Chapter 3281 Gerton Of The Ecclesiastic Order

Gerton was a unique exchange in the Ecclesiastic Order where resources, divine tools, and even information were traded.

At that point, the news of the Three Sages getting injured had already been sold many times in Gerton, meaning that many were aware of the sages' situation and were starting to get ideas.

North Pavilion was in an unprecedented crisis, yet the leader of the faction was still oblivious to their situation.

As soon as the other factions confirmed that the Three Sages were severely injured, they would pounce on North Pavilion like a predator.

Meanwhile, Gloria could not wait to get her hands on Forlevia's self-created technique.

Initially, she wanted to hand Floyd the list of Bonemasters for Levi only after Sonja had done so, but she did not have the patience for it.

"Master, I..." Floyd seemed like he wanted to say something but stopped mid-sentence.

"What's wrong?" Levi looked curiously at Floyd.

There were some questions Floyd wanted to ask Levi, but he changed his mind when he remembered Gloria's reminder.

"It's nothing. Let's go see how they're doing." With that, Floyd went to visit Azure Dragon and the others and saw that they were well taken care of.

They had recovered so much that they were already trying to move their bodies.

However, it was not easy since having one's spiritual bone removed was like having their martial prowess stripped from them.

Floyd was relieved to see how fast Azure Dragon and the others had recovered. Being able to produce a list of Bonemasters for Levi also helped in removing his sense of guilt.

Floyd did not visit the men with empty hands but brought them all kinds of elixirs to speed up their recovery.

The supplements were all prepared by Gloria with magical herbs available in the Ecclesiastic Order.

In actual fact, other than that, Floyd was worried that his master and the others might get suspicious.

It would be a bad idea for him to expose Gloria too early as it might even cause more problems.

He had no intention to let his master and the rest think that Gloria had incited him to steal Forlevia's self-created technique.

That was his main fear.

Then again, when Forlevia said that, he was more at ease.

He was smart enough to know that Forlevia had misunderstood him.

This is even better.

There was no way Forlevia would tell anybody about it!

Therefore, none of them would know that Floyd had already obtained the full set of Forlevia's self-created technique.

He had come to a deserted area to practice the technique and see if it was the same as the Art of Consumption.

In the beginning, it was exactly like the Art of Consumption.

However, as his practice went on, he knew that something was amiss.

In the Art of Consumption, one needed to be able to channel the energy around oneself, and lots of spiritual energy was required for that.

Gloria still appeared hesitant about it. "No matter what my intentions are, I'll still feel guilty if I master Forlevia's technique. When I see her the next time, I'll give her a huge present!"

"That sounds great!"

Floyd nodded in agreement and began to pass Forlevia's technique to Gloria.

Forlevia held nothing back from Floyd, and he did the same with Gloria.

He taught Gloria all of the critical points and even gave her some essential tips.

Gloria was astonished to accept the technique.

This is completely different!

Is this for real?

This is beyond my imagination!

Oh God!

This is too magical!

That was how she felt when she was learning the technique.

She was so experienced and had cultivated several forms of the Art of Consumption.

Because of her mastery of various tactics, there were many men from different factions who were under her control. As such, she had access to and knowledge of the various techniques.

She was well-versed in countless forms and levels of the Art of Consumption.

However, she was still taken aback by the technique of Forlevia.

As Gloria wasn't just someone extremely experienced, she was also a top-tier genius.

Therefore, she made swift progress once she began training.

Crack!

She was suddenly awakened by the loud rumble of thunder.

When she saw the look of surprise on Floyd's face, she began to panic.

Nevertheless, she had a way to make herself vomit blood.

When her face lost all color, Floyd was given a shock.

Chapter 3286 Tracking The Bonemasters Down

After sending Floyd away, Gloria couldn't wait to find a secluded spot to start training.

She had made swift progress, as Forlevia's specific instructions and guidance were like the wind behind her sails.

When Floyd returned to the main base, he ran into Forlevia.

"Floyd, are you still training in the technique that I created?" she asked.

Floyd recalled the scene where Gloria went berserk and threw up blood.

If someone of Gloria's caliber has failed to do so, I would certainly not make it.

He shook his head at once. "I can't. Your technique doesn't suit me at all. Thus, it's better that I don't train in it."

A few days later, Sonja and the others didn't disappoint in their task, as they had finally gathered the list of all the Bonemasters.

Obviously, they couldn't have done so without Gloria's assistance from the shadows.

She had left behind traces of the list for Sonja to find.

Levi's eyes lit up when he finally saw the complete list of Bonemasters.

He followed up by ordering all of them to be targeted.

When everyone arrived at the scene, they were shocked by the sight that greeted them.
Staring at more than ten corpses in front of them, everyone was filled with disbelief.
There's nothing else here except for the bodies! Are they really the remaining Bonemasters?
Luckily, the corpses had yet to rot away entirely.
Indeed, Gloria had found the Bonemaster's location earlier.
When she first saw them, she too was taken aback to see all of them dead.
In spite of that, she still lead Levi and the others to the location.
"Identify the bodies!"
Levi's subordinates did as they were told.
After a painstaking process, they finally confirmed that the bodies belonged to the remaining
Bonemasters they were searching for.
As a result, everyone was stunned to learn of the Bonemasters' deaths.

In fact, the entire North Pavilion might be doomed, as even the Three Sages were not strong enough to put up a fight.

Unknown to them, the Three Sages were already grievously injured.

Meanwhile, Levi was staring at them, waiting for an explanation. However, they didn't dare reveal the suspects in their minds at all.

Sonja remarked in resignation, "It never crossed our mind that the Bonemasters would be killed. Perhaps, they are too fearful of your power! Until the perpetrator can successfully amalgamate the five elemental spiritual bones, he would definitely not reveal himself."

Sonja was right. The first priority after completing the transplant of the legendary spiritual bones was to train with it instead of showing off.

Naturally, it made sense to make full use of their potential as soon as possible.

“Doesn’t this mean that we have run out of clues? How are we going to continue our search?” Levi furrowed his brows.

Sonja and the rest fell silent.

Isn’t the situation what it is? What’s the point of looking for more clues?

“There might be a possibility that this was just an accident, and these Bonemasters weren’t the ones who dissected Azure Dragon and his comrades. For all we know, It might even be other Bonemasters,” someone else suggested.

“In that case, bring all the Bonemasters to Azure Dragon, and let him and his comrades identify them. Given the current situation that’s the only choice we have,” Levi ordered.

In fact, the Bonemasters had made such a strong impression in their subconscious minds that they had become the latter's nightmare for the rest of their lives.

Every time they recalled or dreamt of the Bonemasters, they would inadvertently be gripped with pain.

Therefore, all of them became hysterical at the sight of the Bonemasters.

After all, the Bonemasters had dug out their spiritual bones in an extremely gruesome manner while they were still conscious.

As a result, the faces of the Bonemasters were carved into the minds of Azure Dragon and his comrades, to the extent that they could remember every single feature of the former.

There's no way they can produce an image of what's in Azure Dragon's mind.

Sonja had never heard of such a thing before.

This is unbelievable!

At that moment, the psychologist began making preparations for the psychotherapy session with Azure Dragon's group.

"Get yourselves ready. We're about to begin."

Once everything was in place, the process started, which was going to be painful for the five victims.

Soon, all of them were hypnotized and began to recall the events of that fateful day, starting from the time they were still at Heavenly Base.

Their memories revealed how the Ecclesiastic Order came to see them and tested their spiritual bones.

Even though the five were already in pain, Levi knew that it was just the beginning. The real test would come toward the end.

Once they were brought under hypnosis, the five of them recollected the events from back then.

They were hooked up to some equipment that was able to convert the information they were sending into a format everyone else could refer to.
