Chapter 2991

You Are Talking Nonsense

“Hmm?” The words were astounding to the listener, and everyone was a little confused.

When Levi spoke, everyone thought that they had heard wrongly.

What did he say? Did I get it right?

I must have misheard him! Didn't he come to surrender? What is this about killing the Deities?

No one understood.

They could barely hear all that he said, much less understand what he meant.

After some time, several high-rank official council members near Godric III recovered from their shock and asked, smilingly, “Mr. Garrison, are you joking?”

They had heard clearly what Levi said but thought that he was just joking.

After all, what he had said was just too shocking.

Levi seemed to remember something and he glanced at the nearby area crowded with fighters.

He gazed beyond the Deities and looked at those fighters at the back who had the potential to become Deities.

“Indeed, those, too! I'll kill all of them! Not just all the Deities, but all those with potential to become Deities, as well!”

Levi spoke plainly.

Indiscriminate Killing

Deeming it impossible, they determined that Levi was trying to make a fool of them, and were unanimous in their assertion that it was a load of fluff on his part.

“It appears that not only is he unwilling to reveal the secret of the resource, Sire, but he is intent on pulling a fast one on us as well!”

“That’s right. It’s obvious that he’s not going to hand it over either!

There was a flurry of chatter as the masses variously posited their views.

“What is the meaning of this, Levi? Are you not going to hand over the resource and its secrets?” barked Godric III.

Everyone regarded Levi questioningly as they wondered what the trio’s intent was in showing up but refusing to relinquish the resource.

“Of course, I’m not going to! Today, I’m here for the express purpose of killing off all of your Deities and Deity prospects! So come at me. all of you!” declared Levi staidly.

“Hahahaha...”

Hearing that made everyone burst into an unrestrained guffaw, and all of them thought Levi to be delusional.

Eliminating all of the Deities and those capable of reaching that level in Terrandya who could? They may easily number in the tens of thousands so how does Levi expect to manage that?

All the denizens of Tayhaven laughed as they regarded Levi disparagingly.

Deity Calamity

Those Deities were not able to break through the barrier created by the fast-moving God Crusher no matter what they tried.

That made getting close to Levi an impossible endeavor in itself, and in the first wave of attack, several dozen of them fell.

“Kill!” Levi’s voice seethed mercilessly.

Swoosh!

God Crusher shot out and punctured its way through one Deity’s throat outright, but that was only the beginning.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

Back and forth as the God Crusher ricocheted within the mass of Deities, that sickening sound reverberated all around while it tore through their bodies at will.

Blood started to pour down like the rain.

There was no singular attribute in the world of martial arts more compelling than speed itself, and the speed of God Crusher was transcendental!

The Deities were cut down without being given time to react. Even if they tried to counter the God Crusher, it was to no avail as being unable to stand against God Crusher’s might meant that they remained similarly hapless to alter the outcome!

They recognized that killing Levi would grant them victory, and that possibility seemed so close at hand that they could almost taste it.

Levi continued to stand his ground in the face of those murderous Deities' approach as though he was thunderstruck, except that he had his lips lifted up into a bloodthirsty smirk!

Whoosh!

Just when one of the Deities was upon Levi and on the verge of landing a killing blow, the distantly positioned God Crusher, as though it had traversed space and time, suddenly reappeared before Levi.

At a tempo fast enough to pass itself off as teleportation, God Crusher slashed past this Deity's throat, producing a thin slit across it.

In the instant that followed, that Deity exploded in a cloud of bloody vapors!

Whoosh!

Once again, God Crusher went on to make a rapid orbit around Levi, and more bursts of red clouds followed.

With this, the remainder of those Deities were no more.

Immediately after it slew the ones in the vicinity, God Crusher flashed away to locations thousands of meters away to continue its relentless onslaught against the Deities.

Such was its speed that it was as though it had never returned to Levi's side, to begin with.

That, was the God Crusher and it was an absolute massacre!

A holocaust had descended upon the Deities, and none were able to stop this, not even the gods themselves!

Levi smirked. "I don't intend to kill you today. Get lost!"

He then released an energy wave that loomed over the sky. The energy wave was so intense that it crushed over those ten thousand people.

One after another, all ten thousand fighters collapsed onto the ground and knelt before Levi.
These fighters were utterly stunned as they were no match for Levi!
To Levi, killing these men would be a piece of cake.
But today, he came to slaughter Deities and those who could potentially become Deities.
He had no intention of killing anybody else!
So to prevent them from instigating, he made them all kneel before him.
All the fighters could not move. It was as if their legs were soldered to the ground.
At that point, they could only resign to their fate.

The Mission To Loot

Levi looked at the people in Terrandya and sneered, "Since all of you like to behave like robbers, I'll show you what a true robber can do. Ready to get a taste of your own medicine?"

Dr. Erebus and Digital God wondered what Levi was talking about. "Robber? You want us to become robbers?"

Levi continued, "Not the two of you, of course. Have you forgotten the men I employed?"

Dr. Erebus and Digital God suddenly remembered the mercenary organizations stationed outside Tayhaven.

The battle was so intense that they forgot about the men Levi hired to ambush Tayhaven.

That's right! Since we've paid them, we must make good use of their service!

Levi said to Dr. Erebus, "Call them in. Tell them they have a mission right now. And their mission is to loot the city!"

He then turned to Digital God. "Where are the aircraft I told you to prepare?"

Digital God replied, "All the unmanned aircraft are ready! They'll all arrive at my command!"

"Great! Bring in the aircraft! We need carriers to bring back the things we're about to rob!" Levi said.

God then went their separate ways to carry out Levi's

"Charge!"

Hundreds of fighters from the mercenary organization raised their swords and charged at the entrance of Tayhaven.

They were ready to fight to the death.

"Let's go!"

The Deities from Armageddon Mercenary Army took the lead.

But as soon as they opened the door, they realized there was no one around.

Where have the guards gone? Shouldn't they tighten the security of the city?

They were surprised that there was not a single person on the outskirts of the city.

What if...

A scary thought appeared in everyone's mind, and everyone broke out in a cold sweat.

Why was Levi so calm since the beginning? Why did he reject them in the first place?

So he's not afraid of Terrandya because he could kill all of the deities of Terrandya and has the power to obliterate Terrandya!

They finally understood everything.

They even seemed curious to know where Levi's resources came from.

For a person with such overwhelming abilities, Levi could casually stroll into the restricted area to get it.

He wouldn't be in any danger at all.

Entering the Rank Two or even the Rank One restricted areas would be like a walk in the park for him.

At this moment, everyone's mood was lifted.

In the distance, Godric III and the other high-rank officials were shivering on the ground in fright. Tayhaven was in chaos.

They were even more horrified, especially after seeing the hundreds of thousands of people kneeling on both sides, who couldn't struggle nor show their anger!

That was earth-shaking news for the major forces!

Xyperia could only blame themselves for being too slow.

At that time, the only way to stop it from happening was to attack Terrandya. However, that would mean war!

No one would simply start a war!

The people who had emotionally blackmailed Levi previously at Erudia also burst with anger.

They could only helplessly watch as Levi gave away their resources.

However, Hydron couldn't be bothered.

It didn't matter where the resources went. As long as the resources weren't going to Idrae and Xyperia, they were fine with it.

What mattered was that Levi had none left.

Hence, they were delighted.

However, the reality of the incident was far different from what they thought.
