Chapter 3191 Are You Ready Titan Lord's smile widened into a gloat.

Here goes! Under the protection of an entire country and Elterton Union, nobody will be a threat.

The six leaders of Idrae once again began their provocation. "Come and kill us if you can, Levi! We're sitting up here! Come get us!"

Those who had a personal vendetta against Idrae were even more provoked than Levi by their smugness. Turning purple with rage, they glared up at Idrae as though they wished that they could run up and attack Idrae instead of waiting for Levi to do so.

Dr. Erebus clenched his fists tightly and prayed for Levi's success. Vengeance against Idrae must be achieved today! All hope is on Levi!

After all, Dr. Erebus had watched Titanus poison Forlevia with his own eyes. Besides, they seemed to harbor an inexplicable hatred for him.

The rest, however, opted not to take sides and spectate the legendary battle with an open mind instead.

What a historical moment! There are never too many Deities to be involved in a battle. The more the merrier!

Chapter 3192 The Imminent Battle

Alas, the final battle is here!

The audience and the entire world sat a little straighter at the commencement of the battle they had all been waiting for, though they were of the firm opinion that the battle was one of great disparity.

Elderton Union will crush Levi in this battle!

With a metallic shriek as a battle cry, all Deities of Elderton Union made a dash toward Levi, intent on stomping him into the earth.

At the mobilization of five hundred and seventy thousand Deities, all the spiritual energy in the area was drained in an instant.

The spectators immediately felt the crushing effects of a terrifying shift in atmospheric pressure, as though they were being crumpled like a soda can at the bottom of the ocean.

If it were not for the protection of the Super Deities stationed strategically around to stabilize the pressure of the surroundings, the spectators would have imploded.

Chapter 3193 The Best In Every Era

All that Levi had displayed up until that point had demonstrated that he had already achieved the middle point of Super Deity's highest class.

That was enough for him to defeat most Super Deities who existed.

In fact, he was so ridiculously powerful that he could destroy a country all alone.

However, people were suspicious because it didn't seem like he was a Deity.

At the very least, he wasn't one that people recognized.

They wondered how he could get so strong that he stood at the pinnacle of strength in almost every era he had lived in.

On the battlefield, Deities realized they couldn't hit Levi, so they changed tactics.

"Let's all attack together!" Deities proceeded to attack him in a big group.

"Hehe." Levi, who was still advancing forward, simply smiled.

When he waved his right hand toward the right side, a terrifying force was conjured and was sent toward that side.

Thump!

Thump!

Thump!

Upon encountering the terrifying force, Deities on the right side couldn't retaliate or even protect themselves from it.

After they were thrown backward, the force rapidly penetrated their bodies and exploded in them.

"Break!" Levi roared as he was a little pissed off by how many enemies were surrounding him.

Boom!

A terrifying force spurted out from around him, which turned into raging shockwaves and impacted everything around him.

At that moment, it felt as though the force of another planet crashing into the one they were standing on at the moment.

"Ahh!" Most of Deities turned into dust before they could even scream.

Even though their battle suits had been activated and would enter solid mode to protect them from terrifyingly strong attacks, it was useless.

Because the moment the impact touched them, the battle suits would be broken.

The defense provided by the suits didn't do anything at all as it broke just the same.

It was like scissors cutting through papers.

The battle suits were incredible pieces of technology. Each of its modes was basically perfectly designed, especially the healing mode because it could heal almost all injuries very quickly.

However, Levi's attack was so powerful that it didn't give the suits a chance to protect their owners.

It basically demolished them into pieces so quickly that the healing mode couldn't be activated in time.

Six leaders from Idrae were shaking. Oedipus couldn't stop his legs from trembling as he muttered to himself, "This can't be..."

He didn't need to finish it for the others present to understand.

That was what they were afraid of the most, and the thing they had been worried about since the beginning.

When Elterton Union displayed their military might earlier, their worries vanished.

After all, with that many Deities around, there was no way anyone could touch them.

However, that worry had come back to haunt them.

They started to fear Levi again as their confidence in Elterton Union dropped.

Titan Lord roared angrily, "Quiet down! I don't believe he can kill more than five hundred thousand Deities all by himself! There's no way he can do it, even if he is very powerful! Attack! Don't give him any chance to breathe! Utilize your advantage!"

The high-rank officials were panicking as they relayed the order.

It had been a pretty small skirmish up until that point as they didn't capitalize on their advantage of the overwhelming number of Deities.

After they received their orders, those Deities became crazy and swarmed Levi from all directions instead of gathering in front of him.

As long as they maintained their position from all sides and kept attacking him, they could prevent him from getting a chance to breathe.

"Oh no, he's going to attack!"

"Defend! We need to set up a defense formation!"

Deities had detected Levi's intention to attack, and they were panicking.

They quickly retreated to prepare their defense.

It was time for their battle suits to do their magic.

The suits could not only be used by a single person, they could also be combined.

When Aotic Fox Industries was developing the suits, they installed a function to connect multiple units of the equipment.

Everyone gathered around and connected their suits to each other.

The battle suits of countless amounts of Deities entered solid mode and combined together.

That way, their defense capabilities would be boosted greatly.

Deities had mastered the usage of the battle suit as they huddled together to form an ultimate shield to protect themselves.

At the same time, they unleashed some of their techniques to fortify their defense.

All the spiritual energy that was just fostered in the area was once again sucked dry.

Their ultimate goal was to defend themselves against Levi's attack.

The crowd in Idraen Sanctuary had been staying silent for a long while.

They never expected that Levi would kill so many Deities that it forced them into defensive mode.

Once again, there were people passing out in the audience. They were the high-rank officials of Elterton Union.

They could withstand the impact that five hundred and seventy thousand Deities had brought them.

However, they couldn't withstand how powerful Levi was.

Thump!

Some couldn't accept the result that they died on the spot.

The face of Titan Lord and the six leaders of Idrae had turned extremely pale.

Their legs were like lead, unable to be lifted.

Their throats couldn't make any human sounds, only whimpers.

Most of Idrae's members were so shocked that their legs turned to spaghetti and they dropped to the ground.

As for the rest of the crowd, some died from shock, some passed out, and some pissed in their pants.

The people who wanted to seek revenge on Idrae were shocked too, but obviously, they were all excited.

Chapter 3198 One Punch

At that moment, Levi's swing of his sword had shaken the world.

However, that was just the beginning.

The space in front of him had suddenly become much emptier.

After all, a hundred thousand Deities were killed.

However, there were still four hundred thousand Deities standing.

The mental impact that Levi had left on the surviving Deities by slaughtering one hundred thousand of their own was massive.

They saw a total of a hundred thousand of their comrades just gone in an instant.

That kind of shock reached deep into their core, affecting them more than anyone else involved in the battle.

They were so bewildered that their minds turned blank.

Their consciousness blinked out of existence for a few moments.

They had no idea what to do, especially when there was a dastardly, empty path created by a swing of a sword sitting in front of them.

They fell into deep thoughts as they stared at it. What do we do? Should we block his path or not?

Levi wasn't going to give them a chance to think.

Chapter 3199 Deities Killed By One Punch

The punch Levi unleashed could destroy even the heavens, collapse the planet into ruins, turn day into night and night into day, and crush everything in his path.

It was a punch capable of total destruction.

A terrifying strength like that was going to shatter the earth and puncture a hole in the heavens, causing its divine river to rain from the sky in fury.

That invisible power would kill even the mightiest of gods.

No matter what it was, the moment it came in contact with that power, its molecules would instantly break apart, causing it to crumble to dust.

That terrifying punch was directed at the countless number of Deities in front of him.

Boom!

Deafening thunders could be heard, as though the god of thunder had unleashed a hundred thousand divine lightning strikes.

At that moment, it felt as though both heaven and earth were roaring.

The sky above Elterton was especially loud with the relentless thunder. It was as though the heavens had been angered.

Boom!

The earth was shaking so violently that a crack was formed on the Elterton plateau.

The crack grew larger and larger until an endlessly deep and long rift was formed.

In an instant, everyone saw a massive rift appear out of nowhere.

Levi once again shut the world up by punching it.

He managed to punch the light out of the world.

Many people were so shocked that they fainted.

There were also many who died of fear right away.

They could withstand the shock of seeing Levi's sword swing, but they couldn't withstand watching the terror of his punch.

It frightened them so much that they died on the spot.
Countless other people from all sides were terrified, regardless if they wanted to kill Levi or not.
