voice was nagging, and his voice immediately softened, "It's Qingqing! I said how this stinky boy can have this heart."

"Qingqing, how did you know that auntie likes to eat this, and your uncle likes to eat it too, great!"

Seeing my mother holding Lu Qing's hand, she gave a touch of praise.

Brother Yu is almost...

There is no way, who is his mother!

Anyway, what the prospective daughter-in-law does is right, that is, if the house is lit, it can also be heated.

My own son...

I'm afraid it was sent by the boss when he made the phone call.

The boss may have to catch up with two or two meats, or my mother may not be willing to take it...

"What are you talking about?" Qin Han put everything down, and the family gathered in the living room to talk lively.

Wait until Aunt Qiao informs that 'the meal is open,' and then they will serve the table together.

"Old Qin, you taste this bluefin tuna. Qingqing bought it." Liang Chuyu held Qin Han with fish fillets at the dinner table and asked him to try it.

Comrade Qin had also seen the world before, and had eaten this thing twice occasionally.

The meat quality this time is obviously better than the previous two times, and the taste is richer and more delicate!

"Yes, Qingqing is interested, did you get it for your parents?" Qin Han didn't forget the old buddies when he had a good meal.

"Qin Yu sent it over, and it should have been eaten by now." Lu Qing responded shyly.

Qin Han nodded and gave the talking time to the women.

Qin Yu was the same, just burying his head in eating.

He found out that he is in this home...

High status!

No one dared to talk to each other, is it great?

Satiated with wine and food, Qin Yu drove Lv Qing home.

There was another noise in the car. When I came back, I found Qin Han and Liang Chuyu were sitting in the living room.

"Why, are you in the mood to watch TV today?"

Looking at the TV series broadcast on TV, Qin Yu curiously asked: "Dad, there is no need to write a report, documents or something?"

Regardless of the age of the Internet, things that should be handwritten are still indispensable.

Qin Han wrote a summary report so thick in the dictionary how many times after working.

Anyway, just because he knew it, it had to happen once or twice a year.

Never cut off!

Who made the dad write a beautiful pen calligraphy that would satisfy the senior officials above!

"cough....."

The two looked at each other, Qin Han's expression was a bit awkward: "Um, Xiaoyu, come and sit down!"

"What's the matter?" Qin Yu kept looking at the TV without realizing that there was anything wrong.

What kind of drama, the main room and Xiao San's face-to-face confrontation, they were killed face-to-face...

Are current dramas so exciting?

"That..." Qin Han mumbled for a long time without saying a whole word: "Your mother has something to tell you."

As soon as the voice fell, Qin Han took the remote control and tuned the TV to the court station.

Turn up the volume, he has to pay attention to national affairs first.

"Old Qin~" Liang Chuyu seemed to be coquettish with a bit of gentleness, but he was helpless!

This kind of thing, my son is so old, it's really hard to tell...

"Mom, what's the matter, don't you two be so weird." Seeing the two of them had weird expressions, Qin Yu turned to face the two of them, waiting for them to give them a word.

What's going on here?

Have a showdown with yourself and announce his true identity?

"It's okay, it's okay." Liang Chuyu's eyes rolled, "Well, it's about you and Qingqing."

"Oh, we are okay!" Qin Yu felt that things were not that simple.

Could it be... what kind of best relatives have come to the door?

"Who is coming to the house?" Qin Yu asked, "Sister?"

The best white-eyed wolf can be thought of in the family, it must be her.

When I use you, it's the eldest brother and the short brother, and the sister-in-law is like a fairy, like a living Bodhisattva!

When it's used up...

Don't talk about eating, just don't even have a word of thanks.

Where did you come from, hurry back to where you are to cool off~

"Don't mention her, I feel angry when I mention her." Liang Chuyu said and looked at Qin Han, "Your good girl is coming this year?"

Qin Han pretended to be deaf and dumb, and his heart was clearly like a mirror.

His relative here is just such a sister, although...

But after all, he grew up together, the university he contributed to, arranged work, and looked at getting married.

It's really going to be broken, how can it be so easy!

"I want to ask you something!" Seeing Qin Han pretending to be stupid, Liang Chuyu slapped him angrily.

Qin Han looked at her in a daze, "Ah, what, I didn't hear it clearly?"

"I said that your sister is coming home for the New Year?" Liang Chuyu was not polite at all: "I told you that if you want to receive you outside, I'm not free."

Thinking of all the things back then, Liang Chuyu felt wronged and angry!

For some people, that is to feed unfamiliar dogs.

No matter how good it is, you have to bite you, and your heart is broken.

"Yes, you guys don't fight anymore. If it doesn't work, just hide out. My dad can greet him."

Qin Yu didn't have a good impression of this sister-in-law, because he basically had no impression.

The two houses barely moved around, and she had never seen any snacks or clothes for herself.

But I often listen to my mom talking, Dad Qin Han ran to help her again, and how much money he borrowed.

"Your dad is just a dead brain, he's still silly and happy when he gets scammed!"

Liang Chuyu hated iron and steel and said: "People take his benefits, but they look down on him in their hearts and don't take him seriously."

"It just happened that he leaned forward, I really..."

Qin Yu hurriedly went to coax her when she saw her mother's enthusiasm coming up.

If this continues, Dad is afraid that he will have to sleep on the sofa tonight.

Huh~

No, the house is too big, at least I can change to the study room.

"Anyway, don't involve me in these things. Our family will have a good meal during the New Year, and I will make arrangements later!"

Qin Yu didn't bother to care about the grievances of these previous generations.

Every family has scriptures that are difficult to recite, and this kind of thing cannot be explained clearly with just two or three sentences.

It does not mean that all relationships can be interrupted and cleared up with a stick!

It is better to leave these things to parents to solve, he has to arrange his own time...

"That's right." Liang Chuyu suddenly turned to Qin Yu, her eyes wondering: "What is your situation now, school is so idle every day, there are no classes?"

Liang Chuyu finally remembered that her son was still a college student.

Every day, I've been flying everywhere, and I have returned several times in half a semester. It's a month before and after all, right?

I don't know how many trips have been made elsewhere!

Just like this, have he ever been in school, do you know that he is in class there?

I lost~

As soon as Mom pointed the finger at herself, Brother Yu's heart jumped wildly.

"Mom I remember the last time my sister-in-law seemed to call and said she was asking my dad to borrow money."

A dead fellow is not a poor Dao. At this moment, Brother Yu realizes the greatness of his father's love.

With Qin Han's furious eyes, Qin Yu ran back to the room in a hurry.

From the living room came the preaching of my mother: "You lent her money again, how much... Qin Han, do you feel that your life is too comfortable and you have too much pocket money?"

"From tomorrow, you will hand in the salary card to me."

"Don't listen to your son's nonsense, what money can I borrow, isn't it all for you?"

"Do you have any I don't know? I don't know if you opened a small vault, you will bring it back to me tomorrow..."

Ba Ba Ba, the small vault that Dad 'robbed' from himself last time is gone.

Qin Yu expressed sympathy for this and walked into the bathroom humming a little song.
