Chapter 3361 The Ecclesiastic Order Unites

Everyone from the Ecclesiastic Order had arrived.

They all walked in cockily with their heads held high.

Levi had long noticed their presence.

He did not expect the Ecclesiastic Order to come at him so directly as he thought they would ambush him.

“Interesting. I hope all of you will give your best and show how capable you are,” Levi responded with a faint smile as if he could not be bothered.

The Top Ten gathered all in front of Levi’s base. Behind them were elites from the Ecclesiastic Order.

The moment Flavius raised his hand, the crowd started roaring.

Roar!

Roar!

Roar!

The continuous roaring was so intense that it resonated in the base. It was as if the gods had descended from the sky.

Anyone who was not aware of what was going on might think a catastrophe was coming their way.

What Flavius said next had caused a shockwave. “Levi Garrison! Be prepared to face your death! The Ecclesiastic Order has come to claim your life!

His voice reverberated in every corner of the base camp.

Chapter 3362 Did Someone Say I Run Away

"What's going?"

"Have we come to the wrong place?"

"Why is this building empty? Did Levi run away because he knew we're coming for him?"

The Top Ten from the Ecclesiastic Order and the other elites were utterly dumbfounded.

Where is he? Where are his people?

The Ecclesiastic Order thought they had come to the wrong place.

There isn't a single soul here at all!

Little did they know most of Levi's men had gathered in the underground chamber.

"Maybe the map we refer to is a fake one? Perhaps this isn't Levi's base camp!" Luna could not help but raise her doubt.

Ryvonne shook her head. "I don't think the map is fake. Levi and his men must have escaped after knowing that we're coming to get him!"

"I agree. We might be cautious in circulating information, but words could still get out. After all, there are so many of us in the organization."

"That's right. North Pavilion might have informed Levi about it since they had a close relationship with him."

"By the look of it, I bet Levi had bolted!"

A sudden voice came to the shock of the Top Ten and the others who were present.

Every eye was drawn to the figure inside the building, who was revealed to be none other than Levi.

Did he not run away? How could we not even notice the presence of such a legendary figure in our vicinity?

Levi regarded them lazily. "Have you all arrived?"

The Top Ten were furious by his scornful gaze as they could tell that he did not take them seriously at all.

No one has ever dared treat us with such disdain!

Even the elders of the Ecclesiastic Order were respectful toward the Top Ten. Aside from being the future of their order, the strength of the Top Ten at that point was also comparable to their elders.

Levi's blatant disrespect toward them had undoubtedly struck a nerve.

The pair did not participate with the rest of the Top Ten in the mockery as they did not deem Levi worthy of their time.

Then again, not many people are worthy of our admiration. Indeed not many within the Ecclesiastic Order.

The words of their comrades further bolstered Flavius and Rylai’s confidence.

Levi suddenly smiled as if he was reminded of something at the sight of the two. “Don’t tell me the pair of you are the two traitors of North Pavilion, aren’t you? I heard you were the wards of the Three Sages of North Pavilion. It was due to their training that enabled you to get recruited by East Pavilion before defaulting and branded as traitors, right?”

Flavius and Rylai could no longer maintain their arrogant indifference at the sound of those words, which produced an electrifying effect on them and caused them to go nearly wild with fury.

Hating and fearing being called traitors, Levi’s words had struck a sore spot in Flavius and Rylai.

They were not born into a powerful faction. Instead, they came from a family of rogue cultivators and were found by the Three Sages of North Pavilion.

Those two would have died in childhood if not for their protective environment.

Having been endowed with spiritual bones that were no less powerful than an elemental spiritual bone, young Flavius and Rylai would have had their gift forcefully harvested long ago if they were found out, rendering their fates bleak and miserable.

Sages of North Pavilion raised them under their protection within North Pavilion at

The tens of thousands of elites within the Ecclesiastic Order could not even lay a finger on Levi.

They were only able to spectate the fight from afar.

Let’s see how long Levi can hold out under the barrage of the Top Ten. This will be where it all ends!

The assassins hired by Gloria had all taken their places in the best positions for an ambush.

The fighters of Yartran had also found the best positions for themselves and their equipment.

Others, such as the rogue cultivators Gloria recruited and the mysterious forces who had manipulated Chad, were also in place.

The top ten elites of the Cetus filled up the rest of the optimal positions.

With the entire might of her forces ready to strike, they were waiting to charge on Levi once the full extent of his martial abilities was attested.

Gloria, the mastermind of the battle, observed the proceedings from the shadows.

As her primary goal was to locate Floyd and Forlevia, she did not intend to show herself regardless of the battle’s outcome.

“Kill him!”

At the battle cry, the army of the Ecclesiastic Order charged toward Levi in unison.

This time, their combined force was much stronger than the one that had attacked North Pavilion. They were also much more coordinated.

Swarming toward Levi, their combined might and number was terrifying.

Every one of them had cultivated the Art of Consumption to mastery. Intent on tearing Levi to pieces, they surrounded him.

The Top Ten were also among them, waiting for the opportunity to deliver their killing blows.

“You’re just in time!” Levi cackled maniacally.

The fallen leaves all over the ground suddenly rose and surrounded him in a dense cloud, almost hiding him from view.

They enveloped Levi’s entire body, like Golden Armor, as it emitted a low throbbing noise.

“Go!”

Without warning, Levi unleashed the leaves with a roar.

Whoosh!

The fallen leaves shot outward like bullets, but many times faster.

Every individual leaf was propelled forward by an unseen and terrifying force as the dense wall of fallen leaves shot outward in every direction.

Chapter 3368 Ultimate Power Of The Top Ten

“What?” Everyone’s facial expression changed. He has attained such strength through pure physique training? The thing is, Levi is still unharmed while the Ecclesiastic Order had lost half of its elites! This is embarrassing!

“We must work together! Otherwise, we won’t be able to kill him!” Flavius’ face looked extremely solemn.

“Okay! We’ll unite!” the other elites agreed. Indeed, Levi’s strength is beyond imagination. If he remains alive, there will be endless calamities!”

“Charge! We have to unite and kill him!” The Top Ten charged first.

They were charging at Levi with the weapons they made using the Art of Consumption.

The rest of the Ecclesiastic Order’s elites were also charging toward Levi.

“Attack!”

Right then, a loud roar filled the air, and another wave of fighters emerged.

Everyone at the scene was stunned when they saw that.

Levi didn't move a muscle when Top Ten was charging toward him. In fact, he looked dumbstruck.

Bam!

Flavius struck Levi with extreme force.

With the sword made with the Art of Consumption, Rylai had also stabbed Levi.

Consequently, the rest of the eight elites from the Top Ten had landed their attacks on Levi.

Right then, they saw the ray of hope because they thought they could finally defeat Levi.

They were so convinced that even Flavius and the few others started smiling. This time around, Levi will die for sure! Although we can't fight him one-on-one, we can surely defeat him now that the Top Ten has united.

"Now, die!" With a ferocious expression on his face, Flavius wanted to deliver his final blow to smash Levi up.

At the same time, Rylai's sword was seen jabbing toward Levi.

"What?" Suddenly, a perplexed expression showed up on Rylai's face. The sword made with the Art of Consumption was halted.

It couldn't even reach Levi, let alone penetrate his body.

"W-What?" The rest of them noticed it as well.

They had all underestimated Levi's physical strength.
