Chapter 3001 Swindlers Surrender

“That’s just narrow-minded thinking. You couldn’t see the big picture!”

“Let me tell you! We are guarding a super-spiritual ley line that is no lesser than the one under the South Pole!” the man said indifferently.

“What?”

Smythe and the others were about to go insane when he heard that.

They never expected that the forces behind Zarain also depended on a super-spiritual ley line to survive.

At the same time, they also understood the reason for their terrifying power.

The explosion of the super-spiritual ley line under the South Pole was enough to transform the entire world to this state.

One could only imagine the number of resources that had appeared around the world and the number of Deities created.

However, the forces behind Zarain had another super-spiritual ley line that was no less than the one in the South Pole.

Hence, Levi’s resources truly meant nothing to them. It was not even a drop in the bucket.

They wouldn’t be bothered at all, nor would they have such a cheap idea in their minds like Smythe’s.

There was no need for them to try to get the resources. It wasn’t worth their effort to help Levi.

"How strong! He must be the strongest among the deities! More than nine hundred of our Deities were never this powerful!" Godric III exclaimed.

Titan Lord wasn't alone.

There were another eight Deities who came. All of them were terrifyingly powerful.

Even the Deities were classified by their danger rating!

Titan Lord belonged to the Deities who had utilized the spiritual energy in their bodies to the extreme.

Finally, Godric III welcomed Titan Lord and the others.

Titan Lord observed him and said with a smile. "Godric III, I see you're still keeping a low profile. You didn't even bring a Deity with you!"

"That's right! There's not even a single deity in the entire Tayhaven! Where are the thousands of Deities of Terrandya?"

"Not just that, there's not even a prospect or any person close to even becoming a Deity!"

After their observation, Titan Lord and the others said astonishingly.

They looked at each other, and the first thought that came to mind was that all of the Deities of Terrandya must have gone out on a mission, and the mission seemed to have something to do with the secret of Levi's resources.

"Well, they're not around for the time being."

"Come and rob us! Let's go to war! We're not afraid!"

"That's right! Let's go to war! We're not afraid!" The others got a grasp of the situation and chimed in angrily. If they continued to be obedient and timid, they would be oppressed by Titan Lord.

Then, everything would be exposed.

Hence, Terrandya had to be tough to hold them back.

It was also more suited to Terrandya's aggressive nature.

As expected, Tian Lord and the others were bewildered, and they looked at them suspiciously.

The way they responded to Titan Lord seemed like they were ready to fight.

“In this case, we’ll leave!”

Based on their attitude, it wouldn’t be wise for Titan Lord and the others to press on the matter.

Otherwise, they might have to actually go to war.

Chapter 3004 The Amazing Chad

The spiritual energy revival brought out various hidden properties and abilities in people which was a common phenomenon.

After all, it was easy for powers derived from spiritual energy to manifest in an environment with such strong vibes.

During this time, many people hid within the city.

They seemed to know about the force and the super-spiritual ley line beforehand.

It was said that not everyone in Erudia had sought refuge during the spiritual energy storm.

Most of them had relocated at the very last minute to Shelter after the great move, while others stubbornly refused to move there.

Somehow, those who had remained survived.

There must be something strange about these people.

Some of them knew about the spiritual energy storm in advance, while others were simply fearless of its effects.

Chad and his family were among those who had stayed. It also showed the Miracle doctor's confidence to survive the claustrophobic event unscathed.

Chad did not use any medicine but solely relied on a silver needle to clear the contaminant in the boy's body.

The crowd could not help but exclaim at the astounding sight.

"Dr. Chad, can you heal poisoning more severe than this?" someone asked.

"Yes, I have a magical medicine that removes all poison! It is recorded in the Poison Handbook."

"Wow... A magical medicine that removes all poisons. Is there such a thing?" The others gasped in disbelief.

They kept hearing rumors about an antidote for all known poisons. It became the talk of the town especially after Forlevia's incident.

Regardless, people still found it a little hard to believe.

Chad treated a patient while he explained, "Have you forgotten about the mysterious man and the Ten Millenium Snow Lotus from two days ago?"

"Yes! If such a formidable thing truly exists, we won't have to die from the toxins!"

Chad slowly raised his head and glanced at the worried Levi.
The words that came out of his mouth had everyone stunned.
Levi's and Zoey's expressions froze.
They thought there was something wrong with their hearing.
The rest who stood were all stunned.
It was the first time that Chad had ever rejected someone.
They had been there for a few days and never heard Chad turned down any patient.
Chad had never said "no" to a patient.
He would try his best to treat every patient that asked for his help and never rejected anyone in need.

Chad's tone was resolute.

No one would have thought that Chad would refuse so firmly that he didn't leave any space for negotiation.

He wouldn't treat Forlevia as long as she was Levi's daughter.

His refusal was merciless.

He repeatedly said he wouldn't treat Forlevia no matter what Levi offered. Besides, he didn't care if Levi threatened or killed him. He just wouldn't budge.

Everyone could see there was something seriously wrong going on.

He had no qualms treating anybody else's condition, but there was a problem when it came to Forlevia.

Levi knew the doctor's refusal was because of him.

Someone doesn't want my daughter treated. Chad seems to be troubled by something. I bet there's a mastermind pulling the strings from the back. There must be some kind of leverage that was held over the doctor's head, forcing him not to save Forlevia. I'm sure of it!

"This doesn't change your principle, does it? No one asked you for a cure. We just wanted the magical medicine, regardless of the cost. Say it and we will pay accordingly," said Zoey.

Hearing so, Levi came to his senses immediately.

There's a magical medicine as good as the Ten Millenium Snow Lotus? This brings us great hope!

Instantly, he asked, "What magical medicine? Can you sell it to me, Dr. Holden? I'm willing to do anything for you in exchange for it."

Levi was more than qualified to give such a huge promise.

Based on his current prowess and abilities, there was nothing he could not do except hand-picking up a star from the sky.

"That's right! Dr. Holden, please sell the magical medicine to us. We're sure it doesn't go against your principle..." the rest chimed in.

Chad was stunned as he did not expect to hear Zoey's words.

However, he had made up his mind. "That's impossible! I've been hiding the magical medicine for several decades. It's meant for my own use. I'll never bring it out to show anyone, let alone sell it to Levi."

Chapter 3009 Chad Wants To Save Her

"Levi, death awaits your daughter because no one else can treat her now."

Malice flashed across the eyes of those three men, who seemingly held a deep grudge against Levi.

Just as Levi had speculated, there was a mastermind behind all these.

Someone doesn't want Evie to live, whereas Chad is just a pawn in this orchestrated incident. Did someone get ahold of his weakness to the extent that he's willing to die instead of curing Evie?

Levi could not figure out who wanted to harm Forlevia.

Besides Idrae and the blood alteration record, some other malefactors seemed to be in play too.

Anyhow, there was nothing Levi could do if Chad refused to change his mind.

As a follow-up plan, he instructed Troy to watch Chad closely and try to find out the people he came into contact with.

At this point, discovering the person who was controlling Chad's actions was key to unlocking the whole mystery and saving Forlevia from a possible tragedy.

However, considering how adamant Chad was, Levi knew that the chances were slim.

Chapter 3010 Becoming A Stronger Faction

Levi could not be bothered with what was coming as long as his mission was uninterrupted.

As such, he strode forward without changing his route.

A few minutes later, seven people staggered toward him.

In their midst, there were three young men, two young ladies, and two elders of both genders.

All of them were wounded and covered with blood, albeit to different extents.

Since the spiritual energy revival, it had been a norm to see factions battling each other to death.

Hundreds would die in the pursuit of a spiritual energy crystal.

Hence, it was not surprising to see people trespassing the restricted area for magical herbs.

Thankfully, there were no large-scale explorations being carried out in Erudia. After all, there were no Deities to protect the people against dangers.

Yet, many forces could not suppress their urge to traverse through the restricted area.

Hence, the number of murder cases and battles kept increasing.

This was especially evident among the hidden forces, who hid in the Shelter during the spiritual energy revival.
