Chapter 3241 Tricks Of Gloria

She had thought of everything in the plan.

As a matter of fact, she even knew when it was time for her to make her grand entrance.

Entering at that moment would make her a beam of sunshine for Floyd in the dark.

Meanwhile, Floyd was mentally and physically breaking down.

He was drowning in the sea of guilt.

He was losing his mind.

The curses and accusations were all echoing in his head, and those voices were getting louder and clearer.

Floyd felt as though his head was going to explode.

At that very moment, Gloria appeared and hugged him tightly.

“Don’t! Floyd, calm down! Don’t do this to yourself!”

No one knew what she did, but surprisingly, Floyd managed to get quieter and quieter.

She didn't bother holding back in accusing Floyd of being the cause of the problem.

Despite having calmed down, Floyd felt utterly bad.

After all, Azure Dragon and the rest had ended up in this state thanks to him.

He needed someone to keep him company, or even bear the responsibility with him.

As Gloria had participated in the matter, she said she was responsible, too. In fact, she was helping Floyd to share the burden and giving him enough sense of security.

That way, he wouldn't have to face the matter alone.

Someone else would share the load with him.

He felt touched and moved to tears.

Floyd was in a good mood after getting "healed."

After returning to Heavenly Base, he no longer paid heed to others who stared and gossiped about him.

Yes, go ahead and gossip about me! Yes, it was all my fault! I admit to it!

That was the power Gloria gave him.

Somewhere in Erudia.

Over ten Bonemasters worked hard and finally transplanted the elemental spiritual bone onto the young man's body.

It had merged with the man's body perfectly!

Upon success, everyone laughed out loud.

The young man who was the proud owner of an elemental spiritual bone broke into crazy laughter.

"I did it! I'm going to rise to the top!" he announced.

A murderous glint flashed across the young man’s eyes as a fiery aura filled the scene.
“Got it!” everyone else answered in unison and nodded.
They were, in fact, excited to get to kill people anytime they wanted.
Besides taking care of Azure Dragon and the rest, Levi didn’t forget about the Ecclesiastic Order.
He started investigating the various factions in the Ecclesiastic Order.
Before taking action against the Ecclesiastic Order, he had to first get to know them.
Previously, he wasn’t even interested in them. All he wanted was to lead a peaceful life.
He wasn’t even interested in the young theurgist from the Esoteric Guild.
Yet, his wish was not granted.
Thus, he decided to go all out so they wouldn’t dare to disrupt his life anymore.

Many people were also interested in Levi's God Crusher.
They assumed it was an Ancient Divine Sword.
Human beings had always feared the unknown.
Despite assuming God Crusher was an Ancient Divine Sword, they didn't know what it was exactly.
As a result, they were curious and wanted it for themselves.
If Levi wasn't feared for his ruthlessness, someone would've launched an attack on him.
Right now, all factions within the Ecclesiastic Order had their eyes on Levi.
However, no one dared to be the first one to take action against him.
It would be great if they could defeat him. But the consequences of their failing, however, were unimaginable.

Levi had shown how horrifyingly powerful he was back at Xyperia, but no one else knew the extent of his power and what the Ecclesiastic Order thought of him.

Thus, they dared not take action recklessly.

They all hoped that someone else would take action first so they could figure out the extent of Levi's power.

Everyone remained calm and waited to see who would take action first.

Chad looked at Levi. "Crown King, I understand where you're going. You want to lead a peaceful and ordinary life. I once had the same thought and lived peacefully until someone disrupted it."

His interest piqued, Levi studied Chad thoughtfully.

Chad continued, "It's impossible for someone as powerful as you to lead a peaceful life. Your ability and responsibility would bring trouble to you."

Levi replied confidently, "That means I am still not strong enough. Don't worry, for I'll work hard to improve myself!"

He was sure that everyone would fear him when he became the most powerful person in the world.

By then, no one would cause trouble for him and his loved ones.

Those who had a death wish could come at him.

Comprehension dawned on Chad, and he chuckled out loud. "Right. Only those who aren't strong enough would be kept in check."

After a pause, he added, "Crown King, for the time being, I shall keep an eye on Azure Dragon and the rest. I'll do my best to help them. I want to see if I can solve the problem of their missing spiritual bones through other means."

Boom! Levi was filled with a desire for murder.

He narrowed his gaze as though he was a demon reborn from hell.

As he had been wanting to kill someone from the Ecclesiastic Order, their swift arrival and power came to him as a shock.

Levi's curiosity was aroused.

The young theurgist from the Esoteric Guild that Levi defeated earlier was abnormally strong and should've piqued Levi's interest, but Levi paid no heed to him.

Now that three powerful beings had emerged, Levi grew interested to kill them.

"Let's see who the unlucky b*stards are!" he mused.

He was starting to get a little excited.

Soon, three elders arrived.

Their outfits and auras proved that they belonged to the Ecclesiastic Order.

The three newcomers were known as the Three Sages of North Pavilion—Sensos, Bulder, and Exto.

Chapter 3248 No One Can Refuse To Be Our Disciple

"We're here for one thing—we want you to be our disciple so we can train you to inherit our skills and be the master of North Pavilion!"

After Extol made that announcement, the Three Sages wore proud expressions.

They acted so arrogantly as though they had bestowed a great honor onto Levi.

He should feel honored to be selected as our heir in North Pavilion. Even his ancestors would be proud! This is his chance to be the glory of the family!

Indeed, in North Pavilion...

No, those from the Ecclesiastic Order would die to be the Three Sages' disciples.

Many would plead relentlessly to get to be their disciple.

Alas, none of them were qualified.

It was close to impossible to be their disciple, so they had made that statement proudly.

Besides, they assumed no one would refuse to be their disciple.

Chapter 3249 The Highest Honor

The Three Sages of North Pavilion had to place their hope on the outside world.

They never stopped their search.

At first, they set their eyes on Azure Dragon and the other four.

They knew from the start that those men possessed the elemental spiritual bones.

The reason they didn't take action was that the elemental spiritual bones were among five men instead of one.

It would be hard to train them all, and they wouldn't catch up with the other prodigies from other factions.

The five men would have to work together to maximize their power.

There were too many uncertainties, so it was neither a wise nor practical decision.

The Three Sages kept that option in consideration.

They were also pleasantly surprised by Levi's daughter's talent.

In fact, it was the Three Sages who instructed Sonja and her peers to test Levi out.

Of course, Sonja and the rest had no idea they were acting under the Three Sages' order.

She thought it was her father who gave the order.

Chapter 3250 Weak Masters

"By the way, we still need to introduce ourselves. We're from the North Pavilion of the Ecclesiastic Order. They call us the Three Sages of North Pavilion. I'm Sensos. He's Bulder, and that's Extol. We might be working behind the scenes, but we are in control of the North Pavilion. Even the head has to listen to us. We're among the strongest beings in North Pavilion," Sensos revealed humbly while running a hand through his beard.

Bulder and Exto chimed in, "You won't lose out by agreeing to be our disciple. We'll help you improve using legitimate skills, elixirs, and magical herbs suitable for those doing pure physique training. You can be stronger! There is more to it. Your daughter, friends, and relatives can also receive training! You'll stand to gain more as our disciple."

The three elders weren't good at making empty promises, so they were telling the truth.

They told Levi what he stood to gain after agreeing to be their disciple.

Right now, they were practically begging for Levi to be their disciple.

Back then, people would beg to be their disciple, but it was the total opposite now.

As they had humbled themselves, they refused to accept no as an answer.

The three stared intently at Levi as they waited for the man to give them a solid answer.

"So you want to be my master?" Levi asked them as a frown marred his brows.

He was utterly speechless to realize that someone was bold enough to take him as a disciple.
