Chapter 301: It's okay to recommend students!

After pitting his father, Qin Yu went out early the next morning to find Lu Qing.

Don't hide at this time, but when will you stay!

On Saturdays and weekends, I took Lu Qing around to relax.

Qin Yu basically never showed up at home, and spent the night in the hotel.

After finally taking a break for the weekend, Qin Yu didn't go home to be the second elder's light bulb.

Calling Lao Qiao is naturally unforgettable!

After receiving his call, Old Qiao always behaves very enthusiastically...

Had it not been for seeing his a dozen mistresses in the photos, Brother Yu would really suspect that he was going to engage in glass!

Wanting to offer a reward to poachers, it was the first time that Old Joe had heard of this kind of thing.

"Brother, have you been intimidated by someone? If so, you cough."

"Ahem, yes, I let the militants get tied up, can you do it?"

Brother Yu also couldn't laugh or cry, this bear drama is a little bit too much.

"It can be done, this kind of thing is quite simple!" Old Qiao said mysteriously, and he could do it.

What to do, I won't elaborate to Qin Yu.

Believe that he is not interested in knowing, some things are better not to know.

...

After hanging up the phone, Old Joe returned to the study.

There are two phones on the table, one black and the other green.

Picking up the green one, Old Joe dialed the international number.

It just happens that his team has nothing to do recently, so let them have some fun and earn some pocket money by the way!

Poachers?

It's just a group of mobs, just get rid of it.

...

Qin Yu couldn't be more assured of leaving things to Old Qiao.

After a crazy, romantic and warm weekend.

On Monday, Qin Yu sent Lu Qing to the school, turned around and drove towards Kuafu Technology...

To be correct, it should have gone to the construction site!

Kuafu at this time, except for a false name and reserve funds in the bank.

There is not even an office, so if you have any questions, contact Xu Hao directly.

He will then act as an intermediary to communicate with other shareholders and solicit opinions.

Finally reached an agreement and feedback to the local government!

When approaching the construction site, Qin Yu saw two buses stopping at the gate.

Bookworms with bags or suitcases...

Ah no, the future talents and technical experts have all arrived.

Beep~

After tapping the horn, Qin Yu parked the car on the open space at the side of the door.

"Brother Yu~ everyone is here!" Xu Hao, who was on the list, ran over, waving the list in his hand with a sense of accomplishment.

These are all talents that he personally dug up. They did it, beautiful~

"Is the place ready?" Qin Yu opened the list and took a look. The male to female ratio is a bit out of balance!

There are less than 70 people in total, and men account for 90%.

62 men...

I'm afraid it will be difficult to get an object in the future.

"It's all ready." Xu Hao pointed to the green simple house on the side of the construction site:

"Temporary conditions are limited, and this can only be done."

"Why don't you put it in the hotel?" Xu Hao felt that the conditions were a bit too crude.

He was mainly afraid that Qin Yu would not be used to it, and the others would be fine!

Qin Yu raised his head and glanced, and walked straight forward, "That's it. In 15 minutes, there will be a meeting."

...

Looking at the resume on hand, Qin Yu was really eye-opening.

Among them, the most eye-catching is two people, one is Cui Geng, a doctoral student in the Department of Energy Engineering of the University of Science and Technology of China.

He focuses on mechanical engineering, electrical and electronic science, and energy automation.

Another one, Jing Yuan.

A doctoral student in the Department of Nuclear Engineering and Technology for National Defense, he has served in the Ministry of Defense for three generations.

The standard military family, Bai Fu Aesthetics dominates.

In his heart, Qin Yu has designated the two as team leaders.

Each of his subordinates led two teams to study technologies in different directions.

At this time, someone has arrived one after another.

Seeing Qin Yu standing on the podium younger than himself, the school tyrants from all over the country were full of curiosity!

Is the so-called father of electric energy innovation the child in front of him?

The capable people have their own arrogance in their bones.

Let them believe that young people who are younger than themselves have achieved achievements that countless scientists could not achieve.

The reflection of the subconscious makes them refuse to acknowledge the existence of this possibility.

When everyone was there, Xu Hao walked in the last one and closed the door.

Qin Yu put the materials in his hands on the table, and put his hands on the table and introduced: "Hello everyone, I'm Qin Yu."

"The founder, CEO, and chief technology officer of Kuafu Technology."

Seeing everyone's shocked eyes, Qin Yu was not surprised, "Next, I need to emphasize two things first."

"Please put away all your arrogance first, you can come to me if you have any technical difficulties, but I hope you are not wasting my time."

"Secondly, I want to appoint two team leaders first." Looking at the people below, Qin Yu said by name: "Cui Geng, Jing Yuan, please stand up."

He is tall and thin, with a beautiful face, thick lenses hung on the bridge of his nose, and his hairline is obviously moved back!

It's not handsome, but it looks handsome.

Let's see another one, Jing Yuan.

Short hair, capable military uniform, with a breath of tenacity on his body, and his condensed eyes flickered brightly.

Qin Yu nodded and said, "Very well, from today you two will be the leaders of the first and second groups."

"The two teams under their respective subordinates are responsible for conquering different technical directions!"

Hearing what he said, Cui Geng looked hesitant as if he had something to say.

Jing Yuan has already raised her hand to speak: "Hello, Teacher Qin...I will call you a teacher first."

Hearing the unconvinced in her tone, Qin Yu didn't refute, and smiled and asked: "Then classmate Jing, what's your problem?"

"My question is, why divide into two groups?"

"Because we need progress and competition to stimulate you and give you motivation to move forward."

As Qin Yu said, pulling down the curtain in front of the blackboard, a complete drawing appeared in front of everyone.

Everyone's eyes were instantly attracted by the innovation in the drawing, and the whispering conversation sounded immediately.

More people are completely immersed in the new knowledge, with bright eyes muttering from time to time: "So this is how it is?"

"Can it still be like this?"

"My God, why didn't I think of it, it's that simple..."

"Impossible, how did it do it?"

All kinds of incredible exclamations came, causing Xu Hao, who was still a little worried before, to put his heart down.

Qin Yu, who looked at the podium calmly and calmly, shocked all the scholars at a loss.

Xu Hao has a million admirations in his heart!

This is Brother Yu, when you thought you were here.

Will always create new miracles and surprises...

'But, the team behind him, is it an enemy or a friend?'

This question is not only curious about Xu Hao, but also affects the hearts of countless people.

The secret investigation has begun quietly.

Unfortunately, these intelligence elites are destined to return without success.

Because no matter how elite they are, their various abilities can reach the sky...

It is also impossible to fabricate a team with cutting-edge energy technology that only exists in the 'fantasy'.

...

The next day, the two groups of people who had already separated understood the so-called competition and what it meant.

Salary, position, personal salary and year-end bonus!

These are all divided into two grades, want to achieve better results.

Recognized at the year-end conference, holding a huge cash check...

Glory, wealth, grasp with both hands.

Just be the best one, there is no room for maneuver!

Cui Geng's training time is arranged from 8:30 in the morning to 12 noon.

In the afternoon it was Jing Yuan's time, 2:30 to 6:00.

The team led by the two people must first figure out the different innovations of the battery.

There are also advanced battery management and low temperature resistant technology.

Naturally, there is no need to talk about the basic theory. If you want to talk about Brother Yu, you can't understand it...

The questions he can answer are limited to Kuaifu battery pack technology.

Although [Kirin R&D Assistant] has extended and expanded the technology, he has a more thorough understanding!

But the limitation is still [Kwafu battery pack].

Therefore, whenever the top school tyrants from all over the country look at him with admiring eyes.

Brother Yu felt that there was a little frustration, but he had to hold out a particularly calm expression.

'Don't worship brother, don't worship, don't be 6, it's all set! '

These days not only the level of lectures has risen sharply, but even the ability to load coins is very comparable.

You change yourself to be the 'father of energy technology innovation,' 'the industry's top master,' 'monster, ghost,' for a few days in front of a group of top scholars. '

When he went out, he didn't look straight when he saw what Shuangjing recommended to give birth.

what? Submit?

Well, it's okay...

There are dozens of students in my place, and it seems that I haven't heard of anyone who is not submitting it.

What, which university did you graduate from?

Shuangjing?

That's not true. Basically, it is mixed with XiaTech University, National University of Science and Technology and the like.

It's not worth mentioning, it's all elm bumps!

You have to talk about the basics several times every day. If you don't look at the weaknesses one by one, you have to use a board!

Chapter 302: Follow in the footsteps of Teacher Qin

Two weeks, half a month of intensive training!

That little thing in Brother Yu's head was almost hollowed out, which made him feel that Alexander...

Especially that Jing Yuan, like a hundred thousand whys every day.

"Ms. Qin, why is this, why, why is that why?"

watt?

Me? How do I know why, I won't think about it?

However, Yu Ge soon discovered that there was a trick that was particularly practical.

The expression is calm, and the eyelids are drooping.

Staring at her with indifferent eyes, keep watching...

Until Jing Yuan felt guilty in her heart, "How can I be embarrassed to ask Teacher Qin for such a simple question?"

Then, she would bury her head and study hard and stay up all night!

Until I thoroughly studied the problem, I was excited like a child to show my results to the teacher.

At this time, Brother Yu will be particularly calm!

He cast his gaze out of the window, his gaze was deep and thoughtful.

Nodding and humming occasionally was an agreement with Jing Yuan.

At this time, she would be particularly excited.

Her cheeks flushed, her legs clamped, her breathing became short and eager.

There seems to be a cloud of white mist between the breath...

In mid-January, the weather in the abandoned city also turned cold!

"Teacher, do you think I am in the right direction?" Jing Yuan wanted to get his affirmation again after explaining his ideas to Qin Yu.

Qin Yu closed his empty gaze, and responded with a serious and indifferent expression: "What is the most important thing to explore science?"

"Dare to think and do, not to be afraid of failure, to keep passion forever!" Jing Yuan responded without hesitation.

Qin Yu's expression finally showed a trace of satisfaction, "Yes, it is the spirit of daring to fight, don't be afraid of mistakes, don't be afraid of failure... Success is born from failure after failure."

"So, don't ask others, whether I am doing it right or not, but ask myself...I think it is right or wrong."

Qin Yu looked at her passionately, with fiery flames in his eyes.

It instantly ignited Jing Yuan's love and passion for science, "Yes, I won't make the same mistake again."

Suddenly saluting, Jing Yuan left the room passionately and walked towards the group office.

Everything that Teacher Qin said before still echoed in her mind.

Let the blood in her whole body boil as if it was overwhelming!

Believe in yourself, stick to yourself, find success in failure...

That's right, Jing Yuan, you just want to be a person who looks for success in failure.

Only in this way can we keep up with Teacher Qin's pace!

He is a man destined to stir this era and even change the world.

Only by running and diving, can you follow him closely and not fall behind!

Jing Yuan pursed her lips, and made a cheering action in her eyes, "Jing Yuan, come on!"

...

In the office, Qin Yu, who was still calm before, was lying on the bed.

The whole person is bad!

It's so tiring to pretend to be so tired. If one day is revealed, I believe they will be disappointed, right?

Turning over and sitting up, Qin Yu looked at the rolled up drawings on the table.

"Decided, study hard from today!"

"I don't believe it. I have the talent to be diligent and studious. I can't be a student."

"Isn't it just learning!"

"I can't be a schoolmaster, I can't be a fake schoolmaster????"

Brother Yu really doesn't believe in this evil.

We are no less brains than anyone else, what's wrong?

Just do it.

I bought a full set of basic textbooks online, and then I found out videos from well-known colleges and universities.

Taking advantage of his free time, Qin Yu plunged into the ocean of knowledge.

This end plunged in, but couldn't jump out again.

It turns out that learning is such a joy...

The fixed study time of two hours a day has become his only fun on the construction site!

On the third day after Jing Yuan gave up asking Qin Yu for advice, someone came to her again.

This time it is Choi Geng!

I don't know if it was a bad lesson from Jing Yuan, he also came to Qin Yu to discuss with various problems.

This time, the situation was different from when Jing Yuan came.

Qin Yu and Cui Geng had a heated discussion, and the two discussed from the basics to the current Kuafu battery pack technology.

Let's talk about the future development of electronic technology, new fields and prospects for energy applications!

One afternoon, it ended in the conversation.

Jing Yuan learned of the news in the cafeteria, and people immediately became ill at that time.

Teacher Qin discussed issues with Cui Geng, and was so dismissive of the directions and concepts they proposed.

What does this mean?

On behalf of her level of knowledge and proposed ideas, there is a huge gap with Cui Geng!

It shows that she is not as thorough in research as Cui Geng in the energy field, and not in-depth enough.

So much so that Teacher Qin couldn't take interest!

No, you have to learn, work harder, and work harder.

Speed up the progress, thoroughly understand the current problems, and then conduct extended research.

Only in this way can we catch up with one group, and the latecomers will come first!

Thinking of this, Jing Yuan didn't even have the thought of eating...

The entire second group was called back to the office directly by her, "Do you want to be on stage to accept the award, accept everyone's blessings, do you want to be a winner, do you want to get huge bonuses, do you want to be an ancestor when you go home!"

"Yes!" The answer was very loud, and the reluctance on his face was wiped out.

"Then do it." There was nothing to say, Jing Yuan took the lead in the work.

In the cafeteria, Cui Geng was still curious, 'how come these two groups of people left without eating, is there another breakthrough?'

Thinking of this possibility, Cui Geng couldn't calm down!

The progress of the second group is faster than theirs, and the research directions and topics are more difficult.

No matter how desperately he chased, he could only avoid being completely distanced and thrown out of the clouds, even the shadow of the other party could not be seen.

If there are new discoveries and inspirations, how can they survive as a group?

"Group leader, eating!" The backbone of the group sat beside him and said with a smile: "The braised eggplant in the cafeteria today is very delicious. I think I can eat two bowls of rice."

Cui Geng, who was upset, didn't have a good air: "If you eat, you know how to eat. Do you know if the second group is completely ahead?"

"Huh?" Before taking the eggplant into his mouth, Cui Geng took him out.

"A group of people, now follow me, hurry up, don't eat."

Calling all the people in the group back to the office, Cui Geng explained his 'discovery' to them. '

The second group must take the lead completely, and even the shadow of the first group will be invisible.

At that time, all honors, bonuses, and attention will all belong to the second group.

With a group of famous people, they can only be the second child of ten thousand years and beat the people in the second group.

"Let you work as an assistant for the second group and work as a handyman, are you willing?"

willing? Willing to be a ghost!

Who is not a bit arrogant, is not a schoolmaster.

Why are they also tyrants, they have to serve as assistants for classmates and lay hands on them.

"I don't want to!" The loud voice came from a long way, and even the second group heard it.

"Since I don't want to, please show me all my abilities. The management skills must be fully understood this week. If anyone loses the chain, don't blame me for being indifferent!"

With an order, the group also launched a vigorous research competition.

Strive to hand in a satisfactory answer to Teacher Qin before the second group!

The vigorous competition just started, and Qin Yu knew nothing about it.

Stayed at the construction site for more than half a month, locked up with a group of school tyrants.

No fun, no life, no food, no nightlife.

More importantly, there is no direction and motivation to fight for the dream...

"No way, no way, I can't sink like this anymore, it's too depraved!" After closing the book, Qin Yu decided to go out again and resume his usual life.

If this goes on, he has to become a funless bookworm, who only knows how to read books!

This is not the life he is pursuing, not at all...

After simply washing his head, Qin Yu drove the car numbly.

Called Xu Hao on the way, "I think Jing Yuan is fully capable of leading the job. If there is anything you don't understand, please call me again."

"No problem, Brother Yu, don't worry about the waves, leave it to me here."

In the office, with his newly recruited little secretary in his arms, Xu Hao ate the chicken legs in the other's hand and responded with a greasy mouth.

Work belongs to work, but it is impossible to let work occupy all the focus of life.

This is what Xu Hao summed up when he came last time!

Work and life can be combined.

Enjoying a brief moment of fun outside of work will only make people more motivated and motivated!

Chapter 303: JK girl

All the way back to Nanhu Manor, Qin Yu went to the room to pack his luggage.

Carry it and walk outside, "Airport, thank you!"

Don't ask how to leave.

Asking is to focus on academics and work hard!

On the road, I called my mother and Lu Qing separately, indicating that something was going on at the school and I had to hurry back!

"Then you go slowly, remember to take good care of yourself, and want to move again when things happen." Liang Chuyu.

"I will miss you. I will go to Hudu to see you when I have time!" Lu Qing.

Mom's instructions are still the same, but Lu Qing is different.

This was the first time she mentioned that she was going to Hudu to see Qin Yu.

Brother Yu thought to himself, 'I've exposed the stuffing,' but on the surface he was calm: "Okay, when you are coming, I will definitely help you get better."

Hainan Airlines' flights are still first class.

It's just that there is no personal service by the stewardess this time...

The other party wanted to take the initiative to rub Brother Yu's arms, but he declined.

The freshness of 60↓ is really scary!

"The Choice of Destiny"

Click to pull down the blindfold.

The world is in the mist, and the bustling retro medieval city comes into view!

This is the city of Ferola, one of the largest city-states nearby.

It is also the capital of the Kingdom of Isaac!

'Open the role panel. '

Role: A big gun.

Race: human.

Grade: LV49.

Occupation: Master.

Skill: Burst bomb

Wealth: 50 gold, 1 silver and 45 bronze.

Attributes:

Strength: 86.

Agility: 51.

Intelligence: 52.

Lucky: 11.

Items possessed: glowing magic tail vine, fine iron hoe, fine wheat bread X10, fire cracked fruit...

equipment:

Stainless steel rod, enchanted plate armor, and moccasin boots.

The mage who wears plate armor at 86 o'clock, the gun brother suspects that he is the first one!

His level has risen to level 49, not far from level 50.

The location of the role has also changed from a dilapidated small village to a bustling metropolis.

It's just that, so far, it's still far from what he wants to achieve!

If you don't hike, you don't know how big the world is...

According to the information he had learned, he wanted to break through the canyon leading to the Palace of the Three Goddesses.

Only by forming a team full of [heroes] can it be possible to penetrate there.

However, the news failed to discourage Brother Gun.

Compared with NPCs who are worried about going down, Gunge has the absolute advantage of "infinite resurrection".

Just wait for him to advance to [Hero], then you can try to open up wasteland.

The big deal is to die a few more times.

From entering the game to the present, Gunge has died hundreds of times...

Kind of addictive!

As for magic skills...

He has completely given up on that stuff.

"The team recruits fighters and heads to the sage forest to hunt!"

Hearing the recruitment information in front of the tavern, the gunman holding the stainless steel secret staff walked forward.

Here comes another job! !

...

When the plane landed at Hudu International Airport, Qin Yu's brain buzzed!

After spending a long time in the game, he finally ushered in the [hero] trial.

The arena in the void, the black beam of light that leads to it.

In the pitch black space, a dark glow that was deeper than the night flashed.

Brother Yu heard the sweet voice of the flight attendant announce that he was about to land...

None of the women notified, Yan Er came to pick up the plane.

The irritating BMW M5 parked on the side of the road and became a beautiful scenery for passers-by and tourists to shoot.

I saw a suit of red and green, with sunglasses and a peaked cap.

Yan Er standing by the car as a free model!

Brother Yu suddenly had the urge to turn around and return to the terminal, and to return to the flight level...

"Brother Yu!"

Before he had time to move, Yan Er had already waved at him with a probe.

Got it!

The eyes of the surrounding suddenly gathered, "Get in the car and leave."

When did this guy become so burnt?

Rejecting a few girls who wanted to take pictures, Qin Yu urged them to leave.

The rear door was suddenly opened.

A girl wearing a JK girl uniform and a mask sat in: "Master, drive."

After speaking, I bowed my head and started playing with the phone, which made Qin Yu and Yan Er all bewildered!

Under what circumstances, why did you suddenly become a driver?

"The car in front, hurry up, it's overtime."

At the urging of the management, Yan Er could only drive the car out first.

"Little sister, where are you?" Yan Ershun asked.

If it's on the way, just pick it up.

After this, she had nowhere to go in the car, many miles back and forth!

As for what he thought in his heart.

Man!

It's better to do good things that are helpful, all as charity.

The JK girl replied without raising her head: "Isn't there on the order? Just open it."

Once I heard Yan Erle, "I really haven't seen the order, or should I register one now?"

The girl was anxious now, "No, aren't you Shen Z: 85X63?"

Yan Er looked back at her, "Do you feel like it?"

The * face, the muscles that can't be covered by clothes, the tall people sitting like a bear.

Coupled with his 'scary-faced, unkind smile', the girl felt that she was in danger.

Cautiously moved toward the car door, reaching out to open the door and get out of the car.

Click~

I pulled it twice and found that the car door was locked, "Uncle, where are you taking me?"

Yan Er was really dumbfounded when she heard her crying voice.

As soon as his expression came out, the girl became more frightened, "Don't mess around, I'll call the police."

Hearing the two acting as if they were acting, Qin Yu, who had no plans to make trouble, turned around helplessly: "Little sister, you got into the wrong car without even seeing it."

"Since I got in the car, I can take you back if you drop by. Don't look at his scary appearance, he is actually a good man."

Qin Yu sent a good person card, Yan Er smiled and cursed: "Fuck you, Brother Yu, don't take you to curse like this."

Can a good person card be sent casually?

The Hulunbuir prairie whizzed in. It doesn't make life a little green, it's called survival in the green.

"Wow, so handsome!" The JK girl who was scared to cry and called the police just now, smiled instantly.

Leaning against the co-pilot's back, he stretched his neck and tilted his head to look at Qin Yu fiercely: "Brother, you are so handsome!"

"Well, don't talk nonsense, just talk about the place."

Isn't handsome, Brother Yu doesn't know, use you to say?

"Hee hee, my little brother has a character, I like it so much." The JK girl said and introduced: "My name is Sour, what about the little brother?"

Seeing her so obviously different treatment, Yan Erqi almost drove her off the car, "I said little sister, your attitude has become too fast."

Sour turned his head and glanced at her, with a disdainful expression: "Uncle, don't you know how scary you look?"

"but....."

Looking back at Qin Yu again, the girl's cute smile for love appeared: "Seeing that you are friends with such a handsome little brother. You must be a good person. I will forgive you."

I TM...

Where's the knife? Where's my knife?

Yan Er held a razor and said as he scraped, "So, the value of the face is justice, huh?"

Sour nodded in agreement: "Yes, it seems that you are not old, uncle, some help!"

"Little brother, haven't you told me what your name is?" Huaan turned his gaze to Qin Yu again.

Qin Yu, who was swiping the phone, lowered his head and said nothing. The girl was like a parrot, babbling endlessly.

The little girl now...

Well, it doesn't seem to be small anymore.

At 17 years old, it's really not that young.

It's just that you are too cheerful, and you haven't been out of society, there is always a bit of innocence and splendor in your words.

I have been with people in society for a long time, and I will meet this kind of innocent and romantic little girl again.

Qin Yu always felt that his mental age was much longer than that of the other party.

"Why are you called sour?" Yan Er interrupted after Qin Yu ignored her, "Does it mean sour?"

"What's so sour? It's so terrible!" Sour sour replied: "My nickname is sour, that's because my mother is so jealous when she is pregnant with me.

"People say it's a boy, but she gave birth to a girl, who is so strong and not afraid of giving birth."

"Then someone said that I lost things on the running belt, so I named it Suanshu. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com"

Ga~

Yan Er opened his mouth and wanted to ask what is 'that thing'?

Judging from the sour character, he is really afraid of the other party saying: Are you not long? Come to ask me?

That scene must have been awkward!

"Uncle, tell me, what is the name of the little brother!" Seeing that Qin Yu can't be attacked, Suantan intends to use roundabout tactics to save the country.

"Qin Yu." Qin Yu raised his head and said blankly: "Quickly tell me the place, I'm busy!"

"Straight man of steel." Sour thumbs up, and said admiringly: "Little brother, you definitely don't have a girlfriend like you, but I like it."

"Why don't we make a living, I'll be your girlfriend?" Sour patted his chest, and the waves splashed: "Tell you, I have many people chasing me in our school."

Liabilities, the 50 billion quota is directly taken out

Chapter 304: There are so many opportunities!

Qin Yu believes she is telling the truth, double value 90+

If no one is chasing this, the boys in their school must be blind.

It's just that the girl's mood is not very high?

"Uncle, are you already working?" Sour acid was very cheerful, but she couldn't see the depression in her heart at all.

Yan Er vomited: "Your eye sees me like a job, freshman, little fresh meat!"

"Haha, you like... can be considered a piece of ripened bacon at best!"

"I'll go, your girl's mouth is quite poisonous, believe it or not I will throw it for you?"

"With a little brother, he will protect me."

"Do you think he justifies you?"

Yan Er was about to vomit. After talking for a long time, he still can't compare with the 'dumb' brother, right?

"That's Gao Leng, do you understand Gao Leng?" Sour Sour shook his head and said, "You don't understand Gao Leng male god."

Yan Erxue is abolished.

"Good-looking is a high-cold male god, not good-looking is nasty criticism?"

Sour and Satisfied nodded: "Russ can teach and..."

Hudu, the first high school.

"Thank you, uncle, for sending me back." Standing by the car, acid placed the QR code in front of Qin Yu: "Brother Yu, let's add a WeChat account!"

Qin Yu really admired her reservedness, "I have a girlfriend, several."

Hearing what he said, I was sour and stunned, and then reluctantly said: "I just want to make friends with you."

"Sour and sour, Brother Yu really has a girlfriend, one is more beautiful than the other."

Yan Er didn't want the little girl to have illusions, even though she was not a few years younger.

But she has a cheerful and lively personality, just like a little sister.

This kind of girl is especially prone to get into the horns, and it is not good to be injured.

"If you don't believe me, look at it." Yan Er opened the photo album and turned out the photo of Xia Bai and Xu Xixi. "This is my girlfriend, do you see this one next to me... This sister has nothing to do with Yu brother!"

Sour glanced carefully, and said disdainfully: "Just like her, grade A, body A, mind A, it's strange to be able to chase it, I'm different..."

"Add it, let's go in!" Brother Yu was convinced, and the little girl now is really persistent.

"Hey, I know that my little brother can't bear to hurt the ignorant young girl's heart, goodbye~"

Putting the schoolbag on his shoulders, he waved back to the sour who ran back to school: "Brother Yu, please eat ice cream on the weekend and watch a movie, okay?"

Without waiting for Qin Yu's answer, people ran into the school gate, leaving only the crisp laughter like a silver bell.

Yan Erda turned to start again: "The little girl is very interesting!"

Qin Yu glanced at him and vomited: "Second brother, you are also two years older than the other person."

"What's wrong with two years old, one minute is big, if you are twins, one second earlier would be brother."

Back to school, Qin Yu was not in a hurry to cancel the leave.

"Second brother, are you planning to buy a house?" Qin Yu asked casually on the way back to the bedroom.

Yan Er thought for a while, and said, "There are or there are, but there is nothing suitable, and I don't bother to look for it."

"Will you go to the outer suburbs?" Seeing his curious look, Qin Yu explained with a smile: "I will go to see the house tomorrow. There is an internal price. It is made by Luheng. There is no need to worry about the brand in all aspects."

"Lvheng's house is worth seeing!" Yan Er thought for a moment, "Where is it?"

"Qingpu!"

...

The next day, the three of them set off directly from the dormitory early in the morning and headed straight for Qingpu!

On the road, Shen Dong began to complain again: "The house price in Qingpu now dares to sell for 20,000 yuan."

"Like me, after graduating, I still go back to my hometown honestly, find a stable job, and live a small life."

Hudu's feasting, feasting and drunken fans are pretty good.

But for ordinary people, especially outsiders, it is not friendly at all.

Locals, big or small, old and new!

At least there is still a place to stay. What do outsiders have here?

The family has struggled for several lifetimes, and can't keep up with the rate of increase in housing prices.

Yan Er looked back at him: "Are you willing?"

I have seen the bustling and bustling of the big cities before returning to my own small place.

Can Shen Dong really be willing?

Helplessly spread his hands: "Is there any way if you are not reconciled, let's settle the account."

"Just say I got a good job after graduation. The internship period is 6000, which is high enough, right?"

Yan Er and Qin Yu nodded in agreement, and Shen Dong went on to say: "In 3 months, at least tens of thousands of people will be converted to a fuller position, according to this standard.

"Every month, eliminate basic expenses such as food, transportation, rent, water and electricity!"

"Are there any more?" Shen Dong stretched his neck, looking left and right, "Do you think there are any more?"

Yan Er shook his head and smiled bitterly, while Qin Yu replied solemnly: "I think it might not be enough."

"It's not enough! It's not considered sick to buy medicine, occasionally improve food, buy clothes, shoes."

Shen Dong gave up and walked back, "I understand, this place is not for ordinary people."

"That's what you said wrong."

Qin Yu has a different opinion to say: "The younger you are, the more you have to toss. You immersed yourself in studying for so many years and went to Hudu to go to university, so that you can finally return to your hometown to be safe?"

"Then you stay in your hometown from the beginning, go to college in your hometown, make contacts and expand your circle!"

"How can it be considered a little famous now, what are you going to map here?"

Qin Yu laughed and said: "Hudu is not to be treated, but it can also be said that any place is not to be treated!"

"This world is not divided between local and foreign regions." In the face of his curious gaze, Qin Yu smiled broadly: "It is judged by rich but not rich."

"With money, the mountains are also paradise. Without money, trouble is like a remote wilderness."

Yan Er shook his head and sighed: "The rich have distant relatives in the mountains, and the poor are in the downtown area and no one asks!"

Qin Yu nodded and said: "Dongzi, let me tell you, don't give up early, this person must have a daring spirit in his heart, don't lose it."

"If you lose this energy, you just want to enjoy peace and enjoyment. If you hold three to five thousand a month, you will be abandoned if you live the so-called happy little life."

"In this life, you will be finalized!"

"Brother Yu, living in such a big city is too difficult."

Qin Yu smiled in surprise: "You are still alive in the ivory tower, where is it so difficult?"

Shen Dong rolled his eyes and vomited: "Big Brother, it's the Internet age now, what can't be learned on the Internet!"

"Furthermore, is the current university, especially the university in a metropolis like Hudu, still an ivory tower?"

Shen Dong backed his head with both hands, and sighed old-fashioned: "Even if it's an ivory tower, it's gilded... it's not pure long ago."

Yan Er glanced at him unexpectedly: "Tongzi, you can do it! This life insight is really worth it."

"I haven't heard, do children from poor families take up their homes early?" Shen Dong laughed; "Don't feel the same way as you two. We are not in the same frequency."

"You should settle your mind first and finish your studies safely."

Qin Yu glanced at him: "Besides, there are so many opportunities for you in this land of Hudu!"

Shen Dong didn't understand, he opened his eyes and curiously said: "Brother Yu, what is the opportunity you are talking about?"

He knew that Qin Yu's business was big, and thought he had some way to disclose it to himself.

"Brother Yu said that I understand so, don't you understand?" Yan Er was convinced, how could this kid be so silly when he was smart?

When he arrived at the place, Shen Dong finally wanted to understand.

Qin Yu intends to find opportunities to support him and give him a chance to make money.

"It's also a fate to be able to live in the same dormitory." Qin Yu looked at him and said, "As long as the mud can't support the wall, there are so many opportunities to make a fortune."

"Be calm, don't worry!" Qin Yu was not comforting him, but really thought so.

When there is a suitable opportunity in the future, Shen Dong will settle down to do it steadily.

There must be opportunities to make money, depending on whether he is willing or not.

In fact, Qin Yu doesn't like this state very much.

It is said that people close to each other cannot work together in their careers. In the end, if they do well in their careers, they will have to hurt their feelings because of their interests.

But today I heard Shen Dong say that I have already planned to go home.

Brother Yu felt unbearable again.

It's a big deal in the future to give him a hand and give him a foundation for him to work * his own.

What fame he can make in the future depends on his own.

"Brother Yu, you are my brother!" Shen Dong was going crazy happily.

He naturally believed what Qin Yu said. It seems that he is about to develop in the future!

"Tongzi, the ugly words should be said first."

Yan Erjue felt that Qin Yu was inconvenient to say something, so he interjected: "When the opportunity comes, you have to be prepared. You must not be that Liu Adou!"

Chapter 305: Then come to 1

Whether or not Liu Adou can do it depends on the future.

Now, the house in front of you is the business...

"Qin Shao." Xia Ke, dressed in a polo outfit, greeted him with a file in his hand, "Hello, I am Xia Ke."

"Yan Er, Shen Dong." Qin Yu briefly introduced: "Let's take a look at the house today. I think it's already completed?"

"Yes, the basic facilities are complete."

"The interior decoration has also reached the final stage!" Xia Ke led a few people to the sales hall.

Although the location is in Qingpu, it may be because it is in Qingpu.

Therefore, the overall greening, floor area ratio and style of the community are all very comfortable and comfortable!

"Our main project in this phase is to create a comfortable home."

"All the starting points are based on this core concept. You can see the crystal garden area, parent-child activity center, extremely high greening rate, and public rest area in the community."

"There is also an artificial lake surrounding half a residential area..."

Xia Ke pointed at the artificial lake on the sand table, and Yan Er had something to say: "This is a gimmick. I haven't seen water before the opening!"

Yan Er realized it personally, that this kind of house was bought in his hometown.

Whether there is water in the artificial lake depends on God's will.

God appreciates the rain, but there is water.

Otherwise, you can only look at the stones a year...

The key TM stones are all fake, vomit!

"Yan Shao, we at Luheng will not have this kind of problem. The property in the later district is our own, please rest assured."

Xia Ke assured him in public that the so-called furnishings would not appear.

All the in the small area will be reasonably maintained and utilized in the later period, and there will never be a face project!

"Brother Yu, is this little sister reliable?" Yan Er asked jokingly: "Don't deceive the honest person again."

"Reliable, assistant to the president, what do you think?" Qin Yu looked at Xia Ke after speaking, "Mouse didn't find you recently?"

When he heard him mention Xu Hao, Xia Ke was helpless: "I found it, I told him it was inappropriate."

"What's wrong, let me listen?"

Qin Yu laughed as he walked, and pointed to the middle piece: "Let's go and see the model room and talk as he walks."

Xia Ke is also a straightforward temper, and there is nothing to hide.

First of all, she didn't feel much about Xu Hao.

Not tall, not handsome, too thin and insecure!

Secondly, she felt that the wealthy family could not make it through.

Right, that is not a simple sentence.

For an ordinary girl like her, that is a step beyond.

"Just talk about the relationship between mother-in-law and daughter-in-law, a thousand-year-old problem, there is no solution!"

Xia Ke said very seriously: "If I were an ordinary person, I might still have a chance to argue for myself and change to their home."

"Even if I try my best to please and win a little bit of favor, why should I let myself live so humble and so tired!"

Qin Yu nodded and asked curiously: "Why are you sure she is not easy to get along with?"

Seeing Xia Ke respectfully staying away, "Have you seen it?"

Xia Ke nodded, "Yes, I have learned it!"

No wonder she was impatient with Xu Hao, it turned out to be so.

It seems that Xu Hao's mother did not embarrass Xia Ke less, "Does the mouse know?"

"I know, he said he would talk to his mother, but I really don't think it is necessary." Xia Ke looked up and smiled: "We are not the same."

This girl is realistic, but also sunny and cheerful, and has a very straight temper.

Seeing her making up her mind, Qin Yu knew that it would be useless for outsiders to say anything.

"The model room is here."

Entering the building, the bright white walls are decorated in a simple style, which looks comfortable and atmospheric.

The total height is 18 floors, and the distance between the buildings is 3.2 meters.

Keep a certain distance between greening and buildings to avoid shading and lighting problems without affecting the green landscape.

The small garden that comes with it looks very nice, "This one is good on the first floor, it's mosquitoes and damp problems..."

Yan Er seems to be very fond of this first floor, three bedrooms, two living rooms and three bathrooms, 141.6 square meters, with a garden of about 60 square meters.

"Yan Shao, there is humidity, but it will not be like before. Below is the basement, and the green belt is 2.2 meters away from the room."

"Furthermore, the hydraulic power on the first floor is used alone." Currently, the first floor is designed in this way, but it seems that Yan Er is so young.

The sewer is blocked, spewing such a thing.

If you think about it, you'll lose your appetite. If you want to make a guest's heart move, you have to think about the other person and solve all the problems for him.

"Can you wrap this garden by yourself?" Yan Er nodded and pointed to the outside with approval. This garden was what moved him the most.

Wrap it into a sun room, put some green plants on the shelf around it, and put a table in the middle.

Occasionally meet three or five friends for drinking, chatting, playing cards, whatever you want!

"Yes, but according to the unified standards of the community, pure glass!" Xia Ke's plan coincided with Yan Er's mind.

"Why, it's decided?" Seeing Yan Er's heartbeat, Qin Yu felt that he was going to make a move.

"I have to talk to my family." At the beauty, Yan Er pulled him aside and whispered: "I'm not like you. Three or four million are small dollars."

"Okay, then you call first." Yan Er went to the side to call.

When Qin Yu returned, Xia Kezheng and Shen Dong discussed the structure of the house.

"Let's take a look at other apartment types?" Qin Yu had no feelings for the first floor.

Compared to the garden on the first floor, he prefers the top-floor split-level or duplex...

Only by climbing high can you see far away.

At night, the lights were dimmed, standing in front of the big bay window, hitting a passionate war song!

This is the feeling and pursuit of a man with dreams.

The top-floor has a floor height of 5.6 meters and an area of 246 square meters...

Qin Yu wants to see, naturally, he looks at the large apartment.

"The whole floor can be separated by one or two floors, or only a corner can be separated as the master bedroom and study room to ensure privacy."

"The rooms below will not be affected. The overall open style is to give customers more options for independent design."

The hall is large, the room is large, the open layout, the high floor...

Satisfied, it's really good!

"Then come for a building?" Qin Yu joked and joked, and Xia Ke was completely confused.

"Haha, come one?" Xia was only ridiculously happy or embarrassed.

Does she want to be serious, or just listen?

This Qin Shao, but the boss should also pay attention to it, a real rich man, not a dude.

"Well, come to one, the middle position, the artificial lake heading." Qin Yu still remembered the layout on the sand table.

Xia Ke saw that he was serious, and his whole body immediately became energetic.

It's the kind of spirit from the inside out, the whole person is like a stimulant, and the complexion of the cheeks is glowing.

"Shao Qin, that... I'll call Mr. Jiang and try to get the most preferential treatment for you."

Taking out his mobile phone, Xia Ke asked a little worried: "Then I can call... Qin Shao, don't lie to me."

Qin Yu smiled and said, "It depends on President Jiang's sincerity enough!"

...

Jiang Hongsheng is naturally full of sincerity, and he still counts on boarding the golden ship of Lixin.

Find another way for yourself and take the initiative!

A 10% discount on the total house price, and a two-year property management fee reduction or exemption.

This condition is full of sincerity everywhere...

"Deal." Qin Yu and Xia Ke shook hands to reach an agreement.

Yan Er also came back here, "Okay, that's it. When will I sign the contract?"

"Just now, it just won't be used to run back." Qin Yu looked at Xia Ke: "All right?"

"Okay, I'll call them now and let them prepare."

Xia Ke hurriedly took the phone and walked outside, Qin Yu and Yan Er followed.

At the door, I saw Shen Dong who was walking around, "Why, have you finished watching?"

"Well, it's over, go back to the sales department to sign the contract!" Yan Er put on his shoulders and asked with a smile: "Brother Yu, which floor did you choose?"

Seeing the envy hidden in Shen Dong's eyes, Qin Yu smiled and replied: "The top floor, I like to live high."

Kindness is actually very simple, when others are hungry.

Don't chirp when you eat, this is kindness!

Although Qin Yu had promised before, it would not change his current environment.

Therefore, Qin Yu deliberately concealed the news that he had bought the entire building!

However, this time Brother Yu was also bleeding heavily.

The money in my pocket is about to be emptied, 'fortunately, there is a consumer discount card 3*.'

Originally, this card was reserved for Kuafu to buy land I didn't expect the land to be granted directly by the local government in the end, and a cent was useless.

In this case, Brother Yu used it for his own welfare.

This building was bought and officially handed over in the middle of this year...

At that time, Qin Yu plans to hand over the building to Lazy Cat.

Let Jiang Xiaoshan and Li Wanxing help her manage them together, and they will all be rented out.

There is nothing wrong with sitting on a charter wife.

This building can also be considered as insurance, as for whom this insurance is for in the end.

Let's talk about it later...

When signing the contract, Qin Yu found an excuse to go to the office area.

Completed the entire signing process in the financial office and obtained 36 standard contracts.

Chapter 306: Who is the owner

The next step is naturally an important part of payment.

The people in the financial room repeatedly calculated that the price of each suite had to be checked by more than three people twice!

"After the calculation, the final total price is 136.65 million." The little girl looked at Qin Yu's eyes, bulging lightly.

People think it's a centipede who has encountered Pansidong...

"Is the discount included?" Xia Ke didn't blame the girl for her reaction.

Not to mention it was her, but her head was a little dizzy right now.

One purchase is one building, hundreds of millions of dollars in cash, full payment!

Xia Ke doesn't know if the old salesman has experienced it, anyway, she has never experienced such a scene.

It's so magical...

Also, my own "list" which was specially taken care of by the boss. '

Xia Ke really had no idea whether it counted as a commission!

"Counting in, it's the price after the discount."

The little girl stared at Qin Yu without blinking, and answered her questions.

Feeling a little funny, Xia Ke patted her on the shoulder.

When the little girl recovered her senses, she said, "Okay, it's nothing for you. Go ahead!"

"Okay, Sister Xia Ke." The little girl reluctantly walked back to her seat.

Looking at Xia Ke, Qin Yu shook his phone: "I'll make a call and see if it can be solved at once."

Such a large transfer cannot be done by mobile payment alone.

Finding Shen Chuxia's number, Qin Yu dialed it.

...

C&D Bank, Shen Chuxia are having a meeting in the conference room.

Previously, the president had already stated to her that as long as there were no accidents, she could be promoted to vice president this year.

As for Xu Yue, waiting for Shen Chuxia to be promoted to vice president.

It is also a kind of incentive and compensation to leave the major customers in hand to her to maintain!

Of course, especially important customers, that needs to be maintained throughout the industry.

There is no distinction between yours and mine.

This is true for customers like Qin Yu.

The two still have to work together to serve and maintain such high-quality young customers with great potential.

Let him feel that Jianfa is his home and his relatives.

This is where he can rest assured and trust.

Buzzing~

The enthusiasm was surging, and Shen Chuxia's phone suddenly vibrated.

Xu Xingchang frowned displeasedly and squinted at her.

"President, it's Mr. Qin." While Shen Chuxia raised her head to speak, she stood up.

President Xu's attitude changed immediately, and he pointed to the door: "Okay, then you go quickly, don't delay."

"Then I'll go first." Shen Chuxia glanced at Xu Yue as he walked out.

The look in the eyes is clearly saying: 'Did you see it? You will always be crushed by me. '

But this proud pleasure was ended after a short 30 seconds!

"Shao Qin, do you want to transfer 80 million?" Shen Chuxia took a breath.

Is the position of vice president that he is about to acquire, is it going to be gone?

"Not 80 million, but 83.6 million." Qin Yu asked indifferently, "When can it be done?"

I wanted to persuade, but I thought that the other party was investing in the property market, and Shen Chuxia couldn't say a word.

Talking too much may be annoying to the other party.

"I will try to solve it for you within half an hour!" When it comes to work and letting go of personal emotions, Shen Chuxia is still very professional.

Qin Yu nodded in satisfaction and smiled after receiving a positive reply from the other party, "It seems that it is good to choose C&D."

"Yes, Shao Qin, C&D is definitely your best choice."

After a few words of greeting, Shen Chuxia didn't talk about personal affairs either, waiting for the other party to hang up before putting the phone away.

Looking back at the glass partition of the conference room, Shen Chuxia took a deep breath and knocked on the door to go back again.

...

28 minutes.

Billion, a lot of them went to Luheng's account.

"Shao Qin, your contract!" A thick pile of 36 contracts were divided into two bags.

"You hold it first!" Seeing Xia Ke's stupid expression, Qin Yu smiled and said: "Don't get me wrong, I won't be able to take it away. Turn around and let the mouse pass it to me.

Hearing what he said, Xia Ke breathed a sigh of relief.

As for inner loss, it is something normal people will have.

She could see Xu Hao clearly, not to mention Qin Yu.

The two are people in two different worlds, and it is impossible for her to wrong herself to be a junior.

Therefore, the straightforward Xia Ke will not have unrealistic fantasies from the beginning.

In this regard, she is stronger than most women!

Much stronger...

To resolve the misunderstanding, Xia Ke is still a little embarrassed: "I don't have a place to keep it. You let me hold it. I can't even sleep at night."

Think of a contract worth hundreds of millions, just give it to a little girl.

The other party may still be renting a house, which is really not very safe, "In this way, I will send you to the company, and you will put the contract in Yalan first."

"Is it Director Yalan?" Xia Ke naturally knew her identity, wondering how the relationship between the two was so close.

If it's not close, can you put a contract worth more than 100 million yuan on the other party?

"Yes, we are friends here." Qin Yu responded.

...

Send people to the door of the company to express gratitude to Yan Er.

Xia Ke held two cloth bags and ran straight into the company building, feeling at ease in her heart.

Without going back to the president's office first, I took the elevator to the floor where Yalan was located.

Xia Ke knocked on the door of her office, 'fortunately people are still there. '

"Come in." Yalan was working on the file, and she looked up after hearing the door opening: "Assistant Xia, is there anything wrong?"

Xia Ke closed the door and put the two bags of contracts on the table, "Director Yalan, Shao Qin asked me to bring this back, saying that you should keep it first, and he will pick it up another day."

"What is it?" Yalan curiously pulled out the files inside.

The purchase contract of Lvheng Shanju is the same as everything else.

Yalan asked in surprise and curiosity: "He started group buying with relatives and friends?"

"No, I bought it alone." Xia Ke patted his chest and completely put down his guard: "You don't know. At that time, he said he wanted to buy one. I was so scared to death."

"One, just pack one?" Ya Lan was shocked.

"Yes, I just bought one." Xia Ke nodded for sure.

"Then why did you take the contract with me?"

Ya Lan is a little confused, what is this for?

Hint, show off? ? ?

Xia Ke pointed to the seat: "Can I sit down and say it first?"

"sit."

Pulling away the chair and sitting down, Xia Ke explained the reason to her.

Knowing that he was taking care of the emotions of his friends, he deliberately concealed it and asked Xia Ke to bring the contract to himself.

Yalan's inner goodwill is so cold!

Such an intimate and handsome niche is really tempting.

Qin Yu's smiling face appeared in front of her eyes, and Ya Lan was a little silly for a while.

"Director Yalan, Director?" Seeing that she didn't respond much, Xia Ke had to push her.

"Ah~ sorry, what did you just say?" Yalan asked with a reddish cheek: "Leave these to me."

"Well, then I'll go back first." Xia Ke looked at her suspiciously, turned and walked out.

Close the door, Xia Ke is still muttering in his heart: 'This Director Yalan, doesn't he like Shao Qin anymore?'

...

The angry M5 stopped at the entrance of the school. Qin Yu got out of the car and said, "I'll do something first. Let's get together at night."

After the two were injured last time, they did not go out to get together again.

I just bought a house today and got together again. It's time for a good meal.

"Okay, we will contact you later." Yan Er responded with a smile.

After taking a taxi back to No.1 Seaview, Qin Yu went straight upstairs.

It's almost time for dinner, which is the time when the little anchor is preparing to start broadcasting.

Opening the door, the two are really preparing for the evening live broadcast.

"Boss!" Seeing Qin Yu, the little anchor dashed towards him.

Leaping up, his legs are wrapped around his waist, his arms are hooked around his neck, and his lips are put on!

I haven't seen him for almost a month, which is a record.

In the past few days, she feels that she is sick, lovesick, medicine and stone are difficult to treat!

Seeing Qin Yu again at this time, he blindly took the medicine straight into his heart.

All the listlessness and tastelessness disappeared.

"Sister Hong, stop broadcasting tonight." Jumping down and holding his arm, the little anchor took him directly to the room.

Don't meet nectar, don't win the newlyweds!

If this is not a fight Wouldn't it be so sorry for the beautiful scenery?

In order to keep the sense of freshness, the little anchor vacated half of the cloakroom to put all kinds of weird costumes.

Today, let's start with a theme of indulgent carnival night.

As for Wang Hong, whose cheeks are reddened and his legs rub unnaturally...

When she is full and sleeps, it will be her turn.

The little anchor can still know who is the owner of this family.

The tacit permission does not mean that she can allow a woman to ride on her neck in this house.

Wearing a three-inch magic skirt and a colorful cloak of witches.

Heroic and angry, the little anchor rushed to the battlefield with a magic whip.

As soon as he opened the gate of the battlefield, his hands were suddenly empty!

The victory is divided...

Chapter 307: Just be happy

At eight o'clock in the evening, Qin Yu drove out with a big par.

The two women upstairs, this meeting has been abandoned.

What war of attrition, take advantage of the emptiness to enter.

It doesn't work here for Brother Yu, kill all...

Bell~

At this time, Ya Lan called, Brother Yu thought it must be for the contract.

Sure enough, when he answered the phone, the other party mentioned the contract, "Then I will send it to you now."

"I'm going to have dinner with my brother in the bedroom, together?" Qin Yu asked.

Yalan was silent, "Okay, send me the location."

When it was time to park, Yalan's S600 also arrived, "Don't wait for me, go back and rest first!"

"Okay, Director Yalan, go slowly." Smiling and nodding to Qin Yu, the driver drove away.

"I will definitely drink in this wait, why did I let the driver go?" Qin Yu also thought about a free driver!

Taking a look at him, Ya Lan responded: "I will send you off."

Qin Yu embraced her arms and said vigilantly: "Miss Sister, you are plotting bad luck!"

Yalan was about to hit the bag with the contract in it.

In the end, I was still not willing!

This bag is quite heavy. What if someone breaks it?

Look~

The thinking of mature women can still keep a little sensible.

"Everything is here." Ya Lan handed the bag to him.

Qin Yu casually threw the bag into the trunk and walked to the store with her.

Yalan looked back curiously: "Just leave it like this?"

Qin Yu was surprised: "Otherwise?"

Why don't you just be so nervous?

As soon as he entered the store, Yan Er, who was staring at the door, stood up: "Brother Yu... is this sister Yalan?"

Shen Dong also greeted warmly: "Sister Yalan, Brother Yu!"

The two hadn't had a chance to thank Yalan for what happened last time.

I just saw it today, and I have to thank her for anything.

Yan Er even bluntly said that he wanted to change places.

The place he chose is a roadside barbecue stall, not a delicate barbecue!

It's not disgusting, this kind of place is the most comfortable for Yan Er.

You can see Yalan dressed in exquisite POLO, Van Cleef & Arpels hanging on her chest, and Dior jewelry watch on her wrist.

No matter how you look at it, it's incompatible with the roadside barbecue stalls!

"I like barbecue." Yalan said.

"That's right, I and Dongzi will respect you first, Sister Yalan!" Yan Er raised his cup and wanted to make a toast with Yalan.

Yalan picked up the tea and explained, "I have to drive to the boss later, so I can only use tea instead of wine."

"Big boss?" Yan Er smiled and didn't say a word: "Okay, let's use tea instead of wine."

Qin Yu, who was looking at the menu, was kicked.

On the opposite side, Shen Dong grinned and grinned, hands under the table and gave a thumbs up: Brother Yu, praise!

"Go away, we are friends."

Qin Yu smiled and cursed: "You comrade, your mind is broken!"

Shen Dong hurriedly smiled bitterly: "Yes, it's because I'm not serious, I'm punishing myself a cup."

"One cup, I see three cups." Yalan rolled her eyebrows: "You have one cup."

"This proposal is good, do one more."

"Do another one!"

Although Hudu was not as dry and cold as Abandoned City, the night breeze didn't let it go too far.

As the night darkened, Shen Dong couldn't hold it anymore!

"No way, Brother Yu, I have to sway if I drink it again." Shen Dong rubbed his hands back and forth on his thighs.

It's cold, it's too cold.

Yan Er was shirtless and glanced at the air conditioner hanging on the wall: "Dongzi, you are not good at this body!"

Men can't hear these words, no!

"Who said I can't do it." Putting his hands down, Shen Dong stubbornly held his neck up: "Come on, drink!"

"dry..."

After the three beers were cleared, Shen Dong was completely stunned.

With his head on the edge of the table, whoever yells is waving his hands straight.

I really can't drink it, I will throw up if I drink it again!

"I think it's almost the same, walking?" Qin Yu asked the boss to check out, but Yan Er didn't forget that he was doing it by himself today.

Pay the money first.

It's not expensive, more than 300 for four people, and the average consumption is less than 100.

Compared with the previous discount of more than 200,000 yuan for buying a house, it is not worth mentioning!

"I'll take you home first." Yalan, who had been drinking soy milk all the way, sat in the cab.

Qin Yu got into the co-pilot directly, and Yan Er helped Shen Dong wave his hand and said, "Farewell, I will take him two steps and blow the air."

You have to get out of the car after crossing the road, don't vomit for him anymore.

Yan Erjue still walked steadily, with a small body like him, and went back after carrying it.

Back to the bedroom, Hou Kun was there.

This is really rare!

"Second brother, I went to drink."

"Ok."

Seeing him put the drunk Shen Dong on the bed, Hou Kun curiously asked: "What good thing, are you drunk?"

"It's okay, happy." Yan Er said casually, took off his shoes to wash his face, went to bed and fell asleep.

He is a man who can't bear to eat soft food.

Although it doesn't matter how others are willing to live.

I can't control it.

You can choose who you want to be friends with, whether you want to talk to each other or not.

Then this is his freedom...

Perceiving Yan Er's indifferent attitude, Hou Kun didn't wait much.

He just came back to get something, his girlfriend is still waiting!

Hou Kun's spirit does not seem to be urging, but he is obviously selling a few circles, with dark circles in his eyes.

At first glance, I was overworked and didn't have a good rest.

Think about it, it's normal!

After all, in a few years, the girlfriend should have her 60th birthday.

Now, Hou Kun is the most marginalized in the bedroom.

It is not only Yan Er and Shen Dong, but he also deliberately distanced himself.

As for whether it is because of that little self-esteem, it is still ashamed, or disdain to be with them.

I feel that I am now at the same level as a rich woman.

It doesn't matter anymore!

After a brief contact, the lines of communication between the two sides drove away in two different directions.

If it weren't for living in the same dormitory, it would be difficult to meet.

...

Binjiang One, park the car into the basement.

Yalan turned off and looked at him and asked, "My little lover has already used you as a bath water, right?"

On the way here, Yalan noticed that he was constantly sending messages.

"What little lover, isn't it talking about drinking two more glasses at your house?" Qin Yu pretended to be stupid.

Jiang Xiaoshan is not there, she is filming with the crew!

What I asked Li Xiao to do last time has now been fulfilled.

"Love in Shushan", a web drama adapted from a novel!

Behind it is Penguin Entertainment, Big Golden Leg.

Jiang Xiaoshan plays the second vicious girl in it, sinister and cunning, jumping repeatedly on the death line.

Finally, as he wished to die!

However, in Jiang Xiaoshan's own words: she was very cool when she died, she jumped off the cliff and died!

The whole scene was filmed without any emotional entanglements except for the fighting.

Combined with Jiang Xiaoshan's cold attitude, it is a perfect match!

"Then if I put you up, do I have to put bath water for you?" Ya Lan looked at him with twinkling eyes.

Qin Yu clasped his fists in both hands and said goodbye!

Whatever goes up for two drinks, that's all a joke.

He had to rush to the Oriental Royal Garden, the queue was full in the past two days.

Even if Yalan was willing, Yu Ge did not have her place in his [timetable].

Called a driver, the two chatted for ten minutes in the car.

The driver finally arrived, "Then let's make an appointment another day!"

People don't talk, they are talking about Yalan...

Back to the Oriental Garden, I saw the forklift and mini still poking there.

Qin Yu made a call to the property: "People will drive the forklift away, and the mini will be there. Besides..."

He told the property that he wanted to redecorate the garage.

The one who answered the phone was a staff member, and she couldn't be the master, so she just said to reply to Qin Yu as soon as possible.

I also apologized twice for this, for fear of making him angry!

You said that you are powerful and powerful, the big deal is that the old lady won't take care of you, right!

But you have a ghost...

This is a bit unbearable. The manager's mysterious experience is still an after-dinner talk in the company.

She is already considered good.

There are a few elderly people who dare not even answer Qin Yu's phone calls.

For fear of talking to him, people will be gone!

As soon as he got out of the elevator, before he could open the door, Qin Yu received an answer.

"Mr. Qin Our manager said, no problem!"

"You go back and give a copy of the drawing, as long as it does not affect the safety, immediately stamp it!"

Hearing that the other party was so happy, Qin Yu added another to the list of New Year's gifts.

Looking at the Chinese New Year in another month.

Qin Yu intends to give the property, Shen Wanqian, and Hei Likui some new year goods.

This is a great New Year, a new year!

He has to remember your love throughout the following year, and he always smiles whenever he sees you.

If you don't want anything in return, just try to be auspicious and happy!

When you meet people, you can have a good mood.

Fingers on the lock, the door just opened.

A figure rushed out in front of his eyes and jumped into his arms: Meow~

Chapter 308: Poacher's doom

In the room, the night light exudes a mixed halo.

The lazy cat lay in Qin Yu's arms like a sloth, watching TV without saying a word.

From time to time, he opened his mouth and swallowed his peeled lychees into his mouth, and then accurately spit the nuclei into the trash can beside the sofa.

Holding the well-behaved lazy cat, Qin Yu was not only a little emotional.

Thinking back to myself a few months ago.

What would it be like when Qin Yu met Lan Yue at that time?

It is like now, sitting in the living room of my own room, watching the ultra-thin all-smart LCD TV.

Do you live an ordinary life like an ordinary person every day from nine to five?

No, it should not be anymore.

Because at that time they definitely couldn't afford to buy a house, so they could only meet occasionally outside the school.

Maybe we meet two or three times a week, eat and watch movies.

Then go to the nearby cost-effective love hotel, snuggle up and enjoy this moment of tenderness!

Then for half a month, I have to restrain myself from the excessive profligacy before...

Maybe he will go to a part-time job, then a place like McDonald's.

Otherwise, just go to the street to distribute flyers and do some part-time jobs exclusively for college students.

In short, it is definitely impossible to be as arbitrary as it is now.

In fact, Qin Yu has tried his best not to think about it.

Was the self at that time able to make such a good, sensitive and vigilant lazy cat tempted?

However, thinking of her dazed energy.

Qin Yu couldn't help laughing again, believing that as long as the skin is thick enough, it is still possible.

But then it won't be a lazy cat's problem, but Li Wanxing's Yan dog will jump out to be a stumbling block.

At that time, his appearance was not up to Li Wanxing's standards.

At most, you can be a friend with her, that's all!

Don't watch him break into Li Wanxing's circle so easily, but that's because Qin Yu has reached this level at this time.

It's not so easy to leave it in the past.

He does not feel regret or annoyed because he was not good in the past and was unable to reach the present life.

Because, whether it is the past or the present.

He is still him, Qin Yu!

No one can change this...

"What are you laughing at?" Seeing his reminiscent smile, Lazy Cat stretched out lazily.

She was a little tired after lying down for so long, and she wanted to change to a more comfortable position.

Qin Yu's thick and warm palm habitually rubbed her head, "I was thinking of the past, if we met you first, what would we become?"

"I think it will be like this again!" The lazy cat murmured naturally, "Because some things are destined by heaven."

"I think so too." Qin Yu hugged her with a smile, and said softly: "Little princess, should we go to bed?"

Lazy Cat with pink cheeks and her head in his arms: "I'm the only one...it won't work."

"One is enough, tonight... a truce!"

...

The beacon plays with the princes, only smiling for Qing.

There is also a truce in a truce. Anyway, vegan is definitely not acceptable.

But when he woke up early in the morning, Brother Yu couldn't avoid feeling guilty.

Little lazy cat's pure and snowy heart will eventually be stained with a trace of dust!

When he got down to the garage, Qin Yu saw the property staff who came to meet him.

"Mr. Qin, the forklift's expense manager has closed, let's help you clear the place."

The two cleaners came over with the tools, smiled and nodded to Qin Yu in tribute.

Just bury your head and start cleaning carefully.

Not even letting go of the walls and dead corners, reaching in with a rag to clean it.

I don't know, I thought I was cleaning my house...

My bedroom may not be so clean!

"Then you will work hard, and the plan came back..."

The other party preemptively said: "If the plan comes out, you can make a call and I will come to pick it up."

After speaking, he looked at Qin Yu with a smile on his face, releasing the greatest kindness.

If it were not for the manager's special explanation, she would not want to grab the conversation.

But no way, the manager is really afraid of seeing Qin Yu again.

He is also the vanguard under the hands of the man, and he is a sword...

what else can we do!

"Okay, let's do this first." Qin Yu was not polite, and left with the big par.

When the car went away, the staff and cleaners who were strained before suddenly relaxed.

"Huh... I'm taking care of this ancestor."

...

On the African continent, Bao Rhino Ecological Park Reserve.

The setting sun sets in the west and falls on the ground, mapping the vast expanse of land into a bright golden color.

Saniva lying on the ground and his cousins, Sawady, Savaro, and Sachs.

Quietly waiting for the arrival of night.

When the last afterglow of the sun disappeared on the horizon, Saniva began to act.

Old hands, pliers that make a 'creaking' sound whenever they move, pinch off the barbed wire in front of them.

Several people slid into the park skillfully and ran forward with vigorous steps.

Their legs are slender and powerful, and they run like cheetahs.

In the luggage behind his back, a few AKs were taken out.

"Saniva, today's park sounds so quiet."

During the run, they can still communicate gently.

It's not the first time that they have done this kind of thing, so naturally they are familiar with it!

"I think there must be fewer rhinos... Damn it, it seems we have to kill a few more."

"Why, kill them all, how can we continue to live?"

Suwanee stopped suddenly and looked at his sand sculpture cousin ferociously.

"Idiot, do you know what you are talking about?"

"When you come again next time, they will be dead long ago."

Seeing that the other party didn't dare to speak back, Saniva nodded in satisfaction and looked around at the others.

"Our plan is to kill a few more."

"Sell part of it for money, and save the rest. After the extinction, the price will be higher. Then we can sell it at a good price."

"With this money, we can do a lot...Sachs, don't you want to open a cake shop?"

"Yes, I like to eat cakes, the taste of happiness!"

Saxophone, whose face was dark as carbon, smiled shyly and scratched his head shyly.

Saniva promised to open a cake shop for himself as long as he saved enough money.

Although he always makes various excuses every time, Saks has been secretly saving money.

As long as he finishes this time, he will be able to save enough money.

"Idiot, I didn't open a cake shop for food." Saniva really doubted whether his head was growing in his ass.

However, as the most reliable and best cousin of sand sculptures.

Saniva feels that he should give him some more hope, who makes him work hardest every time he does something!

Putting his hand on his shoulder, Saniva was about to promise!

Bang~

Hot blood spilled over his face, and Saniva's body instantly froze in place.

Then the line of sight was pulled away, and there was a golden flame blooming in the forest...

boom!

...

Looking at the four corpses lying on the ground, the mercenaries with stubble faces and cigars dangling laughed freely.

"Look, what did we find, a fragrant knife!"

Hearing the captain's words, someone retorted: "I remember the head said that only by killing the opponent's leader can we count money."

Pop~

With a slap on his head, the captain cursed: "I know, I don't need you to remind me, FK~ a disappointing guy."

"Although everyone has not been resolved yet, at least we have a clue!"

The captain took a deep cigar and said grimly: "Now, hang them on the display stand. I want everyone to know that this is no longer a gold rush where you can come and go freely."

"Now, this is the devil's paradise, hahaha..."

The zoologists and volunteer workers in the distance watched this scene with bloodshot faces.

Death did not make them fear, but was full of excitement and excitement.

Damn poachers Your end is here.

In front of the hospital, Qin Yu was leaning on the car door and was swiping his phone.

The program "Xia Guo on the Bite of the Tongue" has recently become a mess.

Even the faint rhythm of becoming a phenomenon-level documentary, the three words Cheng Xiyu are frequently mentioned by the media and journalists.

The frenzy brought about by this enthusiasm has caused the small anchors to go wherever they go nowadays, there are crowds of fans.

When going out live every day, some people even follow her just to take pictures with her.

Good is good, but safety must be arranged in advance.

Qin Yu wondered if she should be equipped with a bodyguard, at least to take care of her safety.

As far as Cheng Xiyu and Wang Hong's body are, if there is something really wrong.

The two are basically giving X2 for nothing.

Chapter 309: What should the charter-in-law do?

King Kong Barbie: Chi Ni~

It doesn't seem very good to say that...

Wild survival expert and fighting expert.

Um~

It smells like that.

Let Chi Ni transition from part-time to full-time and formally join the team of the small anchor.

On weekdays, I drove and followed her to run and record on location to ensure her safety around the clock.

When it's time to shoot "Xia Guo on the Bite of the Tongue", let's set off together.

The salary is set at 20,000 yuan, and then adjusted according to the situation.

Brother Yu has always been generous in his moves.

As long as you work reliably, you don't have to worry about remuneration at all!

It will only be more than expected, never less...

"Hey, what do you think?" With both hands blindfolded, Qin Yu's hand was also on the opponent's wrist.

Hearing the familiar voice of Li Wanxing, the wrist that was just about to exert force relaxed again.

"If I miss you, would it be too hypocritical?" Qin Yu responded with a smile.

Li Wanxing dragged the long tone of "Huh" and said, "hypocritical, too hypocritical!"

"Actually it's true, I just miss you."

Pulling down her hand, Qin Yu opened the passenger door: "Please, Miss Li Wanxing."

"Well, good performance!" Li Wanxing, with a tired face, restored a hint of girlish luster to her cheeks.

Qin Yu got into the car and fastened his seat belt, with a wicked smile at the corner of his mouth: "There will be better when I go home."

Li Wanxing heard the deep meaning in his words, and vomited with anger and shame: "Can't you think of something healthy in your head?"

"The whole body of the horse kills the chicken, from the inside to the outside, transparent!" Qin Yu said solemnly: "Why is it unhealthy?"

Hearing what he said, Li Wanxing was speechless for a while.

She was already tired, and she didn't bother to refute, and silently leaned on the seat to rest.

"How is Auntie's situation?"

During this period, apart from busying herself, Li Wanxing posted almost everything in the hospital.

Work with Yan Xue in two shifts and speak with Yan Xue's mother.

Her situation is very unsatisfactory, especially after she accidentally learns about her daughter's current situation.

Her will to survive is even weaker.

For the care, a nurse is now hired, but neither Yan Xue nor Li Wanxing can leave without worry.

Talking to her in shifts, I'm afraid to leave her alone.

I can't think of it for a while, giving up my last hope of survival...

Li Wanxing cheered up, "It's not good... the doctor has already notified, let Xuexue be mentally prepared."

The heart is dead like a lamp, and Yan Xue's mother's heart is already dead.

Now the only one who is alive is a walking corpse, and even if he can be discharged from the hospital, it won't be any better in the future.

Li Wanxing had thought about it, and suggested that Xuexue give up!

But she knew that once such words were spoken, it would hurt everyone.

It's just that seeing Auntie lying on the hospital bed so painfully every day, it's not good for her!

"Emotions can't be measured by reason, this kind of thing... or leave it to Yan Xue to decide for himself."

Qin Yu not only agreed with Li Wanxing's views, but also affirmed Yan Xue's persistence.

It's not because he's on the wall and falling on both sides.

Instead of looking at the problem from the perspective of each other, you will be faced with two different situations.

He only hopes that this matter can finally be resolved satisfactorily.

It won't hurt both girls...

After returning to the Oriental Royal Garden, Qin Yu finally remembered to bring the contract for the trunk.

In the elevator, Li Wanxing, who was leaning on his shoulder, asked curiously: "What did you get?"

"Contract." Qin Yu raised the bag and said, "Buying a house contract."

"All?" Li Wanxing stood up in surprise, and the elevator arrived.

Qin Yu held the bag in one hand, and held her in the other: "Yes, go inside and say."

Opening the door, the lazy cat has got up and is preparing lunch in the kitchen.

Hot Pot.

Wash all the dishes, and then boil water.

Waiting for Qin Yu to come back to make a delicious sauce and work together...

"Sister Wanxing, are you okay?" Seeing Li Wanxing's tired face, as if his body was hollowed out, Lazy Cat was very worried.

Li Wanxing shook her head and sat straight at the table: "It's okay, give me something to eat."

"Oh, it's ready to eat right away, why don't you eat bread first..."

Before the lazy cat could pass it out, Li Wanxing had already grabbed it.

She is now hungry and a little stomachache, and it is no longer considered whether it is good or not.

A loaf of bread gobbled it down and drank two more glasses of water.

Li Wanxing seemed to be alive again, and then continued the previous topic: "How come you suddenly thought of buying so many houses?"

"What house?" Lazy Cat put the small bowl on the table and asked with a dull expression: "Who bought a house?"

"It's me." Qin Yu smiled and pulled the lazy cat to sit next to him.

A copy of the contract was taken out by him: "These houses are for investment, and they can be handed over in the middle of the day. I intend to leave them to you to take care of them."

Lazy Cat blinked and nodded blankly.

In fact, she would never understand what it meant.

Leave it to yourself to take care of it. Do you go to see it when you are okay and clean it up?

What she can do is... Will she be tired?

"Idiot, he meant to give these houses to you to take care of, rent out, and collect money." Li Wanxing lay helplessly on the table.

I'm speechless to complain about the lazy cat's slowness and brain circuit in these things!

When will she make people worry? ? ?

"Huh?" The lazy cat understood now, and looked at Qin Yu with his mouth wide open: "Give it to me?"

"It's not for you." Qin Yu shook his head, and Lazy Cat immediately exhaled a long breath: "Hu~ I was scared to death."

"It's for you to take care of the rent, maintenance and money." Qin Yu put the contract on her lap, and the lazy cat felt that the chair seemed to sink.

This, how much is this?

Why did you give it to yourself suddenly, she didn't need money to spend it!

Every day is eating, clothes, bags, shoes...

Qin Yu bought a lot before, and when he has time, he will take her out to buy new products.

He is also responsible for all water and electricity properties...

Now the lazy cat feels that besides eating and buying snacks, he has too much money to use up!

"You stupid girl, you can save it if you don't use it up, or you can use it for investment." Looking at Qin Yu, Li Wanxing understood what he meant.

Give him a relieved look, Li Wanxing told Lazy Cat to put the contract away.

Then picked up the chopsticks, "Let's eat!"

Don't tell her about the house or assets.

Let's talk about it when you are full, the lazy cat can't pass this level, she is different.

My...

Ahem, the cat concubine in this palace is still very good...very obedient.

Put the contract on the coffee table, and Lazy Cat also refocused on the hot pot.

She bought a few of her favorite dishes, if she didn't hurry up, they would be gone in a while.

When the meal was over, Li Wanxing took the initiative to do the dishes.

Let the lazy cat lay hands on himself.

Elder Brother Yu was sitting on the sofa, watching the noon news, and the soaked Lapsang Souchong was placed on the hand-held table.

The two women were muttering in the kitchen, but Qin Yu didn't listen carefully.

It is nothing more than Li Wanxing complaining about the lazy cat.

Stupid, surprised brain circuit, little idiot...

Qin Yu was tired of hearing it a long time ago.

However, Brother Yu never thought that a girl like Lazy Cat who got the money and took the initiative to push it out would really exist.

Such a good girl, if not worthy of being cherished!

What else is worth in this world? ? ?

After waiting a long time, the two came out one after another.

Li Wanxing pointed to the contract on the table: "Go, put it away, I'll send someone a safe over the next day."

"Oh!" The Lazy Cat accepted the contract with aggrieved expression.

When I look at Qin Yu, my eyes still have a bit of help and hesitation...

In fields other than dance, she has little confidence in herself Qin Yu looked away and watched the news intently: "Hey, this is a bit interesting~"

Seeing that his backer had also run away, the lazy cat could only accept this reality reluctantly.

'I'll buy some books online and study later, but...' His head tilted, and the lazy cat guessed suspiciously: 'Are there any books to teach people to be renters? '

I have to say that there are so many weird things on the Internet, everything!

Lazy Cat really found a series of books that teach people how to rent in-laws, and they also come with an explanation CD.

But she failed to place an order in the end, and was stopped in time by Li Wanxing.

There was also a brain collapse on his head: "Do you seem to be sprinkled? Do you seem to be sprinkled?"

Sit up straight out of anger, Li Wanxing twisted her hips and found a comfortable position.

Leaning her head on her soft shoulders, she smiled satisfied: "I and Shanshan will help you, no problem!"

Chapter 310: Shameful

Li Wanxing fell asleep unconsciously with the soft shoulders of the lazy cat.

When she wakes up again, it will be dark outside!

The room was quiet, with only the afterglow of the night light.

"Meow meow~"

The faint cry made Li Wanxing * up her ears.

It seems to be the direction of the living room...

Rubbing his hands and feet to open the door, Li Wanxing's face instantly turned red.

The swaying table legs are like a lone boat in despair in the storm!

A week later, Chi Ni formally joined the small anchor team.

A monthly salary of 20,000 yuan and a bonus at the end of the year.

The amount of bonus is calculated according to the team's annual income, the more you earn, the more you give, the less you earn, the less you give.

At the same time, the small anchor also made it very clear that rewards cannot be calculated into the team's income.

After all, her rewards basically come from her boss.

The little anchor is not happy to pit his own man's money...

Chi Ni said it was acceptable.

In fact, Chi Ni is very happy to receive her invitation.

Everyone can see the potential of "Xia Guo on the Bite of the Tongue". At present, there are countless advertisers who want to invest in title names.

TV stations and online platforms have sent invitations to sign the first broadcast rights for the second episode.

However, Cheng Xiyu hasn't let go yet.

Not only is it up for sale, but she is also collecting information on these stations and platforms.

The original intention of filming "Xia Guo on the Bite of the Tongue" was not just to make money!

Cheng Xiyu wants to make money while balancing his dreams and reputation...

Even if you make less, it's worth it.

Because only a good reputation can accumulate enough strength for her.

Let her dream continue and go further!

The current popularity seems to ignite public opinion.

In fact, it is just a castle in the sky, and there is always the possibility of dumping and collapse.

Everything is just the beginning, and the small anchor has the confidence to make it bigger and stronger.

At this point, Qin Yu fully supports her decision.

"If you want to do one thing well, go all out to do it, don't think about other things."

Qin Yu put his hand on her thin waist and smiled and said, "Don't forget, I am here!"

Simple three words are more powerful than any guarantee.

It also made the little anchor extremely moved...

Today she is wearing a black dress with slits, and the skirt naturally slips off when she sits down.

Two thirds of the shiny thighs under the light are exposed in the space.

Stepping on the stiletto-heeled feet of the transparent crystal, slightly tilted up, touching the ground with the toes.

Exquisite and flawless makeup, with hot red lips.

The upper black eyeliner made her charming eyes even more charming.

Almost like a demon~

When I took Qin Yu's arm and walked into the hotel together.

Almost all the eyes of the audience are focused on her.

Tonight, the little anchor is dazzling Qunfang.

At this moment, the host on the stage suddenly called the little anchor by name.

"Next, let us invite the champion of the 2021 Fighting Teeth Peak, Drizzle and Silent Anchor!"

Hearing the host's call, the little anchor walked towards the small stage ahead.

This is the second half of the annual festival, which belongs to the anchor's own small party...

The previous red carpet Qin Yu also went, wearing a mask to watch the small anchor link.

To be honest, a bit boring!

More disappointed...

After leaving the distorting power of the 'technological lens', the beauty monsters are revealed in their original form.

The melon face in front of the camera turned into a bun face on the stage.

The long legs became elephant legs, and the tall and tall legs became short winter melons.

In short, there are not many that can be seen.

Especially the Yan-value anchor, it is the hardest hit area!

Tucao barrage in the live broadcast screen densely obscures the scene of the ceremony.

It is absolutely possible for the panic-stricken patient to throw his mobile phone out.

At this time, the small anchor was invited to go up, so that she could preside over the next lottery to ease.

As a platform for the host to host a communication platform, small parties.

Naturally, some activities and arrangements are needed to arouse the interest of the anchors and create a hot atmosphere.

Cheng Xiyu, as the champion of the top ten peak anchors of the year, of course can't escape.

Just when the little anchor asked people to put the golden egg on the table, her position was suddenly taken over.

"This is your canary?" Bai Fumi...

Pooh, it's Ye Jinlan.

Qin Yu kept smiling naturally, focusing on Cheng Xiyu, "Are you also interested in participating in this low-end game?"

Ye Jinlan was also looking at Cheng Xiyu on the stage.

I have to admit that she is really capitalized, glamorous, and charming as a demon.

Even if they were both women, they were dazzled by her charm for a while.

"Do you think that the most important ceremony of the fighting tooth in a year is the low-end game?" Ye Jinlan said.

Qin Yu looked around the stage, then looked around, "Isn't it?"

Those present were all anchors, the pillars of each sector, the big anchors.

There are also the annual top ten, except for those who did not come to participate in the red carpet, almost all of them were present.

But no matter how good it is, it is ten times better than it is now, a hundred times better...

For a descendant of Ye Jinlan's top-class family, that's nothing more!

Not a low-end office, so what?

High-end communication?

Ye Jinlan deliberately lowered a few grades, but couldn't!

"Isn't there you?" The spear pointed at Qin Yu, making him vigilant.

It seems that the influence of the miracle is stronger than he predicted.

Doesn't this woman want to rely on herself?

As his eyes rolled, Brother Yu's smile became weird: "Miss Ye, I'm only interested in women who can communicate in depth."

Looking up and down her eyes, white dress, delicate and indifferent face.

The curled head of the ball and the innocence in his eyes, "I am not interested in a chick like you."

Ye Jinlan's indifferent expression suddenly changed, and she instantly recovered her calm!

"Do you think these are the only things you can talk about between men and women?" Ye Jinlan seemed to be asking for his opinion.

Qin Yu spread his hands and said speechlessly: "Yes, yes, there is pure friendship between men and women."

"We are just blue eyes, don't get me wrong... People with dirty hearts will only see dirty!"

This is so much the same as "I smoke, drink, dance and fall~"

But I am a good girl, you have to know how to cherish, what is the difference?

Of course, Brother Yu is different.

To him, a simple youth who just wants to make more friends and send warmth to the young lady.

It's really not much...

Seeing him look like a rascal, Ye Jinlan couldn't hold back the character.

"Don't you understand, what does it mean to marry me?"

As soon as the voice fell, Ye Jinlan changed her words immediately: "I mean being a friend."

Qin Yu glanced at her, a stubborn and proud expression in his indifferent expression.

"I make friends and never care about how much benefit they can bring."

"Then what do you care about?"

"What can I bring to the other party!"

Facing his serious nonsense, Ye Jinlan was helpless.

This man is really poisonous!

Ye Jinlan, who had fallen into autism, became quiet, and the golden egg smashing activity on the stage came to an end.

When Cheng Xiyu came back, the fire was on the verge!

"Drizzle, let me introduce you." Qin Yu got up and hugged the anchor, and said to Ye Jinlan, "Miss Ye, the largest shareholder of Douya."

"Hello, Miss Ye." Cheng Xiyu finished speaking, and asked with a slightly surprised expression: "Has the organizer forgot to arrange a place for you?"

It seems to be showing weakness, but in fact it is thorny in the words.

Implying that she took her place...

In the live broadcast industry for so long, the little anchor is not a harmless little white rabbit.

Ye Jinlan stood up, "Congratulations!"

Congratulations briefly, turn around and leave.

Neither responded to her provocation, nor condescendingly.

She just left.

It seems that Cheng Xiyu is not worth mentioning to her, even the time is not worth delaying...

Ants.

This woman's city is not simple!

Brother Yu must admit that he is indeed a little more curious about her.

But it's limited to this...

With the big rock of 'Ye's son-in-law' pressed Brother Yu is very clear about the boundaries.

In the next social entertainment, the little anchor smiled barely all the way!

Ye Jinlan's attitude made her disguise and strong, as easy to expose as paper.

Is this the confidence and arrogance of aristocratic women?

The pride in the bones and the strong confidence in the heart cannot be done by any disguise.

What makes the little anchor even more worrying is, 'has the level of the boss and the woman he comes in contact with have reached the point where he can't live without him? '

Ashamed of herself, Cheng Xiyu never thought that she would have such a day.

He looked up at Qin Yu's profile.

Cheng Xiyu was very worried that one day, he would lose the temptation to him and fall back to the tragic reality from the beautiful fairy tale dream.
