Chapter 3011 It Was All The Fault Of Levi

They were the devil's advocates, who had killed many, destroyed multiple factions, and stolen countless magical herbs.

In that faction, everyone was a merciless cultivator.

They had no concept of countries or moral principles.

Their only motivation was to survive in Erudia.

However, they would never regard themselves as Erudians.

After all, they were ruthless cultivators, unlike the regular citizens.

It was an age where the fittest survived.

Their current coalition was deemed a nightmare to the other smaller factions.

Fearlessly, they forged ahead and devoured all the groups they encountered until the point where they met Black Sky Union.

The normalcy that they were most familiar with was to prey on others or to be preyed upon.

However, it was the latter case for them when they met Black Sky Union, who charged at them with full force like a hungry beast, ready to tear its victim apart.

"Kill!" all of Black Sky Union's elites chanted as they dashed toward the seven fighters.

One of them aimed at Levi and yelled, "Your end is here!"

Instantly, Levi was livid.

I didn't intentionally get myself involved in their fights, and neither did I declare any plans to save the seven fighters. Why must they count me in in this nonsense?

Boom!

Suddenly, the elite who wanted to attack Levi was sent flying into the air by an invisible force.

After crushing into eight trees, the elite drop dead on the ground.

The others present were beyond astonished by the sight.

Within seconds, the rest of Black Sky Union's elites got ready for another strike.

Thump!

Boom!

The elites were all sent sprawling in various directions.

It was a sight beyond savage that had everybody, including Brianna and her members, stay rooted to their spots.

In an instant, the few senior elites locked their eyes on Levi.

Chapter 3013 Not Grateful To Be Saved

Levi could not stand their behaviors.

In fact, he never liked them from the beginning.

Seeing how they wanted to leave without a word of gratitude after he had saved them, Levi thought he deserved an explanation.

Even though it was below his dignity to bother himself with people as insignificant as pests, this was a completely different case.

Their nonchalance made Levi bend about putting things right.

Those words from him left all of them stunned.

It seemed they had suddenly remembered how the man had killed all the Black Sky Union to save them.

Perhaps we should thank Levi? After all, he saved us.

The two elders among the group instinctively wanted to show their gratitude toward Levi since they deemed it was only natural to thank their savior.

Chapter 3014 Never Seen A Women

"Your motive is so obvious. You wanted us to feel indebted and grateful for you because you wanted our magical herbs! But more importantly, you're eyeing our beauty! You saved us so that we would repay your kindness with our bodies and spend a night with you!"

Levi was utterly stumped.

They're finding such absurd reasons just because they don't want to apologize. Did she say that I'm eyeing their beauty? I've seen all kinds of women. If I want, I'll be able to have any woman! I save you two because of your bodies? Honestly, I am not interested at all! I must be blind if I'm attracted to either of you. Have some shame, please. Aren't you two overly confident in yourselves?

Exasperation was written all over Levi's face.

However, from their perspective, that was exactly what he had desired.

"I'm sure we got it right! Who doesn't know how men's brains work? You put on the act of a knight in shining armor, so we'll be grateful for what you did and have good feelings toward you. To put it plainly, you hope that we'll repay the debt of gratitude with our bodies! Did you not see how those people from Black Sky Union reacted when they saw us earlier? They wanted to prance on us so badly! I'm sure you're just like them, except that you're trying to look calm on the outside. We admit you looked impressive, but you were already eyeing us when you showed off your capabilities! You wanted to make us think that you've saved us so that you can get us to offer our bodies as repayment! But listen, that will never happen! We won't do it even if you kill us! We've seen too many men like you! Now that we've exposed you, are you gonna grow angry and do something to us?"

Brianna scoffed as she shamelessly commented. "Yeah, that's exactly how it is! We're lucky beings! We won't die. I believed God will teach those who want to kill us a lesson!"

Levi scoffed at the absurdity of her words.

How could she even bring herself to say such things? Just because they don't want to admit that I've indeed saved their lives? Their words are increasingly outrageous! They can even bring themselves to say things like God striking those men to death, huh? How thick-skinned of them to assume so!

Levi was incredulous.

If I did nothing just now, could they have escaped from the men of Black Sky Union? Are they stupid? Do all seven of them not have an inkling of their capabilities and the state they were in? They thought they could get out safely. Really? How are they so confident about it?

Suddenly, Levi's mouth arched upward from an idea.

Since you claimed you could escape from Black Sky Union's clutches, I shall see for myself if your arrogance can match your capabilities!

That was the idea he came up with.

He was no longer anxious about exploring the restricted area anymore.

All that he wanted now was to butt heads with those people.

At the sight of Levi approaching them, the group began to panic.

"W-What do you want?" Brianna's voice was shaking.

"Don't tell me you want to kill us all? You can't attack us just because you can't outspoke us!" Braxton and the rest staggered backward as he cautiously warned.

Chapter 3016 Send Them Back To Danger

As the voices of Brianna and the rest became increasingly hoarse from shouting, they eventually stopped scolding Levi.

Later, all of them fainted due to injuries.

They woke up in an unfamiliar environment and realized Levi’s subordinates had left them at the headquarters of the Black Sky Union.

When Levi had rescued them from the union’s assassins, they didn’t appreciate his help.

Hence, he decided to return the seven to the Black Sky Union, putting them in danger again.

Since they claimed God would punish the organization, Levi looked forward to testing their theory.

Earlier on, he had Troy locate the base of the Black Sky Union.

The latter had a hard time locating the base because it was in the mountains, a Rank Three restricted area.

Just now, Troy dragged Brianna and the rest to the Black Sky Union and dropped them there.

Levi didn’t leave, for he wanted to find out if Brianna and her companions could escape without his

"What? The Black Sky Union?"

A shiver ran down everyone's spines when they recognized the people who surrounded them.

Also, they recognized that the ruffians who surrounded Brianna were those who escaped earlier on.

What is this place?

After scanning around the place, they reckoned there were several hundred members of the Black Sky
Union.

Are we in their base? Why are there so many people? Unbelievable!

"Let me answer your question. You're at the headquarters of the Black Sky Union! I admire your courage, but you are digging your own grave! Why did you come back to court death after escaping?"

Brianna and the rest were almost driven mad by their laughter.

"What? Are we really in the Black Sky Union's headquarters?"

The seven couldn't believe their ears.

How could we treat our benefactor like this?
A word of thanks isn't too much to ask.
To top it off, we even blamed him for having bad intentions and delved further into other issues.
Finally, they appreciated him for saving them.
But it was too late.
They were about to go insane with guilt.
It was not Levi's fault. They should not have said what they said.
How could we boast of escaping without his help?
Now, the same scenario is happening again.
We must get out of this place alive no matter what.

“Seize them!”

The men from the Black Sky Union made their move and started to snatch the magical herbs away.

Soon, the seven had been stripped clean of their treasures.

Chapter 3019 Miracle Doctor Exposed

Levi wanted to verify if what they said was true.

It turned out to be otherwise.

He could hear agonizing screams ringing out from the valley.

Levi walked away.

He continued to explore the Rank One restricted area and tried to locate some magical herbs.

True enough, he found some valuable items.

"The time for spiritual energy revival is too short. Otherwise, under the nourishment of such intense force, magical medicine will surely appear after a few years!" mumbled Levi to himself.

The time was too short.

It was true that magical herbs were everywhere.

However, the magical herbs that could get rid of the poison in Forlevia would still require time to accumulate. It would be impossible to do so in a short span of time.

His hope still lay in Chad and the magical medicine that he possessed.

As expected, the news of the Miracle doctor of Erudia could no longer be contained.

DG Leo expressed their request earnestly.

"Fine! If all of you need them, I'll give them to you," said Levi.

To him, he did not mind if he had the resources or not.

Before that, there was no use of them in Erudia.

Now that they needed them, he did not mind giving some to them.

Levi brought the men to the aircraft of Digital God.

"Keep some behind and give them the rest!"

Levi was a generous man, and he gave nearly all the aircraft's resources to Erudia.

Everyone was astounded at the sight of the abundant resources.

When Malcom and Maxwell saw them, their eyes lit up.

The two of them needed those resources more than anyone else.

After all, it was not their ultimate goal to become Deities. They only wanted to absorb huge quantities of spiritual energy.

They could be stronger.

However, to be stronger, they would require a massive amount of resources.
