If You Dare

Since Levi's words managed to hit their nerves, it was only natural for them to retaliate.

Obviously, they knew Levi's weakness was his daughter.

However, they were wrong when they expected Levi to react angrily.

Instead, he was rather calm.

As for Dr. Erebus and his compatriot, they started laughing upon hearing those threats against Levi's daughter. How could they still talk about Evie not getting cured at this point? They're downright laughable!

The men from Idrae were utterly dumbfounded. What's going on? Why are they not agitated by what they heard? Wait! Something's not right!

They couldn't wait to unleash their wrath on Levi.

"Levi, perhaps you should count yourself lucky because you're going to witness history being made! You're going to experience the true mightiness of the Elterton Union firsthand! You should be proud of it because it's an honor!" Titan Lord smiled and uttered sarcastically.

Levi glanced at the surroundings and saw a huge crowd. Hence, he flashed a smile and asked, "Do you guys believe me when I say I'm going to wipe out the area today?"

Immediately, silence ensued. As a matter of fact, no one at the scene dared to utter a word.

Although they knew how strong Levi was, none of them believed Levi could wipe out the mighty Xyperia.

Upon hearing Levi's provocative words, everyone from Xyperia was pumped. No one's going to believe Levi because he's talking nonsense!

Seeing that, Levi smiled and said, "Frankly, I have no idea how strong I am! Perhaps, we'll find out today!"

Everyone at the scene gasped when they heard that.

The Unveiling

The domineering words reverberated through the sky like thunder, announcing the imminent commencement of the final battle between him and the alliance of Idrae and Xyperia.

It's their day of death! Levi is going to destroy all of Idrae and no one can stop him! No matter what kind of trump card Xyperia has, it won't be able to alter Idrae's fate in the slightest.

The Xyperians and members of Idrae in the Idraen Sanctuary were brimming with excitement.

The moment has finally come!

A sudden hum of a sword traveling at great speed filled the air, shaking the very earth beneath their feet and sending up dust clouds with the gust left in the wake of its heavy slashes.

As Levi did not know anything about swordsmanship, preferring instead to rely entirely on his own powerful strength, God Crusher was merely a medium for him to channel his power. Such was the sheer power contained within the weapon that the rush of air that preceded the actual arrival of the sword caused his adversaries to wince.

As the skies crackled with electricity from heralding God Crusher, sonic booms exploded one after another above the heads of the crowd who craned their necks in desperation to locate the source of the commotion that was capable of altering the cosmic space.

As the smoke and dust settled, what lay behind the screen shocked the crowd into silence.

Countless figures, densely packed together, filled the entire expanse of land from where the screen was drawn moments ago up to the distant horizon.

Even those watching from an elevated viewpoint were horrified at the realization that there was no end in sight as far as the figures were concerned.

The number of the army must be incomprehensibly large for such a vast expanse of land to be fully occupied! There they stand, grim and bloodthirsty as the army of an ancient conqueror! How is it possible for this many to be gathered at a single spot?

Shocked to the point of questioning their own sanity, the crowd burst into life as they reaffirmed the sight before them with one another.

As terrifying as the hundred thousand Deities who came before, the spectators suspected that this horde was many more times that number.

Chapter 3185 The Battle Suits

In complete honesty, Levi had been similarly shocked by the dense wall of Deities before him. In fact, he had been mentally prepared for three hundred thousand at the most and as a result, he felt no fear at however many Deities Xyperia had prepared for him.

The fact that he had underestimated the total number of opponents to face pleased Levi. By the looks of it, my guess of three hundred thousand has been blown clean out of the water!

In that vein, Levi's thoughts were the same as the Xyperians as both parties desired for the other to be strong enough to pose a serious threat to themselves.

Obviously, the situation had become more severe than Levi had imagined which was exactly what he wanted.

I hope they're strong enough! If that isn't the case, I hope the Super Deities don't disappoint!

Despite his intentions, Levi displayed a slightly surprised look which the Xyperians construed as him being afraid. However, they were surprised that Levi did not drop dead from fright at the unveiling of their monstrous army.

Their Deities posed such an overwhelming aura that any other person foolish enough to stand across the battlefield from them would generally experience cardiac arrest at the mere suggestion of facing those Deities.

Levi barely even flinched! His confidence today makes for a very promising show.

Chapter 3186 A Historical Moment

Titan Lord noticed the crowd's attention on the battle suits. "Let me introduce the equipment. I think everyone has seen it, haven't they? To be honest, even we are still reeling in shock at the power of our own creations. By the way, we also have equipment that is exclusive to Super Deities! This is nothing compared to what we have in the works!"

His words sent a tremor of awe through the crowd.

Super Deity-exclusive equipment? How much more powerful could those be? If the strength of one Super Deity is equivalent to five hundred ordinary Deities, isn't fitting them with battle gear overkill?

Following that logic, a single Super Deity clad in the battle suit would be able to hold his own against a thousand ordinary Deities. Who would be able to stop such a terrifying force? We haven't even gotten word of the total number of Deities Xyperia has and here they are talking about specialized equipment for them! They are the masters of this world! Nobody is worthy of being their opponent!

Even the forces of Zarain, who were at that point paying rapt attention to the situation, were amazed at the battle suits.

"How terrifying it is for them to have come up with a battle suit of this complexity!"

"If you give them a little more time, what next?"

Chapter 3187 The Terrifying Tally

The silent anticipation seemed to have spread across the entire world. Every ear on the planet perked up for the shocking moment.

Even the forces behind Zarain who were initially indifferent, as well as Erudia's Ecclesiastic Order, began to pay attention for fear of missing out on hearing the number for the first time.

The whole world is about to explode in anticipation of this moment!

Although every Xyperian knew that the total number of Deities was mind-numbingly large, they still wanted to know the specific number.

It was for that specific moment of revelation that they had held back from learning about it the night before when the tally was concluded. Although the number had been verified numerous times beyond the shadow of a doubt, the Xyperians forbade it from being uttered despite their own burning curiosity to be able to witness history.

Even members of Idrae held their shoulders with one another in anticipation of that moment.

It was also due in no small part to the contributions of Elterton Union to have come that far as the success of their endeavor was literally a matter of life and death. As a result, they were more eager to hear that terrible number than anybody else.

After the initial wave of shock had subsided a little, the crowd recited the number aloud to each other as if to prove their participation in witnessing history to memory. As reality began to set in for some of them, more dropped dead at the realization of the sheer scale of what had transpired.

The causes were not limited to aneurysms anymore. As the shock set in, muffled implosions could be heard all around as organs within the victims burst with no visible damage on the exterior.

With Titan Lord's proclamation still echoing through the skies, countless people around the world were fainting and dying at the news.

Like an invisible sword, the dreaded figure circled around the world and killed anybody who dared utter it.

Even the high-rank officials of Elterton Union were not immune to its harrowing effects despite being aware of the figure. Close to half of the number succumbed to the shock in a similar fashion to the rest of the world.

In fact, when Xyperia revealed the hundred thousand Deities at their disposal, they actually had more than thrice the number in the works. In short, the total number of Deities under Xyperia had almost doubled.

Chapter 3190 How Will You Fare

Titan Lord glanced at Levi. "By the way, I suddenly remembered something!"

"What is it?" shouted the crowd as they looked over.

"Is anybody still curious about the secret behind Levi's resources? Has anybody wondered how he has an endless supply?"

The crowd nodded frantically as most were unaware.

Titan Lord leered at Levi. "It's simple! Because he is strong enough! When one is strong enough, one can simply ignore the beasts and unknown dangers in the restricted area and forage to their heart's content. That is how he did it!"

"Have you ever wondered why Terrandya did not take any action against Levi after he told them the secret of his resources at that time? That's because there are no Deities in Terrandya anymore for he had wiped them out completely! It is assumed that though he did tell them the secret of his resources, it was a method that was not applicable to them."
