Chapter 3401 The Three Ministers

When they saw the middle-aged men, the elders' expressions drastically changed.

They greeted respectfully, "Master Solocus."

The person who had arrived was one of the three most powerful men within the Ecclesiastic Order, Deputy Minister Solocus.

The Ecclesiastic Order's authority sat in the hands of three men, a Minister and his two Deputy Ministers.

One Deputy Minister was in-charge of the Holy Guild.

As for the other, he oversaw the Medical Guild, Military Guild, and the rest of the guilds.

Nevertheless, the Minister's authority encompassed the entire order.

"My dear old friends, it has been a long time since we saw each other." Solocus smiled.

"Master Solocus! May I be so bold as to ask where the Minister is?"

Evidently, they were there to see the leader of the Ecclesiastic Order, the Minister.

Everyone came to a consensus that they had to kill Levi first.

After all, the Top Ten was considered their pride, while the cornerstone divine tools were their foundation.

It wasn't the first time she had brought up the matter in front of others.

Furthermore, everyone present was a representative of their respective factions.

Instead of going into the topic, all she did was remind everyone of the fact that the North Pavilion was absent.

That alone was enough to plant the idea that they were traitors to the Ecclesiastic Order.

It was all part of her plan to get the Ecclesiastic Order to take out North Pavilion first.

She didn't want to personally propose it due to the need to keep a low profile. Ideally, she wanted everyone to ignore her and see her as a nobody.

Consequently, she needed to rely on someone else to make the suggestion.

That was the reason why she unwittingly dragged her master into her plot.

At that moment, the six elders of the East Pavilion were hosting the meeting.

"At this time tomorrow, the Ecclesiastic Order will be unified. At the same time, Master Solocus will emerge in the world with the Holy Guild to restore order. When that happens, all of you must obey his orders, as we have only one goal, that is to kill Levi!"

Chapter 3405 A Rock And A Hard Place

When the Ecclesiastic Order was broken up, all the different factions acted independently of each other.

Therefore, it didn’t matter whether the North Pavilion existed or not.

But now that everyone was going to band together and take on Levi, the situation was different.

By providing Levi with information, the North Pavilion acted as if they were his eyes.

Therefore, they had to be eliminated to stop the flow of information to Levi.

Doing so would give Gloria more room to maneuver.

She could control the situation by occasionally using Floyd to relay information about the order.

Therefore, the North Pavilion had to be disposed of.

Meanwhile, the North Pavilion had learned that the other major factions had agreed to the reunification.

the Three Sages, Doran asked, "What should we do now? If we don't participate in the reunification, we would be labeled as traitors. I'm afraid everyone, including the Holy Guild, would attack us because of that. However, if we were to agree to it, we would have to fight Mr. Garrison. Aren't we then trapped between a

With that, the three elders of the South Pavilion left at once.

In the meantime, the Three Sages didn't suspect anything at all.

If it was anyone else who came to invite them to the event, their suspicions would be raised.

However, due to their close relationship, the Three Sages assumed the invitation was extended with good intentions, especially when the terms were adjusted to accommodate them.

"It's done. The Three Sages have agreed. During the festivities for the reunification tomorrow, kill everyone from the North Pavilion!"

Unknown to those at North Pavilion, a trap had been set for them.

Meanwhile, Levi was having trouble with his search.

Where are we going to find the Cetus?

Just relying on his subordinates alone was far from enough.

Previously, he could rely on the major factions for his search, for it was something they were more familiar with.

Chapter 3407 The Location Of The Minister

As the Ecclesiastic Order's Minister was absent, Solocus controlled the entire event since he led the Holy Guild, which was the most highly-regarded and respected among them all.

Every one of the five hundred and twenty-three factions of the Ecclesiastic Order had sent representatives.

Representing the North Pavilion was the Three Sages and eight of their highest-ranking members.

When everyone saw the presence of the North Pavilion, they heaved a sigh of relief, for their plan to eradicate the latter was on track.

Gloria in particular was filled with delight because the next stage of her plan was already in place.

At that moment, tens of thousands of representatives were gathered in front of the Grand Ecclesiastic Hall, the old headquarters of the order.

The front of the grand hall was filled with the Holy Guild's elite warriors.

Standing in the center was Solocus.

Surveying the massive crowd, Solocus' outfit fluttered in the air. He declared, "Today, the Ecclesiastic Order has been unified and will regain its former glory!"

“Please follow me, thank you.”

The Paladins of the Holy Guild wanted to train too.

This is a great chance to test our skills against the powerful North Pavilion Three Sages if we want to kill them.

“All right. I’ll leave it to you.”

The Elders took a few steps back.

The Paladins of the Holy Guild charged toward the Three Sages immediately.

Gloria’s eyes lightened at the sight.

Isn’t this better for my plan?

The Three Sages fought back good as they went against the Paladins.

Doran and the seven others were soon at a disadvantage under the consecutive attacks of the multiple elites.

In the end, they were chopped into mince meat and died without leaving a complete body.

It was the consequence of being a traitor.

Gloria was all smiles as she watched their miserable ending.

Soon, the barrage of attacks from the Paladins had the Three Sages stretched thin.

The Three Sages had extensive knowledge, so they quickly recognized their surroundings.

They were surveying their surroundings when they caught something alive.

Huh? Aren't they the Top Ten of the Holy Guild? Why are all of them tied up here?

They noticed another person who was thin as bones.

Isn't this the traitor from the Medical Guild? What was his name again? It was Bone something.

“Elder!”

A few people up ahead were shouting at the top of their lungs.

With a glimpse in the direction, the Three Sages recognized them quickly.

So everything Levi said was true. There was a terrifying influence within the Ecclesiastic Order pulling the strings from the dark. They were the ones who caught Sonja and the Top Ten.

As they looked around the area more, they even spotted Levi’s God Crusher and the four cornerstones.

Sonja and the rest felt hopeless at the newest captive.

Gloria is incredibly resourceful. Not only did she catch the Top Ten of the Holy Guild but even captured the Three Sages.

“Hi, Three Sages of the North Pavilion!”

A chirpy voice cut through the bleak atmosphere.

Gloria was standing in front of them daintily.
