Chapter 3271 Powerful Master Weak Disciple

Gloria became excited at the thought.

Isn't this what I want? How nice would it be if I obtained their spiritual bones? Hehe! I can't imagine how great that would be! They are even more powerful than the legendary elemental spiritual bone! Thankfully, I have planned and readied Floyd for this purpose. It is time to put him into use.

Gloria did not dare to face Levi head-on due to his terrifying power.

Therefore, she decided to act in secret.

She was not only targeting Forlevia but had set her sights on Levi too.

It did not matter that Levi had astounding and god-like powers.

She could use her secret schemes to bring him down.

Gloria was thunderstruck by Floyd's words. My mighty prowess is beyond others' imagination. How could there be others who are mightier than me other than Levi Garrison? It seems there are even quite a number of them! How's it possible that he's able to groom his disciples into unrivaled fighters with his basic techniques?

Perplexed, Gloria asked in bafflement, "Do you mean to say that your master is able to pursue ultimate power and speed with the basic techniques?"

Floyd replied instinctively, "Yeah! The basic techniques are the key to his success!"

It was no secret that Levi cultivated basic techniques. In fact, anyone else could do so as they liked. However, they would never be able to reach the former's stage.

Nonetheless, Gloria did not believe in his words. To her, that was preposterous. How's it possible for him to annihilate more than eight hundred fighters of the Ecclesiastic Order in a blink of an eye only with basic techniques? No way! It's impossible! Even the most formidable fighter of the Ecclesiastic Order and those legendary ones of ancient times can't do so!

Thus, she was sure as hell that Levi kept certain things under wraps. In other words, the basic techniques were merely distractions to fool Floyd and the others.

Chapter 3273 Your Master Is Applying The Art of Consumption

"I guess my master must be far more talented than we can imagine. From what I know, Fiery Demon started cultivating the basic techniques long ago than my master. However, he's still no match for him!" Floyd explained in admiration.

Gloria's jaw dropped at the overwhelming secret. She blurted out, "Huh? Fiery Demon started cultivating it even earlier than you master? Do you mean to say that your master's not the one developing the basic techniques?"

Floyd nodded. "Yeah! I heard my master has a master too. In fact, his master had guided Fiery Demon long ago before my master became his disciple officially!"

Gloria was tickled pink about the secret, thinking about how she could exploit it as a trump card to exchange for some resources with the other fractions of the Ecclesiastic Order. Ah! I'm going to own priceless resources! Instead of the magical herbs and spiritual stones that everyone is yearning for, I can obtain processed magical herbs such as elixir. Apart from that, I might even be able to possess spiritual liquid formed by the processed spiritual stones! My goodness! Those are the precious goodies beyond others' imagination!

"Ah! I never know that your master has a master too. I thought he developed the basic techniques by himself!" Gloria arched her brows.

"Your master could be keeping it from you, fearing that you'll put yourselves on the line when trying to master the Art of Consumption. Who knows, it's disastrous and will even spell trouble for you! If so, don't blame your master. You should even be thankful to him for being protective of you!" Gloria sounded as if she was speaking up for Levi.

She was obviously good at playing underhanded tactics and manipulating others. Somehow, Floyd's unwavering trust in Levi was shaken by her eloquence. The despicable woman even put up a show by talking him out of blaming Levi.

However, Floyd did not have an insight into the situation. In fact, he replied jokingly, "Don't worry. I'll never blame my master on anything."

“You’re blessed to have such a caring master!” Seconds later, Gloria queried again when something came to her, “If I’m not wrong, he had warned Azure Dragon and the others repeatedly to hide elsewhere when he was battling in Xyperia previously, hadn’t he? He feared that others would dig out their spiritual bones, didn’t he?”

Chapter 3275 Beware Of The Woman

“Ah! What a coincidence! You must be here to send the list of Bonemasters to my master too!” Floyd smiled blissfully.

Little did he realize that the coincidence was set up by a despicable Gloria.

She had initially arranged for him to send Levi the list of Bonemasters but changed her mind in the last minutes. It was because her subordinates updated her Sonja and the others were on the way to send their list to Levi.

Hence, she held Floyd back for a few hours so he could end up bumping into Sonja and the others. With that, Levi would tend to focus more on the list of Bonemasters. Hmph! I’m sure he won’t be suspecting anything as I’ve made a perfect arrangement!

The moment Levi obtained the two copies of the lists, he went through them and spotted the duplicated names as expected by Gloria. She had arranged for that earlier meet-up intentionally so he would not smell a rat.

“Mr. Garrison, it still left the final batch. We should be able to trace them within these few days,” Sonja uttered resolutely. They had been tracing the list of Bonemasters painstakingly recently.

“Okay! I’ll owe you a favor. Don’t hesitate to request my help if you’re in hot water!” Levi made a promise earnestly.

He was guilty of beating the Three Sages of North Pavilion up previously. Thus, he made them a promise as a token of compensation.

Chapter 3276 Levi And His Confidence in Floyd

Over the years, the two factions had had many disputes, and they would attack each other whenever they got the chance.

Gloria even had a fight with some of the younger members of North Pavilion, so she asked Floyd to be wary of them.

Gloria told Floyd that since she and North Pavilion had a history, it was only natural that they would speak ill of her in order to drive a wedge between Floyd and her.

After all, North Pavilion and West Pavilion were enemies and wanted nothing more than to wipe out each other.

Gloria convinced Floyd that was the reason the North Pavilion members wanted to sow discord between them.

“You truly are a genius, Gloria! You knew this was going to happen and warned me about it. Otherwise, they would’ve had me second-guessing you, and I would have disrespected you too. Thanks to your shrewdness, they didn’t get their way.” Floyd trusted Gloria and completely ignored Sonja’s and the others’ warning.

That was because they said everything Gloria told Floyd that they would say. It was almost the same as Gloria’s prediction, for she knew what would happen if she set them up to meet.

The woman was nothing if not a meticulous planner.

She even thought about how she would get her revenge.

Still, Gloria knew it was not the right time to make a move on Sonja then because the list of Bonemasters had not been found yet. I can’t do anything to Sonja and the others just yet. At least not until we find the list. Then, they can bet that I'll come for them! For now, I'll keep a close eye on them and watch their every move.

Gloria knew whatever Sonja and the others were up to and which Bonemasters they had found, for she had more than one informant in North Pavilion.

All her informants were men, and she controlled them the same way she controlled Floyd, who took even more effort to manage than her other puppets.

After all, Floyd was a more cautious person since he had been through a lot with Levi.

If it were not for his self-blame after what happened to Azure Dragon and the others, Gloria probably would not have succeeded in pulling Floyd's strings.

It took far less effort for Gloria to manipulate the men in North Pavilion and have them eating out of the palm of her hand. Some of them would betray the faction or even throw their lives away for her.

With informants planted in North Pavilion, Gloria knew Sonja's and the others' every move.

Floyd immediately turned to look at Gloria. "What way?"

“You can ask Evie to teach you her self-created technique and try it for yourself. Then, you’ll know for sure. It is no use just thinking about it, right?” suggested Gloria, intending to get the technique for herself.

To that, Floyd nodded fervently in response. “That’s a great idea! I’ll talk to Evie about it as soon as I get the chance. Someone as generous as her would no doubt agree to my request. Because of Master’s fine teaching, we’re used to sharing everything with each other. There are no secrets between us!”

“It sounds like you two are pretty close. I envy a relationship like that. Can’t wait to be a part of you guys!” uttered Gloria with a smile.

Surprised, the woman did not expect that Forlevia would share the technique willingly with Floyd.

She had even started thinking about how she would trick Forlevia into giving what she wanted. So it’s that easy, huh? I didn’t even have to come up with some grand plan! If Floyd gets the technique, that means I get it too.

Gloria even hinted to Floyd that she wanted to be his soon so that she could join his social circle.

Only those close to the legendary class were worth the risk of a transplant.

Still, those who possessed such fine spiritual bones were talents worth nurturing.

In fact, it was a good thing that their spiritual bones were not powerful enough because not many could survive the procedure.

Compared to having their lives cut short, being taken in for nurturing was a much better alternative.

It did not take long before another mysterious group started competing with the Ecclesiastic Order to add new Deities into their ranks.

Many factions of the order had crossed paths with the mysterious group and realized that their enemies were as capable as they were.

The members of the group, fitted with strange high-tech equipment and had unusual energy in them, took the Ecclesiastic Order by surprise because the order had never met enemies like them before.

The level of conflict between the two forces continued to rise as they battled each other all over the world.

It turned out that the mysterious group was none other than the organization backing the Zarainians, who also depended on spiritual ley lines and spiritual bones to survive.
